State Fuel Administrator Prudden Issues Proclamation Ending Fuelless Mondays

NINE HOUR DAYS WILL BE CONTINUED TO MARCH 1ST

Fuelless Mondays are a thing of the past as State Fuel Administrator Prudden has issued a proclamation which lifts the restrictions and all manufacturing plants and business places to open as usual on Mondays. This is welcome news to business industries and merchants in general throughout the state for the enforced idleness on Mondays for the past few weeks has been responible for quite a heavy loss to Michigan business and industrial activities.

The proclamation also lifts all restrictions upon churches and gives an allowance of nine hours a day, instead of six to them; to theaters, but business houses must observe the original 9 hour edict for at least two weeks longer. Under the new ruling the Tuesday closure of theaters is eliminated, and in the future the playhouse may operate nine hours on Tuesday as on other days of the week.

Drug stores are given an extension of hours. They are permitted to be open 12 hours daily instead of 9, but in 3 of these hours their sales must be restricted to drugs and medical supplies.

The proclamation does not in any way refer to lighting of stores, theaters and other places of business and every night must be a "lightless" night until the removal of all conservation orders are authorized. Street lighting is to be conserved as much as possible and absolutely and window lights are to be extinguished.

SMALL-POX

Two More Families Are Contending With the Disease

The families of George Croll and G. W. Sancrant, living about 2½ miles southeast of town, have been in quarantine for small-pox for the past ten days. The disease was brought to them by a friend who came from Monroe for a visit.

The cases have been light and the patients are on the road to recovery. The health officer was called as soon as they realized the nature of the disease and every precaution has been taken to prevent its spread. The children of the district are all being vaccinated as their teacher was one of the victims.

It is to be hoped that no other cases will be heard from. Our physicians are all doing their bit to avert further trouble.

In January 1914 the number of books rciculated was 1829.

In January 1915 the number of books circulated was 2048.

In January 1916 the number of books circulated 2072.

In January 1917 the number of books circulated 2185.

In January 1918 the number of books circulated was 2203.

SUMMING UP THE EVIDENCE

Many Tecumseh People Have Been Called as Witnesses

Week after week has been published the testimony of Tecumseh People—kidney sufferers—backache victims—people who have endured many forms of kidney, bladder or urinary disorders. These witnesses have used Doan's Kidney Pills. All have given their enthusiastic approval. It's the same everywhere. 50,000 American men and women are publicly recommending Doan's—always in the home papers. Isn't it a wonderful, convincing mass of proof? If you are a sufferer your verdict must be "Try Doan's first."

Here's one more Tecumseh case.

Mrs. R. J. McCoy, S. Pearl St., says: "My kidneys were weak and I had dull, nagging backaches and tired easily. I felt run down and languid and my kidneys acted irregularly. I read of Doan's Kidney Pills and got some at Wright & Son's Drug Store. The backache stopped and I felt stronger and better in every way."

Escanaba—Lawrence Gallagher, of this city, a junior lieutenant in the United States navy, now on patrol duty in the submarine zone, has been awarded the French war cross for bravery in pursuit of his duty, according to a letter just received by relatives.

Port Huron—Edward Avers, of Pearl Beach, has moved a 20-room hotel building six miles across the ice of north channel to Pearl Beach. Twelve teams of horses were used, the job being accomplished in two and a half hours. The ice was between two and three feet thick.

Lansing—Among the men of the 37th division whose discharge for physical defects is announced at Camp Pike, Arkansas, are the following Michigan men: Mike Kachor, of Detroit; Walter Schittenhelm, of Grass Lake; Charley DeLong, of Harbor Beach; Steve Shepich, of Crystal Falls.

Sault Ste. Marie—Frances Shaw, 6, and her sister, Goldie Shaw, 4, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William Shaw, of Strongs, near here, were burned to death in a fire which destroyed the family home at that place. The mother had gone to a well to get some water and when she returned to the house it was in flames.

Grand Haven—Grand Haven theatre owners and hundreds of citizens here have lost a fight of months to have the city allow the theatres to open Sundays. Attorney General Groesbeck has ruled the council cannot pass any ordinance allowing theatres to operate Sundays as it is already forbidden by state law. The fight has caused much bitterness.

Rochester—The local schools have opened again as the result of a shrewd trade by Dr. B. C. H. Spencer, village president, with the Grand Trunk railroad. Under the agreement the railroad is allowed to take on water from the local tank in exchange for 40 tons of bituminous coal. The right to take on water here was recently denied the railroad when the supply threatened to become exhausted.

Lansing—Another telephone company wants an increase in rates. In its petition filed with the Michigan railroad commission, it carefully uses the words "alter rates." The company is the Valley Home Telephone Co., and Bay City is the place. The increase sought is set forth as follows: Individual business phones from $30 to $42 a year; party business phone, $26 to $34; individual residence, $20 to $24, and selective residence rent at $18 to $20 a year.

Camp Custer, Battle Creek—Military authorities are waging an aggressive campaign to exterminate a band of Battle Creek bootleggers, who are selling to Custer soldiers at exorbitant prices, a vile concoction labeled "whiskey," and which has the effect of making imbibers temporarily insane. In many cases the bottoms have been removed from bottles containing bonded goods and after the pure liquor is removed the substitute is placed in the container and the bottom replaced.

Charlotte—A committee of Charlotte ladies has been named to ascertain the number of maple trees in the city and the number of buckets that householders can supply. This is the first step in the municipal sugar bush campaign, being waged by the city. A local concern will boil the sap and the sugar will be sold to Charlotte people at cost. Alderman Wilson, acting as head of the movement, says it will result in 5,000 pounds of sugar. Street Commissioner Warren Lohr, an old-time sugar maker, will tap the maples.

Detroit—The Michigan State Fair will again conduct a physical culture body-building contest this year. This competition is to last over a period of six months, starting March 7 and ending on September 7. The contestants must send photograph to Secretary-Manager Dickinson and will be permitted to use their own methods of reducing or building up as may suit their particular cases. The winners will be determined by the point system. The awards will be made at the final judging which will take place at the Fair Grounds on September 7.

Illiteracy Before the War.

It is difficult to make comparisons of illiteracy in France, England, Spain and Portugal, Austria-Hungary and Scotland before the war, because different methods of taking the count are used in the various countries. In giving the percentage of illiteracy in the countries below, there is indicated in the parenthesis the basis on which the computation was made, notes an investigator: Austria, 16.7 (population over eleven years, 1910); England and Wales, 1.8 (marriages, 1901-1910); France, 14.1 (population over ten years, 1906 or 4.1, marriages 1901-1910); Hungary, 33.3 (population over six years, based on number unable to read and write, 1910); Portugal, 68.9 (population over ten years, 1911, based on inability to read); Scotland, 1.6 (marriages 1901-1910); Spain, 58.7 (population over ten years). Except in the cases mentioned, the term illiteracy is used to mean all persons unable to write their own language.

The Cow Won.

An official of the board of health in a Massachusetts town notified a citizen that his license to keep a cow on his premises had expired. In reply to this letter the official received the following communication:

"Monsieur Bord of Helt—I just get your notis that my licens to keep my cow has expire. I wish to inform you, M'sieur Bord of Helt, that my cow she beat you to it—she expire t'ree week ago. Much oblige. Yours with respek.

RESULTS OF SHUTDOWN

Garfield Tells Inside Facts on Workless Mondays.

New York, Feb. 18.—Some hitherto unannounced details of the causes and results of the five-day industrial suspension and heatless Monday order were disclosed here by Fuel Administrator Garfield in an address to the alumni of Williams college. Doctor Garfield praised the people of the United States for the tranquillity with which they met the economic crisis.

As a result of the closing order, Doctor Garfield said, 480 ships, carrying more than 2,000,000 tons of food, fuel and munitions and other war supplies, which had been tied up in Atlantic ports, were bunkered and sent to sea from January 17, the day the order became effective, to January 26. A normal number of ships only remained at anchor, he declared, and the flow of supplies necessary to the American expeditionary forces and the allies had been re-established.

In addition, the fuel administrator continued, the rails were cleared for important shipments of steel and other commodities to factories, without which the most essential war industries inevitably would have been closed, but not in an orderly fashion.

Doctor Garfield called attention to the fact that the nation's foreign commerce had increased from $2,000,000,000 in 1913 to $9,000,000,000, and said there had been placed on the railroads little more than one-half of the number of locomotives needed to care for the increased traffic, the remainder being sent to France and Russia.

Almost without exception, he continued, the manufacture of war material was at its height about the first of last December. Then came the worst weather the country had experienced in 20 years. The railroads found the struggle against overproduction and blizzards too much for them, the administrator said, and some relief was necessary.

Joke Books for Soldiers.

Making joke books for soldiers is the latest form of patriotic industry on the part of those who stay at home. It is said that the plan originated with Rudyard Kipling.

A blank book, preferably with large pages, is first obtained. Upon the pages are pasted the funniest pictures and anecdotes found in current newspapers and magazines. Some bright, short stories are also included.

The books are then sent to army hospitals, where they afford great entertainment to convalescent soldiers. Day after day the books are in steady use until they are worn out.

Surgeons say nothing is so essential in the hospital as to keep the patients in good spirits. Toward this end the joke books are a valuable help.

FROM OUR BOYS IN SERVICE

DR. HAMMELL BUSY IN FRANCE

January 3, 1918

I'm getting used to this life now, and as long as I am warm (we always have more than we can eat) I am as happy as I can be, away from home.

Saturday night my old friend Col. Hancock, who will be Brigadier General soon has invited me to Christmas dinner at his headquarters. They have just come out of the front line trenches and couldn't have their Christmas dinner on December 25th. They are going to have a regular banquet and he said "I was to be the only guest of the regiment and the only American."

Today is the first day that I have dared let my puppy "Cambrai," out doors it has been so cold, I just wish you could see him. He will run out and play a few minutes then run in as fast as his little legs will carry him. (By the way, "Camey" is a little Scotch terrier Dr. H. found in a dugout when he was only about 3 weeks old. He no doubt will attempt to bring the young infant across the Atlantic after the war when he hears that his Bull dog "Pepper Call" died very peacefully a couple weeks ago.)

By the way when you send the papers, slip in a few Detroit papers and be sure to send all the Heralds, you will never know how much those papers mean. If I were with an American unit it would be different, but the only American news I get is through you.

January 6, 1918

Now I must tell you about our dinner last night! I had the best time since I've been in France. When I went into the crowd there were fifty officers and when the Col. spied me he said, "Hello, Doc! Come right here. I'm awfully glad you got here. You are to sit right next to me." So I sat down between the Colonel and the General and I never was more fussed in all my life but I consider it the greatest honor I've ever had in my life. The Colonel will be on leave when I will if I get mine January 31st and he said that he would see I was made an honorary member his club on Pall Mall street London. So that my time spent during my leave would be a pleasant one rather than a lonely one. He is [illegible] all over America and in America he found his wife.

January 10, 1918

A good joke just came off as I was about to start this letter. Everything has been quiet all day when the Boche started a shelling about one half mile from here, then all of a sudden we heard a big noise on our roof and thot it was a "dud" shell (one that did not explode) that had fallen on our roof. When we rushed outside, we found that the cast iron pipe we had for a chimney had fallen down and made the terrible crash! We sure had a good laugh.

I don't think I have ever been so busy as I am now. They keep sending me more men until I have 162 men here now. The British Lieut. Doctor who is here doing the sick parade for me, goes on leave tomorrow so I'll have more than ever to do.

This is a bad war, but "it might be worse." I've never been in a position yet but what I think that things might be worse.

The St. Louis Globe Democrat had a long article about the visit of an army officer to "Tecumseh Cabin." An American Engineer sent it over to me. I'm saving it to bring home. I wouldn't lose it for anything.

I'm getting so I can rattle off quite a lot of French "Jargon."

January 16, 1918

I'm feeling much better again today but spent the last three days in bed. I had a beautiful cold in my head and throat and quite a fever. Now if my "leave" comes along last of the month I'll have a good rest up.

I wrote you a note about an hour ago but I just received order to make a trip around this vicinity tomorrow so I won't be able to write you then.

I found an O'Henry story book, in a deserted dugout and read the story you mentioned as well as a number of others, I also found a victrola record of "The Hawaiian Butterfly" I think it is rather a pretty piece and way over here it surely sounds good.

If you could be "out here" you would be amazed at somethings, and feel mighty bad about some things. No its about six of one and half a dozen of the other. No one knows just what will happen or when peace will ever come.

Up to this date I haven't received all the Christmas boxes you have said you sent me. But surely had many happy surprises, when the last bunch of things came. I am sure I would catch another nice cold if I didn't have my nice scarf and other knitted articles but I am surely anxiously waiting my sweater.

More work in so I must leave you. Miss Ferguson cannot be very far from this sector. I am enclosing her letter for you and know you will enjoy it.

Dr. Hammell.

F. S. Turner, Tecumseh Mich.
Dear Friend:—

Thought I would let you know of my getting "over there" are.

As you probably know I enlisted in the Base Ordnance Corps of France. This department is made up of some of the most skilled mechanics in the country. They were enlisted to go right over into the shops of France, because as everyone knows that is one great weakness of the allied cause. Their inability to keep their locomotives and rolling stock in proper shape. Charles "Nifty" Hanna is also enlisted in the Ordnance Corps, he is in Camp Dodge, DesMoines, Iowa.

We certainly ran into a jumbled up mess in Columbus Barracks, Ohio. These barracks hold about 3,000 men ordinarily and on arriving there we found more like 6,000. It certainly was crowded. You can imagine a bunch of greenhorns thrown together like, not a one of them, you might say that wasn't lost, and everytime one of them asked one of those old time sergeants some foolish question he would jerk their heads off. Of course being all through it once before I got along alright.

We arrived in Camp Grant New Year's morning, about 1 o'clock and after walking four miles we came to the barrack buildings which we are still occupying.

The usual quarantine was placed over us to prevent any spread of disease. It lasted fourteen days and we were given permission to go down town one morning. Something always happens though, about noon a comrade was taken sick and rushed to the hospital. I was just getting ready to leave when an orderly comes around with an order that we are in quarantine again for measles. Gee, but we were a sore bunch.

Camp Grant is located on the banks of the beautiful Rock river 87 miles northeast of Chicago. It is built to hold between 45,000 and 50,000 men nad is under the command of Major General Kennon.

I have been appointed sergeant, on account of my being already a trained man, I suppose.

The most important day in the life of a soldier was yesterday, pay day it is most commonly called. The boys went wild; some had been broke for over a month.

Will write more in the near future.

Very Sincerely
Russel A. Blesing,

Somewhere in France, Jan. 1918.
Dear Mother and All:

I suppose you are wondering why I have not written sooner. Had a fine trip over and was not seasick at all. I am writing this on the transport that brought us over. They feed pretty good on the ship so am all right as long as I can get enough to eat.

It is warmer over here than it is in the states. I can see the green fields from here. I will write more about the country as I see it.

There is a bunch of "coons" aboard and their singing, dancing and playing musical instruments keep the time from becoming dull.

We were thirteen days on the trip and seeing nothing but water all the time gets tiresome and I was sure glad to see land again. I have been on guard on the boat four times and some guard! It is a pretty hard job to keep on the walk with a rifle on your shoulder.

I have not had my feet on French soil but hope to soon as solid ground will feel good again. They are unloading the ship today and I expect we will go ashore pretty soon to go to our training camps which I hope are near Paris as I would like to see that much-talked-of city.

There has been a bunch of small boats running around the boat since we anchored, with Frenchmen jabbering, but they might as well talk South African as I could not understand them anyway. The soldiers throw them pennies and nickels but they pick up the pennies and let the nickels roll off in the water as if they were not worth much. I suppose it will be the same way with us and their money. All I know about their money is that a franc is worth about 18c.

Well, I will close this senseless chatter with my address. I remain your loving son,

Prt. 1 Cl. Gerald M. Kent,

To Boil Eggs by Telephone.

Telephone operators need a sense of humor to make the petty annoyances of their occupation bearable. If they have that, they can find endless matter for amusement in the freakishness of the human nature that exhibits itself at the other end of the wire.

A telephone subscriber asked his operator to ring his bell in three minutes, and immediately hung up his receiver. At the appointed time the supervisor rang on the line, and the subscriber responded merely with "Thank you." Later he called again to thank the operator, and explained that he had been boiling eggs and wanted to time them. They had been cooked to the queen's taste, he said.

"T. R." to Leave Hospital Soon.

New York, Feb. 18.—Colonel Roosevelt is progressing so well that for the first time his physicians assured him if his improvement continued he may go to a hotel by the end of February. Many called during the day but he saw no one but relatives.

RED CROSS NEWS

The Red Cross is bringing out everywhere the very best that is in the community. We like to see others at their best, and so do others like to see us at our best. Precisely that happens when a town or city takes up Red Cross work and organizes its forces for the cause. It awakens that spirit, and affords an outlet for impulses which had not been acted upon before. It brings the people together in the highest form of association, that of common service in unselfish devotion to a great purpose. The lasting benefits of Red Cross work to the community that engages whole-heartedly in it are unquestionably as great as, if not greater than, the aid rendered to the armed forces which the Red Cross serves. For the woman who wishes to help but does not know exactly how, the Red Cross offers what she is seeking. The woman who wishes to have a larger part in the great events of the times than she feels is possible wholly within the four walls of her home, will find it in Red Cross service. A new interest in life awaits the woman of abundant leisure and light tasks who will engage in Red Cross work, while there is also much the woman of limited means and little time to spare from home duties can do for the Red Cross.

The Red Cross denies the privilege of service to none; there is room for all. WILL YOU JOIN US?

The rooms at Red Cross Headquarters are open on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons and evenings of each week.

Mrs. W. B. Hartzog and committee since the last report, have sent to headquarters five (5) dozen and three (3) pair of knitted socks, having received a new supply Monday.

The pajama committee finished 16 suits last week. From January 1st to February 7th, this committee have made 80 suits of pajamas at Headquarters.

Mrs. Hardy is in receipt of the following letter from the Rev. Jas. A. Widdifield with enclosure from the mother of the little French fatherless girl that Mrs. Hardy has adopted, her father having been killed in the war.

"I am sending on to you a letter [illegible] the little one in whom you are interested. I know that you will need no "interprete" and that the letter will be self explanatory."

"Everything is going fine over here and we are as busy as can be. I have been left alone in my Y., but for the last two months, and with the number of men I have it keeps me busy. So many of our secretaries have gone to the hospitals that we have to do the best we can. I am very thankful that it has not been my fate, in fact I have been in better condition than I have for many a year."

"I have had opportunity of seeing a good deal of this section of France on foot and very interestinf it has been, for our particular section is happily one of the very interesting parts of this wonderful country, and one which as tourists we seldom see."

"With kindest remembrances to the doctor,

Your faithfully,
Jsa. A. Widdifield.

Address, Am. Y. M. C. A. 12, Rue d'Aguesseau, Paris, France.

Mrs. Hardy had never before succeeded in getting into direct communication wirh her little French friend and had asked Mr. Widdifield to find her. The folllowing is the translation of her mother's reply, to him.

Dear Sir.

"In the name of my little Simone, I wish to thank you for the present you have transmitted to me. I will also beg you to be my interpreter with Madame J. S. Hardy, the second mother of my daughter, tell her that my dear little one speaks often of her as her "Maman Americain,"

"Excuse her to her beloved benefactress. She is yet too young to be able to write to her herself, but that does not prevent her mother from replacing her in the correspondence, and that as long as I can, I will keep her informed about her life."

"They are yet too young to be able to understand the loss they have sustained in loosing their dear father, but God has wished it that in our Great America, there should be great hearts, who take pity on the misfortunes of our dear orphans."

"Thank you, Monsieur, and thanks a thousand times to the benefactress of my dear little girl.

Receive Monsieur, with my thanks, my most sincere salutations, The Widow Coulais, and her little girls," Streets of the Golden Apple, No. 7, Bordeaux France.

It costs from $3.00 o $5.00 monthly to take charge of a French war orphan; those orphans of France, whose fathers have died for America, as well as France; for every French soldier that falls, an American will have to make good; think of the joy of having your own little French boy or girl. If you wish one, all you have to do is to write to Joseph Bucklin Biship, American Society for the Relief of French War Orphans, 120 Broadway, N. Y. and state whether you wish a boy or a girl, or leave the choice to him.

WILSON DECLARES SHIP STRIKERS ARE AIDING FOE

Hints Union Chief Has Committed Treason by Calling Out Workers.

REFUSES TO MEET LEADER

Tells Hutcheson He Can See Nothing to Gain by Conferring With Him—Arbitrators Must Decide.

Washington, Feb. 18.—President Wilson has telegraphed William L. Hutcheson, general president of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, that he can see nothing to be gained by conferring with him personally about the strike of shipyard carpenters until he has accepted and acted upon the principle that in the present circumstances of the nation no body of men has the right to strike until every method of adjustment has been tried to the limit.

"Giving Aid to the Enemy."

"If you do not act upon this principle," said the president's message, "you are undoubtely giving aid and comfort to the enemy, whatever may be your conscious purpose."

The president's message was sent in reply to one received from Hutcheson saying he had been unable to reach an understanding with officials of the shipping board, but felt that if given an opportunity to lay the matter before the president a solution could be arrived at quickly. It was made public, as follows:

"William L. Hutcheson.
"New York.

"I have received your telegram of yesterday and am very glad to note the expression of your desire as a patriotic citizen to assist in carrying on the work by which we are trying to save America and men everywhere who work and are free.

"A Painful Contrast."

"Taking advantage of that assurance, I feel it to be my duty to call your attention to the fact that the strike of the carpenters in the shipyards is in marked and painful contrast to the action of labor in other trades and places. Ships are absolutely necessary for the winning of this war. No one can strike a deadlier blow at the safety of the nation and of its forces on the other side than by interfering with or obstructing the shipbuilding program.

"All the other unions engaged in this [illegible] have agreed to abide by the decision of the shipbuilding wage adjustment board. That board has dealt fairly and liberally with all who have resorted to it. I must say to you very frankly that it is your duty to leave to it the solution of your present difficulties with your employers and to advise the men whom you represent to return to work at once pending the decision.

No Moral Right to Strike.

"No body of men has the moral right in the present circumstances of the nation to strike until every method of adjustment has been tried to the limit. If you do not act upon this principle you are undobtedly giving aid and comfort to the enemy, whatever may be your own conscious purpose.

"I do not see that anything will be gained by my seeing you personally, until you have accepted and acted upon that principle. It is the duty of the government to see that the best possible conditions of labor are maintained, as it is also its duty to see to it that there is no lawless and conscienceless profiteering and that duty the government has accepted and will perform.

"Will you co-operate or will you obstruct?

(Signed) "WOODROW WILSON."

Washington, Feb. 18.—A list of 27 of the known Tuscania dead made public contained four names not previously reported in the list of American soldiers buried on the Scottish coast. They were:

Chauncey J. Davidson, Anaconda, Mont.; Thomas A. Llewellyn, Scottdale, Pa.; Clifford Norris, New London, Wis.; Leight A. Wright, Hillsdale, Mich.

BOLSHEVIKI RIOT IN CHICAGO

Mob of 4,000 Trotzky Disciples Starts Riot When Russian Mission Holds Mass Meeting.

Chicago, Feb. 18.—Chicago had its first experience yesterday with a bolsheviki audience. It took 15 active policemen to make a mob of 4,000 excited followers of the Trotsky principles understand that Ogden and Kedzie avenues do not form a public square in Petrograd. The policemen had responded to a riot call when the doors of the Douglas Park Auditorium were thrown open at a mass meeting promptly at two o'clock. Members of the Russian mission to the United States were to speak in behalf of stricken Russia. They are seeking funds and clothing and material to re-establish the industries of their country. So eager were the people to get inside the hall that the doors were torn from their hinges and many were cut by falling glass.

Bell Jury Fails to Agree.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 18.—The jury in the election conspiracy trial of Joseph E. Bell, former mayor, and 29 other Indianapolis men, has disagreed, and it was discharged in the United States district court. The jury was out 20 hours. The vote is said to have stood 8 to 4.

GERMANS BOMB U. S. HOSPITAL

Airmen Fail to Hit Structure and No Casualties Are Reported.

YANKEES ESCAPE FOE'S TRAP

Patrol Cut Off by Charged Wires After Having Passed First Line of Entanglements.

With the American Army in France, Feb. 18.—A field hospital in a town within the American line was the target of a German airplane which flew over Friday night and dropped several unusually heavy bombs.

The hospital was not struck and there were no casualties.

The hospital, in which were a number of sick and wounded officers and men, was the building nearest the places where the German airmen dropped two different sets of bombs.

The hospital patients and the residents of the town were severely shaken by the explosions. American anti-aircraft guns engaged the enemy, but without success.

The hospital probably will be moved to a less dangerous spot.

Men Talk of Spies.

Places where the Germans have been tapping the American telephone lines at the front have been discovered and steps have been taken to prevent these occurrences happening again. Insulation has been found scraped off, wires at a certain number of places where the enemy has been listening in.

One enemy wire actually was found attached to an American wire and running across No Man's Land. Just how this was accomplished it is not permitted to disclose, although among the men there is talk of "spy hunts."

Talked to German.

This tapping of wires at times caused considerable temporary inconvenience, fictitious names being used over the telephone lines for places and offices.

American wires frequently have been connected in some way with those of the enemy, and on one occasion an American officer is said to have talked to a German in a listening post when he started to use the telephone. The German made a few terse remarks and then the connection was broken.

U. S. Patrol Escapes Trap.

With the American Army in France, Feb. 18.—An American patrol, having passed the first line of German entanglements and approached the second line last night, was suddenly cut off by a current of electricity along the first wire line. Instead of attempting an immediate return to their trenches [illegible] from electricity or machine gun fire, the Americans clung close to the earth, and later, when the electricity was cut off, returned in safety to their positions.

FIGHTING ON TAHURE FRONT

Berlin, Feb. 18.—Small infantry engagements developed near Cherisy and south of Marcoing, on the Arras front in France, the German war office announced. A number of prisoners were taken by the Germans. Fighting is also reported near Tahure.

(It was in the Tahure sector that American artillerymen assisted in a recent French attack.)

Paris, Feb. 18.—The official statement issued by the French war office said:

"The night was marked by somewhat greater activity of the artillery of each side in the region of Chavignon, east of Reims, and in the Champagne. A German raid at a point east of Auberive was without result. The night was calm on the rest of the front."

London, Feb. 18.—Field Marshal Haig, in his report to the British war office, said:

"A few prisoners were brought in by our patrols during the night northeast of Hargicourt.

"Except for hostile artillery activity in the neighborhood of Passchendaele there is nothing of special interest to report."

U. S. TO CUT COAL PRICE

Fuel Administration Stops Jobbers' 15 Cents Commission—Will End Profiteering.

Washington, Feb. 18.—Reduction in the retail prices of both anthracite and bituminous coal is expected by the fuel administration as the result of a decision announced to eliminate jobbers' commissions after next April 1. Under the new regulations retail dealers will obtain coal at the same price whether purchasing directly from the mine or through jobbers.

Jobbers now are permitted to add to the government price at the mine a commission of 15 cents a ton, but the old practice will be resumed of making the jobbers look to the mine operators for compensation. The mine price will be increased slightly to provide for the operators' added expense, but the advance will not be equal to the commission now allowed the jobbers.

Elimination of jobbers' commissions, the fuel administration announced, was necessary in order to wipe out a systematized form of profiteering.

ROUMANIA IS SEEKING PEACE

Will Treat With Central Powers If They Promise Not to Assail Roumanian Sovereignty.

Amsterdam, Feb. 18.—A Vienna dispatch to the Handelsblad says Roumania is ready to treat for peace with the central powers, provided she is assured they will not assail Roumanian sovereignty. Roumania is willing to cede Dobrudja to Bulgaria, provided she gets "benevolent support" in the Bessarabian question.

GERMANS PREPARE TO ATTACK RUSS

ARMISTICE WILL END TODAY

Lenine and Trotzky Reported Too Busy to Meet Kaiser's Representatives—General Strike On in Warsaw.

Berlin, Feb. 18.—The commissioners representing the central powers left Petrograd and have crossed the German lines, it is announced officially.

The Frankfurther Zeitung says the German government considers the armistice ends today and a state of war between Russia and Germany will be immediately resumed.

The armistice between the Russian and German forces which has been in existence for several weeks on the Russian front will expire at noon today, according to the official statement issued by the German army headquarters staff. The text reads:

"Eastern theater: On the great Russian front the armistice expires at noon tomorrow."

An official statement issued by the German imperial government states that the Petrograd government by its conduct has denounced the armistice which had been in existence on the Russian front. This denouncement is regarded as having occurred February 10.

"In conformity therewith," the official statement says, "the German government must, after a lapse of seven days, give notice of the termination as provided for under the treaty and reserve a free hand in every direction."

Germans Prepare to Attack.

Amsterdam, Feb. 18.—German forces are already being concentrated in Ukraine to attack the bolsheviki, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Tijd. Declarations looking to the active prosecution of the war against the bolsheviki in north Russia also will be made at Berlin this week.

A Russian wireless dispatch received in Rome says Germany has countermanded her transfer of troops from the east to the west front.

Count Czernin, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, has notified Berlin that Austrian troops must not be used against Russia to support any policy which Austria has not approved, but only for purposes of self-defense against marauding bands.

Threaten Wholesale Butchery.

The bolsheviki are making wholesale arrests of Germans in Russia and holding them as hostages, according to a Riga dispatch received by way of Berlin. Three hundred Germans and [illegible] have been arrested and transported to Kronstadt.

All the food in the Dorpat district has been confiscated, and it is almost impossible to feed the German women and children.

The lives of those arrested, as well as Germans and German supporters who have not yet been arrested, are hourly in great danger, adds the dispatch, as the bolsheviki threaten wholesale butchery. The bolsheviki have officially declared the Baltic nobility outlaws. Germany has already served notice on the bolsheviki authorities that she will enforce reprisals if the German prisoners are harmed.

Too Busy to Meet Germans.

Complaint is made in a semi-official note received from Berlin that the German commission in Petrograd is experiencing constantly increasing difficulties. Conversation with the Russian leaders is impossible, it is said, because the Russian authorities, especially Premier Lenine and Foreign Minister Trotzky, declare they are preoccupied with other urgent business and make numerous excuses to retard the discussions.

"After the grave incidents of the last few days," the note adds, "the Russian government has abrogated the recent decision regarding military and civilian prisoners of war. The question seriously arises whether it is wise in the present circumstances for the German commission to remain in Petrograd."

News has been received in Berlin confirming reports that Russia has not begun the demobilization which her representatives at Brest-Litovsk announced had been ordered, according to a dispatch from Berlin to the Weser Zeitung of Bremen.

General Strike in Warsaw.

London, Feb. 18.—A general strike in Warsaw is reported by Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent. The German papers, which admit troops are patrolling the Polish capital, print only brief and unsatisfactory dispatches regarding the situation there.

The Lokal Anzeiger (Berlin) says there is great excitement at Warsaw, Cracow and Lemberg as a result of the Ukraine treaty. The Warsaw newspapers are appearing with black borders. The director of political affairs, Count Rostrvorovski, has resigned.

At Cracow the papers appeal to Polish parties to declare a one-day general strike. A general strike has been called at Lemberg for Monday.

GERMANS FREE U. S. MAN

New Yorker, Who Enlisted in British Army, Gains Freedom After Long Imprisonment.

The Hague, Feb. 18.—Lieut. Henry Grayson Martin of 291 North Fifth avenue, New York, has arrived here with the latest party of British officers released from German bondage to enjoy the hospitality of Holland. As a civilian he volunteered with the British army August 5, 1914, and joined the intelligence corps. He was appointed to the staff in France and was captured by the Germans near Ypres October 15 of that year. Since then he has been in 11 German prison camps.

Praises U. S. Troops.

New York, Feb. 18.—"I never saw more splendid fellows," said Rev. Clarendon L. Worrell, archbishop of Halifax, N. S., speaking here of American troops he had seen passing through Canada en route to France.

It is with a good deal of pleasure that we announce the new Eagles band which is being organized here in Tecumseh. Tecumseh has long felt the need of a band and it has been more or less humiliating to us in years past to have to go outside to neighboring towns for a band when we have been in need. For the past three years we have had Bargain Day entertainments upon our street and in almost every case an outside band has been hired to furnish the music. There is plenty of material here for a good band and with hard work, the organization ought to be far enough along by summer to deliver the goods. Sixteen musicians were out to the last rehearsal and it is hoped to increase the number of musicians to at least twenty-four.

A band, however, will not be a success without the support of the people. It is hoped to make the organization, as far as possible, self-sustaining. The Eagle Lodge is backing it up and will be able to help largely in a financial way, but if the new Tecumseh Band is to be a success and a permanetn asset to Tecumseh it must receive the backing and help of the whole tow.n

In days gone by Tecumseh has pointed with pride to her bands. She has had many that have been prize winners and have competed at State Band Tournaments, once winning the first prize at a tournament held at Lansing. We certainly hope that laurels may be won again in the future by a Tecumseh band.

A few weeks ago one of our soldier boys was brought back home for burial and Tecumseh, always willing and proud to do her duty, scurried around to round up musicians and a marching squad to give her honored dead some semblance of a military funeral. Thanks to the efforts of our village president and our patriotic citizen Gen. F. B. Wood, a small bunch of musicians were rounded up with a small firing squad who accompanied the remains of our soldier boy to his last resting place and gave him in a small way the military honors to which he was entitled.

The Eagle Lodge are also planning on forming a marching squad to be organized for military drill and, while many of their members have expressed a willingness to join the squad, still its membership will not be confined to members of the Eagle Lodge alone but an invitation will also be extended to patriotic citizens of the village to enlist in the effort to create an efficient and up-to-date marching squad for Tecumseh. It is a worthy undertaking and will be a credit to Tecumseh and the lodge who planned it.

These are military times and patriotism is running high in every nook and corner of our country. It should be so if we are to win this war, it must be so. Let Tecumseh be in the fore ranks in the list of towns who have a good band and a well equipped marching squad for we will have need of both organizations many times in the future.

Back furrow, 10 points. Back slightly raised and all trash covered.

Furrows with uniform top line, 15 points. Furrows without breaks or depressions. Top of furrow may be slightly ridged.

Width of furrows, 15 points. Uniform as compared with one another.

Depth of furrows, 10 points. Uniform and within the limits specified for the contest.

Knew His Bible.

On board a steamer "somewhere on the Atlantic" a seasick soldier boy was having a session at the rail when an officer came along.

"Hello! What's that you're doing?" said the officer mockingly.

"I'm rendering unto the sea, sir, the things that are the sea's, sir," gasped the soldier as soon as he could speak.

Why Not Wear a Sign?

Pat, being on his holidays, was one day strolling through the streets of New York, when he saw the figure of a man standing before a shop. There was a card pinned to the man's coat on which was written, "Reduced to $5."

Pat somewhat carelessly approached the figure and exclaimed: "Begorra, sir, you're safe enough; I'm reduced to 80 cents."

EXPENSE OF TRACTOR WORK

One acre of ground can be tractor plowed 6 inches deep on 2¼ gallons of kerosene and one-eighth gallon of lubricating oil.

This was demonstrated in a two-day tractor plowing test conducted recently at Iowa State college by the agricultural engineering department. The complete results of the test represent probably the most comprehensive data on tractor plowing operations that have been worked out by any college.

Tractor in Operation.

It took one hour and seventeen minutes to plow an acre. The length of furrows was 548 feet. Dead furrows were 300 feet apart. Because of the shortness of the field one-sixth of the time was spent in turning.

A tractor pulling three 14-inch plows was used. The average rate of speed was 2.25 miles per hour; average draw bar pull 1,677 pounds, horsepower developed 10.06. It took 10 hours and 24 minutes to plow 8.14 acres. The field was level.

The total cost of plowing an acre is figured at $1.60. This is figured on the basis of kerosene costing 10 cents a gallon, lubricating oil 32 cents a gallon; operator's time 50 cents an hour; interest, depreciation and repairs, 69.8 cents per acre.

Robert Burns Never Went To School, but Read and Wrote at Very Early Age

Robert Burns, the "patron saint" of Scotland, and undoubtedly one of the world's greatest poets, never went to school, relates London Tit-Bits. His father, although his income probably never exceeded the proverbial forty pounds a year, was a man of exceptional intelligence and a great reader, and the future poet of "The Cottar's Saturday Night" could himself read the Bible at an early age, and was writing verses when most boys are learning multiplication. It is quite possible that had Burns had great advantages instead of great reverses and hardships he would not have developed his peculiar gifts.

Perhaps, the greatest of Lloyd-George's predecessors never went to school. This was Pitt the younger, the marvelous boy who talked on equal terms with the greatest men of his day at fourteen, and was prime minister at the age of twenty-four, when the average young man is just beginning to earn his bread and butter. But Pitt had the advantage of a home education which would put the best schools in the shade.

Only Black Spot About the Polar Bear Is Tip of Nose

It has been pointed out that were a polar bear of a darker color, it would have no chance at all to stalk its prey, especially seals. The only black spot about it is the tip of its nose, writes Edwin Tarrisse. Sailors who first landed on the unexplored Arctic shores stated that the bears used to take them for seals and begin to stalk them at a considerable distance, lying down flat on their bellies and wriggling along in that position until they came to an ice hummock, when they would get up, peer over to see whether the "seals" were alarmed, and wriggle on again.

The sailors said that they could always see the black nose when the bear got near, but vowed that the animal put its paw over its muzzle to hide it.

Our National Songs.

The United States has three songs which serve on occasions as national songs, but by historic associations and common consent one stands first, observes a writer. This is the "Star-Spangled Banner," written in 1814 by Francis S. Key of Maryland, while the British were bombarding Fort Henry, near Baltimore, and when the Americans did not know at what moment the fort might be captured or the flag shot down. While it has never been officially adopted as a national song the circumstances under which it was written and its universal popular approval cause it to stand pre-eminent. The other songs of a national character, but not so stirring or so popular are "Hail Columbia," written by Joseph Hopkinson, in 1788, and "America," by Samuel F. Smith, a Baptist preacher and poet, in 1832. The "Star-Spangled Banner" easily holds first place.

One of the Meanest Men.

A lady who went to join her husband in his new western home was surprised to find that among the young ladies of the place he had the reputation of being "the meanest man ever was." Wishing to know the reason, she asked a bevy of damsels one day, when one of them spitefully replied: "Because he came out here looking spruce and young, and went on till all the girls got interested in him, and then he up and sent for you. And that was the first we knew that he was married! Mean? I guess so!"

BUYING EWES FOR BREEDING

Not Profitable in Starting of Flock to Purchase Old Animals—Adopt Culling System.

Be cautious in buying the breeding ewes. It does not pay in the starting of a flock to buy old ewes. If there is an advantage to be had in getting all there is in animal breeding service, surely it is important in the starting of the flock. It is also important to adopt a system of culling out each year. The same may be applied in the produce of the flock. It is usual to produce some females that are not up to the standard of the flock. Every flock should be bought, bred and culled in view of establishing uniformity in quality and appearance. There is something in personal appearance, even among animals, that is fascinating in the eye of the breeder and admirer.

CROPS DESTROYED BY SMUT

Few Cents' Worth of Formaldehyde and Little Labor Will Save Much Wheat and Rye.

It is estimated that 3½ per cent of the wheat crop and 1 per cent of the rye crop is destroyed by smut—probably about 27,500,000 bushels loss a year on the average. When a few cents' worth of formaldehyde and a little labor will save a man his share of this loss, it is hard to see how he can afford not to go to the trouble rather than lose 35 bushels of his wheat out of every 1,000.

Austria Cuts Beer Output.

Berne, Feb. 18.—The output of beer in Austria has been reduced to 8 per cent of the peace-time production, according to an official order.

Government Lessons Reach Millions of the Boys and Girls in United States

"Machine industry and community life are the special themes in the series of lessons on the war, recently issued by the United States bureau of education, department of the interior, and now being studied by a million or more school boys and girls of all grades throughout the nation.

The bureau's series of lessons on "Community and National Life," as they were termed by President Wilson in his original announcement to the schools, have now reached their third issue. Recent issues dealt with the organization of modern industrial life as compared with pioneer days, the effect of war on commerce in nitrate, the war and airplanes, production and wise consumption, and similar topics. The idea of teaching the principles of conservation underlying successful prosecution of the war originated with the food administration, but the plan has now been taken over by the bureau of education. Prof. Charles H. Judd of the University of Chicago, with the assistance of a corps of writers in the various fields, is preparing these government texts for the pupils in the elementary and high schools.

Parents as well as pupils will be interested in the lessons. The older high-school students will learn of the rise of the machine industry, from the day of the hand loom and the spinning jenny through the chances wrought by the industrial revolution, to the large-scale productions, world markets, and social problems of modern industry. The various elements of cost in factory operating, education as encouraged by industry, the contribution of the press, are also treated in the lesson for older pupils.

BACK YARD POULTRY KEEPING

If the best results are to be expected from the flock, the hens must not be allowed to become overrun with lice or the house with mites. Usually there will be a place in the yard where the hens can dust themselves in the dry dirt. If such a place is not available, a box large enough (about two feet square) for the hens to get into it should be provided in the house and a quantity of dust such as ordinary road dust or fine dirt placed in it to allow the hens a place to dust themselves. A dust bath aids the hens in keeping lice in check and therefore adds to their comfort. Usually the lice are not present on the birds in sufficient number to prove particularly harmful. However, it is better to keep the hens as free as possible from this pest, and if they are not able to keep them in check by dusting themselves, other measures can be undertaken.

To rid the hens of lice, each one can be treated by placing small pinches of sodium fluorid, a material which can be obtained at most large drug stores, among the feathers next to the skin—one pinch on the head, one on the neck, two on the back, one on the breast, one below the vent, one at the base of the tail, one on either thigh, and one scattered on the underside of each wing when spread. Another method is to use a small quantity of blue ointment, a piece about as large as a pea on the skin one inch below the vent. If mercurial ointment is used instead of blue ointment, it should be diluted with an equal quantity of vaseline. Any of these methods will be found very effective in ridding the hens of lice and should be employed whenever the lice become troublesome. Two or three applications a year usually prove sufficient.

Mites are more troublesome and more harmful than lice. They do not live upon the birds like the lice, but during the day hide in the cracks and crevices of the roosts and walls of the house, and at night they come out and get upon the fowls. They suck the hen's blood, and if allowed to become plentiful—as they certainly will if not destroyed—will seriously affect her health, and consequently her ability to lay eggs. They may be eradicated by a few thorough applications of kerosene or some of the coal-tar products which are sold for this purpose, or crude petroleum, to the interior of the poultry house. The commercial coal-tar products are more expensive but retain their killing power longer, and they may be cheapened by reducing with an equal part of kerosene. Crude petroleum will spray better if thinned with one part of kerosene to four parts of the crude oil. Both the crude petroleum and the coal-tar products often contain foreign particles, so should be strained before attempting to spray. One must be sure that the spray reaches all of the cracks and crevices, giving especial attention to the roosts, dropping boards and nests.

Wise and Otherwise.

Self-inspection is a sure cure for self-esteem, it is said.

AN OFFICIAL STORY TELLER

In several of the public libraries of Canada story telling to children has for some years been a special feature, says an exchange. Each Saturday morning from fifty to one hundred children assemble at the library in a room set apart for the purpose and called the "Children's Room." The ages of the children vary from six to fourteen years.

At St. John, New Brunswick, story telling has been continued now for three years. This year it has been found advisable to divide the children according to age and to hold two classes of half an hour each. The work has steadily grown in interest, and the demand for books of a less trivial type justifies the work of the committee in charge. During the summer, when opportunity offers and a story-teller of note is a guest of the city, notice is given to the library, and it is often possible to have a special session.

"HELP WIN THE WAR"

National Implement Inspection and Repair Week March 4 to 9, 1918

Save Expensive Delays and Transportation Charges and Help in the Big Drive for Greater Food Production

If maximum crops are to be raised all farm machinery likely to be used this year, must be put in good repair so as to avoid delays in the field.

The week of March 4 to 9, inclusive, has been designated as National Implement Inspection and Repair Week, and the farmers of the United States are urged to inspect their implements and place orders for needed repairs that week.

The great difficulty of securing malleable and steel parts, which renders it impossible for dealers to carry the usual repair stocks, together with the delays in transportation, render it necessary to place orders for your repair requirements early.

The warning has been given, do not fail to heed it by putting off ordering your repairs until the day you want to use the implement.

The Food Administration of the Department of Agriculture and the Councils of Defense give sanction to this movement.

You will be performing an act of loyalty by heeding this appeal and acting promptly.

Preparedness is a Necessity.

AND NOW THEY ARE COOKING TOBACCO TO MAKE IT BETTER

For a good many years The American Tobacco Company have been conducting a series of experiments having as their object the improvement of smoking tobaccos.

And it is interesting to know that one of the greatest of their discoveries was one of the simplest, and that was, that cooking or toasting tobacco improved it in every way, just as cooking most foods improves them.

They took a real Burley tobacco, grown in this country; toasted it as you would toast bread; moistened it to replace the natural moisture driven off by toasting; made it into cigarettes, called them "LUCKY STRIKE, the toasted cigarette," and offered them to the public.

The result has been the greatest demand ever created for any tobacco product in a similar length of time.

The change produced by toasting is not only most wholesome, but the flavor is greatly improved, just as cooking improves meat, for example.

AIRPLANE ROUTE TO SWEDEN

Trelleborg and Sassnitz to Be the Termini of the Proposed Line Connecting With Germany.

The following bulletin on Trelleborg and Sassnitz, the termini of the proposed Swedish-German airplane route, which assumes special significance in the light of recent developments in the diplomatic relations between Germany and Sweden, has been issued by National Geographic society.

Between Trelleborg, the most southerly town in the Kingdom of Sweden, and Sassnitz, a summer resort on the northeastern shore of the German island of Rugen, express steamers in times of peace make regular trips across this arm of the Baltic in four hours. This is the chief water link in the 24-hour express service between Stockholm and Berlin. Neither town would be of any importance were it not for the fact that they are the termini of this steamer service.

Trelleborg is a quaint old town of some 10,000 inhabitants, lying 20 miles southeast of Malmo, capital of Skane, teh most populous province in all Sweden. It is only 16 miles from Malmo to the Danish capital, Copenhagen.

Sassnitz is one of several popular seaside resorts on the Island of Rugen, the largest insular possession of Germany, having an area about equal to that of Cape Cod. Only about 2,500 people make Sassnitz their permanent home, but during the bathing season in times of peace the village is visited annually by more than 20,000 pleasure seekers.

The water trip from Trelleborg to Sassnitz is 60 miles. Thus the rail-and-steamer distance between Stockholm and Berlin is 415 miles.

SALMON THRIVE IN ATLANTIC

Humpbacked Variety From Pacific Coast Retain Their Habits When Placed in Eastern Waters.

Many thousands of humpback salmon, native to the Puget sound, where they were collected by the government two years ago, entered Pembroke, Denrys, Penobscot, St. Croix and other rivers in eastern Maine as part of the fisheries bureau plan of stocking the east with the pride of the Pacific coast catch.

The bureau's investigation shows that the humpback in its new environment retains its Pacific coast habit of proceeding to the ocean shortly after it begins to swim and returning to the rivers to spawn and die when two years old.

The government has made annual shipments of eggs of the humpback salmon across the continent for the last five years, drawing the consignments alternately from Washington and Alaska.

LUXURY TRADE TO END SAYS SELFRIDGE, LONDON

Big British Merchant Predicts Only Necessities Can Be Sold Soon

Lauds English Women

New York, Feb. 8.—The retail merchants of the United States were told by H. Gordon Selfridge, the London drygoods merchant, that they would soon have to realize that the "luxury trade" must cease. He said it had been eliminated abroad long ago. It would be possible, he pointed out, for merchants "to get and handle the necessities" and declared that "along this line business must be conducted during the war."

Mr. Selfridge spoke at the annual convention of the National Drygoods Association here.

The reduction of English man power for home industries was illustrated by Mr. Selfridge when he said that 1004 men from his establishment had been called into war service. Their places have been filled in part by maimed and mutilated soldiers, but mostly by women.

The women, Mr. Selfridge said, are "carrying on" with "quiet dignity and 100 per cent. patriotism. Never again will there be men elevator conductors in England—it is a woman's job. In fact, many lines of work usually done by men wil never again be done by men."

In England, he said, when a man joins the colors if he has a wife and children, his employer sees to it that they are properly cared for. The soldier then is able to attend to the business of fighting with an easy mind.

"It is the duty of American merchants to do as much," Mr. Selfridge asserted.

Mr. Selfridge told how English merchants helped the sale of war bonds and thrift stamps by offering premiums. Thru this system, he said, his establishment was enabled to dispose of $17,000,000 worth of British war bonds in less than nine days.

Among the most important developments in England because of the war was the disappearance of the former snobbish attitude toward business by those not engaged in it, the speaker declared.

"To say of a Briton, whether a duchess conducting a charitable work, or a newsboy selling his papers, that either is businesslike, is to pay the highest compliment," he said.

Selfridge Crossed the Ocean to Make Important Speech

Harry Gordon Selfridge has written a book called "The Romance of Trade," which puts him in the ranks of authors. John Lane published it and copies are on their way to this country. It's rather wonderful that anyone carrying on a big business in London and going back and forth to the continent during this great war, should find time for writing a book.

Mr. Selfridge was a breezy visitor for twenty-four hours in Chicago last week. He was staying with his in-laws, the Frank Chandlers, and for an hour or two circled round in a motor to see old Lake Geneva and Chicago friends. What he said about the war quite thrilled everybody, especially the poitical end of it.

And Mr. Selfridge's reasons for coming over were rather thrilling, too, and flattering to him, no end. It seems some New York bankers and merchants asked him to come to New York and make a speech at a banquet. Mr. Selfridge declined, saying that the times were too strenuous for banquets, also the ocean trip.

A day or so later Lord Northcliffe, representing the British government asked Mr. Selfridge, as a personal favor to go to New York, make his speech, etc., in order to have a fuller understanding between the merchants of Great Britain and the United States.

Young Harry Selfridge is now learning figgers in the Bank of London, as schools and colleges are out in England. And the handsome boy is also learning German — which seems rather an odd thing to be taking at this time. But Mr. Selfridge thinks that it's just as well that his son should know what the Huns are saying and writing in the days to come.

And, by the way in all his Atlantic crossings Mr. Selfridge says the one over was the roughest, stormiest, awfulest, most uncomfy and disagreeable one he ever experienced.

—Chicago Record Herald.

The above clippings in regard to Harry W. Selfridge, the big London merchant, will be of interest to many in Tecumseh as he spent a number of years in our schools, living with his uncle Hon. B. L. Baxter. His mother Mrs. Lotie Selfridge lived here for some time and has many warm friends here.

WAR SAVING STAMPS

The machinery by which the purchase of a Thrift Stamp or a War Savings Stamp is to be made as easy and convenient as the purchase of a spool of thread or a pound of nails, in every community in the United States, is rapidly being established. Already 185,000 War Savings Stamp Agencies have been established and by the close of January this number will have been increased by 350,000.

In addition to these agencies there will be 1,000,000 "sales stations," which do not receive direct authorization to make the sales from the Secretary of the Treasury, but obtain their stamps from authorized agents and sell them over their counters at their cashiers' windows, and other places.

Fifty thousand post offices now have War Savings Stamps on sale and 29,000 banks and 8,000 individual firms and corporations have been appointed agents. Nine thousand interstate corporations having places of business in several Sates will constitute 115,000 additional agencies.

An intense campaign is now on for the establishing of War Savings societies which can be organized by 10 or more personsin anycommunity school, club, church, factory or office and can be affiliated with the National War Savings Committee at Wahington upon application.

Why We Use Lime

A perfect soil does not exist.

The aim of the farmer is to increase crop production.

This can be done by Crop Rotation, Improved Tillage, or by using fertilizer, manure or lime.

CAUSES OF SOIL ACIDITY

Decay of organic matter.
Chemical changes in the soil.
Lack of lime in the soil.

Acid turns blue litmus paper red.

Take hold of the end of the strip of litmus paper with dry hands and place between two sheets of paper. Break open a clod of earth and place the papers between; after a few minutes examine the litmus paper; if it has turned pink or red the soil is acid and you need lime; if the paper is blueish, the soil is natural.

KINDS OF LIME

The kinds of lime that are used for soil upbuilding are Limestone Meal, Quick Lime or Slacked Lime.

Limestone Meal furnishes the desired qualities for soil, using it heavily will not damage the soil by burning as Quick or Slacked lime does.

Hydrated lime should not be used, as it burns vegetation.

The growth of almost all vegetables, grains, and grasses is restrained by soil acidity and benefited by limestone meal.

Alfalfa and all clover crops invariably need large quantities at lime, and big earnings are made by using it liberally.

The best time to apply PRYAMID Limestone Meal is directly after plowing and it should be mixed immediately with the soil. However many farmers are top-dressing their meadows during fall and winter with good results.

If you use lime in conjunction with manure or fertilizer, use lime afterwards by itself.

The best way to distribute it is with a lime-sower; however a manure-spreader with some straw in the bottom will answer.

2000 pounds Hydrated Lime costs per ton about	$12.00
2500 pounds PYRAMID Lime needed for the same results costs at $3.50 per ton	4.88
Net saving to you	$7.62

This PYRAMID lime is quick acting, as fine as meal, and will give you entire satisfaction.

Sacks are high priced, get your lime from the car at your nearest shipping point. Cars are very scarce and lime users are many, if you want lime early, talk it over with your neighbor and get in touch with us. A special price will be made you by the carload, the average car holds about 40 tons.

TECUMSEH TO HAVE A BAND

To Be Called "Eagle's Band Will Receive Help and Backing from the Eagle Lodge

Tecumseh for the past few years has been without a band and whenever the town needed one they were forced to go outside for one. The Eagle Lodge have been planning for a band for some little time back and last season gave a minstrel show. The proceeds, some $85.00, were laid aside to create a fund for the new band.

At a recent meeting of the lodge the matter took on a definite form and a committee on management was appointed, consisting of William Barrett chairman, Levi Hayden and William Eccles. This committee got busy at once and engaged Charles Skinner as band master. Sixteen musicians were rounded up and almost all the needed instruments have been provided for.

Mr. Skinner got the boys together for a practice Sunday afternoon and meetings for practice will be held each Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock sharp. For the present the meetings will be held at Witherell Hall. The boys will meet at the same place on Sunday afternoons.

There is plenty of material here for a good band and, with some hard work on the part of the boys, there is no reason why Tecumseh can't come back to her own with one of the best bands in this section of the country.

WIND DESTROYS BUILDING ON THE BEN ROBERTS FARM

The severe wind of last week played havoc at the farm of Ben Roberts who lives north and west of Tecumseh.

Mr. Roberts had just completed a fine new hen house 120 feet long and upon this the wind seemed determined to wreck vengence. A section of the roof was blown off and carried 30 rods away. Luckily Mr. Roberts had not put his birds in the new house so suffered no loss from this source.

ANOTHER "MILLS" IN THE SERVICE

There can be no doubt that the family of A. W. Mills is thoroughly imbued with the spirit of loyalty. Miss Zillah is the fourth of the family to enter the service for Uncle Sam.

MRS. NANNIE WILCOX

The remains of Mrs. Nannie Wilcox, daughter of Mrs. Anna McClellan of Tecumseh, were brought here from Allegan today for burial in Brookside cemetery.

ISAAC SMITH

Isaac Smith passed away Saturday, Feb. 16, 1918, at 10:30 p. m. at his home west of town, after an illness extending over four weeks. The immediate cause of death was a stroke of paralysis on Thursday of last week from which he never rallied.

He leaves his wife and one daughter Mildred living at home, to mourn his loss.

Isaac Smith was born May, 21st, 1853, on the farm owned by his father 1½ miles west of Macon, and has spent most of his life in and around Macon. He was married to Mary E. Camburn in Tecumseh March 10, 1881. Most of his married life has been spent on their farm southeast of Macon where he had many friends and was highly respected. About three years ago he sold his farm and bought the Griswold farm west of town. Mrs. E. M. Camburn, his only sister, passed away about four years ago.

The funeral was held from the home this (Tuesday) morning at 10 o'clock, Dr. Balmer of the M. E. church officiating. Burial in the Macon cemetery.

FOR THE GOOD OF THE CAUSE

A very fine piece of work was on display in the window of the 5 and 10c store Saturday, being an afghan knit by the Young Ladies Class of the Baptist Sunday-school. There are 63 blocks 8 x 8 inches, knit of all colors of yarn and all kinds gathered in by the young ladies who have raveled stocking caps, socks and anything they could get for yarn.

The blocks are varied. One has the Red Cross, another a flag and still another the name of the class upon it. The ladies are sending it to Miss Anna Ferguson for use in her hospital work.

This class has done much Red Cross work at their own expense, have knitted two complete outfits and a number of pairs of socks and wristlets, and are still busy having two afghans on the way. They also spend one evening each week at the Red Cross rooms doing surgical work, and in every way possible are striving to do their bit for our soldiers.

WHO WILL GET THE PONY?

"Who will get the pony?" This is a live question with Tecumseh's "Young America" and a right lively strife is going on among the boys and girls here. For the past few weeks eight of our merchants have been passing out pony votes with each 5c purchase made at their store. The name of the purchaser's favorite boy or girl is written on the vote and deposited in ballot boxes, which are located at each store in the contest. These ballots are left undistributed until the last day, March 12th and in the afternoon of this day after the close of business the boxes will be opened and the ballots counted by the counters. The boy or girl receiving the larger number of votes wins the pony. A saddle and bridle goes with the pony. The pony is already town and has been seen many times on our streets. At present it is being cared for by Harold McCann.

The stores or business houses giving pony votes are:

F. D. Avery,
Graebners Shoe House
Guy E. Belding
K. A. Braman
Nevison's Bakery
Hayden Milling Co.
Albert Clark
Royal Theatre.

MAGICIAN SHOW OPENS HERE WEDNESDAY

The Great Blackstone to Appear at Bradley Opera House this week

For the week's attraction the Bradley management has secured the great Blackstone, world's master magician for Wednesday and Thursday, February 27 and 28. See ad on page 3 for prices etc.

Blackstone is heralded far and wide by both press and public of other cities as America's greatest magician and during his engagement here is expected to create a sensation with the many marvelous illusions and feats offered by his lengthy program.

This production carries the largest magical equipment of illusions and paraphernalia on tour ever offered by any past magician and without a doubt is the most stupendous performance ever given to the American public in the line of magic. Owing to his large program of offerings a change of features will be given at each nights performance. This engagement will be played at popular prices.

An exchange clipping has the following to say of Blackstone's wonderful performance:

"From the time he makes his first appearance on the stage and a white dove flies over the audience from seemingly nowhere until his final great hypnotic act, the magician never failed one moment to please and enthrall his audience and each succeeding illusion seemed more wonderful than the last. He produces great masses of roses from the air, shoots a canary from a paper bag into its cage, captures two fluttering doves from the front of the stage with a dip net, draws out flags of all nations from a thin piece of white paper on which is a map and when he reaches Turkey pulls out a great white turkey, and from America a dainty slip of a girl, and all the time the paper can be seen from all sides and is only the thickness of a newspaper. He finds live rabbits in all sorts of impossible places and the tricks he does with cards are marvelous. He also has a magic hand that answers all sorts of questions by rapping on a table, and a great trunk act that is astounding.

MAGICIAN'S SHOW IS WELL WORTH SEEING

An exchange from the "Toledo News-Bee" speaks well of Blackstone, coming to the Bradley Opera House this week Wednesday and Thursday, February 27-28:

Alladin with his wonderful lamp, the magician whose feats the ancient Arabians were proud to relate, will have to take a back seat in the gallery for Blackstone, the master magician, who played his initial performance in Toledo to a fair sized audience at the Auditorium Sunday night.

Completely mystifying committees of investigators sent to the stage from the audience, Blackstone's tricks of magic went over big. The magician's wit, grace and quick work brought laughs and shouts of approval. The repertoire includes many tricks never before seen in Toledo. The audience was not merely entertained, but immensely amused by the original humor Blackstone put into his art. He does no ttake his audience or his work too seriously. This is why he made a hit. It is a show well worth seeing. Blackstone and his company will be here all of this week.

British Labor Leader Coming to United States

William J. Thorns, M. P., noted British labor leader who, according to an English newspaper, will come to this country as a member of a labor delegation which will soon leave England.

Kitchen Soldiers.

Kitchen soldiers are the latest experiment in practical patriotism. Good Housekeeping, in co-operation with the United States food administration, is conducting the enlistment. In the magazine appears this pledge, which women are urged to sign:

"I, the member of the household intrusted with the handling of food, do hereby enlist as a kitchen soldier for home service and pledge myself to waste no food and to use wisely all food purchased for this household, knowing that by so doing I can help conserve the foods that must be shipped to our soldiers and our allies."

This is a movement for the woman who is actually dealing in the food of American homes. Employers and employees are urged to join the forces. A soldier may be one who fights just with her brain or one who fights by doing with her hands the work of women in this crisis. She may be one whose ancestors have lived here for generations or she may be one whose parents have seen war's horrors pass their very door abroad, whose brothers bear the arms of England, or France, or Italy, or Russia, or any other allied country. Once you have enlisted as a kitchen soldier, your kitchen is your battlefield.

RUSS LEADERS ACCEPT KAISER PEACE TERMS

Lenine Asserts Demoralized Bolsheviki Army Refuses to Fight.

GERMANS ARE NEAR REVAL

Berlin Says Russians Are Offering Resistance to the Germans at Some Points—Several More Towns Captured.

Petrograd, Feb. 25.—Petrograd was placed under martial law on Saturday in consequence of the declaration of a state of siege six of the most important Petrograd newspapers, which opposed the authority of the workmen's and soldiers' delegates, have been suppressed. If attempts are made to reissue them the entire staffs will be arrested. The proprietors are ordered to pay full wages to the workmen during the period of suppression.

London, Feb. 25.—Germany's peace terms have been accepted by Nikolai Lenine, the bolsheviki premier, and Leon Trotzky, foreign minister. Lenine asserts the demoralized and retreating Russian bolsheviki army refuses absolutely to fight.

Russ Fight Germans.

Berlin, Feb. 25.—At some points the Russians are offering resistance to the Germans, the war office reports. The advance of the Germans is said to have been continued successfully. They are approaching the port of Reval, on the Gulf of Finland, and have captured several towns, taking about 2,000 more prisoners. The communication follows:

"In Esthonia our troops, who everywhere are greeted with joy by the population, pressed forward in forced marches, notwithstanding the snow-covered roads, and defeated the enemy, who resisted at some points. They are approaching Reval.

Save Town From Fire.

"At the capture of Walk (Livonia) on Friday a squadron of hussars by spirited attacks saved the town before the enemy could destroy it by fire. We captured 1,000 prisoners and liberated 1,600 German and Austro-Hungarian war prisoners. Small detachments thrust forward as far as Ostrov and overcame the resistance of the enemy there.

"Saxon troops took 1,000 prisoners at Ballinavo (40 miles east of Dvinsk). Our troops advancing from Minsk occupied Borisoff (45 miles northeast of Minsk).

Now 100 Miles From Kiev.

"The operations begun by the army group of General von Linsingen for the support of Ukrainia are being carried out as planned. German troops entered Iskorost. (The rapidity of the German advance is shown by the occupation of Iskorost, 115 miles northeast of Rovno, the capture of which by the Germans was announced last Thursday. The Germans now are within about 100 miles of Kiev.) A train entering Shepetovka (50 miles southeast of Rovno) with Great Russian troops was held up. The troops were disarmed."

Trotzky Talks War.

London, Feb. 25.—If peace is not brought about the Russians will fight to a finish, Leon Trotzky, the Russian foreign minister, is quoted as having said in an interview with the Petrograd correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph company.

Roumania to Lose Land.

Informal peace negotiations with Roumania were begun at Castle Bufftea, near Bucharest, according to advices reaching diplomatic circles at The Hague, as transmitted in an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from that point.

The terms of the central powers are said to include territorial acquisitions for Bulgaria and economic preferences for Germany and Austria.

Premier Averesco of Roumania will consult King Ferdinand at Jassy, for which purpose a few days of grace were given by the representatives of the central powers.

U. S. FLYER DIES IN FRANCE

New Yorker Attacked by Four Enemies While Over the German Lines.

Paris, Feb. 25.—Edward J. Loughran of New York, flying on the French front in a French squadrille, was killed in an aerial combat. Loughran went across the German lines and was attacked by four machines. He flew back to the French lines, where he fell to earth and was dead when found. He was buried near Chalons in the presence of the members of the Lafayette squadron.

Tons of Food Lost in Wreck.

Chicago, Feb. 25.—Traffic was resumed past the Congress Park station on the Burlington. In a freak wreck a freight train piled up for two blocks when one of the cars lost its truck, buckled and wrecked 30 cars behind it. Hundreds of tons of food and fuel blocked the three main tracks. Wrecking crews worked 24 hours clearing the debris.

RED CROSS SHIP WRECKED IN GALE; MANY LIVES LOST

CARRIED 77 PASSENGERS

Some of the Persons Aboard Stranded Ship May Be Saved by Rescue Vessels Which Have Arrived on the Scene.

New York, Feb. 25.—Some of the persons aboard the stranded Red Cross steamer Florizal probably will be saved. This hope was drawn from a number of messages received here saying a large number of rescue ships had arrived on the scene.

Six bodies have been washed ashore, four of whom have been identified. One is that of Purser Snow. Long and Froude were two other names given. One engineer was lost.

The names of two additional rescue vessels were given. They were the Sagona and Seal.

Wrecked During Blizzard.

St. Johns, N. F., Feb. 25.—The Red Cross line steamer Florizal, bound from this port for Halifax and New York with 77 passengers and a crew of 69, was wrecked near Broadcove, 20 miles north of Cape Race, and many persons on board are supposed to have perished. Six bodies were washed ashore during the day.

The steamer struck early Sunday morning while fighting her way through a blinding blizzard. In a few hours she had pounded to pieces on the rocks and at dusk her hull had settled under the battering until she was almost submerged.

The bodies washed ashore include those of Joseph Kean and Robert Snow, passengers, and James Long, a sailor. Snow was one of six noncommissioned officers of a Newfoundland regiment proceeding to Toronto to join the Royal Flying corps.

Lost in Heavy Sea.

The Florizal rounded Cape Race in a heavy sea. She was hugging the shore when she struck the rocks. After sending a single S. O. S. call her wireless became silent.

The scene of the wreck is off a particularly desolate stretch of coast. Would-be rescuers found it difficult even to reach the shore line. Attempts to reach the distressed craft were defeated by the high seas.

The nearest inhabitants, many miles from the scene, were the first to reach the coast. As the mists parted occasionally they saw living persons lashed to the rigging of the Florizal.

Some Notable Passengers.

Of the passengers 50 were saloon and 27 steerage. Among the saloon passengers were John Shannon Munn, managing director of Bowring Brothers' company, Limited, of Liverpool and New York, owners of the steamer; Maj. Michael Sullivan, commander of the Newfoundland Forestry battalion; Thomas McNeil, principal owner of the McMurdo Drug company of this city; Fred Smythe, manager of the Newfoundland Woolen mills; William Butler, an architect, and his wife, who were on their way to Florida; William Earle, a fish merchant, bound for Canada on a business trip; Edward [illegible], Robert Snow, Norman Sellars, John Parsons, Ralph Burnham and Alex Ledingham.

The last six named were cadets of the Newfoundland regiment, who were to have joined the Royal Flying corps at Toronto.

Several Women Aboard.

Others on the passenger list were buyers, commercial travelers and a number of women.

Accompanying Mr. Munn were his little daughter, three years of age, and her nurses. They were on their way to New York to join Mrs. Munn and her father, Sir Edward Bowring, and proceed to Florida with them.

Major Sullivan had been here on official business and was returning to Scotland to rejoin his battalion, which is engaged in lumber cutting. Joseph Kean, a master mariner, another of the passengers, was bound for Halifax to take command of the steamer Sable in the seal fishery next month.

The Florizel sailed from here at eight o'clock Saturday night with a large number of passengers and a cargo which included 10,500 barrels of dry codfish and herring for New York and 1,200 barrels for Halifax, her only port of call between St. Johns and New York. The ship herself was valued at $1,000,000.

The ship struck in Broad cove about 5 a. m. She sent one wireless message of distress, which was received at the Cape Race radio station, saying that she was aground and in imminent danger of destruction. Her wireless apparatus worked haltingly and soon was silent.

Men could be seen on the bridge signaling for help, and some had lashed themselves to the rigging.

Gradually, under the buffeting of the waves, the hull disappeared from view, and after a few hours the vessel was almost submerged, while men in the rigging still signaled frantically, but hopelessly, for aid.

WILSON EXTENDS $2 WHEAT PRICE

Proclamation Makes 1918 Chicago Price for No. 1 Northern $2.20.

FARMER PRAISED BY CHIEF

Executive Declares Work on the Farm Is as Important as That of the Soldiers in Uniform.

President Wilson issued a proclamation guaranteeing every farmer a minimum of $2 a bushel for 1918 wheat. He also indicated that farmers will so far as possible be exempted from the draft.

Chicago Prices $2.20.

With No. 1 Northern Spring as the basis, the price of the spring crop is fixed at the various buying centers as follows:

Chicago	$2.20	Seattle	$2.0
Omaha	2.15	San Francisco	2.1
Kansas City	2.15	Los Angeles	2.1
St. Louis	2.18	Galveston	2.2
Minneapolis	2.17	New Orleans	2.2
Duluth	2.17	Salt Lake City	2.0

Portland, Ore.	2.06

Pays Tribute to Farmers.

President Wilson paid high tribute to the patriotism of farmers, declaring their work equally as important as that of the soldiers in uniform. His statement in part follows:

"To increase the price of wheat above the present figure, or to agitate any increase of price, would have the effect of very seriously hampering the large operations of the nation and of the allies by causing the wheat of last year's crop to be withheld from the market.

"It would, moreover, dislocate all the present wage levels that have been established after much anxious discussion and would therefore create an industrial unrest which would be harmful to every industry in the country.

"I know the spirit of our farmers and have not the least doubt as to the loyalty with which they will accept the present decision.

"It seems not to be generally understood why wheat is picked out for price determination, and only wheat among the cereals. While normal distribution of all of our farm products has been subject to great disturbances during the last three years because of war conditions, only two important commodities, namely wheat and sugar, have been so seriously affected as to require government intervention.

"The purchase of wheat in the United States for foreign use is of so great volume in comparison with the available domestic supply that the price of wheat has been materially disturbed and is became necessary in order to protect both the producer and the consumer to prevent speculation.

"It was necessary, therfore, for the government to exercise a measure of direct supervision and as far as possible to control purchases of wheat and the processes of its exportation.

"This supervision necessarily amounted to price fixing and I therefore thought it fair and wise that there should be a price stated that should be at once liberal and equitable.

"Those peculiar circumstances governing the handling and consumption of wheat put the farmer at the very center of war service. Next to the soldier himself, he is serving the country and the world and serving it in a way which is absolutely fundamental to his own future safety and prosperity. He sees this and can be relied upon as the soldier can.

"The farmer is also contributing men to the army, and I am keenly alive to the sacrifices involved.

Draft Favors Farmers.

"In order to relieve the farming industry as far as possible from further drains of labor, the new draft regulations have been drawn with a view to taking from the farms an even smaller proportion of men, and it is my hope that the local exemption boards will make the new classification with a view of lightening the load upon the farmers to the utmost extent.

"National and local agencies are actively at work besides in organizing community help for the more efficient distribution of available labor, and in drawing upon new sources of labor.

"The federal railway administration is co-operating in the most active, intelligent and efficient way with the food administration to remove the difficulties of transportation, and of the active movement of the crops. Their marketing is to be facilitated, and the farmers given the opportunity to realize promptly upon their stocks.

"The business of war touches everybody. It is a stern business, a co-operative business, a business of energy and sacrifice, a business of service in the largest and best and most stirring sense of that great word."

KAISER'S PEACE TERMS

Russ Agree to Give Germany Control of Vast Area.

Emperor Will Be Master of All Commercial, Industrial and Natural Resources of Republic.

London, Feb. 25.—A Russian wireless government statement received here says:

"Germany will renew the peace negotiations and will conclude peace on the following conditions:

"Both to declare the war ended.

"All regions west of the line indicated at Brest-Litovsk to the Russian delegation, which formerly belonged to Russia, to be no longer under the territorial protection of Russia. In the region of Dvinsk this line must be advanced to the eastern frontier of Courland.

"The former attachment of these regions to the Russian state must in no case involve for them obligations toward Russia. Russia renounces every claim to intervene in the internal affairs of these regions.

"Germany and Austria-Hungary have the intention to define further the fate of these regions in agreement with their populations.

"Germany is ready, after the completion of Russian demolization, to evacuate the regions which are east of the above line. So far as is not stated otherwise, Livonia and Esthonia must immediately be cleared of Russian troops and Red guards.

"Livonia and Esthonia will be occupied by German police until the date when the constitution of the respective countries shall guarantee their social security and political order. All inhabitants who were arrested for political reasons must be released immediately.

"Russia will conclude peace with the Ukrainian people's republic. Ukraine and Finland will be immediately evacuated by Russian troops and Red guards.

"Russian will do all in its power to secure for Russia the orderly return of its Anatolian frontiers. Russia recognizes the annulation of the Turkish capitulation.

"The complete demobilization of the Russian army, inclusive of the detachments newly formed by the present government, must be carried out immediately.

"Russian warships in the Black sea, the Baltic sea, and the Arctic ocean must immediately either be sent to Russian harbors and kept there until the conclusion of peace or be disarmed. Warships of the entente which are in the sphere of Russian authority must be regarded as Russian ships.

"Merchant navigation of the Black sea and Baltic sea must be renewed, as stated in the armistice treaty. The clearing away of mines is to begin immediately. The blockade of the Arctic ocean is to remain in force until the conclusion of a general peace.

"The Russo-German commercial treaty of 1914 must be enforced again. In addition, there must be a guarantee for the free export without tariff, of ores and the immediate commencement of negotiations for the conclusion of a new commercial treaty, with a guarantee of the most favored nation treatment, at least until 1925, even in the case of the termination of the provisorium, and, finally, the sanction of all clauses corresponding to paragraph 11, of clauses 3, 4 and 15 of the Ukrainian peace treaty.

"Legal and political relations are to be regulated in accordance with the decision of the first version of the Germano-Russian convention. So far as action on that decision has not yet been taken, especially with respect to indemnities for civil damages, this must be in accordance with the German proposal. And there must be indemnification with expenses for war prisoners, in accordance with the Russian proposal.

"Russia will permit and support so far as she can German commissions for war prisoners, civil prisoners and war refugees.

"Russia promises to put an end to every propaganda and agitation, either on the part of the government or on the part of persons supported by the government, against members of the quadruple alliance and their political and military institutions, even in localities occupied by the central powers.

"The above conditions must be accepted within 48 hours. The Russian plenipotentiaries must start immediately for Brest-Litovsk and sign at that place within three days a peace treaty, which must be ratified within two weeks."

The foregoing, adds the Russian official statement, is dated Berlin, February 21, and is signed by Von Kuehlmann (the German foreign secretary) and Lieut. Gen. (name omitted), commander in chief of the army.

Spain Holds Up Vessels.

Madrid, Feb. 25.—A Barcelona dispatch to the Imparcial says official orders have been given postponing the departure of Spanish steamships which were about to sail for the United States. This measure is said to be due to delays, extending in some cases to 60 days, to which Spanish vessels have been subjected in American ports.

AGRICULTURAL EXTENSION SCHOOL

Successful Two Day Meeting Held at Co-Operative Hall Friday and Saturday

The Agricultural Extension School held in Co-Operative Hall last Friday and Saturday was quite largely attended and brought to the attention of the farmers of this community many valuable points. Prof. Coons of the M. A. C., an expert in botany, V. E. Freeman, government extension specialist, who lectured on "Animal Husbandry," and J. C. Kennedy, who took up "Liming the Soil," were in charge of the school. The lectures were made more interesting by the use of charts and pictures and farmers were given the opportunity of asking questions touching points which affected their individual needs.

Some of the subjects touched on were "The Place of Sheep on Our Farms," "Structure of Plant and How it Feeds," "Handling Sheep for Profit," "Plant Diseases and How they effect the plant," "Wintering cattle at present Feed prices," "Bean diseases and their control," "Raising hogs on high priced grain" and "Grain smuts and their control."

HELP THE HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The High School Athletic Association have made arrangements with the New Royal Theatre for a picture show for Friday afternoon and evening, March 1st. The proceeds will go to the association to help them finance their meets this coming season. The management of the Royal are giving the pupils a strong picture, "Draft 258," which alludes to the first number drawn on the selective draft and is something entirely new in the way of patriotic plays. It is said to be one of the strongest films put out since the "Birth of the Nation" and features Mabel Taliafera, the charming actress.

The High School pupils are in charge of the ticket selling and every one will have the opportunity of purchasing a ticket. You will all want to help them and will be interested in the success of their undertaking Buy a ticket and give them your support.

WASHINGTON BIRTHDAY PARTY

There were about 150 persons at the Washington Birthday party at the Presbyterian church, Friday evening given by the Sunday school, Mrs. Rex class had outdone themselves in making the rooms beautiful with flags and bunting. Our old friend G. Washington would certainly have raved could he have seen the flag of Old England used freely with the Stars and Stripes and would have appreciated that we are a new generation.

Flying around among the audience were Martha and George in miniature who turned out to be William and Frances Rex. John T. Boyce, the Sunday-school superintendent presided and announced the following program:

Piano duet—Mrs. R. B. Stuckey, Miss Edith Rector.

Reading—Mrs. A. J. Montgomery.

Selections, vocal and instrumental—Temple Quartette.

Life of Washington—Mrs. Boyce's class.

Reading—Miss Brown.

The parcel post sale which followed was a big success, netting the school $31.10 and causing much fun as the various parcels were opened.

The children were treated to popcorn and apples and everyone certainly had a jolly evening.

HOW RED CROSS SPENDS FUNDS

Organization Gives Report of Money Entrusted to It.

Washington—What the American Red Cross has done with the vast sums of money entrusted to it by the people of the United States is stated in detail in a report just issued by the national headquarters. To date, $79,450,727.35 has been appropriated for relief work in this country and abroad.

For foreign relief $44,657,795 has been appropriated as follows: France, $30,519,259.60; Belgium, $1,999,631; Russia, $751,940.87; Roumania, $2,617,394.76; Italy, $3,146,016; Seriba, $371,180.76; Great Britain, $1,703,642; other foreign countries, $2,536,300; American soldiers who may be taken prisoner, $343,627.

The foregoing appropriations are from the time the United States entered the war until April 30, 1918. For the United States the Red Cross has appropriated $2,612,532.60 and the reason this sum is not larger is because the government provides nearly everything our army and navy needs, and besides, there is no civilian distress in this country of any considerable proportions.

The great variety of the military and civilian relief work being done by the Red Cross is indicated briefly in the following list: canteens that afford food, baths and sleeping quarters for men at the front; rest stations and recreation centers for soldiers in transit and at port of arrival in France; care of destitute children; furnishing supplies to 4,000 hospitals; teaching mutilated soldiers new trades; reconstruction of villages; bringing together families of soldiers scattered by the war; farms for convalescent soldiers; sanitariums for tubercular and other patients; food, clothing, medicine, and shelter for the homeless and destitute; and other activities too numerous to mention.

It is stated by the national war council that all salaries and administrative expenses are paid out of membership dues, so that every penny given to the Red Cross war fund has been spent for relief. This answers the rumors that have been circulated about the expenses of operation.

Out of 255 executives in the fourteen divisional offices of the Red Cross in the United States, 59 per cent are women. The policy is to select the most competent persons regardless of politics, sex or religion.

VILLAGE COUNCIL ACTIVE IN TRYING TO SECURE CHICAGO STREET STOP

In our last issue we printed an account of the visit to Tecumseh of the New York Central officials in which we stated that they were here conferring with a committee from the Commerce Club. We omitted stating that they were also conferring with representatives from the village council and we are pleased to correct any impression that may be current that the council have not been active in regard to this railroad controversy. As a matter of fact these gentlemen conferred with committees from both the Council and Commerce Club.

Our council has been actively mixed up in this railroad question from the start and furthermore expect to be in it to the finish. Atty. Geo. A. Rathbun was appointed by the Council to make a trip to Detroit with John R. Nyland from the Commerce Club for an interview with E. R. Bissell, district superintendent, and we have no doubt but that George had a good deal to say while there as it is against his nature to keep still and let the other fellow talk.

The Council stand firmly for the Chicago street stop and for better depot facilitiese here in Tecumseh and we believe that there is no question of difference between the Village Council and the Commerce Club along these lines and from indications things look brighter for concessions from the railroad people along the lines mentioned.

PRUDDEN LIFTS 9 HOUR ORDER

Lightless Nights to Continue but Urges Economy in Use of Fuel

Recommends Smaller Towns to Continue 9 Hour Closing, but Suggestion is not Mandatory.

Lansing, Mich., Feb. 23.—The steady improvement in the Michigan fuel situation since the nine-hour closing order was promulgated by State Fuel Administrator W. K. Prudden on January 25, is reflected in his annoucement of Saturday, revoking that order, except as it pertains to lightless nights.

Prudden recommends, as a voluntary measure, that smaller towns throughout the state continue the nine-hour closing, where it has not been found disadvantageous, declaring that the state is not yet "out of the woods" in the matter of fuel. The suggestion is not mandatory, however. The revocation of the order takes effect mmediately.

The administrator's statement follows:

"Fuel conditions within Michigan having improved, further modifications to the order of January 25 are desirable.

"Therefore, the entire order is from this date suspended, except, restrictions regarding lighting and illumination by electricity on the two lightless nights, Thursday and Sunday, remain in full force."

"OVER THE TOP"

It was under this cognomen that the local Presbyterians began a membership campaign last Sunday which is to continue until Easter. This campaign is to be put on in the church, the Sunday-school and all societies of the church.

At the close of the sermon Sunday morning on this subject the minister said, "Four years ago you called me to "go over the top" with you, today I call you to "go over the top" with me." As a result 135 people signed pledge cards, or enlistment cards, under the name, "The Spring Drive," to help make this campaign a success.

The card called for many different lines of activity yet there were 30 of the 135 who promised everything. There were results of the campaign already Sunday night when there were 166 people at the evening service.

Supervises Welfare of Women in War Plants

© HARRIS & EWING

Miss Mary van Kleeck, in charge of a new women's division in the war department, will be responsible for the maintenance and housing of women who work in Uncle Sam's munition plants. In fact, her supervision extends to women working in private plants as well. Women supervisors will be named for each district where women work, and one of the innovations which will add to their well-being will be the establishment of canteens, where they may obtain wholesome food at reasonable prices.

Lena Agnes Hardenburg was born at Prattsville, N. Y., April 28, 1876 and passed quietly away at her home Friday afternoon, February 22, 1918 She was the daughter of Addison and Alice Hardenburg who came to Michigan in 1881 locating in Tecumseh. She was united in marriage May 15, 1901 to William F. Fisher, who with her two brothers Louis Hardenburgh of Ironwood and Clement of Tecumseh and two neices, Alice Hardenburgh of Tecumseh and Gertrude Hardenburgh of Ironwood are left to mourn her loss.

RED CROSS NEWS

Every now and again we run across some most touching instance of patriotism. A lady who lives in this vicinity insisted on eating corn meal to save wheat, although it made her sick and affected her baby. She declared she would do her duty and she would not be a slacker. Her family could not induce her to eat wheat and it was only the earnest remonstrance of her physician who told her that as a nursng mother she was most certainly exempt, that she was induced to give up wheatless days and wheatless meals. If we all cultivate this spirit, how can America fail to win?

Mrs. Hartzog and committee sent 48 pairs of knitted socks to Headquarters. Mrs. Hartzog has plenty of gray yarn for socks for busy knitters.

Yarn for knitting wristlets may be procured from Mrs. J. R. Nyland. Wristlets are wanted once more.

Mrs. J. R. Nyland requests all who have yarn left from knitting sweaters to please return to her as soon as possible. The new yarn is not the same color. A number of articles can be finished as soon as the yarn is returned, so please be prompt.

Miss Alma Tansley,
Publicity Director, pro tem

Overcoming Camouflage.

An American physicist believes that the advantages of camouflage—or at least certain kinds of camouflage—can be overcome by an opposing army by providing colored glasses or screens of contrasting colors to use with field glasses. When the colors of these screens are properly selected, uniforms and other objects may be made to appear in contrast, instead of in harmony with their surroundings, he claims. Camouflage as practiced in many cases is accomplished largely by the use of paint, objects being given shades that blend with the landscape. In spite of certain difficulties that would arise, it is believed that such efforts at concealment could be rendered quite ineffectual by the means stated.

GARLAND GOVE CABLES HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Gove received a small bit of paper Saturday that brought joy to their hearts for it was news directly from their son Garland who was one of the survivors of the ill-fated Tuscania which was sent to the bottom of the sea by a torpedo from a German U-boat early in February. The cablegram received from Garland was written in just two words, "Safe—Well." To the anxious hearts of his parents these two words meant everything.

The community in general rejoice with Mr. and Mrs. Gove over the safe arrival of their son on foreign soil and wish him God-speed and courage to fulfill the work he is called upon to do.

MUSIC FOR THE WAR TANK

Graphaphone Records Are Gift of Woman; French Officer Requests Bowling Equipment for His Men.

For the amusement of soldiers probably no more unique donation has been made than that of $50 from a woman for graphaphone records to equip a tank. There is something grotesqque about music emanating from this weird iron caterpillar, states a trench correspondent.

Other donations have not lacked an element of the picturesque, as, for instance, the supplying of a hospital in Paris which was filled with African troopers, with 700 fans. They were so appreciated during the summer that the hospital appealed for more. An accordion was sent to fill a specific demand.

One French officer requested games for his men. What sort? In one regiment in which most of the soldiers were fathers of families the preference, for some reason or other, was for bowling. The trench, it must seem, does not make a bad alley if a few balls and pins will liven a dull period. Possibly a change of noise is agreeable!

Grand Rapids—Federal authorities have decided to intern Carl Wilhelm Muller, alien enemy held at the county jail on a charge of vagrancy. This is the first case where action of the kind has been taken in Grand Rapids or western Michigan. Muller's home is said to be at Crystal Falls.

Camp Custer, Battle Creek—Noncommissioned officers who were sent to the third officer's training camp and who lost their chevrons there, did not lose their pay or their status in the national army. They are being carried on detached service in the grade they held before entering school.

Detroit—Representatives of Y. M. C. A. branches from towns all over the state pledged $35,000 as the upstate share of the $1,000,000 foreign work budget of the association at a meeting in the Detroit Y. M. C. A. concurrent with the inaugurating of a campaign in the city for members.

Sault Ste. Marie—Henry Brassar, of Brassars, on Sugar Island point, attacked a wolf with his bare hands and choked him to death. Brassar had set his traps several days previous and discovered a wolf, with trap attached, making off for the woods. Without hesitation, he pursued and captured the animal.

FROM OUR BOYS IN SERVICE

The following letter is from an old Macon boy, George Osgood now a resident of St. Johns, Mich. written from Camp Johnston, Jacksonville, Florida, to his Uncle and Aunt Mr. and Mrs. Percy Morgan, telling of his life in camp.

Camp Johnston, Fla.
February 17, 1918

Dear Aunt May, Uncle Percy and Everybody:

I was certainly very glad to get that box and especially on my birthday. It came in fine shape and it sure is some box. Many, many thanks for it. Home eats do taste very good after having the routine of army meals for some time. We get good substantial food and all we want of it, but sometimes there isn't very much variety. Sundays we get one wonderful meal and then usually half of the men are in town.

This is a wonderful camp and I think without any doubt as beautiful as any in the U. S. and also as healthy. The Florida foliage is very abundant around camp and part of it was cleared out of a forest. The streets are all lined with trees, both pine and palm. Most of these trees have been transplanted by the soldiers themselves. All the men here seem to take a great deal of interest in beautifying the camp and build trellis work, arches and rusticbenches and fences. Some of them have made fine looking gardens in different colors and some national emblems with various colored stones.

The men here are certainly good at some trade or trades. All of the men at this camp are enlisted men and they come from all kinds of professions. There are lawyers, undertakers, blacksmiths, cooks, bankers, printers, painters, clerks, storekeepers, mule packers and drivers and truck men. They are allused insome branch of the quartermasters department whose duty it is to provide clothes, food, transportation for the whole army and to transport the supplies for them. I think there are about 20,000 men here now. Some have gone and some go nearly every day.

When I first came I was put in what is called a receiving company, as is everyone who comes here. Here you are drilled and do all the other work they can possibly find for you, which is usually a plenty. After they find what a persons trade is then he is put into a regular company. I was in the receiving company for one week and then moved to my present company. The receiving companies are housed in tents, six men to a tent, but now I am in barracks, with one company in a barrack, about 75 men. We are drilling quite a little now and with rifles, as truck supply trains have to be equipped with them. We also have classes on and about motor trucks, motors and all to do with them. It is all very good work and I enjoy it all.

This camp is about 18 or 20 miles from Jacksonville with a paved road all the way in and a car line nearly completed. It is also on the St. Johns river which goes to Jacksonville and then to the Atlantic. Ocean liners come up as far as the city. I have been into town by road and also boat and both are beautiful rides. The city is very good looking and some of the residences there are very handsome. Jacksonville has about 75 or 80,000 inhabitants of course a very large number niggers. The land around here is very poor and I don't see how any crops are raised at all. The soil is a dirty sand. Swamps are also very numerous. The niggers work for about $2 or $2.50 a day, and try to do as little as possible.

The weather has been grand so far and on some days it has been too hot to work or hike very fast or long but nevertheless we do. The temperature stays around 70, 80 or 90 degrees days, but goes way down nghts and plenty of blankets are required.

Well I think I have written nearly a book so will cease. If any of my other numerous relatives would care to, maybe you had better let them read this as letter writing time is scarce and there isn't much variety of subjects.

Thanks again heaps for the eats.
With Love, George.

GARLAND GOVE

Tecumseh boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Gove, who was one of the survivors of the Tuscania and the only Lenawee County boy on the ill fated boat which was sent to the bottom of the sea by a shot from a German "U" boat early in February.

His parents received a cablegram from him last Saturday stating that he was safe and well. He is with our Sammies somewhere "Over there."

Med. Dept. Aviation Corps.
So. San Antonio, Texas.
February 12, 1918

Dear Friend:

Received your letter a few days ago, was so busy packing up getting ready to leave Fort Ogelthorpe that I didn't have time to answer, as I have a few minutes to spare before my Physical examination, that I thought I would drop you a few lines to acquaint you with my new station.

First I will tell what I can of my trip down here, we entrained at Lytle Georgia, went north to Chattanooga, Tenn., changed engines to Birmingham, Alabama again at New Orleans, took the Ferry to Baton Rouge, La., and continued to Houston, Texas, where we laid over for three (3) hours, then finished our journey to SanAntonio. We detrained here and marched nearly (4) four miles to the receiving Camp. We slept here over night and moved again to where we are now stationed, until our brief stay here is over, I cannot begin to describe the magnificence and beauty that we were continually seeing, the big palms of New Orleans and the big ferns of the swamp lands of Louisiania and eastern Texas.

I have at last got into the Aviation corps, not the flying corps but just as important branch the Medical department. I helped dress an ugly wound on one of our Aviators, who fell with his machine a short distance. He had a gash nearly eight inches across his stomach which was caused by his falling against the whirling propeller of his machine. It was not deep enough to hurt his stomach or intestines, but just the same he will go through some awful suffering before he is fully recovered. I am to stay up eight (8) hours tonight with him.

I forgot to mention the hours that we were on the train as near as I can figure it we were on 64 hrs., 49 min., 51 sec., some ride, don't you think so. I am seeing quite a lot of the good old U. S. at Uncle Sam's expense, have ridden nearly 2000 miles have still got a trip back to the coast to make in about six weeks, when the next bunch leave for France. I have been assigned to one of these squadrons.

Was glad to hear you had passed your exam's O. K.

How is the weather in old Michigan? It is hotter than Sam Blazes down here in the day and at nights it gets so cold we can not keep warm with three blankets and my overcoat over me. The thermometer is 86 degrees in the shade this afternoon how would you like to be down here in Texas? It sure issome change intemperature between Georgia and Texas.

Will close for this time as it is nearly time to report for duty at the infimary so will have to say Goodbye till next time. With my best regards to you all

Yours Sincerely
Pvt. Verl R. Blesing,
Medical Dep't., Kelly

Pontiac—James Street was found at Oxford, unconscious from concussion of the brain. He was dragged a mile over frozen ground by a horse he had hired from a livery for a trip into the country to examine a quantity of wood on the Baza farm. The horse bolted after he left the rig, and in an effort to stop the animal, he became entangled in the lines. He suffered severe scalp wounds, a broken arm and the flesh was torn to the bone from one of his shoulders by jagged ice.

Flint—John R Kneebone, 25 years old, University of Michigan graduate with the degree of "Master of Arts in Municipal Administration," has been engaged as city manager of Beaufort, S. C. He will have the distinction of being the youngest city manager in the United States. He will succeed Harrison Grey Otis at Beaufort, which has been operating under the city manager plan for three years. Kneebone came from Houghton, and has been employed in the city engineer's department here for more than a year.

Camp Custer—With 42 years 'experience at the head of his country's troops behind him, and the greatest war in history raging, Maj-Gen. James Parker has been called to the side lines. He went smiling. The sweeping away of his last hopes that he might be permitted to see service abroad was probably the bitterest disappointment that this veteran has ever known, yet he took his call to inactive life without a visible trace of emotion, bidding farewell to his staff and to his life work as calmly as though it was all a part of the day's duties.

Lansing—M. J. Phillips, of Owosso, assistant secretary of the Michigan war preparedness board, has been commissioned as captain in the construction division of the signal corps. With his appointment Capt. Phillips was recommended for a major's commission.

Lansing—Representative Charles A. Hulse, 66 years old, of St. Johns, died at Albuquerque, N. M., of pneumonia. He was en route to California with his wife and a party of friends. He served three terms as a member of the legislature from Clinton county, leading in the fight for anti-cigarette legislation.

Pontiac—Cash W. Bowers, city fuel distributor, rescued Artie Spade, 12 years old, from the flooded Clinton river beside the city hall, when the boy fell in while balancing on a stone retaining wall. Bowers and the boy were carried under the Pike street bridge and under a sheet of ice, from beneath which he managed to crawl.

Houghton—Candidates for township treasurers on the "Red Cross ticket" will enter the field in the copper country. The state law allows township treasurers one per cent of taxes collected, the return in some cases mounting to $20,000 annually. A number of business men will run on the "Red Cross ticket," turning their incomes over for war relief.

ANNUAL SONG CONTEST GOES TO JUNIOR GIRLS

Song Written by Ruth Musselman and Agnes McIntyre

The Annual Song contest of the four classes was held in the gymnasium of the Woman's Building on Monday evening, February 11.

After the presentation by the girls of each class of an original college song, the judges, Miss Leffler, Miss Bemis and Miss Hunt, pronounced the Junior Class the prize winner.

The words of the prize winner song were written by Miss Ruth Musselman the music by Miss Agnes McIntyre.

The interpretation of two Indian dances by Senior girls, and campfire songs by the Campfire Girls were interesting features of the evening.

Prize Song

Hail! dear Alma Mater,
Beloved of us all;
Hail! O cherished spirit
That will never fail nor fall
Hail, as on you lead us
To fields afar and near
For you'll ever give us courage
And lend us of your cheer.
First in all life's battles,
Thru loss or victory's gain,
You stand amid your rivals
With virtues all unstained;
Hail! unspotted whiteness and Hail!
O green of youth!
Fair symbols of thy Honor:
Thy loyalty and truth.
Silently you're sending
Your men so brave and true
To turn the wheel of justice
And make all nations new;
Give to us that spirit
With which you hover them,
To fight, to die, to conquer
For our glorious emblem.

FRENCH RAIDS FIERCE

Trench Attacks Increase With Intensity Along Whole Front.

Hundreds of Prisoners Taken While Artillery Throws Unheard Of Quantities of Shells.

French Grand Headquarters, Feb. 27.—Trench raids along the French front have increased in intensity during the last month to such an extent that they have become, in some instances, battles in which thousands of men have been engaged and hundreds of prisoners taken. The artillery is throwing unheard of quantities of shells.

The objects of the raids vary widely. Sometimes a raid is undertaken in order to identify enemy units, and at other times to improve the lines or capture observation points.

Again a raid may be made to destroy the enemy's works and prevent him from attacking. This was the case in Saturday's raid at Aspach, Alsace, where the Germans were in strongly fortified lines which they had held since December, 1914.

The enemy positions were bombarded beyond recognition and placed in such condition as to hinder German operations. The correspondent watched the shower of metal tearing away the wire entanglements, flattening the gun emplacements and setting fire to the enemy ammunition dumps.

Nearly everywhere the enemy front lines are held lightly, and the main bodies of troops are kept so far in the rear that occasionally the French have reached the third and even the fourth line with slight resistance.

ROYAL ARCANUM IS SOLVENT

Insurance Investigators Declare the Charges Against Massachusetts Society Unfounded.

Boston, Feb. 27.—The Royal Arcanum society of Massachusetts, which has been a subject of litigation during the last few years, is declared 90 per cent solvent by the insurance commissioners of this state, New York, and Connecticut, in a report issued by Frank Hardison, commissioner of Massachusetts.

RED CROSS NEWS

It is one of the blessed functions of the Red Cross to open the hearts of the people and bring forth the generous response in money, materials and services by which alone the distress can be succored.

There is no one in America who would think of refusing aid once the reality of the situation is vividly impressed upon his mind. The difficulty is to make our people realize how vast, how desperate, how terribly real is the need. To spread the truth to paint the picture, to carry the appeal of millions of the suffering to our millions living in comfort is the task of the Red Cross.

What must be done in Northern France is a task alone almost beyond human comprehension. Imagine if you can, a country of complete devastation, not a house standing, not a tool or any usable thing, left not a tree that will ever bear fruit again. This country must be rehabilitated, and it is we who must undertake a great part of the burden. Picture, too, a great population ravaged by tuberculosis as no people ever were before. To give aid to them now is to save the lives of thousands.

And then BELGIUM! A task even more stupendous!

These are but suggestions of some of the scenes in the region of war They must be effaced, just as quickly as the armies of the allies and the outpourings from heart and purse of those at home can accomplish the task.

These are glimpses of the truths which the RED CROSS and every RED CROSS worker must set before the people. To care for our own is but a part of the task, the sacred duty, that lies before us. We must give to these people of our ALLIES the means of helping themselves as they face the necessity of starting life all over again. The RED CROSS is ready and will do its part in just the measure that the American people grasp the truth and come forward with the necessary support.

The surgical dressing class met on Wednesday evening with 18 members present. Those who so ably passed the examination were Mrs. Bert Gray Mrs. Harry Waldron, Miss Bessie Spayde, Miss Casey, Miss Florence Waldron, Miss Genevieve Halladay, Miss Clapp and Miss Lelia Waters. The remaining members of the class will take their examination on Wednesday evening of next week. Dr. Pauline Bredow was assisted by Mrs. F. G. Lewis during the evening.

Headquarters was a scene of a busy number of workers on Wednesday afternoon. There were 10 present for work on the pajamas suits and 20 in the surgical dressings department. Volunteers are always welcome in either department. Remember it is a world war and there is no place being made for spectators, that those who are not with us are against us, and that every knocker is an alien enemy.

RAIN SHELLS AND GAS ON U. S. MEN

Germans Start Drive on the American Line Northwest of Toul; Duel Intense.

YANKEE RESPONSE EFFECTIVE

With the American Army in France, Feb. 27.—The artillery conflict in the American sector northwest of Toul grows more intense daily. The Germans fired a hundred or more shells in the last 24 hours and late in the evening began to bombard violently some of the American batteries with gas and high explosive shells.

The American artillery has replied constantly, doing most effective work against the enemy front line trenches, his battery positions and wire entanglements. Numerous working parties of the enemy also were shelled. Beyond observation by balloons there has been no aerial activity owing to the low clouds and rain.

American machine guns last night and this morning fired many thousand rounds on the rear of German positions, where marked movement of men and material progresses. The enemy tried unsuccessfully to hinder the American patrol work by hurling new and powerful flares into the American wire entanglements.

Details of the Franco-American raid in the Chemin des Dames Saturday show that 26 picked American soldiers participated, after every member of their battalion had volunteered.

First Action Behind Barrage.

The American moved forward eagerly to the attack behind a barrage fire, the first time this has been done by our troops. Some of the Americans made captures and others chased Prussian troops through the trenches as far as 750 meters (about 2,400 feet), going beyond the objectives sought.

The raid had been planned carefully and rehearsals were held the day before. The barrage fire began at 5:30 o'clock in the morning and continued until 6:35, guns of all caliber taking part.

The Americans among the 100 in the attacking party were surprised at the precision with which the French shells fell and went a little faster than they should have and were within 80 yards of the dropping shells when they reached the enemy's lines. Relief had just been completed in the German trenches and officers were making the rounds. The Germans took shelter in a dugout roofed with rails and sandbags. A French shell made a direct hit and the enemy scattered about the trench. At the same moment the American and French jumped in.

Take Entire Party of Enemy.

There was some hand-to-hand fighting, but the entire enemy party at this point was captured. The raiders chased the enemy out of other shelters and along communicating trenches without catching any. There was some criticism of the fact that the Americans were so enthusiastic that they went beyond the objectives.

The raiders and prisoners started back across No Man's Land on schedule time, but were caught in a German counter-barrage. One enemy shell wounded five Germans and six Frenchmen but no Americans.

The prisoners were from sixteen to forty years old. All apparently were undernourished, but said that food was plentiful in the trenches. The similarity of their stories, however, aroused suspicions. Most of the prisoners formerly worked in factories.

State Highway Commissioner Frank E. Rogers will be at Grant Ogden's store, Tipton, next Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock to hear any objections that may arise to the proposed improvement of the LaPlaisance Bay Pike, more commonly known as the Monroe Pike, and to explain the estimates of cost, etc., of the improvement.

A petition has been filed with the state highway commissioner for the improvement of this pike from the west line of the Village of Tecumseh and Cambridge townships to the county line between Lenawee and Jackson counties. The survey has been made and costs, etc., for the construction of a state road have been made.

Last season a remonstrance was circulated along the pike and signed by practically every property owner living along the east end of the pike in Tecumseh township. This remonstrance has been filed with the state highway commissioner.

Therefore it is the duty of every property owner in the township effected to be at Grant Ogden's store Tuesday at 9 o'clock a. m. to hear the commissioner and to know what the nature of this improvement is, and, if there is any objection, an opportuity will be given to voice said objecton.

Remember, Mr. Property Owner, the cost of this improvement is assessed against the townships effected. A larger per cent. on the abutting property, a certain per cent. on property off the highway on roads crossing the pike and laying back of the abutting property and a certain per cent. to the townships at large. Just what the ratio is we are unable to tell but the plan will be fully explained at the Tipton meeting by Mr. Rogers.

Remember this, Mr. Farmer, that the notice printed on the last page of this paper pertains to the Monroe Pike running from the west line of the Village of Tecumseh to the county line and this is the improvement that will be considered at the Tipton meeting next Tuesday morning.

The so-called Town Line Road leading from the Monroe Pike south along the town line into Adrian is another proposition altogether and is to be considered separately at another meeting held at Birdsall. This road has nothing whatever to do with the Monroe Pike nor will it be considered at all at the Tipton meeting.

The road into Adrian should be improved by all means and we understand the property owners along this road are almost a unit for the improvement. A state road into Adrian is certainly a public necessity and is one of the crying needs of this northern section of the county. Don't lay a straw in the way of this improvement.

The Monroe Pike is a different thing altogether for, for 2½ miles from the Village of Tecumseh west to the town line, we have at this time one of the best gravel roads in the State of Michigan. It, in our judgment, would be a waste of money to tear up this 2½ miles of road when hundreds of roads in the county are suffering for improvement.

Let every taxpayer in the Township of Tecumseh, who is interested in this road be at this meeting. Remember, it is at Grant Ogden's store, Tipton, Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock.

GEN. FOCH SAYS GERMANS WON'T BREAK THROUGH

French Leader Asserts Enemy Is Weaker in Guns, in Aircraft and Morale.

DOES NOT FEAR A DRIVE

Declares the Allies Know Mostly Everything the Teutons Do—They Have No New Gases and Limited Number of Tanks.

Chicago, Feb. 27.—I went to the fountain source for information and reassurance on the German offensive and I got both, cables the Chicago Herald's Paris correspondent.

General Foch received me in his office in the Boulevard Invalides and frankly answered all my questions, which covered the larger phases of the greatest menace that has ever confronted mankind. My first question was:

"What is the chance of the Germans being able to break through?"

Before answering General Foch took a few puffs at his two-cent cigar and looked at me with a smile of quiet confidence in his bright brown eyes.

"They Won't!"

"They won't break through," he said, and the words were as percussive as pistol shots. "They tried that at Marne. They then had troops of the first quality, while we were unprepared. They failed. They tried at Lassigny in October, 1914 and at Arras. Again, on the Yser and at Ypres they made very strong attacks which they repeated. They failed everywhere in their attempt to break through.

"Again the following April, at what is known as the second Ypres, they attacked, this time using gas against which we had not then the protection of masks. They gained three miles, but were unable to break through.

"Finally, at Verdun, in 1916, they made a great effort. Their artillery was much superiors to ours. This attempt began in February and lasted till July. It was a failure.

"In view of all those attempts, under conditions favorable to the enemy, we are justified in the confidence we now feel. The advantages now all lie with us. We are better organized and our preparation is better. All the dispositions are better. (General Foch used the French word "repartition" to convey the idea of the uniformity, balance and completeness of the allied preparation).

"Our reserves can be handled more effectively and there are relatively more of them than at any time in the past. We are strong in guns, munitions and airplanes. Our artillery superiority to the enemy is incontestable. Finally, our morale is better than ever. On the other hand, the German troops have deteriorated since 1914.

"Wait Without Anxiety."

"In view of all these things we wait for them without anxiety."

"Is it possible that they have invented new gasses that our masks will furnish no protection against?" I asked.

"No," replied General Foch. "We know mostly everything they do and remember in 1915 we had no masks at all and we stood up against their gas."

"What about the tanks?"

"They'll have them, but not too many for us to deal with. This is a department in which we have all the advantages of knowledge and experience."

Detroit—Three score and ten years weighed lightly on Alfred G. Earnshaw, Superior, Wis., when he greeted his old "bunkie," Freeman A. Pierce, 73 years old, at Cadillac hotel Thursday night, their first meeting in 53 years since they were mustered out of Company D of the Fourteenth Michigan. "Cap" Earnshaw, as they called him back in '61, had just returned from a visit to his son, Lieutenant Arthur C. Earnshaw, who is training at an eastern camp. It was while trying to trace relatives here that Mr. Earnshaw found his old comrade's name and address.

Lansing—Senator William Alden Smith has settled all question as to whether he will be a candidate for the Republican nomination to succeed himself by announcing that he had decided to run at the coming primaries. The announcement was not formal, but was contained in a letter written by him to a friend and supporter in Barry county, several days ago. The friend, an influential citizen of that county, had written to the senator, urging that he seek to remain in the senate because of the necessity for experienced legislators.

GERMANY FOR WILSON PEACE

Four of President's Principles Accepted if Allies Back Them.

BRITAIN IS IMPERIALISTIC

Von Hertling Tells Reichstag America's Proffer Offers Basis for Discussion on Broad and Liberal Scale.

Washington, Feb. 27.—All talk of a possible peace by negotiation has ended in Washington today. Count von Hertling, the imperial German chancellor, in qualifying his "acceptance" of the four principles of peace enunciated by President Wilson, has convinced officialdom here that Germany wants to fight on.

Amsterdam, Feb. 27.—Speaking before the reichstag the imperial German chancellor, Count von Hertling, made this declaration:

"I can fundamentally agree with the four principles which in President Wilson's view must be applied in a mutual exchange of views, and thus declare with President Wilson that a general peace can be discussed on such a basis.

"Only One Reserve."

"Only one reserve need be made in this connection: These principles must not only be proposed by the president of the United States, but also must actually be recognized by all states and peoples.

"But this goal has not yet been reached. There is still no court of arbitration established by all nations for the preservation of peace in the name of justice.

"When President Wilson incidentally says that the German chancellor is speaking to the tribunal of the entire world, I must decline this tribunal as prejudiced. Joyfully as I would greet it if an impartial court of arbitration existed, and gladly as I would co-operate to realize such ideals.

"England Imperialistic."

"Unfortunately, however, there is no trace of similar statements on the part of the leading powers of the entente. England's war aims are still thoroughly imperialistic, and she wants to impose on the world a peace according to England's good pleasure.

"When England talks about the people's right of self-determination she does not think of applying the principle to Ireland, Egypt and India.

Wilson Message "a Step."

"It has been repeatedly said that we do not contemplate retaining Belgium, but that we must be safeguarded from the danger of a country, with which we desire after the war to live in peace and friendship, becoming the object or jumping-off ground of enemy machinations.

"If therefore, a proposal came from the opposing side—for example, from the government in Havre—we should not adopt an antagonistic attitude, even though the discussion at first might only be unbinding.

"Meanwhile I readily admit that President Wilson's message of February 11 constitutes perhaps a small step toward a mutual rapprochement."

Wants Discussion.

With reference to a statement recently made by Walter Runciman, the former president of the board of agriculture in the British cabinet, the chancellor said:

"I can only agree with Mr. Runciman if he meant that we should be much nearer peace if proper responsible representatives of the belligerent powers would meet in conclave for discussion.

"That would be a way to remove all intentional and unintentional misunderstandings and bring about an agreement on many individual questions. I am thinking especially in this connection of Belgium."

London, Feb. 27.—An official Russian statement sent out by wireless announced that no reply had been received from Germany to the Russian communication accepting the German peace conditions. Funds for Liza Jane.

A long row of husbands sat in a mess hall and a sergeant was on the other side of the table with papers in front of him from which he from time to time read extracts, recites the New York Times.

"Are you married?"

"I was married, but I ain't now."

"Wife dead?"

"No, she ain't dead, but we had a mutual separation."

"Any divorce?"

"No, sir, I could not pay for a divorce, but it is all busted up 'tween us. Please don't put her name down."

Her name did go down, and Liza Jane will be astonished when the next month rolls around and Uncle Sam hands her out $15, with a little memorandum to the effect that this is an allotment from her husband, and a little extra thrown in to help her and the children, if she has any. That is not all. If he dies in battle, she gets $4,500, or possibly more.

HOW RED CROSS SPENDS FUNDS

Organization Gives Report of Money Entrusted to It.

Washington—What the American Red Cross has done with the vast sums of money entrusted to it by the people of the United States is stated in detail in a report just issued by the national headquarters. To date, $79,450,727.35 has been appropriated for relief work in this country and abroad.

For foreign relief $44,657,795 has been appropriated as follows: France, $30,519,259.60; Belgium, $1,999,631; Russia, $751,940.87; Roumania, $2,617,398.76; Italy, $3,146,016; Seriba, $871,180.76; Great Britain, $1,703,642; other foreign countries, $2,536,300; American soldiers who may be taken prisoner, $343,627.

The foregoing appropriations are from the time the United States entered the war until April 30, 1918. For the United States the Red Cross has appropriated $2,612,532.60 and the reason this sum is not larger is because the government provides nearly everything our army and navy needs, and besides, there is no civilian distress in this country of any considerable proportions.

The great variety of the military and civilian relief work being done by the Red Cross is indicated briefly in the following list: canteens that afford food, baths and sleeping quarters for men at the front; rest stations and recreation centers for soldiers in transit and at port of arrival in France; care of destitute children; furnishing supplies to 4,000 hospitals; teaching mutilated soldiers new trades; reconstruction of villages; bringing together families of soldiers scattered by the war; farms for convalescent soldiers; sanitariums for tubercular and other patients; food, clothing, medicine, and shelter for the homeless and destitute; and other activities too numerous to mention.

It is stated by the national war council that all salaries and administrative expenses are paid out of membership dues, so that every penny given to the Red Cross war fund has been spent for relief. This answers the rumors that have been circulated about the expenses of operation.

Out of 255 executives in the fourteen divisional offices of the Red Cross in the United States, 59 per cent are women. The policy is to select the most competent persons regardless of politics, sex or religion.

"THE HEIRESS HUNTERS"

Friday night, March 8 we Juniors of the good old Tecumseh High school are going to give the public a real treat. We're going to put on a play entitled "THE HEIRESS HUNTERS."

Its a snappy, ripping good comedy in which three "Musketeers", Tom, Dick and Harry, (Harley VanVleet, Perry Hayden, and "Bob" Moore) seek their fortunes in the Great Metropolis. For some reason or other they don't seem to succeed very well, but when the Beautiful Heir "Amythyst" (Alice Hardenburg) with her $80,000 wad appears on the scene, things begin to hum, and its a tight race from there on, with some side splitting episodes, to see who wins her hand.

There's not a dull moment in the whole play, and even if we do have to knock our craniums (!) —— we've got it worked up in fine shape.

And now that we've gone to all the trouble, hard work, and expense to give you, the Public, such a treat, we know you won't miss seeing this clean wholesome comedy, the first Home Talent show in a Year!

We want you to forget the war, your worries, and your troubles and have an evening of "GOOD OLD FASHIONED FUN."

Show your willingness to help your "UNCLE SAMMIE" by buying Thrift Stamps, and Liberty Bonds, by contributing to the Red Cross and the Patriotic League, and by cutting down on your "Sissage" and pancakes.

But keep your body in trim ——— always!

To do this we must be merry ! — and forget our troubles,———. And really ———what makes us feel better than roaring Ha! Ha!——— Whoopie ——— Har ! ———Good laugh.

And you won't have to dig very deep either, because we're so confident of a full house, that we're selling tickets for 25, 35 and 50 cents !

AND YOU DON'T PAY ANY WAR TAX EITHER, THAT'S OUR TREAT !

Then too we're going to have a band of Hawaiians with their "Ukes" come over from Honolulu to entertain you between acts Just Think !

Wait a Second ! We're not through yet ! You need'nt tell John Sousa but we've hired a band that's got his beat seven ways for Sunday !

And if our High School Glee Club is not too busy practising for the "May Festival" They're going to give us a few selections.

ARE YA COMIN' ? ? WELL WE GUESS YES !

The Juniors.

P. S. Tickets will be on sale at 's Bakery or you can buy them of any Junior. Better buy yours early, because they're comin' from Miles Around ! adv

AL. H. WILSON'S NEW PLAY

Bears Title of "The Irish Fifteenth" Cast will be a Large One.

The new play written by Theodore Burt Sayre for Al. H. Wilson has been named "The Irish Fifteenth." The scenes are laid in Ireland and interwoven in the love story is the atmosphere of the present war, which serves as a back ground for many stirring events.

Mr. Wilson's character calls for much diversified acting, ranging from comedy to pathos. The cast is a large one and the four acts demand heavy picturesque.

Mr. Wilson's songs, as may be expected, will be one of the important features of the performance, and among the numbers he will introduce are "A Lily from Heaven," "Ireland is My Home," "My Mother's Wedding Ring," "I Want you Then, Machree" and "The Irish Will be There."

Among the principals with Mr. Wilson in his new military play we note the name of Milton Nobles, Jr., Mr. Nobles will be remembered for his excellent work in "Freckles" which was presented here some few years ago. Mr. Wilson and his excellent company will be at the Auditorium Theatre, Toledo, during the week of March 17th.

BLACKSTONE, THE MAGICIAN

Blackstone, the Magician was seen at the Bradley Wednesday and Thursday evenings Two fair sized audiences were out to see this wonderful magic man and from all reports got their moneys worth Blackstone carries with him a company of three attendants, a young lady and two young men and also a car load of special scenery and effects He keeps his audiences guessing from the start to the finish and his work truly makes him the peer of magicians

Blackstones first appearance before his audience created a sensation for out of nowhere he produced a dove which flew out over the heads of the audience and fluttered about until an attendant captured it It seemed to be no effort at all for him to produce a rabbit from almost any unseen place even out of the coat of some man in the audience.

Flags of various nations were pulled out of a sheet of paper upon which was drawn the map of Europe. When he came to Turkey the real bird itself was pulled through the paper, and finally, shifting his map to the United States, he pulled out a young lady dressed in our national colors.

Numerous card tricks equally mystifying were worked, some before a committee of two local young men who were called to the stage He produced masses of flowers from just no place at all, shot a little canary bird from a paper bag into a cage, ducks out of a tub of water and many other spectacular feats even more mystifying.

In the last part of his performance a young lady is suspended in mid-air, covered with a sheet and when the pistol is shot and the sheet is removed nohing is there.

The last feature of the performance consisted of his being tied hand and foot by a local committee of three young men, placed into a dry goods box, after which the box is nailed up and securely tied with rope. In due time, without the apparent assistance of anyone, he appears free from all bonds and wishes the audience "Good Night."

E. W. DAY

Ezra Wilbert Day was born October 12, 1865, in Galion, Ohio, Crafford County and died February 17, 1918. He was the fourth child of the late Mr. and Mrs. John F. Day and one of ten children born to them, six of whom survive, three girls and three boys.

He lived his early life in Ohio and moved with his parents to Clinton, Mich., when he was a boy. His early manhood was spent on the old farm in Bridgewater, Michigan. In later years he assumed the duties of a farmer and spent his last days as one of nature's true workman.

February 8, 1904 he was married to Rose B. Chambers who has been a most faithful and devoted wife. In this last illness, cancer of the liver, this good and kind wife gave her all, and it was through her beautiful spirit and steadfastness his declining days were made those of comfort and Christian faith. Besides the wife a little girl Minnie lives to mourn his loss.

Ezra belonged to the Methodist church and was faithful and honest to its teachings. For two or more years his home was honored with the old time family altar and one of his last acts of Christian faith, while at the hospital was teaching the little girl Minnie to read a portion of Scripture and he himself leading in devotions. We rejoice that he is gone to his own and many were waiting for his coming home, the heavenly home where all will join sooner or later if we live in the abiding faith of Christ as did our dear brother. Funeral services were conducted at the home and Methodist church at Macon by the pastor Rev. J. E. Somers. Interment was made at Tecumseh Michigan.

NEW YORK CENTRAL TO OPEN NORTH STATION TODAY

A. B. McLachlin, Local Agent, received Orders Wednesday.

A B McLachlin, local agent for the New York Central lines, received orders from the division superintendent Wednesday to open up the north depot Friday (this) morning and that all trains over the Jackson Branch would from that date make regular stops there. Ticket Agent George J. Ziehr has returned to the north depot to look after the interests of the traveling public at this point.

This order is the outgrowth of the united efforts of the Village Council and Commerce Club who for the past week or two have been laboring with the railroad people for better accommodations for Tecumseh The move was intimated by Supt. Bissell during his visit to Tecumseh last week as he acknowledged that the so called "Union Depot' was far from being a suitable place for the waiting public.

The Chicago street stop is still under consideration A railroad engineer will be sent here in the near future to look over the proposition and make a report to headquarters The north depot stop is a make shift until the matter is cleared up. General sentiment is practically a unit for the Chicago street stop in place of the north depot stop, but the railroad people claim that many important questions must be considered and ironed out before a decision can be made.

DR. MUSSER'S LECTURE

At M. E. Church last Evening, very Interesting.

Yesterday at the M. E. church was an event of Missionary importance, when the Home and Foreign missionary societies had Dr. Howard Musser here to tell them of his work of over 9 years in the jungle of India. In the afternoon there was a large gathering of the church people to meet the doctor and hear his experience. At 6 o'clock the ladies of the church served supper, many from other churches participating. At 7 Dr. Balmer called the gathering to order. Many more had come so the large lecture room was full and many in the side rooms. Arthur Harding conducted the singing, with Mrs. Wilfred Waldron at the piano. The first song was the "Star Spangled Banner." Rev. J. E. Somers of Ridgeway invoked Divine blessing and Dr. Balmer introduced Dr. Musser who in his jolly way gave a most splendid address. Through his travels in the Orient he well knows how the Central Powers and Allies are regarded He calls the Great War God's War with Jesus the captain and that never before are Missionaries meeting with such success. The war tends to open the countries to the world and "whereever the British flag floats there is a missionary welcome."

He spoke of the hatred of China for Russia, Japan, France and England and her love for the U. S. A. land and her love for the U. S. A. How we need not worry about Japan conquering China. She will only gulp her down as she has the Tartars, Manchus and others.

In Korea the Japs came but Jesus got there first and the whole nation has become Christian.

The Mohammedans are divided in the war. The Sultan on the side of the Kaiser and the Egyptian, Indian and Arabian Mohammedans with the Allies. He compares Mohammedanism to a broad green belt extending across North Africa, Arabia, Persia, India and into China.

In Africa there will soon be a solid British possession "from Cape to Cairo" so solid for Christianity.

He told why England had discouraged Japan from entering the war fearing the sedition she might raise in India and Egypt, but he did prophecy a vast army of yellow men joining the reds of Russia in Central Siberia and coming to a big clash with Kaiser Bill's force, "And then there'll be fireworks."

He then told of the fight against the Roman church all over the world especially in Chili, how the churches of the county are pledged for the Missionary work down there. "He stated that every land except Austria and America "have kicked out Rome."

In all his talk he was glowing with enthusiasm and his visits all over the state are bound to rouse Missionary efforts.

At the Presbyterian Church Sunday: "Carry On," 11 a. m.; "The Giant of the East." Stereopticon lecture, 7 p. m. All welcome.

WESTMINSTER GUILD

The meeting of the Guild was held at the home of Mrs. J. F. Rector on Tuesday evening with a good attendance. Mrs. Guy Nemire assisted in entertaining.

The calling committee for the past week, Misses Edyth Rector and Mildred Boyce reported 31 calls. The committee for the next two weeks is Mrs. J. F. Rector and Mrs. Frank Nyland at the close of the aHel Nyland.

At the close of the business meeting a study session was conducted by Mrs. J. W. Beardsley followed with a short program.

Instrumental duet—Mrs. R. B. Stuckey, Miss Edyth Rector.

Papers by Miss Grace Gillespie and Mrs. F. C. Dickinson on "The Bulu and the Ten Commandments" were also very interesting.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

"T. R." DEAF IN ONE EAR

Roosevelt Will Leave Hospital on Tuesday With His Hearing Permanently Impaired.

New York, March 4.—Colonel Roosevelt, it was announced, will leave Roosevelt hospital Tuesday, but with his hearing permanently impaired. He is deaf in the left ear. His physicians said he will probably be dizzy for some months and that his sense of equilibrium will be impaired. That, however, will later be restored, they declared. The colonel, in spite of the handicap which his partial deafness and the impairment of his sense of equilibrium, was said to be determined to keep a speaking engagement in Maine on March 28.

Rio de Janeiro, March 4.—Modriquez Alvez was elected president of Brazil without opposition. Alvez ran on a platform favoring strong prosecution of the war against Germany.

BRINGS OUT LATENT TRAITS

War Develops Hidden Qualifications of Many Young Heroes Now In Government's Service.

"It takes all sorts of things to bring out latent traits in us all." The speaker in the club car rolled his cigar to the other corner of his mouth. The other occupants sat silently, surmising that a story was coming, recounts a writer in an exchange.

"Knew a young fellow over East. Father had lots of money. Son did not seem inclined to add a great deal to it by working, but made several dents in the family purse by his spending. Not that he was a bad boy at heart—only thoughtless. Sometimes I think the rich father was attempting to make a business man out of a man never intended for that sort of life. The boy did not seem to be able to find his niche. Said to me one day when he had gotten confidential: 'You know, my only fear is that I am not going to make something out of myself that will make dad proud of me.' And the two surely did love each other. One day the boy asked the father for several thousand dollars. It was forthcoming. Then he asked the father to cash a check for some money left him by his dead mother. He got that. Then the boy sort of dropped out of New York life.

"Next thing I knew he was a lieutenant in the aviation section of the army. He had bought two airplanes, taken them down into the country to one of his father's farms and learned to fly. Guess those that knew him thought it was another of his money-burning ways. But when he thought himself competent he went to the government and simply said: 'Here I am, ready for any service you may have for me,' and the government took him up in a hurry. He may be in France. But you should have seen that father's face light up every time he mentioned that boy. And when he does get back from France he and his father are going to be greater pals than ever, if that be possible.

"Now I am not going to say that many young men are going to have about $20,000 at their beck and call to demonstrate that it only needs the occasion to make men out of them, but I do say that there are scores of young men doing just as much or more."

Clever.

"Clever, isn't he?"

"Very. He can even persuade his small boy who wakes at seven o'clock Sunday morning, ready for play, to go back to sleep for another hour or two."

KAISER HALTS INVASION WHEN RUSS SIGN PACT

Bolsheviki Accept Huns' Terms of Peace, Says Statement From Berlin.

MILITARY OPERATIONS END

Slavs Accept Teuton Conditions in Fear That Argument Would Result in Even More Onerous Terms.

Berlin, March 4.—"By reason of the signing of the peace treaty with Russia," says the official communication from headquarters "military movements in Great Russia have ceased."

Russ Kneel to Kaiser.

Petrograd, March 4.—In the fear that argument would result in even more onerous terms, the Russian delegation at Brest-Litovsk has accepted all the German peace conditions and is about to sign an agreement, according to a telegram from the delegates received at the Smolny institute, the bolshevik headquarters. The demands already have been increased, they reported.

Message Sent Leaders.

The message, which was addressed to Premier Lenine and Foreign Minister Trotzky, follows:

"As we expected, deliberations on a treaty of peace are absolutely useless and could only make things worse in comparison with the ultimatum of February 21. They might even assume the character of leading to the presentation of another ultimatum.

"In view of this fact and in consequence of the Germans' refusal to cease military action until peace is signed, we have resolved to sign the treaty without discussing its contents and leave after we have attached our signatures. We, therefore, have requested a train, expecting to sign today and leave afterward.

Feature of New Demands.

"The most serious feature of the new demands compared with those of February 21 is the following:

[The new territorial claims upon Russia are apparently advanced in the interest of Turkey. Batoum, a strongly fortified seaport on the Black sea coast in Transcaucasia, about twenty miles north of the border of Turkish Armenia, was one of the cities ceded by Turkey to Russia after the Russo-Turkish war of 1877-78. Kars, also in Transcaucasia, 105 miles northeast of Erzeroum in Turkish Armenia, has been in dispute between the Turks and the Russians for nearly a century and finally was ceded to Russia at the same time as was Batoum. The other region mentioned probably is that of Karabagff, Transcaucasia, lying to the east of Kars region and north of the Persian border.]

LIEUT. U. S. GRANT IV WEDS

New York, March 4.—Lieut. U. S. Grant IV, grandson of the Union general, left camp at Spartanburg, S. C., for Washington to report to the chief of ordnance there, and just before leaving gave his brother officers a surprise by announcing that he was carried in Spartanburg on October 4 to Miss Matilda Bartikofsky of New York city. He said the bride had returned to New York. The marriage license was issued by Probate Judge J. J. Burnett of Spartanburg, who performed the ceremony. Relatives of Lieutenant Grant in New York, while not surprised at the announcement, are very anxious to know who his wife is.

U. S. AFTER COAL PROFITEERS

Operators Charged With Boosting Prices Are Being Investigated by Doctor Garfield.

Washington, March 4.—Profiteering and hoarding of coal are being hard hit by Fuel Administrator Garfield. Operators charged with boosting prices are being investigated by the fuel administration. Consumers have protested against certain firms adding 45 cents a ton to prices in contracts made prior to August 21, 1917. President Wilson's proclamation permitting an addition of 45 cents a ton to cover wage increases was not to affect contracts made before August 21. Regulations covering retail distribution of coal beginning April 1 are practically ready for announcement.

U. S. Naval Tug Lost.

Washington, March 4.—The naval tug Mariner was lost in a heavy gale February 26, the navy department announced. All its officers and crew were rescued and taken to port, arriving Friday.

Costa Rica Suppresses Rebellion.

San Salvador, March 4.—According to an official communication the Germanophile rebellion in Costa Rica, led by Fernandez Guell, has been completely suppressed.

Time Will Tell.

Nora—Do you think marriage is always a failure?

Ada—Always a failure! Well, I should say not. Why, I knew a case where a wife fairly idolizes her husband, and he—why, he can't keep away from her a minute.

Nora—Bless me, how long have they been married?

Ada—Nearly a week.

Vain Thought.

"You are looking thin, Gadspur."

"That's true."

"Appetite poor?"

"Very. I was just thinking that if my appetite for food were one-tenth as voracious as my furnace's appetite for coal, I would soon be tipping the scales at 300 pounds."

ALLIED FLEET AT VLADIVOSTOK

JAPAN'S ARMY IN SIBERIA

Tokyo, March 4.—The bolsheviki have seized a pier at Vladivostok containing munitions and other goods valued at 100,000,000 rubles (about $500,000,000), according to advices received here.

The same dispatch declared the bolsheviki threatened to requisition a foreign merchant ship for their use and that allied warships in the harbor were preparing to land marines.

Foreign Minister Motono informed the diet that Japan is negotiating with the allies for a new policy toward Russia. Hurried departure for Vladivostok of Rear Admiral Tanaka, former attache at Petrograd, was considered significant.

The Siberian situation was the subject of an important conference at the emperor's villa in Hayama. Foreign Minister Motono, Naval Minister Kato and Admiral Togo participated.

Troops Being Sent In.

London, March 4.—Japan and China are dispatching troops into Asiatic Russia, the former into Siberia and the latter into Manchuria, Tien Tsin newspapers announced, according to a dispatch to the Evening News. The dispatch added that Gen. Tuan Chi Jui probably would be the Chinese supreme commander.

A diplomatic correspondent, presumably Japanese, discussing in the Chronicle the objects Japan would have in taking action in Siberia, says that Manchuria would be the base of the Japanese operations. Vladivostok, he points out, is regarded as sufficiently protected by the Japanese fleet.

A compact force, this writer considers, would probably be dispatched to guard the trans-Siberian railroad. A point at least as far in the interior as [illegible], he says, would be the objective, it may be assumed, as local action in Russian Manchuria is deemed inadequate.

Stand Taken by Japan.

Reuter's, Limited, has issued the following statement from an authoritative Japanese source in London:

"Japan has put forward no suggestion regarding any action that may be necessary as a result of the Russian situation. The plain facts are that a [illegible] Japan addressed inquiries to the allied governments asking for an expression of their views on the latest developments in Russia. There has been no proposal, military or otherwise, by Japan.

"It is pointed out that Japan did not enter the war under any terms or agreements with the allies which would suggest that there had even been any question of aggrandizement in the mind of Japan. There was no such thought when Japan embarked on hostilities, and if she has to extend operations her object will not be aggrandizement.

"The new menace is one directly threatening the far East and immediately involving Japan's security. Japan's interpretation of her position is that she is responsible for the maintenance of peace and security in the far East. A German menace already exists in East Siberia and was well known to the allies even before the latest German advance into Russia."

JAPS SINK TWO U-BOATS

German Submarines Destroyed While Attempting to Attack Ships Carrying Australian Soldiers.

Tokyo, March 4.—Two German submarines attacking troop ships from Australia conveyed by Japanese warships in the Mediterranean, are believed to have been sunk, the navy office announces. One convoy fleet was attacked by a submarine February 12. A well-placed shot at the sea pirate is reported to have sent it to the bottom. The second attack was on February 19 and was under similar conditions. In this case also the submarine evidently was destroyed.

TWO DIE IN ARGENTINE CLASH

Several Others Wounded in Fight Between Troops and Strikers at Two Points.

Buenos Aires, March 4.—Two persons were killed and several others wounded in fighting between troops and strikers at two points on the Pacific railway. The strike was declared a few days ago without warning shortly after another strike, which affected this line, had been brought to an end by President Irigoyen. The destruction of property has been in progress ever since the men quit work.

Switzerland Like United States.

Switzerland is the only European example of a federative and democratic republic of the American type, observes a writer. Switzerland, as the United States, was born from a desire for emancipation from autocratic despotism; like the United States, Switzerland never believed in the divine right of kings. The very pact which the ancient federates, on that quiet spot, the "Rutli," on the classic Lake of Lucerne on August 1, 1291, swore to, embodies that great principle for which now, 626 years later, the United States is fighting, namely, to quote President Wilson's own words, "For the right of those who submit to authority to have a voice in their own governments." There the old Swiss proclaimed self-government against the autocratic rule of the Hapsburg, in the following words: "We ordain and direct with unanimous accord, that in the above-mentioned valleys we shall recognize no judge who shall have bought his rights with money or in any other manner, or who shall not be a native or an inhabitant of these districts."

YANKEES TELL OF BIG RAID

DEATH OF U. S. CAPTAIN TOLD

Officer Was Kneeling Alongside Spitting Machine Gun and Blazing Away at the Germans With His Automatic.

With the American Army in France, March 4.—A plan of attack, including a map of the American positions, indicating every dugout, which was removed from the body of the Prussian captain who led the recent assault upon the sector northwest of Toul, shows how completely the Germans prepare their raids—if, in fact, this was but a simple raid, not having as its ultimate object the retention of a portion of the salient.

Hold Four Rehearsals.

Four rehearsals were held for the attack, and the troops who made it were specially picked from new arrivals of fresh troops in the sector.

The two groups in the sector had planned to attack directly, but the American defense changed all the plans. When they were met by the heavy machine gun fire from the American lines they saw it would be impossible to get a footing there changed their direction and followed the other groups around the flank.

Official reports of the interrogation of the prisoners taken by the Americans show that all of them did not believe Germany would win the war.

One prisoner, whose home is in German Lorraine, said he thought the fatherland would lose the war, but he hoped not.

The prisoners' accounts showed that the sector opposed the American position was commanded by General Stalzmann.

American Heroism.

The correspondent talked with a dozen of the Americans wounded in their hospital cots. Every one of them was anxious to tell of some deed of heroism or other performed by his fellows, but displayed great modesty regarding his own exploits. One youth, whose home is near Savannah, Ga., and who looked to be not more than eighteen years old, told this story:

"I was in the front line when it seemed like every shell in the world started coming our way. Where the Germans got them is more than I know. I never believed that many [illegible]

"A pal of mine, a fellow on the other side of me who came from Texas. The corporal picked him up in his arms and started with him for a first-aid station in the midst of a perfect shower of shell and which was being kicked up. I don't know whether he ever got there or not.

Rifle Blown to Pieces.

"By that time I got into a machine gun emplacement with another corporal whose home was in Missouri leaving my rifle outside. Things got so hot we decided to try to get to a steel shelter at the end of the trench.

"The corporal went first, but a few feet away a shell exploded almost on him and killed him. I stepped out and saw that my rifle had been blown to pieces. This left me defenseless, so I started in another direction, hoping to find a rifle or a pistol, because I knew the Germans would be around soon. About the same time a piece of shell hit me on the left side and down I went. A sergeant yelled an order for me to go to a first-aid station.

"I was just approaching the station in the rear of two stretcher-bearing teams who were proceeding, bent over, to escape if possible the flying pieces of shell, when a shell exploded and wiped it out. A piece of rock hit me in the head. When I woke up some stretcher-bearers had me, hauling me over the shell holes.

"I've sure got to hand it to those men who went with the red cross on their arms. They all worked like dogs in that hell out there. They seemed to have but one idea—to do their duty—and apparently cared nothing for their own lives while doing it. They were game right to the core."

Grieve for Dead Captain.

All the infantrymen asked questions regarding the fate of their comrades. Keen distress was displayed by all the men of the company commanded by the captain who was killed. One of them said:

"He was a fine officer, and believe me, he took care of his men. Anyone of the company would have gone through hell on his order. We will pay Fritz for that if we haven't already done so."

A Kansas man who was in the fight said the last he saw of the captain he was kneeling alongside a spitting machine gun and blazing away at the Germans with his own automatic pistol. "I saw him fall flat," added the private.

The captain was killed by a gunshot wound in the chest.

All the American dead now have been buried in a little graveyard a few hundred yards from the spot where they fell. The German bodies also have been collected and buried near the place.

Codfish for Trench Soldiers.

The codfish army is no dream. It arrives in the trenches somewhere in France at the rate of 5,000,000 pounds a week. On its strength of "two breakfasts and one fish dinner" Canadian and British "Tommies" are kept up to their working mark.

Canada herself is helping to solve the food problem by having two fish days a week—Tuesdays and Fridays, notes a correspondent. With this great demand for fish the Nova Scotia fisherman suffers neither fog, nor rain, nor ice, nor snow, nor darkness nor submarines to interfere with his task of supplying the dominion and the empire with fish in quantities never paralleled in history.

POSSIBILITIES OF EFFICIENCY TODAY

PROMOTION RECENTLY GIVEN TO CHARLES B. WARREN IS GOOD ILLUSTRATION

REWARDED FOR WORK WELL DONE

Colonel Warren Given Credit By War Department for Working Out Selective Draft Plan.

The highest honor as yet won in the great war by a [illegible] came the other day to Charles B. Warren of Detroit when he was promoted to Lieutenant Colonel in the National Army and assigned to the staff of Major General Crowder. The promotion was conferred as a reward for the able work done by Colonel Warren in connection with the selective draft. As stated in the report of General Crowder Colonel Warren was personally responsible for the plan that resulted in the first draft being successfully carried out in the country.

Is Ranked As a Leader.

Colonel Warren, for years past, has been ranked as one of the most able attorneys and one of the leading business men as well, not only of Detroit, but of the whole state of Michigan. As a business man he has amassed his own property and as a lawyer has already had a career that included many distinctions. He was elected president of the Detroit Board of Commerce in 1914 and re-elected in 1915, being the first president ever accorded a re-election by the board.

COLONEL CHARLES B. WARREN

Graduating from the literary department of the University of Michigan in 1891, for which course he had been prepared in Albion college, Colonel Warren studied law in the offices of Don M. Dickinson, in Detroit, obtaining his law degree in 1893.

Accustomed to Doing Big Things.

He was only 26 years of age when he was appointed by President Cleveland to make one of the principal arguments in behalf of the United States before the international joint high commission at Halifax to settle the Bering sea dispute between the United States and Great Britain. On this occasion he spoke for four days in submitting the case of his country. A dozen or so years later, when hardly 40 years of age, Colonel Warren was chosen by President Roosevelt as one of the counsel for the United States government to argue the North Atlantic fisheries dispute when it was submitted to arbitration by this country and Great Britain. On this occasion he made an argument extending over five days.

On Republican National Committee.

Colonel Warren was chosen Michigan member of the Republican national committee in 1912 and was soon thereafter made a member of the executive committee of the national committee, which he has since held. In this capacity he formulated the rules reducing southern representation in Republican national conventions and also for reorganizating the basis of representation in national conventions. In the recent contest for the chairmanship of the Republican party, Colonel Warren cast the deciding vote to invite the former Progressive party members to attend the meeting of the Republican national committee in St. Louis. Being in the military service of the country he did not attend the St. Louis meeting himself.

Quick to Respond to Country's Call.

The University of Michigan, in 1916, on the 25th anniversary of Col. Warren's graduation, honored him with a master of arts degree. With the rank of major, Colonel Warren was the first active officer of his corps called into service, the call coming from President Wilson in April, 1917, shortly after war was declared on Germany. He has been in active service ever since, giving up his legal practice and business without compensation.

OLD FANEUIL HALL

Cradle of American Liberty Is Soon to Be Restored.

Boston Landmark, Erected in 1740, for Scores of Years Afforded Place for Patriotic Gatherings.

Faneuil hall is to be made fireproof, also made over on the old model. New York has an interest in the matter. It was a native of New York state, Peter Faneuil, born in New Rochelle, who built the hall and presented it to Boston in 1740. When he died three years later it was the scene of memorial exercises in his honor. What glorious patriotic meetings have been held in the building and its reconstructions since that time; in the Revolutionary war and all our wars, in abolition times and whenever the times demanded that free speech should have utterance, observes the New York Sun.

No political campaign in the old days was complete without mass meetings in Faneuil hall, on whose sawdust-covered floor stood the democracy to listen, to applaud and to show its displeasure. What a wellspring of inspiration the picture of Webster replying to Hayne has been for two generations! The sight of that [illegible] and homely building, as one approaches it in the bustle and tide of city life, brings back the stirring scenes of Revolutionary days when it got its name of the Cradle of American Liberty.

Faneuil hall, with its market below and meeting hall above, is to be restored to the original fabric and design as well as may be, and to be made as secure as possible against fire. In 1761 all but the shell was burned. Not since then, we believe, have the building and its additions been seriously threatened. Yet it has always been deplorably combustible. Here is what the finance commission has to say about it:

"In the basement the floor timbers are unprotected. The refrigerator rooms are packed with cork. The cork and the unprotected timbers give an opportunity for fire damage in this part of the building. The windows are of common glass with wooden sashes and present a danger from fire on the outside. Over the upper hall there is a dumb waiter running from the room used as a kitchen which is constructed of inflammable material."

And there is much more of the same kind. It is a painful thought that modern Boston has neglected the Cradle of American Liberty. Such, however, seems to be the case.

What columns of grief and reminiscence there would have been if fire had gutted it and leveled its walls! Big Faneuil hall is to be saved for posterity now. Bravo, Boston! Has the war waked you up to your duty? "If properly done," says a report of the society of architects, "the architectural restoration proposed will make of this building a unique possession of the city." Faneuil hall has always been that. Guard it well.

English Women in War.

When the war began, England had only a little army. Many Englishmen had never seen a soldier. A new army of 5,000,000, drawn from civilian ranks, had to be raised, trained, armed, clothed, fed and equipped with all the supplies demanded by a war which has turned every scientific invention to the work of destruction. This necessitated that the women fill the necessary places men had formerly occupied and also engage in the new industries war requirements caused to spring into existence.

Lord Northcliffe says that the women have done this work, in the main, exactly as well as the men. They have entirely displaced the men in the operation of elevators, as clerks in stores, banks and insurance offices and as drummers. In their enthusiasm the women attempted tasks beyond their physical strength, but this was gradually corrected. The fact that England has been able to maintain its credit and keep its exports at practically the prewar figures Lord Northcliffe unhesitatingly ascribes to the work of the women.

Preserving Old Furniture.

Possessors of antique furniture should devote regular attention to it, and especially to any of old oak, which should be kept in condition by periodical rubbings with flannel dipped in a mixture of beeswax, oil and spirits of turpentine. White painted French furniture is best cleansed with paraffin; and after old mahogany has been gone over with a very little sweet oil any spots or stains may usually be worked off or blended into the wood fiber by working an oxalic acid and water dampened cork over the surface of the blemish. The brilliancy of the gilding of old furniture, mirror frames and candelabra may nearly always be speedily restored by being sponged off with sulphur which has been boiled for fifteen minutes in company with several bruised garlics, or with a preparation of common salt, alum and purified nitre, such as any druggist will supply.

The Town Fool.

"Ladies and gentlemen," shouted the long-haired one. "We are here to protest against the constantly increasing cost of living. Since the war everything has gone up. I defy anyone to name a single thing that has gone down since the war began."

"How about these here ships that have been torpedoed?" asked the town fool from the back of the hall.—Gargoyle.

World's Rubber Production.

Early in the war England established an embargo on crude rubber, and through her control of the far Eastern rubber plantations was able to make it effective. Rubber manufacturers later were permitted to obtain crude rubber on their written agreement to withhold shipments of rubber or rubber products from the central powers and certain neutrals. The shipments of crude rubber to this country is still contingent upon the observance of this agreement.

The world's rubber production for this year is placed at 250,000 tons—about double the production at the beginning of the war. About 60 per cent is used in the United States.

Women in India Need Education.

At a meeting of the Woman's Indian Study association, Miss Boyd, secretary in England for the Woman's University settlement, Bombay, said that only one per cent of Indian women could read. She declared the great need was for the Indian girls to take up the profession of medicine. It had been stated by an authority that an Indian woman in child birth had less chance than a soldier on the battlefield.

TWO NOTED RIVERS

Tagliamento and Livenza Become Important in Italy.

One Stream of No Value Commercially, While the Other Is Known for Many Tributaries.

The National Geographic society at Washington has issued the following war geography bulletins on the Tagliamento and Livenza rivers, mentioned in the cable dispatches concerning the German drive into Italy:

"The Tagliamento river, whose flooded banks served as a rampart for the retreating Italians for only a few days, and which was crossed by the Austro-German forces, is a stream of no value commercially. It is one of many small rivers rising in the Carnic Alps and flowing through the Venetian plain into the Adriatic. Its headwaters are near Mount Clapsavon, about sixty-five miles northwest of its entrance into the Adriatic, but the course of the stream is meandering, flowing first to the east and then south through a marshy valley, thus traversing a distance of 100 miles.

"Just 120 years ago the Tagliamento figured prominently in another great military campaign in northern Italy. It was during Napoleon's campaign of 1797 that re-enforcements were greatly needed by the French. Bernadotte, who afterward was placed by Napoleon on the throne of Sweden as Charles XIV, led his army with signal dispatch from the banks of the Rhine to his commander in chief, and at the passage of the Tagliamento won enduring distinction.

"The Tagliamento passes no important cities of Venetia. The most important of the small towns that squat upon its marshy banks are Venzone, 20 miles by rail from the Austro-Italian frontier; Spilimbergo and Latisana. The last-named is equidistant from Venice and Trieste on the 100-mile railway which connects these two important cities. The Tagliamento flows 15 miles to the west of Udine, the first Italian city of importance to fall before the onrushing Teutonic forces in the present offensive.

"In ancient times the Tagliamento was known as Tilaventus.

"The Livenza, like the Tagliamento, is one of many streams which rise in the Carnic Alps and flow through the delta region of Venetia. Its course is not more than seventy-five miles in length, but it has numerous tributaries, chief among those on the east being the Meduna, the Fiume and the Sile, while the Monticano and the Meschia are affluents of the west bank. The point at which the Livenza mingles its waters with the Adriatic is only 228 miles northeast of Italy's priceless jewel city, Venice.

"The plain lying between the parallel courses of the Tagliamento and the Livenza is dotted with Italian towns of great historic and art interest. Chief among these are Pordenone, probably the Portus Naonis of the ancients, but now many miles from the sea; Portogruaro, San Vito, Azzano and the ruins of Concordia Saggittaria, the ancient Roman military station."

Work and Play.

Variation of types of work properly adjusted will often substitute for what is generally known as play, says the New York Times. For instance, one's brain center may become weary at a monotonous occupation, and a decided change of occupation, notwithstanding it be what we usually call work, will permit the first brain center involved to rest while another works. But we come back to the fact that what most people regard as play is an occupation that they are not required to perform, and, it would seem from a psychological standpoint to give greater rest if it be an occupation that is particularly useless from the standpoint of producing economic results. Therefore there should be time set aside in the work of the day, no matter whether it be varied or not, when the environment may be changed and play should be taken up.

Did Hard "Bit" for Flag.

After going without tobacco several weeks, so the money could be used to purchase a large American flag, the old inmates of the Hempstead (L. I.) poor farm recently had the pleasure of seeing the colors break from the flagpole in front of the only home they know.

Some of the men are eighty-five years old and the loss of their tobacco was a great hardship. The old fellows talked of the deeds they had seen done for the colors in the Civil war and heard of in the Revolutionary war, as they planned the pleasure that was to be theirs. The overseers of the poor, Daniel J. Morrison had Frank Hammill, after the flag raising, gave the patriotic old men fine cigars and they started to make up for the lost smokes.

Danish Statistics.

Very few European countries only were in a position to proceed, since August 1, 1914, with their normal quinquennial census. Denmark is one of the exceptions, says an exchange. On February 1, 1916, the little kingdom counted 2,920,000 inhabitants, i. e., an increase of 163,000 souls over the census of 1911.

The distribution ratio is 75 inhabitants to the square kilometre. The Copenhagen Frederiksberg county contains 605,000 inhabitants, i. e., more than one-fifth of the total population. The 74 other cities number 604,000 people. Rustic population, 1,711,000.

The three principal cities, besides Copenhagen, are: Aarhus, 66,000; Odense, 45,000, and Aalborg, 38,000. The present war increased the importance of the seaport town of Esbjerg (19,000 inhabitants), which hardly existed 50 years ago.

Concerning Gasoline.

The war department has estimated that the daily gasoline needs of America for war purposes will be 959,000 gallons for the next few years. Government figures show that the total daily gasoline production in the United States is 6,849,000 gallons.

The Bureau of Mines has authorized the publication of a bulletin which states that a saving of 1,500,000 gallons of gasoline may be effected every day by Americans by the careful observation of certain simple suggestions. The bureau of mines would conserve a half million gallons more of gasoline daily than will be demanded by the government to operate its necessary war equipment or to carry on its other necessary industries during times of war.

What Americans need to learn at this time is to conserve gasoline judiciously and sensibly.—Peoria Journal.

WHAT SAMMIES EAT

Coffee Served at Breakfast and Buttermilk, Tea, Cocoa or Water at Other Meals.

The old idea that army diet should consist largely of beans, hardtack and coffee, is no longer approved, writes Belle Case Harrington in Leslie's. In the present training camps meat, preferably beef, is served twice a day, with white bread baked in the general camp bakery and kept 24 hours before serving. Where green vegetables can be obtained they are used, otherwise canned goods are substituted. Coffee is served at breakfast, and buttermilk, lemonade, tea, cocoa or water at other meals. Meals, which in the vernacular are "mess" or "chow," are served cafeteria style.

Every soldier is furnished with an outfit which consists of a meat-pan, knife, fork and spoon, and a long-handled cup. The cover of the meat-pan serves as a plate, and the outfit is so arranged that each man may do his own cooking in case of an emergency. Each man takes his meat-pan and passes before a table where he is served with the various dishes prepared. He then goes to a table, or if there is none, drops down on the ground, and eats in absolute contentment. Don't feel too sorry for the boys, even if they do write longingly home wishing for mother's cookies or Jane's fried chicken. Men in outdoor training have good appetites, and they are far better off physically than if fed on the salads and ices and sodas they probably would have at home. What they miss most is sweets. If you are sending things from home put in cookies, candies and jams or jellies. Milk chocolate is one of the things a soldier seems to crave, and a jar of malted milk will come handy if he is not feeling well. Be sure not to send food that is too rich as the boys are on plain diet.

One of the comforting thoughts to the friends at home is the fact that Uncle Sam is bound to maintain good health among his soldiers. Even if there were no humane considerations, this would be necessary from a purely economic standpoint. Sick soldiers are a menace, and a regiment not up to par in the matter of health is an awful handicap. All men are vaccinated for smallpox, and inoculated against typhoid as soon as they enter service. Minor disorders, such as blisters, bowel trouble, or sore throat are carefully watched by the officers in charge, and there is a hospital with trained nurses in every camp. No faking can pass. The officers have sharp eyes to discriminate between real and simulated illness. As the boys say, "There are only two times a day when a fellow can get sick"—at sick call, which occurs at 7 a. m., and again at 5:30 p. m. Between times "he just has to stand it."

Regular habits, outdoor life, plain food, and strenuous military drill, are in themselves strong factors toward good health, and many a man who enters the service a comparative weakling will come out fine of physique and strong of limb.

As for drinking, it "isn't done!" Saloons and even soft drink establishments are not allowed to sell anything to a soldier in uniform, and many young men who have heretofore been occasional drinkers now proudly proclaim themselves teetotalers.

No Butter at Vassar.

The announcement at Vassar college that no more butter will be served at dinner has caused much discussion, but the girls promise to give the plan a trial, says New York World. It is a war measure, established on account of the high cost of living. The girls will have gravies, jellies and jams to take the place of butter. It was said that the college would lift the ban on butter for dinner just as soon as there were any complaints.

The hard-boiled egg for breakfast is doomed, too; at least it must not be served where omelet is to be had.

Because most of the girls have a sweet tooth, the college authorities will increase the sugar service at all meals; but this will be evened up by cutting down of meat.

Sheep-Killing Parrots at Large.

Not long ago no little consternation was created by the escape at San Francisco of two keas, or sheep-killing parrots, which were being shipped from Australia to the Smithsonian institution, at Washington, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. The birds liberated themselves by splintering the slats of their wooden crates with their powerful beaks. The federal authorities offered a reward of $100 for each bird taken dead or alive. This species of parrot has made itself an enemy of man in both Australia and New Zealand by slaying sheep for the sake of eating parts of the flesh, of which it is very fond, and there bounties are paid for killing the birds.

Sarcastic Surprise.

"I wonder why it is considered an insult to call some men insects?"

"Why is it?"

Cynical.

Bachelor Maid—Did you know Mr. Stevens is writing a book on the history of happiness.

Second B. M.—Impossible; he is a married man.

The Blue Cross.

The Blue Cross fund was organized in 1912 in Constantinople by Lady Lowther, the wife of the British ambassador in Turkey at that time. At the beginning the fund was used for the Balkan wars and at the beginning of this war was turned over to the British and French governments to work in co-operation with their army veterinary corps and was immediately accepted. The president of the organization is Lady Smith Dorrien, but she has authorized Mrs. Elphinstone Maitland to come to this country to form the American branch of this fund and raise funds.

Contradictory Evidence.

"There is one thing curious about the minutes of a meeting."

"What is that?"

"They are generally affairs of moment."

Training Counts.

"I suppose that is why he finds it so easy to run [illegible] a column of figures."

LIVING IN CITIES

Residents Are Not as Neighborly as in Country.

Life in Metropolitan Municipalities Is a Battle for Existence, With No Time for Sociability.

"Who, then, is my neighbor?" the man "in the city pent" asks himself, as he regards a row of similar house fronts and reflects on the fact that he has only a nodding acquaintance at best with the majority of the inmates.

Interdependence is fostered by the conditions of living in the country. Ordinarily we do not need the help of the next house, near or far. But let fire come, or a destructive storm, or a predatory visitor, or a serious illness, and the neighbor may be as welcome as angels, says a writer in Philadelphia Ledger.

City life is often a battle of the strong, because there are crowds and there are many mouths to feed and many shuffling feet to be shod. If we let ourselves think of it, the vast multitude of identities striving to establish themselves is almost terrifying. Where did so many people come from? Where are they all going? How are they to find a lodging for the night? Each of the moving swarm is the center of a circle of friends. The humblest, unless deeply unfortunate, has ties that bind him to earth and make life—in a degree—dear to him.

Out of the pagan wilderness to the urban lights and roarings comes bucolic youth. What will the city do to that unsophistication? Or in what way will its rugged, innocent power in time come to prevail upon the city?

Your shrewdest, hardest captain of business closes his eyes at his desk and is taken back to murmurous water brooks and bees, to the aroma of hay, of kine, of burning leaves, to the sound of the whetted scythe or the sight of baked apples in the window of the woodshed.

Why can't they brown flapjacks or bake beans or concoct apple sauce or cook oatmeal as they did down on the farm?

The table was always big enough for the unexpected guest. An egg or a quart of milk was no such great event as it is in a city. There used to be time, too, to settle the affairs of the borough and the nation, to discuss Horace Greeley and to wind the clock, between supper and early bedtime.

We have filtration, and the vacuum cleaner, and the servant question, and all the other city advantages. But it was something to know the neighbors, and somehow or other "the men that were boys when I was a boy" mean something in a lifetime that the brisk, ambitious, clean-shaven, up-pushing generation does not convey. It would do these take-it-or-leave-it fellows good to study the large, leisurely, tranquilizing ways of their forebears in the days when "civilization" was not on a tear from the cheap lunch to the bargain counter, and home was not a way-station betwixt the joyride and the moving pictures.

Dispersing a Crowd.

"I have just come back from forty-eight hours' duty in Paris," writes an officer in a Highland regiment. "My servant and I, both in the kilt, were buying some stuff outside a shop, as one does in Paris, when a crowd of about twenty people gathered round, and simply stared—some amused, some open-mouthed, and some doubtless in admiration. I was amused at first, but it got a bit too much of a good thing, and my servant, who is a wag, said: 'Shall I hand round the hat, sir?'

So, not thinking he would, I said: 'Yes, do,' and—if he didn't whip off his Balmoral and take it round perfectly seriously, with a childlike expression on his face. They cleared off all right, some grinning, and others looking very sheepish. But we got nothing."

Prepare to Care for Themselves.

Nowhere have the French shown their remarkable national vitality more striking than in the way they have kept up the pursuits of peace while bearing the brunt of the most exacting war in history. So far from having their industries broken by conflict they have developed scores of new ones, writes a correspondent. An exhibit now being held in Paris is given over entirely to products manufactured in France, which were formerly imported. The first division consists of articles formerly brought from foreign nations, largely from Germany, while the second is made up of articles formerly made in the northern French districts now occupied by the invader, which are now being manufactured in southern France.

Interesting Experiment.

Experiments just completed by two French scientists have reopened the controversy whether rudimentary manifestations of life can be produced in inorganic matter. These men took a glass tube containing a solution of colloidal silica, sealed it by melting the glass and subjected tube and contents to a high temperature, long enough to sterilize them thoroughly, according to all current ideas of sterilization. The tube was then kept moderately warm for two months, and when opened the contents were full of living bacteria. Objectors contend that the colloidal silica probably operates to protect bacteria originally in the solution from the effects of the heat sterilization.

Guineas Get Ride.

Any of the young blood of Indianapolis will testify that "chickens" (in one of the later acceptances of the word) are very fond of street car and automobile riding, observes the Indianapolis News, but it is not often that four guineas of the common or garden digging variety have an opportunity to disport themselves in or on a city street car.

Amid a chorus of squawks from about 100 coops of turkeys and other fowls in front of William Locks' fish and poultry place at 1027 Virginia avenue, the other day, four guineas escaped from a coop, and a series of hops, flops and flights landed them on the trolley pole of a street car headed for Washington street, where they evidently regarded it policy to sit tight. At any rate they were not tempted from their perch by downtown window displays or moving picture theaters. On the back trip the street car stopped in front of Locks', and the motorman shouted: "Here are your guineas." Eager hands helped them to alight, and they were taken back home.

PHILOSOPHY OF MAIN CHANCE

Lonely Bachelor Realizes Mistake in Not Welcoming Both Joy and Sorrow Into His Life.

I read a story in a current magazine today. And after I read a certain part of it I laid the magazine down, and I too, looked far away. But I looked past the printed page into a damp, dimly lighted trolley car—and into the heart of my friend who feared to grasp a vision, Margaret E. Sangster writes in the Christian Herald.

In the story a wealthy old bachelor was telling his reason for never having married.

"I began to wonder," he said, "whether there was any advantage in marrying at all. I saw a lot of people who were wretchedly unhappy together, and even more wretched after they had dissolved their matrimonial ties. I discovered that marriage usually meant children, anxiety, sickness and death. I took counsel of my fears. Why fall in love and marry if by doing so I was going to expose myself to the arrows of outrageous fortune? My parents were both dead. Sorrow couldn't touch me. Why invite unhappiness? If I had no family I should have only myself to look out for—to worry about—and when I died nobody would suffer agonies of bereavement on my account. So I shut myself up in my shell and built an iron wall around my affections to keep out sorrow.

"I was a fool! What wouldn't I give now to have had sorrow! Many's the time I've envied my friend with a dead child. Pain and joy go hand in hand. Deaden your capacity for one and you lose the other. Today I'd rather have had a year or so with a woman I had loved and have lost her than to be what I am—a lonely, childless, wifeless, friendless old man."

I read the paragraph over. And then I took it to a man I know—I call him sometimes, to myself, the philosopher.

"I think," he told me, "that the reasoning is quite right!

"There's an old proverb that covers the whole thing. I think. 'Tis better to have loved and lost than never to have loved at all!' The word 'love' isn't the only one that will fit into that proverb. You can put 'live' in place of love, or 'known' or 'felt!'"

"I think," I said, "that you're right. 'Tis better," I mused, "to have lived, to have known, to have loved—and lost—"

"You know," said the philosopher, "that every chance isn't a losing chance. Some people live and know and feel and love without losing!"

High Individual Morale.

The reason why morale is necessary in times of peace as well as in war is that the morale of no army can be higher than the individual morale of the men, declares San Antonio Light. Therefore the very best soldiers are those recruited from civil life who have every day morale—the men who do things, who stand fearlessly for what they believe to be right, who are undismayed by opposition and apparent defeat, and who accept life's tribulations calmly, patiently and with fortitude.

Men of that stripe cannot be stampeded or confused in military affairs, once they have been trained as soldiers, just as in every-day life they cannot be kept down by circumstances. They are individually invincible and hence when organized into an army, they are militarily invincible.

Therefore when you read of an army or a military unit with a high morale you know that the men in the ranks and the officers over them are men of strong, dominant courage who meet death calmly in the discharge of their military duty and who cannot be routed nor overawed by the enemy, but must be vanquished, if at all, by fighting.

Communication by Flags.

Those who have read Cooper's novel, "The Pilot," will remember how the American officer instructed his lady love to communicate with him by little flags of varied colors. Cooper, with a novelist's freedom, made his character apply a system which had already been extensively experimented with in the British and French navies. For after much experimenting combinations of flags of various shapes and colors were gradually developed into what we call a "code" today. Probably the most famous flag signal ever flown was Nelson's at Trafalgar, but it required a great number of combinations of flags (hoists, they are technically called) to spell out: "England expects that every man will do his duty."

Pink Tea Workers Barred.

The head of the canteen department of the National League for Women's Service has requested all "pink tea" members to resign from her division. "I would rather have one dependable woman than one thousand who can't work because they have an engagement to play golf or because it is their afternoon at home," she remarked, according to the Worcester Post.

Red Cross workers and war workers of all types are up against the old-age problems of organizers—how to weed out the indifferent and inefficient worker, the person who enthusiastically enrolls under every new banner, attends a few meetings, throws a monkey-wrench or two into the organization machinery—and disappears until a new "cause" or a brighter banner flaunts into view.

Such women are obstacles in the progress of any cause with which they are at to play.

WORK ON THE LA PLAISANCE BAY PIKE DEFERRED FOR ONE YEAR

Meeting to Hear Objections Draws Big Crowd—Meeting Held at Tipton This Morning

A meeting held by State Highway Commissioner Frank F. Rogers at Tipton this morning at 9 o'clock in the hall over Grant Ogden's store for the purpose of hearing objections to the proposed improvement and for finally determining the limits of the assessment district of the LaPlaisance Bay Pike running from the west line of the Village of Tecumseh west to the county line between Lenawee and Jackson counties.

The hall was filled with property owners who were out to hear the commissioner and to voice their objections to the improvement. Two petitions were presented from Cambridge township people asking that the improvement be deferred until after the war.

The commissioner explained at length the nature of the improvement, defined the special assessment district, the estimated cost of the work, the porportion to be assessed to each township and the amount to be assessed to the abutting property, etc. Charts were displayed and the special assessment district was pointed out showing the property to be direcly effected by the improvement.

The estimated cost of the work was placed at an amount between $7,000 and $8,500 per mile and the estimated cost on abutting property was estimated at about $100.00 per each 40 acres.

A vote was taken after objections were heard for the purpose of determining whether or not the work should be done this coming summer and it resulted in deferring construction one year and giving the state highway commissoner the right to advertise for bids after the termination of the year as he saw fit.

Many points not clear to the property owners were explained in detail by the commissioner. The kind of a road to be built was left up to the highway department and when bids are received they will be figured on both Class B gravel road and Class C stone or slag bottom and gravel top, 16 feet in width. Class C roads bring the higher reward from the state.

The commissioner holds another meeting this afternoon at Birdsall where the building of the Town Line road from the LaPlaisance Bay pike south into Adrian will be considered.

THIS SEASON'S BIG THEATRICAL EVENT!

Al. H. Wilson and His Big Company Coming to the Bradley This Month

When Al. H. Wilson presents his charming military song play "The Irish 15th," at the Bradley Opera House on Tuesday, March 26th, he will be seen in the most artistic and delightful impersonation of his whole career. He gives to the character of the young Irish lieutenant, Richard Dare, a wealth of humor and rollicking audacity that reminds one of the dare-devil personages in the Charles Lever stories. In the stronger dramatic scenes Mr. Wilson has been surprising his friends everywhere by his unusual histrionic ability. He brings to his impersonation an earnestness and a finished art that is placing him among the foremost of our real actors.

It is a protrayal of intense, earnest, light hearted young Irish manhood that has never been equaled in his class of plays before. While "The Irish 15th" is essentially a military play, there is a charming love story at the bottom of it all. It abounds in scenes that alternately produce tears and laughter, a number of very quaint and typically Irish characters lend color and atmosphere to the story, and the whole is richly embellished by handsome stage settings and characteristic costumes.

As Mr. Wilson has always made his songs one of the great features of his performance, he will introduce in "The Irish 15th" some of his latest song successes, among them being "A Lily from Heaven," "Ireland is Your Home," "My Mother's Wedding Ring," "I Want You Then, Machree" and "The Irish Will Be There." The latter is one of the big song hits of the season.

Mr. Wilson and his big company come here direct from a week's engagement at the Auditorium theatre, Toledo.

TECUMSEH WOMEN ORGANIZE TO DO THEIR BIT

To be Known as the Tecumseh Unit of the Woman's Committee of the Council of National Defense

A meeting of Tecumseh women was held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. S. Moore for the purpose of organizing the Tecumseh Unit of the Woman's Committee of the Council of National Defence.

The general purpose of this organization is to direct women's activites in war work. The immediate and urgent purpose is to prepare for the great registration of women which will take place April 6th, the date set by Gov. Sleeper.

It is hoped that every woman in the community will respond to the patriotic call and will register for what she can best do, or is trained for, whether it be housework, stenography or driving a motor car. Our community is being drained of its young men, the young women are beginning to go.

Those who stay must be prepared to fill gaps and with the aid of this registration it will be done in a thorough manner. The government is calling urgently every day for women stenographers, telephone operators, pharmacists, clerical workers. The woman, young or old, who has no special life work, and Tecumseh has her share of these, must respond. She must set herself to the new task and learn anew, and it is to aid such ones that our new unit is formed.

An expert in registration is to be brought here at once who will train 35 women in a school for registration. A sufficient number volunteered last Friday in response to Mrs. J. D. Shull's call for helpers. We are all new to this work but we are all willing to learn together.

Every woman and girl over 16 years of age will be registered.

The various women's organizations of Tecumseh were invited to send representatives to this meeting. There were 24 organizations represented and 46 women present.

Mrs. F. C. Dickinson, president of the Monday Club, acted as temporary chairman and called the meeting to order. Mrs. J. D. Shull told of the necessity of this organization of woman and also how a great work was being carried on through its efforts.

Officers were elected as follows:

Chairman—Mrs. E. E. Hendershott
Vice Chairman—Mrs. F. S. Turner
Secretary—Mrs. Harry Waldron
Treasurer—Mrs. Jas. Kennedy
Registrar—Mrs. J. D. Shull
Publicity—Mrs. F. C. Dickinson

A JUST AND LASTING PEACE

The essential principles that must underlie peace, as stated by President Wilson, should be constantly kept in mind. They show the greatness and unselfishness and justice of America's war aims. Briefly they are:

(1) The final settlement of this war must be based upon essential justice and each particular case so adjusted as will most likely bring a permanent peace.

(2) Peoples and Provinces are not to be bartered about as if they were mere chattles and pawns in a game.

(3) Every territorial settlement must be made in the interest of and for the benefit of the populations concerned and not by way of compromising claims of rival States.

(4) National aspirations must be accorded all the satisfaction possible, without introducing new or perpetuating old elements of discord.

What might have been a serious runaway was narrowly averted Saturday afternoon when a large grey team became frightened and ran up the street. They run into a buggy and became entangled in the wheels breaking a number of spokes in the buggy wheel and the tongue of the wagon to which they were attached. A basket of eggs in the buggy was badly demoralized.

We have it on the authority of Prof. Hollingsworth in "Salesmanship," that woman holds a most prominent place in this work-a-day world. It is estimated that she spends 50 per cent. for jewelry, handkerchiefs, socks, underwear, etc. for men, 83 per cent. of all fuel used, 50 per cent. of all house furnishings, 80 per cent. of all household supplies without the assistance of men. Not so bad after all! Women surely are doing their bit all the time.

RED CROSS NEWS

Mrs. John Nyland, member of the Wednesday evening surgical dressing class, being absent on that evening, took her examination on Friday evening.

Mr. Charles Burridge has just completed a winding machine to be used for winding the knitting yarn into balls. Mr. Burridge's kindness will be highly appreciated as this will prove a wonderful time-saver. The yarn must be shrunken before being wound into balls so if several would volunteer to do this work, please 'phone 77.

The pajama committee sent 28 suits to Adrian Thursday, making the quota for the month of February, 52 suits. The sum total for the months of January and February is 108 suits.

Two power machines through the kindness of Mr. Palman, are being installed this week under the direction of Mr. Burridge and the committee hopes to increase the output with less labor and greater dispatch in the future.

Mrs. W. B. Hartzog and committee sent 24 pairs of knitted socks to headquarters this week.

An afghan for the soldiers was on display in Gaston's window Saturday made by the pupils of the 7th grade. The blocks were very cleverly designed, the center being a 16 inch American flag. The flags of the Allies and the Red Cross were also displayed and one block represented the donors. The children deserve much credit for the work they are doing. Beside several smaller afghans which they have knitted for the Belgian children, $5.00 was donated to the local chapter (the money was earned by individual work of the children), about $600 in Liberty Bonds and $10.75 in Thrift Stamps. The children are now organizing a Junior Red Cross in their grade.

Mrs. G. R. Newsom will have charge of the Red Cross rooms Friday.

Why the Germans so frequently bombard churches is explained by Leon Dabo, New York artist, who accompanied the American financial mission on its tour of the west front, on the ground that it is done to kill doctors. He said:

"The Germans know that it is in the churches that the wounded are taken care of. They know that the doctors are there. They are carrying out a systematic plan of killing doctors, on the theory that one doctor killed may mean nearly a thousand men will die later from want of medical attention."

The fact that the Red Cross flag is supposed to protect these emergency hospitals from shell fire does not deter them. A Red Cross flag will invariably draw their fire, rather than divert it. A Red Cross flag hit may mean a dead doctor.

Mr. Dabo declared that the morale of the American troops is excellent and that their moral standards are as high as their morale.

"Everything is being done to send our boys home as clean mentally and physically as when they went over," he declared.

Mrs. F. D. Rector was greatly pleased Saturday when Mrs. W. D. Rogers of Harvey, Ill., Mrs. Millie Chatfield of South Haven, Miss Eliza Rogers of Lenawee Junction and Miss Alice Wimple made her a surprise visit. HARRIOTT—COLLER DANCE

Monday evening another of Harriott & Coller's popular dancing parties was held at Witherell's hall, There were about 65 couples present. many coming from the nearby towns. Music was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Will Coller and Archie Boyd.

Many of the old time dances, the Schottish, quadrilles, etc, were on the program and were much enjoyed by the participants as were the more modern dances Despite the large crowd, the best of order prevailed and it was a pleasure to watch the merry dancers. Harriott and Coller have surely got the dancing problem to a perfect system and their friends will welcome their next party which will be two weeks from Monday night.

Wilbur Boyce arrived home Monday from the M. A. C. where he has been taking a short course in general agriculture.

Louis Jones has purhased the Rising property just north of the M. E. church and will take possession in the near future.

For unique advertising see the fancy posters that the Juniors of T. H. S. have on display in the windows on the street. They surely are up to date.

Wilbur Boyce spent Saturday with his cousin Earl Rector at Camp Custer. Sunday he was the guest of his uncle Frank Gilmore and family at Parma.

Circle No. 1 of the M. E. church will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. S. Turner. Hostesses Mrs. A. J. Bigelow, Mrs. Earl Updyke, Mrs. F. S. Turner.

Mrs. James Updyke was a passenger for Hudson today, where she will spend some time in caring for Mr. Updyke's sister, Mrs. Ira Culver, who has fallen and injured her hip. Mrs. Culver has many friends here who will regret to hear of her misfortune.

The regular business meeting of the Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church will be held at the home of Mrs. E. M. Lewis Thursday, March 7. The chairmen of the committees for the Patriotic Party are requested to be present. Circle No. 5 will serve.

A BIT OF FINANCIAL HISTORY

The credit of the United States was so high and unquestionable that in 1900, two years after the Spanish War, 2 per cent. bonds were offered at par and oversubscribed. This is a financial performance no other nation has ever equaled.

United States 4 per cent. bonds in 1888 sold as high as 130 and in 1901 brought 139⅝ on the stock market.

The United States has never defaulted on any of its bonds. Not one of its bondholders has ever lost a cent of principal or interest except those who voluntarily have taken losses by selling their bonds in a period of temporary price depression. One hundred cents on the dollar, principal and interest, has the United States always paid.

Back of the $250,000,000,000 to $300,000,000,000 of our national resources stand the rugged honesty of America. Liberty Loan Bonds are the safest security in the world.

NEW YORK CENTRAL ENGINEER HERE LOOKING OVER CHICAGO STREET STOP

Engineer Halley of the New York Central Lines, was in town last Thursday, making a tour of inspection of his company's property here and trying to figure out how the railroad people can better please the village folks. Local Agent McLachlin showed him around but the townspeople, both of the Village Council and Commerce Club, did not lend any suggestions.

He inspected Dr. North's building, the former postoffice, in regard to its suitability as a waiting and baggage room, but of course could give no decision nor dropped an idea of the intentions of his company.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH

March is designated as Rally Month for all the interest and organzations at the Baptist church. Sunday witnessed the largest attendance in many weeks. There was twenty-four at the young people's meeting and seventy at the Sunday-school.

Wednesday evening at 6:30 the men of the church and congregation are invited to a free supper. E. E. Brach of Ionia and W. T. Roberts of Lansing will speak.

FRENCH OUST ENEMY

Several German Raids Attempted Against British Lines Fail—English Take Prisoners.

Paris, March 4.—Strong efforts made by German troops to debouch from the Neufchatel salient, northwest of Reims, were frustrated, the French war office announced in its statement.

The enemy likewise failed to reach the Popelle fort, southeast of Reims, succeeding only in gaining a foothold with some small detachments to the west of it.

The French troops, according to the night report, have completely re-established their line at La Pompelle.

A French counter-attack stopped the German advance on a front of nearly half a mile in the Carnillet sector of the Champagne. The French temporarily evacuated their trenches under orders, but quickly drove in again and re-established the position.

"The artillery battle reported at several points on the French front from the Chemin des Dames to the Mause continued all night, with marked intensity, accompanied by very lively infantry actions, in the course of which the French troops retained the advantage.

"Enemy raids on small French posts southeast of Barisis and south of Juvincourt were repulsed.

"The aggressive enemy action manifested itself notably in the region northwest and southeast of Reims until the end of the day.. German troops attempted to debouch from the salient of Neufchatel. The French fire, directed with precision, disorganized the attack. Portions of German detachments which succeeded in penetrating French advanced positions were driven out by French counter-attacks. At the same time (5:40 p. m.) enemy detachments attempted to approach the French lines before La Pompelle, but under the French fire were forced to return precipitately to the trenches they had left.

"After this first repulse the enemy launched a new and more violent attack in the same region. In spite of his repeated efforts he was unable to reach the fort of La Pompelle. A few enemy elements only succeeded in gaining a foothold north of a small work situated to the west of the fort. At the same time an enemy attack more to the east, south of La Bretonnerie, obtained no result.

"In the Champagne the enemy attacked the French lines at two points without obtaining the slightest success. Near Carnillet an attack delivered on a front of 800 meters found the French trenches evacuated under orders. Energetically returning to the trenches, French troops drove back the enemy and re-established the French position.

"East of the Teton a German attack was checked under our fires. Southwest of the Butte du Mesnil there was a violent bombardment all night. During these actions the French inflicted serious losses upon the enemy and took a number of prisoners.

"On the right bank of the Meuse, in the region of Vaux Les Palamiex, French patrols took prisoners.

"Two enemy raids in Lorraine and in the Vosges, south of Fave, were completely checked."

The official communication from the war office last night says: "Our troops have completely re-established their lines at La Pompelle."

London, March 4.—Several German raids were attempted against the British lines on the Franco-Belgian front, but none of them met with success. The British took prisoners from the Germans in these encounters and for their part successfully raided German trenches near Armentieres.

Servselfs Also Afloat.

There isn't a chance of dodging them any more, either on land or on sea. The sailor boys on the U. S. S. New York form in line between decks and, tray in hand, select their food at the counter of the ship's servself. A blackboard over the counter lists the bill and in all other respects except the presence of the grasping cashier the service is just like the midday lunch back home.

The new method, which is to be installed on all of the big battleships, replaces the old system of messmen and mess units, says Milestones. Then all of the food for the meal was piled on the plates at the tables by the messmen and the job of serving the entire unit was completed before the men were "piped down" to their cooling food.

Surely hot food, in the amount you want and of the kind you want, must be an improvement over the old mess, but juggling a tray loaded to the gunwales with beans and corned beef and bread and coffee, on the rolling waves must be something of a fine art.

NERVE OF BOBBIES

Police Display Thoroughness That Astonishes Colonials.

A Rhodesian who has arrived in England to "join up," after service in the three campaigns undertaken by the South Africans, assures me of his astonishment at the tact and thoroughness exhibited in the daily work of military police, says a writer in Westminster Gazette. The London of today is, indeed, a never-ending marvel to the colonial soldier. It forms one of the most important military centers of the world. It is inhabited by a floating population drawn from one of the most cosmopolitan armies in history—an army, too, that is in no way remarkable for the gentleness of its fighting methods when the game's afoot. Yet, as my South African friend phrased it, "the whole mob goes about on its business and its pleasures like a small flock of contented sheep with a couple of well-trained dogs behind them."

Things were not always managed that way in the early days of the forces raised by the dominions in the first year of war. My informant illustrates the contrast with an incident that came under his notice while his regiment lay intrenched at Swakopmund during the "German Southwest" campaign. One morning the men of the Union advanced posts saw approaching them from the desert three living skeletons, who staggered like drunken men as they groped their way blindly through the furnace of sand. A comrade lay helpless a mile or so behind, too far gone to walk. He was brought in later, unconscious, but still alive. The four heroes—captives in the hands of the Hun—had preferred the chances of death to the grim certainty of a cruel and galling captivity, and had managed to escape from their jailers under cover of darkness. Practically without food and, for the most part, without water, they had traveled some hundreds of miles—from one end of the vast territory to the other. Almost naked, the ice-cold winds of night had crippled them, hunger had robbed them of their strength, and thirst had all but driven them to madness. They had escaped "by the skin of their teeth" from both vengeful Hun and prowling lion. And an officious military policeman greeted them on their arrival in the British lines with the order that they were not to loiter in the streets of the town!

"Up Again!"

When we were little shavers, toddling about the house and went down on the floor or the ground because our feet could not keep up with our ambition to run and "get there" right off; grandmother, a lovely old down East lady, would sing out to us: "Up again! Never mind! That didn't hurt you! Up again!" So up again we would jump, all the hurt gone, just because grandmother cheered us to try it over again, writes Vincent in Farm Life.

Sam Jones has had the luck of bad crops two or three years. Things have seemed against him. But he has been as brave as a lion. No frost can ever come that froze the smile from his face or withered the hope in his heart! And he is right at it this year, just as if he had had the best of luck all through the years.

But I wonder who of his neighbors has been down to sing out to Sam: "Up again, old man! This is all right! You'll come out all right—can't help it!"

I don't know of anybody that has had time to look up from his own hoeing and plowing and digging long enough to do that; it's a shame, too! Come on! Let's go down right now and cheer Sam up a bit! Maybe we can give him a lift at the work, too. All the world will be the brighter for it after that—to Sam and to you and to me, writes Vincent in Farm Life.

Futile Disputes.

In stating prudential rules for our government in society, I must not omit the important one of never entering into dispute or argument with another.

I never saw an instance of one of two disputants convincing the other by argument.

Conviction is the effect of our own dispassionate reasoning, either in solitude or weighing within ourselves, dispassionately, what we hear from others, standing uncommitted in argument ourselves. It was one of the rules which, above all others, made Doctor Franklin the most amiable of men in society, "never to contradict anybody." If he was urged to announce an opinion, he did it rather by asking questions, as if for information, or by suggesting doubts—Thomas Jefferson.

German Schooling.

German schooling has proved antagonistic to co-operation, although demanding unity of action through mass obedience, Winthrop Talbot writes in the Century. It has failed to foster real co-operation, for co-operation is a method by which persons of their own volition and by no compulsion may work together harmoniously. Only when training and schooling are the common privilege of all is that state of civic development possible which permits society to become co-operative in its action. In other words, a socialized society becomes more possible only as all individual members acquire each the widest vision, and thus the power to co-operate harmoniously.

Pay of Our Marine Chaps.

The pay of officers and crews of vessels in the American merchant marine is as follows: Captain, $250 a month; chief officer, $140; second officer, $130; third officer, $120; chief engineer, $190; first assistant engineer, $140; second assistant engineer, $130; third, assistant engineer, $130; carpenters, $75; boatswain, $70; oiler, $60; coal passers, $50. In addition to the regular wages the officers and men now receive bonuses, which materially increase their earnings.

Turn Out Limbs in 48 Hours.

Two Clyde shipbuilding firms have been turning their attention to the manufacture of artificial limbs, says a Glasgow correspondent, and have produced in 48 hours a limb at a moderate cost which is said to be far superior to any other produced in the country. One thousand maimed soldiers have already been fitted, and 9,000 are on the waiting list.

Our Pensioners in England.

In his way, John Davis, who died at his Bermondsey home in Blue Anchor Lane—an appropriate address for an old sailor—did much useful work on behalf of Englishmen who, like himself, had fought in the American Civil war, relates a writer in the Westminster Gazette.

There are something like 150 of these men still living in this country; and John Davis was instrumental in rescuing many of them from the workhouse and getting them pensions, which the United States government was always willing to pay if it had known where to find the men.

On the last occasion I chatted with the old man in his little parlor, furnished like a ship's cabin, he told me of a rumor that the pensions were to be stopped unless the men returned to America, but he wrote later to say that this rumor was quite without foundation.

WE WANT TO BUY

Every Old Automobile Tire in Lenawee County

Read this, Mr. Automobile Owner, then turn your Old "Scraps" into Real Money

With Spring fast approaching, you are always dreading that possible blowout of one of your badly worn tires. You also dread to buy new tires, because of their high cost. Now, here's the point: We can kill two birds with one stone for you. We can put a good new tire on your car, thus banishing those fears you have every time you turn the crank or put your foot on the starter, and also take that old tire at a good price. The plan holds good

We have $8,000 worth of the famous Portage tires that we are going to sell on a unique plan. It's an advertising scheme. Here it is: We want to introduce this tire into Lenawee County with such telling effect that a big trade on them will be established at once. During this special period we will take in trade your old tire at a certain price and sell you a new one for the difference. No matter what the condition of the old tire is, we will take it at the price listed in the following table.

Portage Tires, Guaranteed for 5000 Miles.

Here is one of the best non-skid tires ever manufactured, absolutely guaranteed for 5,000 miles, twin sister of the famous Kelly Springfield tires. Thoroughly tested by us in actual use before we would consent to take agency for them. Every one of them is hand-made, of gray rubber, non skid, with one extra ply of fabric and 47½ per cent. more tread than an ordinary tire, with a pure gum cushion stock running from bead to head.

During this special offer every automobile owner in the county should lay in a supply for the coming season. You know how fast fabric is advancing in price. We look for another advance in the very near future. The reputation of this firm stands squarely behind these tires and this trade in sale. If economy is the watchword, here is the way.

Size of Tires NON SKID	Regular Price of Portage Tires	What We Allow for Old Tires	What New Tires Actually Cost You
30x3	17.45	2.51	14.94
30x3½	22.45	3.36	19.09
32x3½	25.90	3.89	22.01
34x4	37.75	5.66	32.09
35x4½	52.50	7.87	44.63
35x5	60.05	9.00	51.05

Don't take any more chances on that old tire. It may be cold and rainy the day it gives you trouble. All Portage Pure Gum Tubes 10 per cent. off. Special Deal on CHAMPION X Spark Plugs, 4 for $2.00. Regular price 75c each. Special sale on HAVOLINE MOTOR OIL, Medium grade five gal. cans $3.75; 10 gal. cans $7.00. This is the best oil money can buy, regular price 90c per gal., a saving of 20c a gal. to you. Everything strictly cash and you know this always saves you money. MAIL ORDERS PROMPTLY FILLED.

RED CROSS NEWS

The Wednesday evening surgical dressings class met at Headquarters Those who passed the examinations were Mrs. R. B. Stuckey, Mrs. Lester Rogers, Miss White, Miss Vevia Hardcastle, Miss Alma Tansley, Miss Margaret Haire, Miss Hoag.

Examinations will be given on Wednesday of next week.

Miss Clapp received a censored letter from her sister in London England a few days ago stating the serious food conditions existing there. The people are rationed thus enabling each person a share. Miss Clapp and Mrs. Ernest Pangborn at once sent a large box of canned goods to London.

Thursday evening the Misses Clapp Waldron, Waters, White and Mrs. Waldron will have charge of the Baptist Young Peoples class.

Mrs. J. R. Nyland will instruct the Methodist class on Thursday night.

The county quota for 4x4 wipes for the month of March is 25000. The quota for Tecumseh is 5000 or more. Volunteers are needed every day so let every one make a special effort to have the rooms filled to capacity every day. When a million or more American soldiers are in battle the need of surgical dressings will be enormous. The Red Cross is planning to make sure that no soldier suffers.

Mrs. J. R. Nyland sent 8 sweaters and 2 pair of wristlets to Headquarters.

As Tecumseh has been called upon to make most of the 25,000 4x4 sponges instead of 5,000 as first stated, it is very necessary that the people make an extra effort to be at Headquarters every afternoon as this quota must be filled. The attendance Wednesday in the surgical dressings class was 17. Dr. Bredow urges that not less than 20 be there daily and more if possible.

LIEUT. HARTZOG SENT OVER THE UNITED STATES

Dr. Hartzog received a letter Wednesday from his son Lieut. J. R. Hartzog, written from Chattanooga, Tenn. His headquarters is at Washington, D. C., where he is on the staff of Gen. Marshall, who is chief of cantonment buildings. Lieut. Hartzog is sent into all parts of the United States by his superior officer as a consulting architect.

He stated that he would have work for a few days at a large medical camp located in the famous Chattanooga park then he would go on to Ft. Oglethorpe, Ga. Some time next week he would return to Washington. A little later he expected to be in Michigan and hoped to secure permission to stop off in Tecumseh for a few days.

BOOST THE BAND

A long felt need in Tecumseh is being supplied through the medium of the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

For some years past residents of Tecumseh have recognized this fact. With the unquestioned talent in this vicinity they have pondered the fact that we have no band.

During the period of the Wednesday Bargain Days the past few summers Tecumseh has had to look to smaller communities such as Clinton, Tipton and Milan for our bands. Especially at this time we should have a band of our own, for use as an escort as it is so often needed, and for other various patriotic enterprises.

The Eagles with their customary foresight have undertaken to provide Tecumseh with this band under the direction of a capable leader, having about thirty pieces at their last practice. As they have some funds on hand for this purpose they do not intend to ask the merchants or citizens for any donations. They propose to raise other needed funds through the production of a home talent entertainment in the near future that they strongly assert will furnish value received for everyone.

The village council has very kindly offered the band the use of the council building to practice in and regular practice will be there from now on.

In conjunction with the band feature it is hoped to also organize a marching club and a drum corp, both of which are started.

Now it is up to Tecumseh citizens to get behind this praise-worthy movement and boost, for that is all they are asked to do.

"THE IRISH 15TH"

Each season every theatrical manager has what he calls one best offering of the year one attraction which he is proud to offer to his patrons as the one big event, one that is just a little better in every way than any of the others. This season Mr. Mark of the Bradley is offering Mr. Al. H. Wilson as the attraction. He is especially proud to be able to offer this excellent attraction for the approval of his many patrons.

Mr. Wilson is coming here direct from the Auditorium theatre, Toledo, bringing his mammoth scenic production and company complete. Mr. Wilson's new play is "The Irish 15th" with scenes all laid in Ireland and France and the story deals with the present great world war.

Mr. Wilson's excellent singing will again be heard in his rendering of several new songs of his own composiion. Among them: "My Mother's Wedding Ring,' "Ireland is Home Sweet Home," "I Want You Then Machree," "A Lily from Heaven" and "The Irish will be There." No song in years has met with the success of this last number.

"The Irish 15th" will be at the Bradley Tuesday evening, March 26th. Make your arrangements well in advance and secure your seats early. It will be an event in Tecumseh and an event of your lifetime to see and hear this golden voiced singer in his wonderful new play.

Albert Clark has on exhibition in his window a dressed beef weighing 832 lbs. and which cost him the nice sum of $141.44. The animal was fatted by Will Wallace and Albert sys it is the largest one he ever purchased.

Everythig is set for the Junior play, "The Heiress Hunters," which will be staged tonight at Bradley's. A street parade was given at noon today with the young "gallants" escorting the fair lady members of the cast, the ladies riding a beautiful chariot drawn by a "Henry Ford." A band of several pieces, comprised mostly of noise makers, warned the people of their approach. Mounted escorts rode dashing steeds in front and behind the ladies fair. The gentlemen were arrayed in gorgeous uniform. From every indication a crowded house will reward the Juniors for their efforts.

THE BEST PROOF

Doan's Kidney Pills were used—they brought benefit.

The story was told to Tecumseh residents.

Time has strengthened the evidence.

Has proven the result lasting.

The testimony is home testimony—

It can be investigated by Tecumseh residents.

I knew of others who had been helped by Doan's Kidney Pills, so I got some at Wright & Son's Drug Store. In a few weeks, I felt much better and I was soon free from the aches and pains. I was benefited in every way." Statement given in December, 1908.)

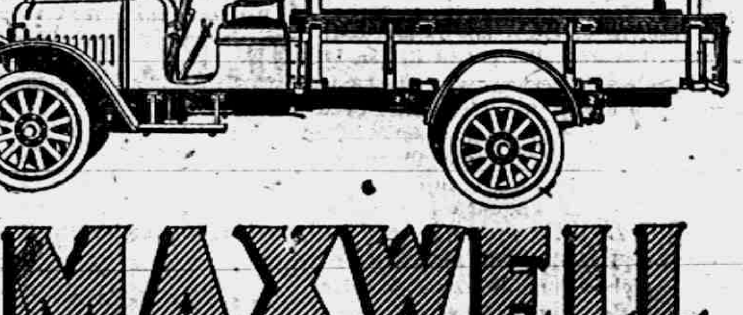
99.6% Perfect is the Service Records' Verdict on the 6600 Maxwell trucks now in use



MAXWELL TRUCK

99.6% is a figure that no vehicle of the day has surpassed. It is based on what the 6600 Maxwell trucks have done.

Think what it means—6600 [illegible] travelling over every known kind of road in and about [illegible] cities. And yet of all this number the service records show 99.6% perfect.

Quantity production has brought the price down within the reach of everyone—$400 less than any other truck of similar capacity in the world.

YANKEE PATROL BEATS TEUTONS

Americans Meet Germans in "No Man's Land" and Return Without a Scratch.

NEW GAS ATTACK IS FOILED

Enemy Fires Nearly Hundred Shells at U. S. Battery Position Northwest of Toul—Belgians Pierce Foe's Line.

With the American Army in France, March 11.—A small American patrol early in the morning met an enemy patrol in "No Man's Land" near the Chemin des Dames and fired on the enemy.

A sharp skirmish resulted, the accurate firing of the Americans causing at least one enemy casualty and probably three others. The Americans returned to their lines without a man being scratched.

Foil German Gas.

Northwest of Toul the enemy fired nearly a hundred gas shells into one of the American battery positions in a short space of time, but not a man so far has been sent to a hospital because of the rapidity with which gas masks were adjusted.

American artillery blew up an enemy ammunition dump. The heavy shells dropped there resulted in a flash, followed by flames and great clouds of smoke. The American artillery also shelled heavily the enemy's first and second lines.

U. S. Sniper Kills German.

American snipers have been especially active during the last 24 hours, one sharpshooter killing a German who was walking in a parapet, while other sharpshooters were successful in hitting Germans who showed themselves.

Enemy automatic rifles were especially active at night and early in the morning, but did little damage. There is normal artillery activity.

Belgians Pierce Foe's First Line.

Paris, March 11.—The official communication issued by the war office says:

"There were artillery actions on the right bank of the Meuse and in the Vosges. Two German airplanes were brought down.

"Belgian communication: 'We drove the enemy from the last elements of our advanced trenches in the region of Kippe, where he had succeeded in gaining a foothold March 7.

"'The ascendency taken by our valiant troops over the Germans was again magnificently confirmed in the course of two raids carried out in the region of Nieuport.

Great Number Killed.

"'Resolutely forcing an entrance into trenches of the first enemy line, one of our detachments attacked the defenders, of whom a great number were killed, and brought back prisoners to our lines. Another reconnaissance occupied a German advanced strong point.

"'Artillery activity has been reported for several days before our front. Our batteries dominated those of our adversaries.'

"Eastern theater: The bad weather has interfered with activity over the greater part of the front. West of Lake Dorian, however, the British troops successfully raided the Bulgarian lines."

British Raid Foe's Line.

London, March 11.—The following official communication was issued by the war office:

"Successful raids were carried out by us northwest of St. Quentin and southwest of Cambrai. Several of the enemy were killed and a few prisoners were captured by us.

"Under the cover of a heavy bombardment a hostile raiding party attacked our posts east of Armentieres. A few of our men are missing.

"Another attempted enemy raid east of Passchendaele was repulsed by machine-gun fire."

BRITISH WIN IN PALESTINE

Advance Three Miles on 13-Mile Front—Town of Hit Is Occupied, Says London Report.

London, March 11.—A British official communication, dealing with the operations in Mesopotamia and Palestine, issued by the war office says: "The British have occupied Hit (80 miles west of Bagdad on the Euphrates river in Mesopotamia) and have made a general advance on both sides of the Jerusalem-Nablus road (Palestine) on a front of 13 miles for an average depth of two or three miles."

New York, March 11.—Mrs. Charles S. Whitman, wife of Governor Whitman, released three pigeons carrying an invitation to Mrs. Woodrow Wilson to attend the military and naval athletic meeting at Madison Square Garden next week. A pigeon will be sent from the White House with Mrs. Wilson's reply.

TWO U. S. AVIATORS DROWN

Flying Boat Overturns Near Aeronautical Station at Pensacola, Fla.—Names Withheld.

Mobile, Ala., March 11.—Two aviators were drowned at Pensacola, Fla., when a flying boat overturned near the aeronautical station. The commander of the station did not make their names public, but notified Washington of the accident.

Japan Press Roused.

Tokyo, March 11.—The Japanese press is increasingly alarmed at the Russian collapse. It fears the German menace may spread through the whole far East.

GERMAN TROOPS LAND IN FINLAND

Two Thousand Infantry and Force of Artillery Reach Abo.

100 MILES FROM CAPITAL

Petrograd Papers Confirm Report of Leon Trotzky's Resignation as Foreign Minister—Government Moves to Moscow.

Stockholm, March 11.—The expected landing of German troops in Finland is reported to have been effected in the neighborhood of Abo, a Finnish port opposite the Aland islands, and 100 miles west of Helsingfors, the Finnish capital.

The invading detachment is said to be composed of 2,000 infantry and a force of artillery. No official confirmation of the report has been received.

(A dispatch from Stockholm, dated March 8, said that about 2,000 German troops and 300 horses had been landed on the Aaland islands from the German battleships Westfalen and Rheinland, and that several German transports were anchored at Eckerne, where the German flag had been hoisted.)

Trotzky Resigns.

Petrograd, March 11.—A decree signed by Premier Lenine announces the evacuation of the state institutions at Petrograd. The people's commissioners are leaving for Moscow, which is to be the new Russian capital, at least temporarily. The commissioner of education, M. Lunacharsky, will remain in Petrograd as the representative of the government and will be invested with extraordinary powers.

The official organs of the soviet, Isvestia and Pravda, will appear today for the last time in Petrograd; both will be published thereafter at Moscow.

The Petrograd papers confirm the report of Leon Trotzky's resignation as foreign minister. His duties now will fall upon his deputy, M. Tchitcherin.

The Pravda declares that in spite of the conclusion of peace the Germans did not suspend hostilities in the Gomel-novo Zybkov sector. They advanced here in order to gain strategic advantages for the consolidation of their front.

39 KILLED IN PARIS RAID

Ten or Twelve German Squadrons Participated in Attack—One Machine Destroyed.

Paris, March 11.—Ten or twelve squadrons of bombing airplanes participated in the German raid on Paris, in which nine persons were killed and thirty-nine wounded, according to official information. One of the [illegible] machines was destroyed. An official statement says an airplane of the Gotha type was found in the forest of Compiegne, where it had fallen while returning from the raid on the capital. The machine had been demolished and its crew of four burned to death. Sixty-one defensive airplanes from the intrenched camps of Paris took the air. Many enemy machines were repulsed by the aerial defense and did not succeed in reaching Paris. President Poincare visited the places where bombs had fallen and spoke a kindly word of encouragement to the people whose homes had been destroyed. While the raid on Paris was in progress French aviators near the front, who kept in constant communication with the capital, took the air and bombarded the airdromes from which the enemy machines arose. The American Red Cross mobilized 105 men at the first warning and ten cars sped off to points where bombs had fallen. A number of army ambulances from Neuilly also were out and Y. M. C. A. workers aided in the rescue work.

George Von L. Meyer, arrived from Washington shortly before the end. Mr. Meyer was appointed ambassador to Italy by President McKinley. He was postmaster general under Roosevelt and for four years was secretary of the navy under Taft. He was born in Boston June 24, 1858. He was graduated from Harvard in 1879.

ENEMY'S EFFORT IN RUSSIA FAILS

ALLIES AWAIT THE BIG DRIVE

Two Hundred and Seventy-Three Teuton Airplanes Shot Down During Week—Americans Now Hold Four Positions.

Washington, March 11.—Secretary of War Baker has arrived in France. Announcement of the safe landing was made by the war department.

Washington, March 11.—Germany's sweeping of Russia is described by the war department's weekly military review as another futile attempt on the part of the Germans to shift the center of gravity of the war, which still remains on the west front, where the Teutonic face the French, British, Italian and Belgian armies and the ever-growing American forces. There, the review says, lie the key positions of the war.

American troops now occupy trenches at four separate points, and, as was recently disclosed, in the principal sector their front is four and a half miles long. They have been constantly engaged, the department says, and the scope of their activities is being constantly extended.

Still Look for Big Drive.

Nothing is found in the situation by the department to indicate that the Germans have abandoned their plans for a great offensive in the west, and it says the allies, while assuming an alert defensive, are content to let the enemy break himself against their impregnable line.

Intense air activities during the week are noted, with the statement that 214 enemy aircraft were brought down on the western front alone, while the allies lost only 88 machines on all fronts during the same period. The enemy loss on all fronts is placed at 273.

Yankees Constantly Engaged.

"Our own forces have been constantly engaged, says the report. The scope of their activities is being daily extended. The number of our detachments in the line is increasing. We now have troops in the trenches at four separate points.

"At dawn on March 5 the enemy attempted a strong raid against one of our advance posts further south. This thrust was repulsed, with a loss to the enemy. Our casualties were slight, and no prisoners or missing were reported. The French general commanding this sector congratulated our commander on the splendid manner in which our troops repulsed the assailing columns.

"We now hold four and a half miles of the battle front in our principal sector.

Yankees' First Fire Fight.

"On March 7 the enemy, making use of liquid fire, advanced to the assault against our trenches. This is the first time this weapon has been tried out against our men.

"The assaulting column was repulsed and the Germans were compelled to abandon the flame-throwing apparatus, which was captured and later brought into our lines.

"During this attack the liquid fire reached a trench segment which contained none of our men and little damage was inflicted.

"Our patrols are continuously out on scouting missions, keeping in close contact with the enemy.

"In our Toul sector the Germans are carrying on extensive preparations, continuing to bring up fresh units and accumulating material, apparently with a view to undertaking more extensive operations."

Swift & Company Publicity

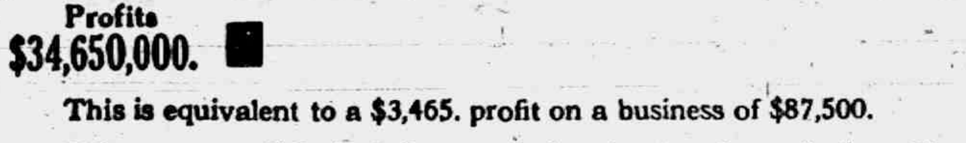
At a recent hearing of the Federal Trade Commission there was introduced correspondence taken from the private files of Swift & Company, which showed that the Company had been considering for some time an educational advertising campaign.

The need for this publicity has been apparent to us for several years. The gross misrepresentation to which we have recently been subjected has convinced us that we should no longer delay in putting before the public the basic facts of our business, relying on the fair-mindedness of the American people.

The feeling against the American packer is based largely on the belief that the income and well-being of the producer and consumer are adversely affected by the packers' operations, resulting in unreasonably large profits.

Swift & Company's net profit is reasonable, and represents an insignificant factor in the cost of living.

For the fiscal year 1917 the total sales and net profit of Swift & Company were as follows:



This is equivalent to a $3,465. profit on a business of $87,500.

If Swift & Company had made no profit at all, the cattle raiser would have received only one-eighth of a cent per pound more for his cattle, or the consumer would have saved only one-quarter of a cent per pound on dressed beef.

FROM GARLAND GOVE

The following letters have been received by Mrs. Freeman Gove from her son Garland Gove, one having been written from Ireland and the other from England:

Dear Folks:

I suppose you have heard every thing by this time, well it was quite a trip and an experience all right, but I am safe on land somewhere in Ireland. I am feeling fine, eating four meals a day and a raving to go.

How is everybody and everything in that part of the country? Tell the people back there to write to me when they can. I can't write very often or very much but will write as often as I possibly can.

It sure was a fine trip until things changed and then it was different for a while, but have got things about straightened out now and things couldn't be better there than they are right here.

The air is damp and it rains real often, but it is quite warm and the grass is quite green in some places. I expect it is pretty cold back there yet, it seems to me I had ought to be getting a letter from some one of you folks pretty soon. It don't seem possible I am so far from home.

It all seems like a big dream to me. The other night when the ship got hit it did not seem so much like a dream, Ha! Ha! Wait until I get home and I will tell you all from the time I enlisted until I get my discharge.

You know they have different kinds of money here than we do over there and, believe me, we have some time changing it and trying to count it and find out if we get our right change back after we have bought anything. When I come back I am going to bring some of the different kinds home to show you.

I expect Ralph is on that side. I am glad he is a cook on land, for I don't think much of that pond my self. I never thought there was so much water in this wide, wide world as there is in that Atlantic ocean.

The boy I was a chumming around with lived in Jackson. He and myself were about the only ones from Michigan in our squadron, so naturally we stuck together. He knew some of the people I got acquainted with when I worked in Jackson. He had to be one of the few we lost. He was buried somewhere in Scotland and I sure miss him a lot he was a regular prince. He never used tobacco in any form or tasted liquor in his life, so you see I was in good company.

I was lucky enough to get a way. We landed in Ireland and the people treated us like angels, gave us clothes and all we could eat.

We are somewhere in England now, having lots to eat and a good place to sleep. We only lost fifteen or twenty out of our squadron of one hundred and fifty-four men so you see it was not so bad as it might have been. We are being issued more clothes. It is like starting in the army all over again, but I am all right, did not as much as get my feet wet.

I am getting anxious to know where Co. B. is and, wondering if they have come across yet or not so when you write please let me know about them. We got paid yesterday, but not all of it. They gave us two pounds and that is about ten dollars in our money and that goes quite a ways in this country. Well I must close for this time. Hoping to hear from you all soon. Now don't worry about your Uncle Dud for he is fine and getting better every day. Yours with love to all, Your son,

Garland R. Gove.

WALL FALLS; 2 BOYS KILLED

Five Others Injured When Burning Structure Collapses During Gale in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, March 11.—Robert Dawson, fifteen, and Joseph Gallagher, thirten, were killed and five other boys injured, two probably fatally, under a falling wall when fire swept a warehouse in Market street here. The boys were playing some distance away from the fire when one wall of the burning building was blown over upon them by the 50-mile gale.

12 KILLED IN THEATER

Ten of Victims in Accident at Winchester, Ky., Are Children—Fifty-Three Persons Hurt.

Winchester, Ky., March 11.—Twelve persons were killed, ten of whom were children, and twenty-three persons so severely injured, it was found necessary to remove them to the Clark County hospital here when the walls of a burned building adjoining a moving picture theater collapsed, crushing in its roof. Thirty other persons were slightly injured.

Six of the twenty-three injured taken to the hospital were believed to be fatally hurt.

The majority of these, as well as those not so seriously hurt, were children, several hundred of whom were crowded into the moving picture theater when the crash came.

The wall which collapsed was also used as one wall of the theater, but projected considerably above the roof of the theater building. When it collapsed a part fell on the theater's roof. The wall's collapse at the same time removed the support from under the roof on that side and it crashed down into the theater.

The first result of the crash was panic, in which the hundreds of children and a small number of grown persons struggled to reach the entrance. Apparently no one was hurt in this rush, which easily swept through the wide doors giving entrance to the theater.

ADMIRAL DEWEY'S FOE DEAD

Commander of German Squadron Off Manila Bay in 1898 Dies at Baden Baden.

Amsterdam, March 11.—Admiral von Diederichs, commander of a German squadron off Manila during the Spanish-American war and who clashed with Admiral Dewey, the commander of the American squadron in the Philippines, is dead at Baden Baden.

Washington, March 11.—The friction between Admiral Dewey and Admiral von Diederichs arose over the German officer's disinclination to observe the rules of the blockade established by the American commander in Manila bay. In a book published in 1914, three years before his death, Admiral Dewey described the final incident at Manila bay as follows:

"When the Cormoran, which was an old offender, was sighted coming up the bay, Flag Lieutenant Brumby was sent to make sure that she stopped to report. When the Cormoran saw the McCulloch approaching she turned and steamed away. Brumby first hoisted the international signal, 'I wish to communicate.' No attention was paid to this and Brumby then fired a shot across her bows, which had the desired effect.

"On the following day Vice Admiral von Diederichs sent a young officer of the staff to me. When I heard him through I made the most of the occasion by using him as a third person to state candidly and firmly my attitude in the verbal message, which he conveyed to his superior so successfully that Vice Admiral von Diederichs was able to understand my point of view. There was no further interference with the blockade."

SAFE CONDUCT FOR LUXBURG

Britain Issues Permit for Ex-German Ambassador to Argentina to Sail for Sweden.

Buenos Aires, March 11.—The British government has issued a safe conduct for Count von Luxzurg, the former German ambassador to Argentina, to sail for Sweden. He will leave shortly on the steamer Valparaiso. A safe conduct for a medical attendant to accompany Count von Luxburg was refused, although such a step had been recommended because of the former ambassador's mental condition.

THEY HAVE A DARK SECRET

Husband and Brother-in-Law Feast and Smash Piece of China, Which Is Mysteriously Replaced.

Since the coming of the X-ray and the perfecting of the Bertillon system dark secrets have lost vogue. Yet occasionally one of them does escape the keenest vigilance and flourishes with all the old-time mystery, according to the Kansas City Star.

Mrs. Miller has a set of chinaware, the real creamy ware that the light shines through. It is very old. Mrs. Miller inherited it. She also inherited the proud right to boast that not one piece had ever been broken.

Mrs. Miller went away. Mr. Miller entertained his brother-in-law while she was gone. There were other relatives that he might have entertained, but in an unguarded moment he chose his brother-in-law.

One night they made a feast. They baked a great number of things all in one pan. So when it came out of the oven it seemed to demand that it should all be served on one plate. Mr. Miller looked over the supply of dishes that had been left out for his use and there was really nothing that would contain it. A wild spirit of revelry seized Mr. Miller.

He went boldly into the china closet and brought out the very largest platter.

When the meal was ended, Mr. Miller's brother-in-law suggested dish washing. Mr. Miller did not favor the plan, but finally yielded to it against his better judgment. What happened was quite natural.

The platter slipped and fell and broke.

After all the years, after all the family pride and care!

From that night on those two men took up and carried about with them a dark secret, for this is what they did—each carrying a piece of that platter, they went from one china store to another until they found its duplicate. They carried it home and brought in a woman to wash it and replace it on the shelf of the china closet.

Now when Mrs. Miller entertains her friends and one of them says: "How I envy you these beautiful dishes, and it is so remarkable that not one has ever been broken." Mr. Miller and his brother-in-law sit with a far away look in their eyes and a dark secret in their souls.

ADRIAN COMPANY ARRIVES SAFELY IN FRANCE

Word Received by Relatives of the Boys Friday Night

The old Adrian company has arrived safely at a port in France, is the word received by relatives of the boys late Friday night. Cards written by the boys before they sailed and left with the War Department to be sent when a cablegram was received, announcing their safe arrival, commenced to arrive in Lenawee county Friday night and were received with joy by the anxious parents and friends. Several Tecumseh boys are members of this company and are with them in France.

The boys left Adrian last August for Grayling and after several weeks there were transferred to Camp McArthur, Waco, Texas, where they went into intensive training. They left Waco about Christmas time for New Jersey where they remained in camp until they sailed for France a few days ago. In France they will undergo further training and be brought up behind the lines to get used to the sound of the heavy guns and gradually will work their way into the front line trenches. The Michigan boys have made a fine record and are considered among the best in the service.

GEN. MARCH EXPLAINS

French Object to Publication of Casualty Lists.

Says Action Had Been Taken on Recommendation of Pershing After French Protested.

Washington, March 11.—The war department stood pat on its order prohibiting the publication of the home addresses of American soldiers killed or wounded in France.

Maj. Gen. Peyton March, acting chief of staff, in the first official explanation he has made of the new order said the action had been taken on the recommendation of General Pershing after protest had been made by the French government that publication of casualties in the form given to the American press furnished information of military value to the Germans.

General March said flatly that the war department had acted and the orders were now in effect. When newspaper correspondents asked for an interview to get the matter straightened out he agreed to talk but would hear no argument against the order.

General March's explanation follows:

"General Pershing cabled a recommendation to the effect that a protest had been made by the French government against the publication in the United States of data as to casualties in the form in which it was obvious that the statement published concerning the recent gas attack was a particular instance of giving valuable information to the enemy.

"The French system is to publish no casualties whatever. Casualties are sent to the mayor of the town, who notifies the families of soldiers killed or wounded. Publication in the local papers is forbidden. The French, after three years of war, have found this to be of military necessity.

"The British system is to publish casualties without the names of relatives or the home of the soldier, and with nothing to identify the time or the place of the action.

"This is what General Pershing said, and it is the patriotic duty of the American press to get behind him.

"Get back of him."

WEATHER CHANGED HIS VIEWS

New Englander Allowed Blowing Over of Church Steeple by Hurricane to Influence His Wedding Plans.

The recent destruction by fire of a certain ancient New England meeting house has set the villagers to retelling an amusing anecdote connected with its partial demolition nearly a century ago, when it lost its steeple in a hurricane, says the Youth's Companion.

Deliberate and cautious lovemaking figures in many tales of rural New England; but surely in none of them does the hero show less impetuosity than the Amos of this story showed. For ten years he had courted his patient Eliza; at last he had proposed, had been accepted, and the wedding day was set. It dawned unpropitiously, with a howling gale blowing, which increased hourly in violence. At the appointed hour, nevertheless, the guests gathered at the home of the bride and waited for the bridegroom, but he did not appear.

The storm was truly terrific; indeed, the meeting house, just across the common, had already surrendered its steeple with a tremendous crash. The bride became hysterical and her brothers began to look worried. Ominous whispers ran about that if the great elm in front of Amos' door had blown down it must surely have crushed in the whole front of the house; perhaps Amos was killed or pinned under the wreck.

At last a party of anxious volunteers started forth, in the teeth of the tempest, to investigate. When they reached the farm the elm was still standing, and on the threshold, very much surprised, stood Amos. He had supposed that of course the wedding would be postponed.

"Well, now, when I woke up 'twas pouring guns and pitchforks, so to speak, and I says to myself, says I, 'I don't know 'bout this! I don't know!' Arter breakfast 'twas wuss; and says I to myself: 'I most know they'll put it off; I most know they will!' I had my eye on the meetin' house steeple, and I could see 'twas swaying considerable. 'I know they'd orter put it off,' says I to myself, 'but then, women is so onreasonable maybe they won't.' I kep' my eye on the meetin' house steeple, and says I: 'If she goes, I don't; and if she don't, I do.'

"She swung and she swayed and she kind of hung in the wind, and then, jest as I was gettin' my boots on to start, over she went! And, says I to myself: 'That's a clear showing, if ever there was one; and here I stay! Even a woman couldn't say a man oughter stand up agin a gale when a meetin' house steeple can't. No, sir,' says I to myself, 'there ain't a mite of doubt about it; this weather is onsuitable for weddings!'"

Nevertheless, he was imperatively persuaded to come and be married without waiting for it to clear up.

"THE HEIRESS HUNTERS"

Juniors Net About $150.00

The Juniors of the T. H. S. gave their play "The Heiress Hunters" at Bradley's opera house Friday evening. The house was full every seat being taken. It was very gratifying to the class for they had put in hours of good solid work on the play and every effort possible was made to make it a big success and certainly they got their reward for it was one of the best home talent shows ever put on in Tecumseh. A good deal of the credit is due to the coaching by Principal Goodrich and Miss Mary D. Miller who worked hard to bring their embryo actors up to perfection. The cast was made up of members of the Junior class.

"The Heiress Hunters" was a play in three acts. The first represented the home of three "hard luckers" in a rooming house in New York City. The roomers, Tom Timmons, a writer of stories (Harley VanVleet), Dick Chetwynd, an artist (Perry Hayden), and Harry Clive, musician (Robert Moore, Jr.), were rather low in funds and had accumulated a debt with the fair Widow Wood of $40.00 with little hope of liquidating it. In the latter part of this act in comes Tom's uncle (Edgar Meads) who is guardian for an $80,000 heiress.

The heiress (Miss Alice Hardenburg) is produced along with her aunt who has social aspirations, and the fun commences. Each of the young men suddenly determined to go to Kokomo, Ind., and win the big stake.

The second and third acts move the company to Kokomo where the real courtship commences. Things brighten up for the "hard luckers" and through the influence of Tom's uncle, Tom and Harry secure good positions and make good. Dick (Lord Richard) is reinstated into the good graces of his English family and the courtship is continued in dead earnest. But as only one can win the heiress she is finally won by Harry while Tom and Dick find others more to their liking.

The parts were all well taken, each having their lines well committed and a good deal of real talent was shown by the Juniors. It was a big success and the audience was not slow in expressing their appreciation.

The trio of "Heiress Hunters," Messrs. VanVleet, Hayden and Moore, put a lot of spice in their courtship and showed some real talent in the actor's art; Edgar Meads, as the major, Tom's uncle, with his deep masculine voice, gave a fine impersonation of the eratic old uncle; Alice Hardenburg, as the heiress, made such a charming heiress that she had many in the audience ready to try to win her hand; Helen Morgan, as Nell Gray, was equally as winsome and came in for much favorable comment; Elizabeth Comfort made an ideal Spanish maiden and no wonder she captivated the heart of the Englishman; Jessie French, as the aunt of the heiress, excelled in her role of matchmaker and showed that she was equal to the part of the dignified aunt; Jane McConnell, the Widow Wood, was a scream and her work kept the audience in an uproar while the other members of the cast, Harold Blesing and Gladys Gilbert, as the children of the widow, certainly represented the unruly kids, all right and Milburn Brooks as the butler showed himself at least good enough to win the widow and father her two hopefuls.

The beautiful gowns were loaned to the young ladies of the cast by The Webster Anderson Co. and the Juniors are indebted to Fred Rosacrans & Sons for many of the scenic effects.

Between the 1st and 2nd acts the Young Ladies Ukelele Club, composes of the Misses Lillian Kennedy, Marjorie Rosacrans, Gladys Bowen, and Dorothy Balmer, pleased the audience with several numbers and between the 2nd and 3rd acts, Wylie McCann and Wyman Service, as black face artists, passed around a few jokes, mostly on their friends in the audience, also some dancing and songs.

Music was furnished during the evening by an orchestra made up of local musicians led by Lester Waring.

The class cleared about $150.00.

JUDGE JOHN B. WHELAN

John B. Whelan, a former resident of Tecumseh, but for a number of years a resident of Detroit, died at his home in that city Saturday evening after an illness of three weeks. He had been in failing health all winter, but nothing serious was anticipated until the last illness.

He was born in Franklin township, son of Mr and Mrs Alvinza Whelan. He graduated from the Tecumseh high school with the Class of 1880, and later from the law department of the U of M., beginning the practice of law in 1884 in Detroit where he has served in several capacities as judge, commissioner and revenue collector.

He was united in marriage to Miss Myra Reynolds of Tecumseh. To this union two children, a son and daughter, were born. The son Reynolds is now in the military service. The daughter Ruth is at home with her mother.

Mr. Whelan was well and favorably known in Tecumseh and vicinity where his early life was spent.

He was a member of the Detroit Commandery, Knights Templar, the Elks and the Fellowcraft Club.

A large circle of friends unite in sympathy with the bereaved wife and children who mourn his loss.

"There is so much bad in the best of us
And so much good in the worst of us
It hardly behooves any of us
To speak ill of the rest of us."

In addition to the big feature film, "Over Here," the program at Bradley's Friday night also includes "Captain Kidd's," a 2-act play featuring Baby Marie Osborne. Don't miss it. adv

FROM THE SOUTHLAND

The following letter was received by Miss Mary Whitelock and she takes this way to share it with the many friends of the writer, Miss Blanche Young:

Dear Friend:

Alexandria, La.
Feb. 22, 1918

This is the hotel where we stopped over a day to visit the Camp Beauregard cantonment, where between 35 and 40,000 soldiers are quartered. We left Saginaw Sunday, February 17 and dropped down the Ill. Central across the Ohio R. at Cairo, thro Memphis and Jackson, Miss., to New Orleans where I certainly had the time of my life.

We stopped at this far famed St. Charles Hotel, but we took several meals out at different ones of the noted restaurants. Fine fare! The Creoles certainly do know how to prepare tasty food. Their sea foods were especially delicious. Great experience for me, whirling along boulevards lined with all descriptions of palms, though much the worse for this excessively cold weather (the coldest known in forty years) still wonderful!

We visited the soldiers camps (two miles north one at "City Park" and this other out at "Jefferson Barracks") also took the drive out 15 miles to the pier on Lake Ponchartrain and back through the grand old groves of live oaks (the handsomest spreading, slow-growing trees I ever saw). They were gracefully draped with Spanish moss. Saw worlds of flowers, roses included, gardens in a fine condition, oceans of English sweet violets, pansies, jonquils, daffodils, hyacinths, flowering shrubs, magnolias and etc.

N. O. a quaint old town everything so different from any other place, can't describe it at all. Will have to defer that till I see you, which I hope will not be so very long.

I enjoyed the activities along the levees, the miles and miles of docks and ware houses, the ocean steamers, unloading and coaling. The car-ferries playing back and forth across the river. Our ferry had three tracks on it.

The train service both on the Illinois Central (down from Chic) and the Texas and Pacific (up from N. O.) to Alexandria was the finest possible. Alexandria is on the Red River a great flood river, very low just now, but often rises over 37 ft. and spreads out over the adjoining country with very destructive effect especially since they have high levees here to protect the city and when the water gets over the top it is pretty bad.

This is a boom city due to the great lumber activity in this district.

You should once see these grand old forests of yellow pine. There is and few magnolias and holly trees, and then the redbud is blossoming now, also the wild plum. The dogwood is due to be out very soon. The peach trees are all coming out now. The roses will be in their glory here next month.

We arrived here at the Mill, Friday evening. I wish you could see this beautiful home, with its handsomely appointed grounds, violets, daffodils, jonquils and hyacinths in full bloom and worlds of roses, Jasmine, cape jasmine, lillies, w'steria, china-berries, magnolias, boxwood and strange new things too numerous to mention coming on fast.

The mill is a big affair. They bring in four train loads of logs from the logging camp every day and dump them into the log pond. Exciting times when the logs don't unload just right, and pretty dangerous too. There is a man in the bottom of the pond now who was never recovered when drawn under while unloading. They have had several alligators in the pond in the past but just now there are none. I am hopig ton there are none.

I am hoping to get out to the log camp before the end of the week. I'd like to see one of those monarchs of the forest felled. They are making a great deal of ship-decking at this mill. I attended evening session of Lumbermen's convention at N. O. and saw many interesting films of this great southern industry. These lumbermen are a pretty keen set of fellows and their present day economies in their business are most interesting to witness, you know they claim that all the money made in lumbering now-a-days is made out of what used to be wasted.

I attended S. S. and church yesterday. Some interesting people out and a great many very primitive ones. Some of their skilled work men draw as high as $15.00 a day at this mill.

It was very warm yesterday and today, 90 degress out on the front porch but there is a fine breeze blowing through the house, but my feet are all puffed up with the heat.

Will you kindly share this letter with other Tecumseh friends, I have so many to write to it will be a long time before I can get around to all of them.

Faithful yours, Blanche Young.

ATTRACTIONS COMING TO THE BRADLEY

On Wednesday March 13th, the Bradley will have as its offering Mr. John Barrymore in the sensational film play "Raffles." This is not a common program picture but a big feature in every sense of the word.

Who has not heard of "Raffles" the drama which has been read and is known by millions, and now with the most popular of all stage stars John Barrymore, is blazing its way to every corner of the universe.

"Raffles" is intensely interesting from start to finish, finely produced and has the same fascination in picture form that is possessed on the stage and in the novel. "Raffles" is an evenings entertainment well worth your while and equally interesting to both young and old. It is one of those pictures that if you miss it you will regret it the next morning when your friends are telling you about it

The rooms at Headquarters will be open on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons of each week. Volunteers are especially needed for surgical dressing classes. The March quota for the local chapter is 25,000 4x4 sponges. This means a lot of work and volunteers are requested to respond to the call and assist in performing the duties which will relieve some suffering soldier "over there."

Mrs. Dell. Cairnes sent a sewing machine to Headquarters, for which the ladies are very grateful.

Thro the Womens National League of Service, patterns have been received for the childrens clothing. Rooms at the Red Cross Headquarters will be open to the ladies on Friday afternoon. Mrs. W. Eccles has kindly consented to take charge of the cutting. Any one who may have garments which they will clean and press, (either wool or cotton goods) or pieces of new goods, and hosiery which childrens stockings may be made from please, send to Mrs. Eccles or to Headquarters. Thanks.

If you are interested in organizing your local school children into a Junior Red Cross write to Dr. Anna Hedges Talbott or her secretary, Mrs. Campbell, American Red Cross Headquarters, Metropolitan Tower, New York City, for the general plan by which she organized the children of New York state.

Mrs. Henry McLain donated 5 property bags to the chapter.

Do not forget the property bags. Tecumseh quota by March 15th is 50. The bags are made of bright pieces of cretone or any firm material and are sent to the soldiers in the hospitals. Mrs. R. K. Anderson, chairman of committee will gladly give any information necessary in regard to the work. Phone 86.

Wanted—For use in the surgical dressings department the donation of several chairs. For further information phone Dr. Bredow.

1500 4x4 wipes were made at Headquarters last week. Dr. Pauline Bredow urges a large attendance for surgical dressings this week as she is desirous to complete 8,000 dressings. As the local chapter has never fallen below on a quota let every one who can lend a helping hand.

(By request)

When Your Fingers Pause.

Interminable folds of gauze
For those whom we sihall never see
Remember, when your fingers pause,
That every drop of blood to stain
This whitness falls for you and me,
Part of the price that keeps us free.
To serve our own, that keeps us clean
From shame that other women know-
Oh saviors we have never seen
Forgive us that we are so slow!
God-if that blood should cry in vain
And we have let our moments go.

If it were not that there were empty chairs in the surgical dressing headquarters and an urgent need for volunteer workers to fill them, we could well afford to let these lines by Amelia Josephine Burr, which recently appeared in the Red Cross magazine occupy this space without comment.

But the need of more workers is pressing, and there remains only to add that the call is to you whoever you are. If you can give a day or an hour, the bandage that you roll or the dressing that you fold is needed.

"It is one thing to see a soldier die, knowing that we have done all we could for him, "a nurse at the front has exclaimed," but to think that any one of them should die because we have not had the means at hand to save him is heartbreaking."

This no time for fingers to pause, dressings are needed and badly needed.

American women have worked for the allied soldiers, gladly doing their bit to help the French and English wounded. But the long expected spring drive by the enemy is imminent. After the American boys will pour into the hospitals by the thousands, many of them sorely wounded.

Back here we must remember that those jagged wounds bear little resemblance to the clean-cut incision of the skilled surgeons knife. Yet the dressings needed for a slight operation by a skilled surgeon are many. It is small wonder, then, that many a wounded man needs an entire case of dressings before he is ready to leave the hospital.

And yet there are empty chairs at the surgical dressings headquarters in the Harry Lee building on East Chicago street.

This is a call for you. You are needed today. There are women who even yet imagine that they do not shirk their duty because some women has not asked them personally to come and help.

But EVERY women in the villge of Tecumseh with two hands and a heart and one hour of time is asked personally by every man in the service of his country to give him a fighting chance for life after he has risked it in front of the Prussian guns.

Mrs. Frank Nyland would be glad to have more volunteers for making of surgical shirts. There is plenty of material on hand and Mrs. Nyland will gladly lend her assistance to new workers.

WILSON WINS AUDIENCE WITH "THE IRISH 15th"

Theatregoers who failed to see Al H. Wilson in "The Irish Fifteen," last night at the Lyric Theatre, missed one of the best plays ever booked in Memphis. If the enthusiasm of the audience last night can be taken as criterion, "standing room only" will be available at the final performnce tonight.

Each year one watches for the announcement that Al Wilson will be in town. The years have dealt lightly with the great tenor. His voice will never decay. He shows to a greater advantage in "The Irish Fifteenth" than in any of his previous efforts.

The writer has heard Caruso, Scotti Amato and others, but none of these afford a better evening's entertainment than Wilson. So natural is his acting and the mellow tenor voice that one can see visions of the Emerald Isle.

"I Want You Then, Machree," "Ireland Is Your Home" "My Mother's Wedding Ring," "A Lily From Heaven," and "The Irish Will be There." Wilson's own composition made a decided hit with the audience.

Wilson is supported by an exceptionally good cast. Milton Nobles, Jr., as a young lieutenant, who secretly marries Wilson's niece, is an actor of the highest caliber. It would take too much space to tell the story of "The Irish Fifteenth"; suffice to say the performance will be repeated tonight. RODDY.

From the Memphis Tenn. News of October 9, 1917.

Al H. Wilson and his big company present "The Irish 15th" at the Bradley Opera House on Tuesday evening, March 26th. Mr. Wilson's engagement here will prove the same as everywhere else, the big event of the theatrical season. Patrons of the Bradley will do well to make arrangments for seats well to make arments for seats well in advance which assures you of seats at the price you want to pay.

THE RED CROSS NURSES OF EUROPE ARE GIVING TOASTED CIGARETTES TO THE BOYS

To anyone who doesn't know of the wonderful advances that have been made in the preparation of smoking tobaccos in the last few years it may sound strange to speak of toasted cigarettes.

Strictly speaking, we should say cigarettes made of toasted tobacco; the smokers of this country will recognize it more readily by its trade name, "LUCKY STRIKE"—the toasted cigarette.

The American Tobacco Company are producing millions of these toasted cigarettes and these are being bought in enormous quantities through the various tobacco funds conducted by the newspapers of the country and forwarded through the Red Cross Society to the boys in France.

This new process of treating tobacco not only improves the flavor of the tobacco but it seals in this flavor and makes the cigarettes keep better.

The Red Cross nurse is always glad to have a cigarette for the wounded soldier, as, in most instances, that is the first thing asked for.

OVER HERE army cantonments were rushed to completion with a speed that turned the Kaiser sick and made the Crown Prince wish for home and mother.

OVER HERE you can now see in motion pictures how these army cantonments were built by sweating, tireless thousands of men, OVER HERE you can see how Uncle Sam's victorious soldiers marched in and took possession of the finished cities fifty-two days after construction work had started.

WAR AND KNITTING

The war is bringing forth gems of posy. Witness this clever bit going the rounds under the caption, "My Hosiery:"

"The hours I spend on thee, dear sock,
Are as a string of purls to me;
First two I knit, then two I purl,
And round the leg I slowly reel;
Now joyful paens to the heavens hurl!
I've turned the heel!
O. knotto ends that scratch and turn,
O, stitch that dropped, uneven row,
I kiss each blight and at last learn
To reach the toe, O sock, to reach the toe."

"SIX-SIX" PLAN TO BE USED IN TECUMSEH SCHOOLS THE COMING YEAR

Two New Subjects, Domestic Science and Domestic Art, will be Added

The Tecumseh schools will adopt for the coming year what is known as the "Six-Six plan." Under this plan the first six years' work will remain practically as it is now and the last six years will be termed "high school" work.

Two new subjects for girls will be taken up, Domestic Science and Domestic Art, and the boys of the 7th and 8th grades will be allowed as an elective subject, to take the business course.

German will be dropped and French taught in its place. Two years of Latin will be taught instead of four years as at present. Algebra and Modern History have been changed from 9th grade work to 10th grade and a course of Citizenship will be one of the required subjects for the 9th grade.

While new subjects have been added, others have been dropped, thus it is not deemed necessary to employ an extra teacher to teach the new subjects. The same number of teachers we have now will be hired only for the coming year.

The studies to be taken up by grades in the last four years of high school work for the coming year are as follows:

Ninth Grade

Required—English
Citizenship
Elective—Commercial Arthmetic

Will Help Protect Government Buildings

© HARRIS & EWING

Capt. H. C. McLean of New York has been designated by the war department to co-operate with the Washington fire department in protecting the numerous temporary buildings which house government workers from both accidental and incendiary fires. These temporary structures are in many cases made from highly inflammable material. A close guard and frequent fire drills have been effected.

Ground Moles Are Big Eaters.

A Scotchwoman has just announced the results of an interesting series of observations on the common mole. The most striking point to the layman is the inordinate appetite of this tiny creature. A mole will eat its own weight in earthworms in 24 hours. An ordinary man eating in the same ratio would require 150 pounds of food a day. If the human race were constituted like the moles, comments an exchange, Mr. Hoover's task would be hopeless from the outset. One of the moles which was a subject for study weighed four ounces and devoured 120 ounces of food in a single month.

Electric Ship Has Future.

The electric ship is no longer a dream but a reality and I should not be surprised to find, within a few years of the close of the war, every new vessel of any size driven, steered, stopped, reversed of turned, merely by the pressing of a series of buttons on the bridge, says a writer in the Electrical Times, London. The application of this principle will enable ships to be run with the highest efficiency at an even speed, permit marine engineers more liberty of design and yield proportionately greater cargo space than the present cumberous form of machinery allows.

An Old Habit.

The recruit at bayonet practice had just given the dummy a vicious jab, when the drill sergeant noticed that he was grimacing in a rather unusual manner.

"Number Four!" cried the sergeant; "what's the idea of all that mugging?"

"Why," said the recruit, a former movie actor, "you want me to register hate or fury or something don't you?"

Back-Handed Comfort.

"They say men of brains live longer than others."

"Don't worry about that, dear boy; you may be one of the exceptions to the rule."

Such electors shall have the right to have such transfer made ON ELECTION DAY by obtaining from the board of inspectors of election of the precinct from which he HAS REMOVED a CERTIFICATE OF TRANSFER and presenting the said certificate to the BOARD OF ELECTION INSPECTORS OF THE PRECINCT IN WHICH HE THEN RESIDES.

WOMEN ELECTORS—The names of all qualified WOMEN ELECTORS not already appearing on the registration list will be registered, provided PERSONAL APPLICATION is made in conformity with the foregoing provisions.

Dated February 22, 1918.

Township Clerk.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thro the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.

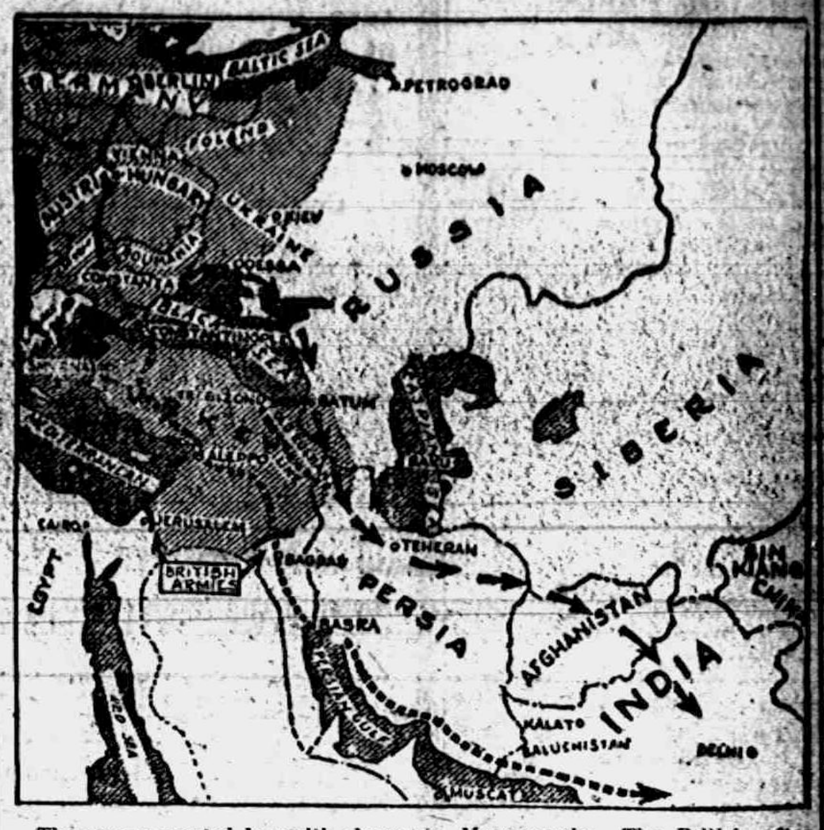
THE NEW GERMAN MENACE



The map presented herewith shows plainly how the collapse of Russia has brought on anew the menace of pan-Germanism and the conquest of middle and eastern Europe, Asia Minor, India, and even northwestern China.

The line of arrows shows the route which the Germans now claim is open to them. The collapse of Russia has given them the north coast of the Black sea. It puts them into a position either to sweep around the Black sea or to cross it to Batoun (or Batum) and thence to the gates of India.

The route by which Germany first sought the entry into India is shown by the dotted line. This route apparently failed with the British successes in Mesopotamia. The British after their first disaster at Kut-el-Amara returned to their attack, captured Kut and then Bagdad, and their lines now stand firmly across the route north of Bagdad. The Russian lines for a long time stretched south and southeast from the anatolian coast of the Black sea, adding an additional menace, but they since have retired before the Turks.

Meanwhile the British forces which started their operations from Egypt and the Suez have continued their advance across the Holy Land until they now are within striking distance of Aleppa, where a further advance by them would cut the Constantinople Bagdad railroad.

12,000 STATE MEN OVERSEAS

Military Leaders Estimate Wolverines Will Be in Trenches By June 1.

New York—More than 12,000 Michigan soldiers, including about 300 officers, are now overseas, according to an estimate made here by military leaders.

For the most part, Michigan troops that have left this country are volunteers in the Thirty-second division, National guard, but at least 2,500 selective soldiers that originally were sent to Camp Custer by their local draft boards are in that organization and included in the 12,000 estimate.

That the Michigan guardsmen, or a large proportion of them at least, will be in the front line trenches by June 1 is the prediction of officers in a position to know what's going on "over there."

ARMY OBJECTORS ARE JAILED

Refusing to Obey Orders, Eight Men Draw Heavy Sentences.

Camp Dodge, Ia.—Found guilty by a general court martial of refusing to obey orders, eight national army men from St. Paul, all professed Socialists, have been sentenced to imprisonment in Leavenworth penitentiary. A. S. Broms was given 20 years and the other seven were sentenced to 25 years' confinement, all at hard labor.

Broms and Tressler were native Americans. The others were born in Sweden, but had declared their intention to become American citizens.

STATE BUYS 1,000 TRACTORS

Big Deal Involves Nearly a Million Dollars—Bigger Acreage Is Aim.

Lansing—At a meeting with Henry Ford, members of the state war board entered into a contract for 1,000 "Fordson" farm tractors at $750 each, f. o. b. Detroit. This will make the price of the machine which the war board, through its county organization, delivers to the farmer, about $765.

An accompanying deal by the war board is for "plow bottoms." These are the most important implement used in connection with the tractors. The plow bottom to be bought is two ploughshares fabricated together so as to plough two furrows 28 inches wide and eight inches deep.

BERGER, SOCIALIST, INDICTED

Charged He Has Encouraged Disloyalty Against Government.

Chicago—Victor L. Berger, former congressman from Wisconsin, Adolph Germer, national secretary of th Socialist party, Irwin St. John Tucker, a Chicago Socialist, J. Louis Engdahl and William F. Kreuse have been indicted by the federal grand jury here charged with obstructing recruiting, encouraging disloyalty and interfering with prosecution of the war.

The indictments charge 26 overt acts. It is charged those indicted conspired to violate the espionage act by speeches and articles printed in certain publications.

Charlotte.—Mistaking a can of belladonna seeds for coffee, while cleaning the cubboards, Mrs. Charles Silverthorn, residing in Chester township, poured the contents into the coffee, which was of similar appearance. Mrs. Silverthorn later made coffee from the mixture, with the result that Mr. and Mrs. Silverthorn and 10-year-old daughter Margaret barely escaped death by poisoning.

Lansing.—The importance of the home garden as a factor in solving the difficulties of the present food situation, which he declares is becoming steadily worse in New England, is pointed out by Herbert Hoover in a letter to Geo. A. Prescott, Federal Food Admnistrator for Michigan. Mr. Hoover declares that such gardens should eliminate perishables in so far as possible, and plant potatoes, beans, and other staple products.

SECRETARY BAKER ARRIVES IN FRANCE

VISIT IS PURELY MILITARY

Washington Says Trip Is Largely For Purpose of Inspection, Not Diplomatic.

Washington—Upon hearing of Secretary Baker's safe arrival in France through a press dispatch from Paris, the war department on March 10, announced the secretary's visit is purely military and not diplomatic, and is for purposes of inspection and personal conferences with military officials.

The department issued this statement:

"A cable dispatch from Paris to the Associated Press Sunday night announced the arrival at a French port of the secretary of war.

"For some time Secretary Baker has desired to visit headquarters of the American expeditionary forces. He sailed from an American port about February 27.

"Secretary Baker has not determined the length of time he will remain in France, but his stay will be long enough to enable him to make a thorough inspection of American forces abroad and to hold important conferences with American military officers.

"It is expected not only will Secretary Baker visit American headquarters, but his inspection tour will cover construction projects, including docks, railroads and ordnance bases, now under way back of the American lines.

"The secretary's visit is military and not diplomatic. It is essentially for the purposes of inspection and personal conference with military officials. The secretary is accompanied by Major-General W. M. Black, Lieutenant-Colonel Brett and Ralph Hayes, private secretary to Mr. Baker."

It is regarded as probable the secretary will take the opportunity to investigate conditions in the field. Mr. Baker is the first member of President Wilson's cabinet to go to the battle zone.

Out of his conferences, not only with General Pershing, but with leaders of the French and British governments as well, will come direct information for the president as to what is transpiring in the Allied countries to aid him in shaping his future course.

Camp Custer.—With the arrival of 65,000 identification tags the work of tagging every man in the division has started. According to present plans each man will wear two tags, one about his neck and the other about his wrist. This is to make identification certain in case of explosion where portions of the body might be blown to pieces. Each company has been furnished with a stenciling outfit and upon each tag will be cut the wearer's name, official number and organization.

Alpena.—An American bald eagle, estimated to be about 35 years old, with a wing spread of eight feet, was captured by Louis Fussey at his Long Lake road farm. The bird had become caught in a trap set for foxes. After a lively scrap Fussey managed to get it into a cage without injuring it. Fussey believes this is the same eagle he has seen for the last 16 years. It has come every spring to this vicinity. Until about four years ago it was accompanied by a mate, but has been alone since then.

Ann Arbor.—Giving as a reason that the falling off in the study of German warrants it, the following men of the German faculty of the University of Michigan have been notified by the regents that after the beginning of the next college year their services will no longer be required: Dr. W. W. Florer and John Dieterle, both assistant professors of German, and Herman Wiegand and Richard Ficken, instructors in German. Dr. E. A. Bouché, professor of German, has asked for a leave of absence for the duration of the war.

WILSON PROMISES TO HELP RUSSIA

PLEDGES AID OF AMERICA IN DOWNING DOMINATION OF GERMANY.

SENDS MESSAGE TO REVOLTERS

Tells Congress of Soviets That U. S. Will Do All In Her Power to Restore Slav Independence.

Washington—President Wilson has again pledged the aid of the United States in restoring to Russia complete sovereignty and independence.

Warning the Russian people against plans of the German autocracy to ride over all liberties won by the revolution, he cabled Monday night a message to the congress of soviets, which assembled Tuesday, March 12, at Moscow.

The message reads:

"May I not take advantage of the meeting of the congress of soviets to express the sincere sympathy which the people of the United States feel for the Russian people at this moment when the German power has been thrust in to interrupt and turn back the whole struggle for freedom and substitute the wishes of Germany for the purposes of the people of Russia.

"Although the government of the United States is unhappily not now in a position to render the direct and effective aid it would wish to render, I beg to assure the people of Russia through the congress that it will avail itself of every opportunity to secure for Russia once more complete sovereignty and independence in her own affairs and full restoration to her great role in the life of Europe and the modern world.

"The whole heart of the people of the United States is with the people of Russia in the attempt to free themselves forever from autocratic government and become the masters of their own life.

"WOODROW WILSON."

The Moscow assemblage was called for the primary object of determining whether the soviets representing the revolutionary committees set up throughout Russia, were to approve or repudiate the German imposed peace.

The outcome of the president's message is awaited in Washington with tense interest. Even should it fail to effect an outright rejection of the German peace the government in Washington has strong hopes that before long the Russian masses, awakened at last to the danger threatened by the German conquerors will cast aside the [illegible]

How directly the move will bear on the Japanese-Siberian situation is a [illegible] speculation. That it should follow the guarded and informal efforts of Washington to restrain the Japanese in their proposal to intervene in Siberia is regarded as significant of the purpose of the United States to insist on a policy that will permit Russia the fullest opportunity to work out her salvation.

O. K. SALE OF ALIEN PROPERTY

Senate Approves Bill to Dispose of Teuton Holdings in U. S.

Washington—Legislation authoring sale of all enemy property in this country, requested by the alien property custodian to permanently uproot German commercial influence, has been approved by the senate and added to the urgent deficiency appropriation bill. An amendment empowering the president to acquire title to German steamship companies' docks and wharves at Hoboken, N. J., also was accepted.

The vote on the provision for sale of enemy property was unanimous, 44 to 0, and came after several hours' scathing denunciation of German Kultur and intrigues for world dominion.

Enemy property within the meaning of the law is property owned in an enemy country, and official assurances have been given there is no intention to interfere with property or money of Germans or Austrians living in this country.

The purpose is to sever forever the hold of Germans in Germany on vast commercial and industrial enterprises in the United States, which have been closely connected with the Kaiser's government, serving as outposts of the Teutonic movement for world dominion.

Under the trading with the enemy act the alien property custodian takes possession and administers these properties, but is without authority to finally dispose of them. The new legislation will empower him to place them in American hands.

Murphys Doing Their Bit In Fight for Democracy

Holland, Mich.—The Murphys are contributing their share in making the world safe for democracy. According to a statement made by William Murphy, of Ottawa Beach, 19 of his relatives are in the service overseas, most of them being in Canadian regiments. His brother was seriously injured at the front and now is on his way to his home in Canada.

Ionia.—Burglars secured 90 cents when they took two cash registers from Q. E. Wilkinson's news stand. They missed $350 in a safe under one of the registers.

Kalamazoo.—Food Administrator W. H. Upjohn announced that hereafter all purchasers of sugar must register and cards will be issued only to those properly listed.

Kalamazoo.—The Kalamazoo Industries corporation, capitalized at $100,000, will finance factories seeking government contracts. An agent will be maintained at Washington.

Mt. Pleasant.—Three masked bandits robbed Walter D. Edmunds, a farmer, of $17 while he was en route from serving on a jury which convicted Frank Purdy and his pal, Moore, of burglary.

NEXT DRAFT TAKES 5,558 IN MICHIGAN

CALL FROM ENTIRE NATION IS 95,000—MINNESOTA AND IOWA EXCEPTED.

GO TO CAMP APRIL 29--MARCH 2

Men Actively Engaged in Cultivation of Crops Placed in Deferred Class Until End of First Quota.

Lansing—Michigan's draft machinery is humming to turn out 5,558 selectives, whom Provost Marshal General Crowder has ordered the state to send to Camp Custer between March 29 and April 2 as the final quota of the first draft.

It is estimated approximately 13,000 troops have left Camp Custer recently and the cantonment is ready to receive the new men as rapidly as they can be transported.

Men engaged actively in the cultivation of crops will be placed in the deferred class until the end of the new quota, but no credits will be allowed the state for enlistments in the army. Selectives will be inducted out of class 1 in sequence of order numbers. Only white men are included in the call.

This announcement by the provost marshal general followed almost immediately another, fixing 800,000 as the number of men taken as a basis for the second draft call. The second draft, it was pointed out, must await action by congress to determine the states' apportionment, using class 1 registrants as the basis.

Nation Calls 95,000.

Washington—A movement of 95,000 drafted men to begin March 29 and continue for five days has been ordered by Provost Marshal General Crowder. The order calls troops from every state in the union with the exception of Iowa and Minnesota. It includes men remaining from the last draft and those liable to call in the second.

Just how many men of the second draft are affected by the order was not stated at General Crowder's office. It is understood the movement will virtually complete the first draft and it is part of the announced plan to call registrants in small groups as fast as they can be accommodated.

SEVEN ARMY CHIEFS ARE UNFIT

Could Not Pass Physical Test for Duty Overseas—Relieved of Commands.

Washington—Seven general officers of the army, five of them now commanding national guard and national army divisions in this country, have been found physically unfit for overseas duty by a medical examining board, and, in the case of the divisional commanders, will be assigned to other duty.

This is in line with the announced policy of the war department to send to France only general officers prepared to stand the physical ordeal which a command on the battle line entails.

Those relieved of their commands are: Major General Thomas H. Barry, Major General Charles G. Morton, Major General Edwin St. J. Greble, Major General Willis H. Sage, Major General William H. Plummer, Major General William A. Mann, Major General Richard M. Blatchford.

Major General Mann commanded the "Rainbow division" when it went to France, but later was relieved of that command and returned to this country.

PROFITS ON WAR WORK ARE CUT

New Scale Ranges From 2½ to 7 Per Cent, Based On Size of Order.

Washington—No more contracts at 10 per cent plus cost are to be awarded by the emergency construction division of the war industries board, according to an announcement by Major W. A. Starrett, chief of the division.

In a statement replying to general criticism of the system Major Starrett said that a new chart had been adopted providing for 7 per cent profit on $100,000 contracts, down to 2 1-2 per cent on $10,000,000 contracts for 1918.

Contracts totaling $300,000,000 are to be awarded this year, the major estimated.

The program calls for the building of six great terminal and storage areas at Atlantic coast ports and approximately 31 interior or accumulation storage areas.

Probably six gas and powder plants in addition to the two big powder factories already authorized at Nashville and Charleston, W. Va., will also be built.

Hastings—The trunk line highway between Grand Rapids and Camp Custer will be completed this summer with federal, state and county governments co-operating.

Flint—Boy scout groups will travel throughout this section during the summer doing emergency farm work. They will be accompanied by a cook and commissary department.

Three Rivers—Associated missionary societies of this city have appealed to President Wilson to spare the lives of four American soldiers sentenced to death for sleeping on sentry duty in France.

Marshall—The News-Statesman in a long article, setting forth the distinguished service of Charles B. Warren, calls upon the Republicans of Michigan to nominate him for United States senator.

Lansing—The secretary of state has approved the form of petition which will allow for a vote to be taken at the November election this year on the question of whether light wines and beer can be manufactured and sold in Michigan.

Algonac—LeRoy Gunniss, 18-year-old son of H. B. Gunniss, after working several months on an airplane of an approved pattern, has it completed. The machine is propelled by a 14-horsepower engine. He has made several successful flights in the machine.

Flint—Clayton Andrews, 7-year-old son of Herman Andrews, ate wild parsnips while playing with school children in Genesee township. He was found unconscious on the school house steps and died soon afterward. Other children ate parsnips but were not seriously affected.

Bay City.—Robert Schroeder, 38, was killed and John Thompson, 40, severely injured, as the result of an accident in Wolverine mine No. 2. The two men had placed their shot for blasting coal and after hearing a report went back to their working room. It was another shot they had heard and just as they got in their blast went off above them.

Flint.—Eight members of three different families occupying flats above a North Saginaw street bakery were overcome by gas fumes and were unconscious when found. Prompt and vigorous action by several doctors, however, resulted in their resuscitation and all have recovered. It is believed the gas came from a coke oven in the bakery below.

Albion.—Albion miners have resumed work at an increase of 30 cents a ton, which makes a total wage of $1.30 a ton and puts the B. S. K. Mining Co. of Albion practically under the Washington agreement. The miners won all their demands except the dating back of the increase to November 1. This question was referred to the national fuel administrator.

Lansing.—Organization of county war boards which are to attend to the war activities of their respective districts, with particular reference to the raising of money, was accomplished here at a meeting of the executive advisory committee appointed recently by Governor Sleeper. Plans for conferences in each county and the gradual establishment of co-ordinated collections for all campaigns were adopted.

Lansing.—According to Labor Commissioner Richard S. Fletcher there is going to be plenty of farm labor in Michigan this summer. Mr. Fletcher says that his free employment agencies are already getting track of many men who wish to leave the city for farm work this summer, and that he is having no trouble placing them.

NOTHING WASTED BY CHINESE

Flowery Kingdom's Farmers Even Utilize the Prolific Weeds for Fertilizer and Fuel.

Nothing goes to waste on the Chinese farm—not even the weeds. According to the farmer's ideas, there are good weeds and bad weeds, states a writer. The good weeds are put into compost heaps and return fertilization to the soil. The coarse weeds with woody stems which will not easily rot are cut down and allowed to dry until the son of the family has time to rake them up for use as winter fuel.

Nowhere as in China do the dead rob the living. Millions of graves are scattered over the fields, their location directed by the complicated rules of feng shui. In some sections of the country more than one-sixth of the tillable area is covered with graves of estimable but now useless ancestors, and sometimes when a young man falls heir to a farm he finds that it is a farm full of graves, and his biggest crop is a crop of duty to dead and half-forgotten ancestors.

Chinese women didn't wait for the outbreak of war to put on trousers and volunteer for work in the fields. They have been wearing trousers for many centuries and for many more they have been helping the beans and potatoes to do their bit for their country. The Chinese sages have had a great deal to say about the inferiority of woman, but when it comes to digging in the fields the Chinese woman is equal to any man.

HUMPBACKED MEN IN DEMAND

Affliction Proved Qualification Where Strange and Successful Experiment Was Tried in Factory.

An unusual advertisement appeared in a Chicago paper recently, desiring the services of five humpbacked men. The explanation of this strange want is even more interesting than the announcement, says Popular Mechanics Magazine.

It seems that a large envelope factory, unable to fill its orders, decided to work nights as well as days. Long experience had demonstrated that in the use of certain machines women were better operators than men by reason of their hands being more delicate and nimble.

The owner does not believe in factory work at night for women, and the men proved clumsy and slow. It was then he set about to seek men who were well but physically incapable of heavy work. He decided that humpbacks had the necessary qualifications of more agile and sensitive touch, and an actual test proved such to be the fact. Hence the advertisement.

Rubber in India.

In southern India a factory at which high-grade rubber is made resembles a dairy, the milklike appearance of the latex adding to this illusion, as well as the precautions taken to insure absolute cleanliness, says the Family Herald. One of two methods of manufacture is generally adopted. If the estate is young and only a few trees are being tapped the rubber is made in the form of biscuits or sheets. The latex is put into shallow, round dishes or oblong pans and a certain quantity of acetic acid added to it. This is the congulating agent most generally used. After standing for some hours the rubber is found floating on the top of the dish in a white, spongy clot. This is removed and washed and rolled by hand and through a mangle until clean. The biscuits are placed on racks in a warm room or an artificial dryer and allowed to remain there until dry. The finished biscuits are pale amber-colored and transparent, and for this reason are popular on the market, for their purity and freedom from dirt can be judged by holding them to the light and looking through them.

The women of Tecumseh will soon be called upon to register and will be asked to state in what way they can serve our government during these strenuous war times, should their services be required. This work of measuring the woman-power of Michigan, both active and potential, has been undertaken by the Michigan Division of the Women's Committee of the Council of National Defense at the request of the Council of National Defense for the use of the United States Government.

Mrs. J. D. Shull is chairman for Lenawee county and a local organization with Mrs. E. E. Hendershott as chairman, has been formed to carry on the local work.

This work is not only state wide, but it is nation wide and is one of the great national movements sweeping our country. A house to house canvass will soon be made by the local workers to explain to every woman over 16 years of age just what this registration means. During the week of April 6th. the women of Michigan will register so that a complete census of her women-power may be recorded.

This is the anniversary of our entrance into the war.

This registration does not mean that the busy housewife must leave her children and family cares and enter some factory to take a man's place, but simply to list the women for the service which they are fitted for and can do if needed and many will be drawn into the busy business world if the war continues and more of our men are drawn into war service. If these conditions arise, and it looks now as if they would, those women who can be spared will be asked to take the places made vacant by men who have gone to the front to fight our battles for us.

In France and England today, and in fact every European country, millions of women are employed in every kind of business from tilling the soil to managing some great enterprise.

Don't get into your minds that this war is going to be over this summer and that all of these movements are uncalled for. They are vital and far reaching and a part of the Government's plan to be fully organized and prepared for the worst. The outlook for an early peace is very gloomy at the present time.

Russia's breaking has added great strength to Germany's power. Russia is crumbling away. Large slices of her territory are now under the control of the Hun and he will surely control as much of Russia as he can get hold of, all of which will mean added resources and will make the job of conquering the Hun doubly hard for the Allies.

America will soon call 800,000 more of her young men to the colors and later other calls will be made. Our armies will grow from 2,000,000 to double and triple this number. In fact no one can foretell how many men will be needed before the end will come. Who will take the place of the men who have been taken out of business life? The women will be left. They will have to learn to take the men's places and in a large measure fill the gap.

America must win. She will win. It will take the full strength of the nation to win this war and the women will do their duty.

The duty of the women of Tecumseh is to get posted on this movement. When these ladies call on you give them your time. Find out what it is your government asks of you and during the week of April 6th go and register so that the government may have at its disposal a full list from Tecumseh.

Women of Tecumseh, this is your opportunity for service. Do your duty and get ready to serve, should your government call you.

CELIBATES IN LARGE NUMBER

Seventeen Millions of Class in United States, Many Being Inferior to Married People.

"There are 17,000,000 celibates in the United States, according to a statement which has been going the rounds of the press, after originating in a magazine article on the sex question," says the Journal of Heredity. "Examination of the census schedules for 1910 indicates that this figure includes all males over twenty and all females over fifteen.

"A calculation [illegible] such age limits is misleading. [illegible] actual facts are quite striking enough. Persons thirty-five years of age or over are relatively unlikely to marry, and it seems fair to base computations on that age. They show, then, that there are nearly 2,000,000 unmarried men in the population, and about 1,250,000 unmarried women. There are about 1,500,000 unmarried women between the ages of twenty-five and thirty-four, and a considerable part of these are certain never to marry.

"The celibacy of these millions is, from a eugenic point of view, not wholly to be deplored. While the number includes many potential fathers and mothers of a desirable character, it is probable that, on the whole, these life-long celibates are eugenically inferior to the married population."

APRIL 1 LAST DAY FOR FEDERAL RETURNS

Penalties for Income Dodgers Are Severe—Get Your Return In If You Are Liable.

April 1, 1918, is the final day allowed under the federal income tax law for the filing of federal income tax returns. Persons who are required to file returns under the provisions of law and who fail to get their returns in on time are subject to severe penalties, as follows:

For making false or fraudulent return, not exceeding $2,000 or not exceeding one year's imprisonment, or both, in the discretion of the court, and, in addition, 100 per cent. of the tax evaded.

For failing to make return on time, not less than $20 nor more than $1,000, and, in addition, 50 per cent. of the amount of tax due.

If on account of illness or absence from home you are unable to render your return within the time prescribed by law you may obtain an extension of 30 days if a request therefor is filed with the collector of your district before the due date of the return. In this request you must state the reason why the return cannot be filed within the time prescribed by law.

Collectors of internal revenue are not authorized to grant extensions of more than 30 days, but the commissioner of internal revenue has authority to grant a reasonable extension beyond 30 days in meritorious cases. If you desire an extension of more than 30 days your request should be addressed to the commissioner and should contain a detailed statement covering the reasons which make it impossible for you to file your return on or before April 1.

The internal revenue men are now completing their tour of the country, during which they were in touch with the people of every city and town. If you failed to get in touch with the deputy which visited your section it is not too late to get advice. Consult your postmaster as to where the nearest deputy is now. Get your blank form, study the directions and the requirements as shown thereon and make your return without fail if your income was sufficient to come within the bounds named in the law.

It is pointed out by Commissioner Roper that it is important that the people comply with the federal laws as fully as they are complying with the drafts for men and the conservation of foods and fuel. "The war must be paid for," says Commissioner Roper. "Congress has as much right to conscript a just portion of income as it has to conscript our boys. The tax for 1917 is designed to reach moderate as well as large incomes, so that all persons who are in financial position to bear a portion of the heavy government expenses can be assessed in proportion to their ability to pay.

"The man who is barely making a living or barely supporting a family is not affected by the 1917 law. But the man who is able to bear a share of the burden has been reached by the new law, and he should accept his responsibility in the same patriotic spirit that our young men have shown in offering themselves for this great purpose of the country to make the world safe for people of all kinds to live in and to govern themselves."

This tax is one which recognizes women as on an equal basis with men. The unmarried woman or the married woman with a salary must make tax return just the same as any man. Only the woman supporting her mother or other members of her family may take out $2,000 exemption.

Under the law the head of the family is the one whose earning power contributes to the family's support.

Similarly a widow with small children to support can take out $2,000 exemption and $200 additional exemption for each of her children under eighteen. Thus it is intended that the law shall work no hardship to women having to struggle to get along. But each must file return if her income is $1,000.

A man whose wife dies and who is left with small children to support upon a moderate income may also take full exemption under the new tax law and also claim $200 exemption for each of his children under eighteen.

The widower under the law is a single man and must make tax return accordingly. Married men need not file returns unless they are earning $2,000 or more.

"This is as much a national obligation as the reporting for duty of a man drafted for service with the colors," says D. C. Roper, commissioner of internal revenue. "As it stands, it is much a matter of the man or woman's own conscience. It is for him or for her to determine just how far he is liable to the tax. He must figure his own income and if it reaches the figures named in the law must make faithful report upon it to the proper authority.

"This tax is distinctly a war measure and will be in effect during the war.

"This is a people's tax—it reaches right down into the pockets of the small wage earner; it makes him a partner in the job of winning the war."

Lansing—Following an investigation of the cost of manufacturing binder twine the United States Food Administration announces that binder twine containing 500 feet to the pound should be sold in carload lots of 20,000 pounds or more at a maximum advance of 4 cents per pound above the cost of sisal. Smaller lots range from 4 1-4 cents to 4 1-8 cents above sisal cost. The scale is based on the present price of 19 cents a pound for sisal fibre.

Port Huron.—The city commission has made agreement with the Grand Trunk to place an iron bridge over Black river in the vicinity of the fibre works. Recent dredging operations necessitated the removal of the span and it was never replaced. The city will have a walk built over the span. Employes of the plant who used the bridge have been crossing on the ice during the winter. A few days ago Peter C. Relkin went into an air hole and was drowned.

Lansing.—The state war board has appropriated $10,000 to buy sheep for farmers. Purchasers in large lots will be made by J. A. Halliday, state live stock commissioner. The state will act as a distributing agent, but at the same time will give farmers the advantage of purchasing at a price obtained only in buying large shipments. In upper Michigan many farmers desire to start in the sheep raising business on a small scale and have sufficient funds to make such a start but few sheep are available. By this plan sheep can be sold in small lots.

New Boomerang Bullet.

The discussion of the war is heard everywhere. Even negro janitors find time while shoveling on the coal to talk about it, says a New York news letter. Two of them were discussing the wonderful inventions brought about by the war. "The man Edison is some boy," said one of the negroes. "How's that?" inquired the other. "Why he's done gone and invented a magnetized bullet dat can't miss a German, if it sees his steel helmet." "That's what I calls some invention," exclaimed the other. "But dat ain't all what that bullet can do," continued the first speaker. "Whenever that bullet don't hit nothin' it comes straight back to the American lines. "Dat so?" asked the second janitor, with some doubt. "How do they manage to keep them there comin' back bullets from hittin' our own men?" "Well, mah frien', didn't 'splain that," answered the first one, "but you can betcher life that man Edison has got dem bullets trained. You doan 'spect he'd let 'em kill any Americans, do you? No, sir. He's just got them fixed so dey will come back and fall around our gunners' feet."

WOMAN PLEADED FOR CANDOR

Matron Announcing Nearness of Birthday Found Truth Not So Attractive After She Got It.

A woman with a birthday in sight spoke earnestly to three men who were her friends, writes Ella Randall Pearce, in life.

"Tomorrow will be another birthday for me," she said. "I know the freshness of my youth has departed, but I should like to know just how old I appear in the eyes of the world. Tell me, my dear friends, if you were looking on me for the first time what would be your impressions?"

Said the first man glibly: "I have known you for several years, and you appear the same as when I first saw you. Your beauty is undimmed; your charm is undiminished. If I did not know otherwise, I should say tomorrow would be your twentieth birthday."

Said the second man more slowly: "I, too, have known you for several years, but it seems to me you have been favored by time. Your beauty has ripened and deepened until now you, who were once a lovely bud, are a lovelier rose in bloom. I should count tomorrow as the beginning of your twenty-fifth year."

"And you," queried the woman of the third man, who had been regarding her with clear-eyed frankness.

"Between friends there should always be truth," he replied gravely. "I acknowledge your beauty and your charm and both have been wonderfully preserved in semblance of youth. But you ask for candor and you shall have it. Looking at you closely, I should not expect you to see thirty—after tomorrow."

The woman faced the three men who were her friends, and her eyes were gleaming while her cheeks' pink turned crimson. She pointed an accusing finger.

"You have lied," she said tremulously, "and you also. But I will forgive you both because you lied to please me. But you"—she whirled toward the last speaker—"you are a barbarous egotist. You have wounded me in order to maintain your own reputation for veracity. Truth, indeed! Your honesty offends me. We are no longer friends. Go—and quickly!"

"Whew!" exclaimed the third man as he strode through the outer darkness. "I wonder what would have happened to me if I had really told her the truth?"

Don't Betray Confidence.

"Now you mustn't repeat this, for I promised not to tell anybody." When a girl prefaces a breach of confidence in this fashion, she will not deceive herself into thinking that she has made things all right, not at least if she stops to think, says a writer. For to pass a secret on to one, is as much a violation as to tell all, and moreover, if she herself is so little bound by a pledge, why should she expect another to abide by it. If you are given to betraying confidences, do not pretend that you make it all right by assuming that your confidante is more honorable than you are.

The Grant Monument.

The monument to General Grant in front of the capitol in Washington was contracted for on August 10, 1908. The contract provided that the work should be completed in five years, but the contractors asked, and were granted, several extensions. All of the architectural work is finished, the cavalry and the artillery groups are in position at either end of the platform, the lions and lamps called for by the design are in place and there remains to complete the memorial only the placing of the equestrian group, i. e., the figure of General Grant on horseback on the central pedestal, and affixing the two bas reliefs which are to go on either side of the pedestal. The total cost authorized by congress for the memorial is $240,000, exclusive of $10,000 which was appropriated for use in procuring designs.

German Silver.

German silver is manufactured in three general ways, according to Popular Science Monthly. It is composed of nickel, copper and zinc in varying proportions. The German method is to melt all the copper to be used in the mixture, and two-thirds of the nickel and zinc in a graphite crucible and then add the rest of the nickel and zinc. In the English method the copper, nickel and zinc are melted all at one time, then more copper and zinc are added. Should the metal appear porous, a fireclay pipe containing pitch is pushed into the metal mixture to deoxidize it. There are several American methods. One is to melt a copper-nickel alloy and then gradually add the preheated zinc. In another method nickel metal is used as a base.

ILAH JEWELL

Ilah Jewell passed away Wednesday morning at her home on West Kilbuck street after a lingerng illness of tuberculosis, at the age of 19 years, 7 months, 6 days. Her funeral was held at her home Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Linton officiating. Burial on the family lot in Brookside.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to our neighbors and friends for their kindness during the sickness and death of our dear daughter and sister. Especially do we thank Rev. Linton, the singer andpall bearers.

Mrs. Jewell
and sons Charles, Robert and Will.

We will miss you, but not forget you
In that graveyard over there.
There she lies and only sleeping,
Out of pain and sorrow there.

Yes, our darling has gone before us
To her beautiful home on high.
She beckons us to meet her
In that sweet bye and bye.

So dry your tears, fond mother,
For Ilah is at rest,
Safe in the arms of Jesus,
Clasped to His loving breast.

Her short life here is ended,
Her earthly trials are o'er.
She is numbered with the angels
On yonder shining shore.

Only her form is lying
Beneath the earthly sod
Her soul, the part most precious,
Is now in Heaven with God.

A little mound will mark the place
In yonder graveyard fair,
And when we've run our mortal race
We, too, will slumber there.

PRINCE OF TAVERN WRITERS

"Good Old Horace" Positively Popular in the American Meaning, Declares Genial Midwest Critic.

Old Horatius Flaccus of all the ancient bards is nearest to our modern sense. He is positively "popular" in the American meaning. Nearly every rhymster translates or parodies an ode or two. He is very affinitive, companionable and appropos, so to speak. We understand him and feel certain that he would understand us were he here. He would be conducting a "colyum" of quips and jests upon some editorial page or else be a better James Whitcomb Riley were he one of us right now. To be sure, he would have to alter his morals a mite to serenade Lalage and to babble of Falernian a little less, but in general Horace would be "right there with the push."

Old Horace is a brother and a sport, as well as all men who read him feel, observes a writer in the Minneapolis Journal. And that is why so many are strong for him still, just as the late Eugene Field was. That Sabine farm of his, some miles out of Caesarean Home and a long time back in the centuries, is as familiar to us as "out to old Aunt Mary's."

Measuring High Temperature.

Tin, which melts at about 450 degrees Fahrenheit, has been applied to the measurement of high temperatures in the same way that mercury, melting at 38 degrees below zero, is used for measuring ordinary atmosphere temperatures. Instead of being placed in a glass bulb with closed tube, says the Nebraska State Journal, the melted tin is contained in a graphite bulb having an open tube, and readings are made by lowering into the tube a plunger of a metal with a high melting point. When the plunger touches the tin, an electric circuit is closed, giving a bell or other signal, the position of the plunger showing the temperature. This new form of pyrometer may be used in either of two ways (1) to give the temperature at any time by sliding down the pointer until the electric signal is set off, or (2) to announce when any predetermined temperature is reached by setting the pointer at the proper number of degrees on the scale. As the melted tin, like melted mercury, is found to expand at a very even rate, the indications are held to be notably accurate.

RED CROSS NEWS

Conservation

If I only knew which "Sammie"
Was going to wear these hose,
I'd send along instructions
For darning up the toes,
For it's a long, long way from purl
to toe,
It's a long, long way to go
And it takes a hank of yarn.
Or if he'd send them back again
Across the German sea,
I'd gladly ravel them back to heel
Or where the purling be.
For it's a long, long way from purl
to toe,
It's a long, long way to go
And it takes a hank of yarn.

The two power Singer machines which Mr. Palman kindly donated to headquarters are in fine running order, thanks to the united efforts of Mr. John Austin and Mr. Norman Emerson. The ladies are most appreciative and tender sincere thanks.

Over here we take our Red Cross work so easily; we are not making any real sacrifice to attend afternoon and evening meetings; we are having a visit, perhaps, with friends we see only once a week. We work when we feel like it; we are not straining ourselves at all. Over there your boy may be wading in the blood-soaked mud of Flanders or lying wounded and helpless in a shell crater waiting for the Red Cross to find him. And the dressings or the bandages put on his wounds may, for all you know, be the very ones you have worked so leisurely on. What if the supplies had stopped coming just before that field dressing station received their supplies? Red Cross is no fad—no good time. It's the most deadly serious thing any American woman has ever interested herself in and it won't be over "till-it's over, over there."

Wm. F. Fisher donated three cords of wood to headquarters this week.

The ladies will meet on Friday afternoon at headquarters to sew on the garments for the Belgian children. Mrs. W. T. Eccles will have charge of the cutting. Any ladies who would like to assist with this work are welcome.

Save all of your newspapers and magazines for the boys. Spring house cleaning time is near and the young men will make a house to house canvass.

Twenty-two were present in the surgical dressings department on Wednesday afternoon. There are still empty chairs and the need of more workers is pressing. You are needed today and every Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoon. Volunteers always welcome.

200 yards of gauze were cut and 900 4x4 sponges were made Wednesday.

Mrs. J. R. Nyland sent 9 sweaters and a pair of wristlets to headquarters this week.

Thursday afternoon 20 worked on the 4x4 sponges with Mrs. B. J. Pulver and Mrs. F. G. Lewis in charge. They made 500 sponges beside cutting many yards of gauze.

East Lansing.—Leaders of boys and girls clubs and supervisors who will direct their gardening efforts throughout the state this spring and summer set $500,000 worth of food products as the goal towards which they will strive in 1918. It is planned to send the boys into the country May 1, as arrangements have been made with most high schools to permit boys who are going into the country to receive credit for the last month of the school year. Each county will handle its own farm labor problem. The organization is now complete in 68 counties.

MACARONI COMPANY LOSE PORTION OF ROOF

Men Work Most of Night Protecting Stock

The storm which swept over Tecumseh Wednesday evening took off a portion of the roof of the Macaroni Plant in the south end of town. A large section over the northwest portion of the shipping room was torn completely off, taking with it a top section of the west wall. A crew of men were set at work removing the stock to a place of safety where the rain which came down in torrents could not injure it. The men worked until early in the morning before their task was completed, there being little if any damage to the stock.

Just what the damage to the roof will be has not been determined but it is thought that a new one will have to be put on in the shipping room.

THIS MONTH OF MARCH

There can be no question of the fact that this has been a genuine old fashioned March and the storms of Wednesday night were not the least Thunder lighning, rain, snow, wind and hail followed in quick succession and the wind wrought much destruction as it swept through town.

A section of the Presbyterian steeple was laid low. The roof was taken from the shipping shed at the macaroni plant. Trees were blown down in different parts of town, carrying the electric wires with them. A chimney was taken from the house of John Smith down by the Y. Part of the bill board at the opera house was torn down and branches from the trees were thrown everywhere. As the hail struck the windows is sounded like a fusilade of hot shot from the enemy.

The cupola and doors on the barn of Will Gibson were a total wreck. The large chimney on A. S. VanWinkle's house on North Union street was blown down and broke several rafters. Mr. Cole, who lives on the Sutton farm, south of town, was also a victim. His corn crib was blown down and other damage done.

The creeks and ponds are swollen full and danger is anticipated at the dams which are being closely watched.

Tecumseh has had quite a visitation from the sloldier boys today. They were driving cars through to Cincinnati and were here some three or four hours.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thro the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.

To The American People

There is no foundation for the alleged violations of law attributed to our Company by agents of the Federal Trade Commission and I want to say emphatically that Swift & Company is not a party to any conspiracy to defraud the Government. Nor has Swift & Company been guilty of improperly storing foods or of making false entries or reports.

Conferences of packers, where prices have been discussed, have been held at the urgent request and in the presence of representatives of either the Food Administration or the Council of National Defense. And yet the packers have been accused of committing a felony by acting in collusion on Government bids!

We have done our best, with other packers, large and small, to comply with the directions of the United States Food Administration in all particulars, including the furnishing of food supplies for the U. S. Army and Navy and the Allies, now being handled through the Food Administration.

We will continue to do our utmost, under Government direction, to increase our production and assist the Food Administration. We consider that the opportunity to co-operate whole-heartedly and to our fullest powers with this branch of the Government is our plain and most pressing duty.

The Trade Commission Attorney has, by false inference and misplaced emphasis, given to disconnected portions of the correspondence taken from our private files and read into the Record, a false and sinister meaning with the plain purpose of creating antagonistic public opinion.

The services of the packers of the United States are most urgently needed, and I regret exceedingly that we should at this time have to spend our efforts in defending ourselves against unfounded, unproved, and unfair assertions such as are being daily made public.

PATRIOTIC PARTY

At the M. E. Church Friday Evening Under Auspices of Ladies Aid

The Patriotic Party at the M. E. church Friday evening under the auspices of the L. A. S. proved a very successful affair. Being something entirely different from any previous entertainment, it was very pleasing to those who were fortunate to see it.

As the guests arrived they were received by President and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson (Dr. and Mrs. Balmer), Secretary and Mrs. McAdoo (Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Williams), Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hoover (Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Brown) and a Red Cross nurse (Miss Clara Critchett), after which they were ushered to their seats by Mary Ellen Newsom and Margaret Turner. The rooms were filled to their capacity.

A very interesting program was given as follows.

Orchestra, "The Star Spangled Banner," all rising and singing.

The beautiful service flag bore ten stars bearing the names of ten soldier boys connected with the Methodist church, Walter Reed, Daniel Reed, Waler Dole, Harry Chiveral, Harold Tribolet, Raynor Quackenbush, Elliott McLain, Roy Smith, Walter Norris and Rexford Gady who was represented by a gold star having died in the service.

The entertainment was put on by the L. A. S. with Mrs. Ed Smallidge chairman, Miss Bertha LaPointe had charge of the tableaux.

The rooms were tastefully decorated with American flags and bunting The stage represented a home scene with fire place and other home surroundings making a cheerful room. Flags were draped on either side, the whole effect being very artistic. At the close of the program refreshments were served

The ladies deserve much credit for this fine entertainment and we are glad to report that they cleared $44.50.

BAPTIST RALLY

Friday evneing there was a rally of the Sunday school at the Baptist church. Every family helped furnish supper. One hundred and sixty were served.

Five boys from the Baptist Guild Ann Arbor, furnished the program of brief addresses interspersed with songs. Donald Brown, a senior law student, spoke on "The Value of the Sunday-school." Cecil Norton, a senior in the Engineering Department, spoke on "The Responsibility of the Teacher." T. E. Enbank, a sophomore engineer, talked on "The Responsibility of Parents to the Sunday-school." Maurice Gay, who is taking postgraduate work in engineering, spoke on "The Responsibility of the Class to the Sunday-school." Fay VanValkenburg, freshman engineer, talked on "Enlarging the Sunday-school." These talks were enlivened by funny stories. Everybody, especially the young people, enjoyed the evening.

On Saturday they conducted two "hikes," one for the boys in the forenoon and the other for the girls in the afternoon. As might be expected the girls outnumbered the boys. The boys also rendered aid at the Grange meeting.

Late Saturday the company was reinforced by the coming of N. C. Fetter of the University Y. M. C. A.

On Sunday morning the public service was conducted by the boys. Maurice Gay and N. C. Fetter spoke on "Christianity and the Present Crisis." Their addresses were highly appreciated.

The Sunday-school classes were consolidated into groups and each of the boys took a group. There were 134 in Sunday-school.

Next Sunday the president of the Baptist Convention Hon. G. M. Hudson will speak.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert VanDoren and little Doris spent Sunday with Macon friends.

THANKS TO MY FRIENDS

I wish to express my thanks to all who kindly assisted me in winning my pony outfit.

Through the frost and snow I went,
With my book and bag in hand,
To all my friends on duty bent,
My pony votes to land.
My duty I never shirked not once,
From the first until the last,
And now my reward I've won,
I'll take my rest at last.
Please, dear friends, these some merchants favor,
For I would like still to try,
And see if I can useful be.
I wish to thank you all. Good bye.

DR. HAMMEL IN ENGLAND ON FURLOUGH

Following are some bits taken from several letters written by our valiant doctor, Dr Harry H Hammell, to his wife who is in Ann Arbor with his people, and we appreciate her kindness in sending the same to us.

London, February 5

Well, at last I am on "leave!" I surely was glad to sleep in a real sure enough bed again! I went by ambulance to Amiens and from there to Boulogne by leave train and then across the English Channel

I will stay here for a few days and then go to Leicester to visit the Smith people. (They are American people he met going over on the steamer.)

The American officers' Inn where I am staying while here in London stands in Cavendish Square, one of the most fashionable residential districts of the English metropolis.

This is a wonderful place. Lady —— served our breakfast, Countess —— served our dinner and last night the niece of an ambassador served our supper. Here we have our club and it is thoroughly Americanized and it does not cost as much as it would to stay at one of the hotels, besides we are able here to have plenty of food like we are used to in France The main thing is to keep a soldier well fed and he will not mind the hardships

When I get back to the ambulance I am to be sent to the 1st Royal Fusiliers as regimental surgeon When the regiment is in line I have to live with them in the trenches. When they go "over the top," I follow them four minutes after they leave our front trench.

By the way, you remember my telling you about the regiment who came out of the trenches and had their Christmas dinner on January 5th and I was the only American guest? Well, it is this regiment I am going to be with. It was formed in 1658 A. D., so it is about 300 years old. It is one of the old "crack" regiments of the army.

I arrived in Leicester last evening just as the Smiths were to start for the theatre. Of course I had to go along.

I am sitting in their U. S. A. den writing. Boston, Milwaukee, Niagara Falls banners cover the walls. Isn't it fine that these people are so nice to me especially after the life in the trenches? These people have a huge boot factory and in a short while we are going over to go thru it. We are going to have a rare treat tonight and what do you suppose it is? Well, popcorn. It will be the first I have had in nearly eight months.

It seems I can't go back to France, but I must and I want to and do my bit to hammer H—— out of the Hun for they sure have it in them.

February 15.

Back to France and the roar of the big guns tomorrow. These kind people all came back to London with me. We went thru Selfridge's, the American store, also thru the famous Liberty Shop.

It will take me two days to get back to the Ambulance and then I will cable you my address so my letters won't be lost. You know my whole life depends on my letters and news from America.

February 20.

Being on the move I've not had time to even unpack my kit. We will be settled in a day or two. You know infantry regiments are always moving. The Boche started to shell a few minutes ago so the major and I are going to "hop it" right now for a deep dugout.

GRANGE BANQUET SATURDAY

Lrgely Attended—Good Program Given

The Grange meeting held Saturday at Grange hall was largely attended. A banquet was served at noon by the ladies and with due respect to the Hon. Herbert Hoover, we were glad that that honored gentlman was not present. Two long tables were spread for the members and guests and a small table at the head of the room was set for the officers and speakers. The tables looked very attractive with their white linen and clusters of smilax and at the appointed hour Miss Lills Howard played a march to which the guests filed in to their places.

The invocation was pronounced by Rev. Somers.

Mr. Boyce announced that the program committee had been disappointed in not being oble to have J. C. Ketchum, master of the State Grange, present, but that the secretary had received a wire from him that morning announcing that he was unable to reach Tecumseh because of the washouts on the line out of Hastings. Mr. Wilson read the telegram which also announced that he would come for a postponed meeting It was decided by vote that an evening meeting should be held soon at which meeting Mr. Ketchum would givee the principal address.

A group of Ann Arbor boys who were guests of the Grange and who were in town to conduct a meeting at the Baptist church then led in singing "Amercia." Miss Emma Rogers gave a reading which was followed by a piano duet by Agnes and Helen McIntyre. Miss Verne Schneerer gave a reading "Khiser Bill and the Devil" then another song by the Ann Arbor boys.

Chairman Wilson then introduced Rev. W. A. Rex who kindly consented to speak in place of Mr. Ketchum if they would allow him to talk on the subject of the war. Rev. Rex gave one of his rousing patriotic addresses and although he stated that he was only a "small imitation of the real thing" he had a hard time making his hearers believe that he was an imitation, he was decidedly the "real thing."

Rev. Rex gave agraphic description of the world war, telling his hearers plainly some of the conditions that now exist and of the great sacrifice that would have to be made by the American people to win. "You agriculturalists should be the finest patriots for your job is that of feeding the allied countries at war." He stated that we are living in a new world the old had passed, the sun arose on the new baby world in August 1914. The fellow who doesn't want to hear about war, should be watched. He urged the people to talk war and be suspicious of the people who don't.

The end will largely depend on the granaries of the world "How are they now?" he asked. He predicted that by July 1st the women of America would have no white flour. The soldiers who are fighting our battles need food stuffs and should have the white flour if it takes it all. Big people are called upon to do big things and they are doingbigger things than they have ever done before. "You farmers are called to do as much nd you must do it, the times demand big sacrifices."

In the opinion of the speaker it would be the things that happened on the eastern front and not the west, within the next few months, that would determine the issues of the war. The Buick, Page and perhaps the Fords of this country would have to be side tracked and their factories turned into factories manufacuring munitions of war to be continued as such for the period of the war. This statement brought forth a hearty applause from his hearers.

In closing he said larger responsibilities would soon come to the women of America. They have already done much but will be called upon to do far more.

Lillis Howard next gave a piano solo.

Mrs. J. D. Shull was called upon to explain the registration which the women of Michigan would be called upon to make in April. She told of the movement and why it was so important for every woman to register.

Rev. J. E. Somers of Ridgeway was the last speaker on the program and gave a splendid talk.

TO EDUCATE FRENCH GIRLS

Alma College is offering to aid in the interesting project of educating young women of France in American Colleges, having agreed with the American Association of Colleges to furnish scholarships to two French girls chosen by the Association. One hundred French girls are to be brought by the United States Bureau of Education and the educational authorities of France, who will work through the American Association of Colleges.

The plan is for each of the Colleges co-operating to take one or two girls and to pay their room, board, tuition and fees while in this country. The French government is expected to pay the traveling expenses, clothes and incidentals of the students.

BREWER—LUCE SLANDER SUIT SETTLED

Parties Get Together—Suit Discontinued

Through the efforts of attorneys for the various parties interested in the Brewer—Luce slander suit, which was up at this term of court in Adrian, a settlement was made and Judge Hart dismissed the cases Saturday morning.

The suits, three in number, were brought by Rev. and Mrs. Chester Brewer of Tipton to recover damages from Mr. and Mrs. Irving Luce because of slanderous remarks uttered by the defendants. Three declarations were filed, one by Carrie Brewer against Nellie Luce, the second by Carrie Brewer against Irving Luce and the third by Chester Brewer against Irving Luce. Two thousand dollars damages were asked in each of the three cases.

The cases have attracted a good deal of attention, especially in Franklin because of the prominence of the parties involved. Judge Hart complimented the attorneys and commended their efforts in bringing these cases to a successful settlement out of court thus saving the county a good deal of expense.

AL. H. WILSON MAKES BIG HIT

"The Irish 15th" An Original War Play with a Sprig of Shamrock

The attraction at the Court yesterday afternoon and last night was the popular and well known singing comedian, Al H. Wilson, who brought his newest play, "The Irish 15th", to Wheeling so early in the season that his many friends here might pass judgment on the new vehicle before he begins his season in the nearby cities. Mr. Wilson has a clever company of actors and his new play is by long odds the best that he has ever appeared in.

The piece is well written, is full of originality and gives excellent satisfaction to his auditors. The plot is laid in Ireland and France and deals with the life and adventures of a patriotic fun loving Irishman named Dick Dale. Fate has dealt with him harshly at times—yet by his resourcefulness and Irish wit he manages to so shape his career that he enjoys the reward of success. The main incidents reveal his connection with an Irish Regiment fighting for the Allies—his voluntary disgrace to save the honor of his beloved niece and the serious consequences arising from his bold act. His efforts to redeem himself, which he finally accomplishes, after many adventures and thrilling situations and triumphs over all difficulties, thus earning the love and trust of his noble wife, brings discomfort to his enemies.

The piece is replete with amusing lines and laughable situations, and Mr. Wilson is seen at his best in the title role of this splendid play. Of course his songs come in for the lion's share of applause and he rendered very sweetly all his new song hits which included, "I Want You Then Machree," "Ireland is Your Home Sweet Home," "My Mother's Wedding Ring," "A Lily from Heaven" and "The Irish Will be There." The supporting company is capable in every way and the production is given on a magnificent scale of granduer Big houses applauded the efforts of the star and company at both performances, fully demonstrating that Wilson is becoming more popular with each visit to this city.—Wheeling, W. Va., Register.

Its the same report from every section of the country' where Mr. Wilson has presented his new play. "The Irish 15th" packed houses and big houses applauded. Tecumseh should be no exception. Who enjoys anything better than a good clean Irish play and when presented with a singing comedian like Wilson, whose wonderful voice and songs one will remember long after they have forgotten the play, who would ask for anything better.

The years have touched Mr. Wilson lightly and his glorious voice knows no decay and his debonair manners still have the boyish touch that marks the real comedian. His philosophy may be summed up in a verse of his new song, "A Lily from Heaven."

" 'Tis a lily from heaven, I'm certain,
Tho dropped by a passer by,
If we could but peep through the curtain
That blindly we call the sky,
For the angels are nearer I fancy
Than folks ever dreamed on this star,
Sure, 'tis only a step in the dark to find out,
That Heaven is where you are."

Mr. Wilson and his excellent company come to the Bradley Opera House next Tuesday evening, March 26th. It really is the only big star attraction of this class that will be seen at the Bradley this year and lovers of the best entertainment should take advantage of this fact and secure their seats early. The seat sale opens at Hay's ('phone 99) Monday morning but reservations may be made now.

DAYLIGHT MEASURE

Daylight saving now waits on the President's approval. The House amendment to the bill requiring that all timepieces be advanced one hour, beginning the last Sunday in March, was accepted by the Senate and awaits the President's approval.

This change will remain in effect until the last Sunday in October when clocks will be turned back again.

It is claimed that $40,000,000 will be saved to the nation's lighting bill if this bill goes into effect. This is considered one of the most important conservation measures ever enacted by Congress.

THE STRATFORD OPERATIC CO.

Gave Pleasing Concert at Presbyterian Church Saturday Evening

The Stratford Operatic Company, one of the numbers of the Presbyterian Entertainment Course, gave a very pleasing concert Saturday evening at the church. The church was well filled.

Before the company was introduced to the audience, Mr. Henry Stevens made the announcement that owing to war conditions some of the numbers which were to appear on the course have had to be cancelled. All were provided for except one and the Men's Class had expressed a wish that Rev. W. A. Rex fill this number with a lecture, but the class did not want to take definite action until the people who were supporting the course had acted upon the matter.

A vote was called for and the result was practically unanimous for Rev. Rex.

Rev. Rex then stated that the class had had their troubles with the course this winter but they announce that the full numbers would be given and that everybody would get their moneys worth. The dates for the following numbers could not be given out at this time but would be given later.

There are three more numbers on the course, Rev. W. A. Rex' time to be announced. The Winters Company who will be here some time in May and Dr. Pitzer who is now with Billy Sunday in Chicago and who will comeas soon as the Chicago campaign is over.

The Stratford Company was composed of five people. A chorus of four voices Lulu Hatfield Solomon, soprano, Miss States, contralto, Mr. Welton tenor, and Mr. Lombard, basso. Mr. Buzza was the accompanist of the company and also appeared on the program as a reader.

The first part of the program was devoted to quartet and solo work and the second to a two-act sketch in costume, taken from the opera, "The Mikado."

The company were well balanced and proved themselves to be musicians of exceptional ability. They wert advertsed "To come with a smile and go with a smile" and they made good their reputation.

TWO OF TECUMSEH'S HARDWARE MEN IN BUSINESS 45 YEARS THIS MONTH

Two of our local hardware men have passed the 45th anniversary of their entrance into business this month. Forty-five years ago, March 4th, D. L. Whitenack entered the employ of Whitenack & Erskine and has been continuously associated with the firm since that time. In 1876 Erskine retired from the business and until the time of his death in 1890 the business was carried on by John Whitenack Later the firm was organized under the present name of Whitenack & Co.

Newton Satterthwaite of the firm of Satterthwaite Bros., entered the employ of Sutton & Swan 45 years ago March 17th and has also been continuously connected with this firm and its successors. Newbold Satterthwaite entered the business two years later, in 1875. The business was conducted by the firm until April 11, 1883, when it was changed to Swan & Satterthwaite and Jan. 26, 1885, was reorganized under the name of Satterthwate & Boyd. Continuing under that name until Jan. 28, 1891, the name was changed to its present caption, Satterthwaite Bros.

It is remarkable that competitors in the same business have been connected with these stores continuously for so many years and more so because they started in business the same month 45 years ago.

The dinner was daintily served by Mrs. J. F. Rector, the table gay with shamrock and pipes of green. "The girls" found on their place cards the names of their youth by which they were best known to each other.

Their combined ages are 574, the oldest being 78 and the youngest 62. The day was spent in renewing their girlhood pranks with their "Don't yon remembers", and the hours passed all too swiftly.

U. S. SHIP SINKS DIVER

An Atlantic Port, March 18.—At the end of an hour's battle between a German submarine and an American tank steamship, the Paulsboro of the Vacuum Oil company, which arrived here, the U-boat apparently was sunk, according to officers of the American vessel.

One of the crew on the tanker was wounded by a shell fired by the submarine. Two other shots struck the American ship, which was not seriously damaged.

The fight took place in the Bristol channel on February 24. The American vessel was about twenty-four hours out from a British port when the U-boat was sighted. The tanker tried to escape and was pursued. After the American vessel had been within torpedo range for some time without any attempt being made to sink her in this way, the U-boat began shelling her.

The tanker halted and gave battle. The officers said the shrapnel shells fired by the American gun crew either fell short or passed over the U-boat for a time, but finally one struck the submarine fairly in the center and she disappeared immediately.

The American vessel is of about 4,000 tons gross.

The charges against him are assault and making threats to do bodily harm. He was freed on $500 bonds. The arrest took place at 8:45, after seven shots had been fired from the interior of the church while Frank A. McCarthy, an attorney and chairman of the board of trustees for the church, and several deputy sheriffs, constables and policemen were forcing their way into the church with crowbars. Father McCann and his brother, George McCann, were the only persons found in the church when entrance was finally effected.

The incident was the climax to efforts that have been made for several weeks to remove Father McCann from the pulpit.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thro the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.

SOME OF THE REASONS:

Why have we taken the agency for the Overland?

Because we are convinced that the people want them.

Because Overland means to you the greatest value for your investment.

Because each model offers important advantages in APPEARANCE, PERFORMANCE, COMFORT, SERVICE AND PRICE that assure continuous motor car satisfaction.

Because only through the economies made possible by enormous capacity and one factory management can such efficient cars be produced and sold at the Willys-Overland prices.

Many other reasons will convince you that the Overland is the car you want this season. Let us talk it over with you.

Our new Studebaker models will soon be here and together with the Overland models will be on display at the "Big Chief" Garage.

UNIVERSITY STUDENTS NEARLY DROWNED

Two Canoeists Have Narrow Escapes Sunday on Huron River

Two university students, Corwin Smith of Hamilton, O., and George Williamson of Toledo, O., narrowly escaped death Sunday in the first canoeing accident of the season, when their frail craft capsized on the Huron near Ann Arbor, throwing both men out in to the icy water. Smith was in the river 40 minutes before being rescued.

They were paddling down stream when they were struck by a whirlpool which sucked the canoe into its eddies, and the stern paddle broke. The canoe was pitched about by the current and capsized broadside.

Williamson immediately put out for shore and reached it, despite the icy water. Smith, a good swimmer, was taken with cramps and did not dare put out for shore. He clung to the canoe and floated with it for [illegible] minutes down stream before being rescued by a row boat—Exchange.

Young Williamson is a nephew of C. E. Williamson and of Mrs. F. D Avery and has visited Tecumseh many times.

Miss Hope Halladay was down from Clinton Wednesday at the home of her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Daniels, returning home Thursday.

SOCIAL VISIT

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thro the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.

American Flyers Drop Bombs Near Huns' Great Fortress.

Germans Seen Stengthening Second Line—Pershing Gunners Wipe Out Enemy Trenches.

With the American Army in France, March 20.—Last night airplanes from the rear of the American lines crossed over to the German zone. Soon after many, explosions and flashes were heard and seen in the direction of Metz.

American planes discovered during the night that the Germans are strengthening their second line. It is known that the first line in many places virtually has been abandoned. It is believed that the accurate American artillery fire has had something to do with this.

American artillery on the Toul front bombarded towns within the enemy lines. On several occasions a considerable number of gas shells were used. The gunners also dropped projectiles on German trenches. Some shells hit the town of Essey and others in Montsec.

An American patrol between Renieres wood and Jury wood (between Seicheprey and Flirey) encountered an enemy patrol early in the morning. For an hour and a half the American patrol tried to make some of the enemy prisoner, but without result, although a number of fights with pistols and rifles occurred as the Germans retired, jumping from tree to tree, American snipers made a number of lucky shots and Germans were seen to fall.

The American telephone wires within the American lines were tapped again during the night, not far from where the patrol encounter occurred. The enemy artillery fired a number of gas shells at our lines.

The weather is well suited for aerial work, and much was accomplished. American antiaircraft guns drove off at least six enemy airplanes, while others crossed the lines at such a height that they were out of range.

GERMANS SEIZE DUTCH "SUB"

Interned Men Seize Guard at Batavia and Put to Sea in Craft, Says Traveler.

San Francisco, March 20.—A submarine belonging to the Dutch navy was captured at Batavia by sailors from the interned German steamer Graf von Luttwitz, who succeeded in evading the marine patrol and putting to sea with their prize last January, according to Fritz von Ebelshon, an employee of the Dutch East Indian government in Sumatra, who is in San Francisco on his way to Holland.

FRENCH PENETRATE HUN LINE

U. S. Allies Make Gain of Half Mile in the Reims Sector.

Paris, March 20.—In the Reims sector of the Champagne front the German lines were penetrated to a depth of more than half a mile by French troops during the night, the war office stated. A number of fortified shelters were blown up and some prisoners were captured. The Germans attacked in the sector of Sillery, but were thrown back.

Sault Ste. Marie.—Mrs. Fred Smith, 16-year-old bride, declared she had made Smith believe she was 18. Smith is held for perjury in connection with securing his marriage license. The girl's parents wish to have the marriage annulled.

Hastings.—Vol. Carey, a colored farmer, residing in the southern part of Johnstown township, has paid a fine and costs totalling $106.10 for cruelty to animals and for neglecting to bury the animals which died because he did not furnish them with food.

Port Huron.—When John May, farmer, completes serving a 20-day sentence he may be interned for the duration of the war. May was lately arraigned and three witnesses testified that he had said, "Wilson and the American people will be kissing the kaiser's foot before the year is over."

Traverse City.—Judge Frederick W. Mayne has placed 300 petty criminals on probation and 275 have made good, six joining the colors. Judge Mayne is opposed to filling up the jails and prisons when the nation needs laboring men. A fund has been created to give men on probation help until they find work.

Detroit.—Upwards of 1,500 registrants of local division No. 6, Fifth ward, the largest division in the United States, have failed to comply with government regulations by returning their questionnaires. Of this number something like 800 questionnaires have been returned to draft board officials marked "unclaimed."

East Lansing—A campaign against the high bush barberry, one of Michigan's common garden shrubs, has been launched by the department of plant pathology of the Michigan Agricultural college. The barberry plant, Dr. G. H. Coons, of the department charges, harbors the shores which cause stem rust of wheat. This rust is a disease that annually causes much damage to the Michigan crop.

Lansing.—The federal fuel administrator has suggested to the state administration that Michigan cities be aided in providing storage for their entire normal winter coal supply. This proposal applies to homes as well as industries. If a man burns 30 tons of coal a year it is said he usually has to have his bin filled four or five times. It is now suggested that he be allowed to buy but once and that outside bins be constructed if necessary.

Lansing—George A. Prescott, state food administrator, has announced that restaurants, hotels or places where meals are served will be closed if one complaint is received and found to be true that meatless and wheatless days are not observed. This does not mean that the proprietor will be brought in and given a lecture, but that his place of business will be closed if he he does not follow the law. Mondays and Wednesdays are wheatless days. Tuesdays are meatless days, except that mutton and lamb can be served.

RAIDERS CAUSE PANIC

Fifty Persons Killed at Koblenz by Allied Airmen.

Foe Thought Flyers Were Americans and Dashed for Cover, Says Traveler.

London, March 20.—Fifty persons were killed and great material damage was done by bombs dropped by allies airmen when they raided Koblenz, Germany, March 12, according to a neutral traveler, who arrived at The Hague, the Times says.

"The people believed the raiders were Americans," the traveler said. "I was in the neighborhood of a big munition works at Mulheim (north of Koblenz and also on the Rhine) at ten minutes past noon, when suddenly all the factory whistles started blowing and the sirens were sounded.

"Many women rushed from the works for the bombproof shelters, while passing street cars were stopped as the crews bolted into houses. Four or five airplanes were visible in the clear sky.

"Presently someone exclaimed: 'They are Americans!' Another person screamed aloud: 'The Americans are coming!' A Dutchman I knew rushed up to me and said: 'Didn't I tell you the Americans would come sooner or later?'

"I cannot say whether the machines actually were American, but the striking thing was the evidence that there has been general skepticism whether American airplanes ever would come and equal fear of them when they do."

The traveler added that, although the machines merely passed over Mulheim at 12:10 on their way to Koblenz, it was not until four o'clock that the "all clear" signal was sounded.

DRY PETITION RULED OUT

Only 98,912 Names Stand After Final Test—106,427 Are Necessary.

Chicago, March 20.—The dry petition was officially declared invalid by the election commission because of a shortage of 7,515 names. There are 98,912 valid names on the petition, the election commission ruled, and the law requires 106,427. The wets' original claim was that there were 10,821 invalid names on the petition.

The contest is in the courts. The drys kept secret up to the moment of the meeting of the commission to give its formal ruling what their plan of attack was. But from an authoritative "dry" source it was learned that the plan of their legal battery was to go before a circuit or superior court judge and obtain a writ of mandamus against the election commission, forcing the wet and dry question upon the ballots.

U. S. HEART IS IN FRANCE

Secretary of War Baker Addresses American Soldiers' Staff School Near the Front.

On Board Secretary Baker's Special Train in France, March 20.—"While we are busy at home," said Newton D. Baker, the American secretary of war, in a talk to officers at the American staff school, "with our industrial preparations and training of troops, our hearts are transplanted to France. My visit has brought me a great uplift in spirit. As a boy takes apart a watch to see how it is made in order to understand the functions of its parts, I have been taking this army apart."

Washington, March 20.—President Wilson signed the daylight saving bill, passed by both houses of congress, which sets clocks forward one hour on the last Sunday in March.

Ypsilanti.—Plans are being formulated for a big drive in this city for the sale of war savings stamps. On the evening of March 27 every house in the city will be visited and the residents asked to buy war savings stamps.

Sault Ste. Marie.—Superior township, the largest township in Chippewa county, was split in two by the board of supervisors here. The east part is to retain the name "Superior" and the new township will be called Chippewa.

Greenville.—Fred Ennes, grief-stricken father of the three girls burned to death when a stove exploded and set the house on fire, went insane soon after the triple funeral services, and has been taken to Traverse City hospital.

ALLIES CONDEMN GERMAN CRIMES AGAINST RUSS

Premiers of Entente Declare Justice Must Be Established by Armies.

KAISER'S ACTION DENOUNCED

Statement by Foreign Office at London Says Peace Treaty Cannot Stand—Country Being Plundered.

London, March 20.—The foreign office issued a statement embodying a protest of the entente premiers and foreign ministers assembled in London against Germany's action, in the name of German peace, toward the Russian people.

The protest concludes:

"Peace is loudly advertised, but under the disguise of verbal profession lurk the brutal realities of war and the untempered rule of a lawless force.

Do Not Recognize Treaty.

"Peace treaties such as these we do not and cannot acknowledge. Our own ends are very different. We are fighting, and mean to continue fighting, in order to finish once for all with this policy of plunder and to establish in its place the peaceful reign of organized justice.

"As incidents of this long war unroll themselves before our eyes, more and more clearly do we perceive that the battles for freedom are everywhere interdependent; that no separate enumeration of them is needed, and that in every case the single, but all-sufficient, appeal is to justice and right.

Put Trust in Armies.

"Are justice and right going to win?

"Insofar as the issue depends on battles yet to come, the nations whose fate is in the balance may surely put their trust in the armies which, even under conditions more difficult than the present, have shown themselves more than equal to the great cause intrusted to their valor."

War Council Joins.

The supreme war council of the allies also issued a statement condemning German political crimes against the Russian and the Roumanian peoples, and refusing to acknowledge Germany's peace treaties with them, and repeating the declaration:

"We are fighting and mean to continue fighting, in order to finish once for all with this policy of plunder and establish in its place the peaceful reign of organized justice."

Council's Statement.

The council's statement, which was issued through the foreign office, says:

"The prime ministers and foreign ministers of the entente assembled in London feel it to be their bounden duty to take note of the political crimes, which, under the name of a German peace, have been committed against the Russian people.

Russia Trusted Hun.

"Russia was unarmed. Forgetting that for four years Germany had been fighting against the independence of nations and the rights of mankind, the Russian government, in a mood of singular credulity, expected to obtain by persuasion that 'democratic peace' which it had failed to obtain by war.

"The results were that the intermediate armistice had not expired before the German command, though pledged not to alter the disposition of its troops, transferred them en masse to the western front, and so weak did Russia find herself that she dared to raise no protest against this flagrant violation of Germany's plighted word.

Action Is Annexation.

"What followed was of like character, when 'the German peace' was translated into action. It was found to involve the invasion of Russian territory, the destruction or capture of all Russia's means of defense and the organization of Russian lands for Germany's profit, a proceding which did not differ from 'annexation' because the word itself was carefully avoided."

WILSON FAVORS PRICE BOARD

Indorsement of Fixing of Cost of All Basic Materials Announced—Committee Is Named.

Washington, March 20.—Creation of a price-fixing committee under the war industries board, which will pass upon prices for all basic raw materials purchased by the government and establish a price-fixing policy from time to time to be approved by the president, was announced by the council of national defense. The committee is composed of the following:

Robert S. Brookings of the war industries board, chairman; Brig. Gen. Palmer E. Pierce, surveyor general of supplies for the war department; Paymaster John Hancock of the bureau of supplies and accounts of the navy; Fuel Administrator Garfield; F. W. Taussig, chairman of the tariff commission; W. J. Harris, chairman of the federal trade commission; Hugh Frayne of the war industries board; Bernard M. Baruch, chairman of the war industries board; and another civilian member to be appointed later.

Lansing.—William Bowman, of Gould City, Mackinaw county, who shot a robin last month to convince his neighbors that he had seen one, was arrested on a charge of killing a song bird protected by law and the village justice taxed him $17.50.

Calumet.—John Lintz, 53 years old, of Plato, Ontonagon county, killed his horse and then himself, declaring he could not bear being called a pro-German by his neighbors. Lintz said he was loyal to America, but could not stand the insults of his neighbors.

Bay City—Henry Mulders, employed with the Industrial works, started an elevator and then attempted to jump aboard. He was caught between the elevator platform and the shaft, crushing his skull and killing him instantly. He was 33 years old and leaves a widow and five children.

U. S. AGENTS TAKE 4 ALLEGED SPIES

Two Women and Two Men Arrested at Prominent New York Hotels.

ALL MAY BE SENT TO FRANCE

Authorities Say Prisoners Have Been Intimately Connected With German Espionage Activities Here.

New York, March 20.—Presidential warrants for the deportation of the Baron and Baroness de Beville, Count Robert de Clairmont and Mme. Elizabeth Charlotte Dix, the four so-called "master spies" arrested here, were received from Washington. Charles F. DeWoody, head of the local bureau of the department of justice, at once began arrangements to put the quartette aboard the first European-bound liner.

New York, March 20.—Four persons, two men and two women, claiming French citizenship, but who both American and French authorities say have been intimately connected with German espionage activities in the United States, were arrested in their handsomely appointed suites in prominent New York hotels by agents of the department of justice.

They will be turned over to immigration authorities for deportation to France.

In making known the arrest of the quartette, Charles F. DeWoody, division superintendent of the department of justice, intimated their deportation was desired in order to place them under the jurisdiction of French authorities, who may further their prosecution.

Watched Several Weeks.

The four spy suspects have been under surveillance for several weeks, but not until two of them, a woman styling herself Mme. Despino Davidovitch Storch, and an associate, designated as Baron Henri de Beville, departed for Cuba a week ago after a mysterious two-day junket to Washington, did the authorities consider their apprehension advisable.

The other two suspects are known as Mme. Elizabeth Charlotte Nix and Count Robert de Clairmont.

When Mme. Storch and Baron de Beville were taken into custody at Key West, while en route to Cuba, a half bushel basket of papers was seized from a safe deposit box in this city which one of them had rented. A number of cable messages in code were among these papers.

Received Money From Bernstorff.

Although each stopped at a different hotel or apartment, they were said to have been associated in activities objectionable to the government. Mrs. Nix is said to have admitted receiving $3,000 from Count von Bernstorff, although she claims it was a loan.

Mme. Storch, or Nezie, and Baron de Beville were together in Madrid in 1915, where they were known as the Baron and Baroness de Deville, federal officials said, and were arrested there accused of being spies for the German government. Later they were released.

COAT OF TAR FOR I. W. W.

Local Secretary at Yakima, Wash., Roughly Handled by Loyal Citizens—Promises to Be Good.

Yakima, Wash., March 20.—H. B. Myers, secretary of the Yakima local of the I. W. W., was taken a mile out of the city at midnight and given a coat of tar and feathers, and told to leave town. Myers was told to warn his I. W. W. associates that any other secretary who came to Yakima to work would receive the treatment accorded "Little in Montana." Myers believing he was to be hanged, begged hard for his life, told his history, declared he had been forced into the order by threats of death. He said that Spokane and Seattle money was supporting the Yakima I. W. W. activities. He promised he would be a good citizen.

FIGHT FOR SIBERIAN ROAD

Antibolsheviki Forces Outnumbered by Nearly 150,000 German and Austro-Hungarian Prisoners.

Copenhagen, March 20.—Fighting for the control of the Trans-Siberian railway at the point where it skirts the southern shores of Lake Baikal, in mid-Siberia, is in progress, according to information received here. The antibolsheviki forces are outnumbered and it is estimated that there are nearly 150,000 German and Austro-Hungarian prisoners to the east and west of the lake. The prisoners east of the lake (between the Baikal region and Vladivostok) are attempting to get arms, and officers are starting to organize them into an effective military force.

HOT CROSS BUNS "ICELESS"

Hoover Regulation Prohibits Good Friday Bread With Sugar Coat—Rule No. 1 Cited.

Washington, March 20.—Hot cross buns, which are sold and eaten on Good Friday, will not be coated with icing this year, the food administration announced. Rule No. 1 of the baking regulations forbids the use of icing and limits the amount of other ingredients in bread and rolls. The use of currants, raisins and spices is permitted.

Lansing—As the result of the canceling of all calls for men to be specially inducted into the army, no select may now voluntarily enlist in the service according to Col. John S. Bersey, adjutant-general.

St. Ignace—Party leaders in St. Ignace recently agreed that that city might well be saved the cost of a city election this spring. There being no opposition the present officers will hold over until another election.

Lansing—Livingston county is still the banner county of the state on tax returns. The county treasurer of Livingston county turned in his complete return for the 1917 taxes, showing the receipts and the delinquencies with the description of the delinquent properties. This is the first county to furnish a complete return.

Standish.—C. H. Friedenburg, Michigan Central operator at Roscommon, north of here, was almost instantly killed while hunting. Friedenburg had asked a companion for a match. As he lowered his gun from his shoulder to take the match the stock struck the trigger of his friend's gun, the load passing through his left breast.

Traverse City—Installation of four potato dehydration plants in Michigan is being considered by the federal government. Whether they are built will depend upon the success of an experiment now being made by a similar plant at Elba, N. Y., with Michigan potatoes, preparing them for canning and for the manufacture of potato flour.

Sault Ste. Marie—Racing with his little sister to the grocery, 12-year-old Henry Riley slipped on the ice at the edge of a cister at the home of his father, Jacob Riley of Sugar Island, and was drowned. The girl peered over the edge and saw Henry struggling in the water. She threw him a rope which was attached to the bucket and he attempted to climb out, but fell back exhausted.

Lansing.—Michigan farmers may exchange wheat for enough flour to last them until the next harvest without taking substitutes, as a result of a new ruling received by the state food administrator. The farmer must make a statement that he has enough substitutes at home to cover the amount of flour received in exchange for his wheat. This ruling was made to get wheat still held by farmers into the market.

Legal Witticisms.

Stories from the law courts are apt to be good, legal wit being noted for its dryness. But this story claims no particular merit, except as showing the usefulness of a ready wit, observes the Christian Science Monitor. The counsel for the plaintiff was delivering an impassioned address. He was somewhat weighty in person, and happened to be leaning on a very old chair. In the middle of the torrent of eloquence, the chair gave way and the barrister lay on the floor in the midst of the wreckage. He got up and, unperturbed, pointing to the broken chair, said: "That proves the strength of my argument." The court smiled broadly, but laughed outright when the opposing counsel promptly replied: "The learned counsel's argument may be all that he claims for it, but it fell to the ground."

Pitying Ourselves.

Have you heard of the man carrying a load of sticks, who, when he became tired threw his sticks down on the bank of a river, and seating himself by them, said: "I am sick and tired of this. I wish death would come to relieve me?" Instantly Death slipped up and said, "Here I am, what do you want of me?" "I want you to help me put this bundle of sticks on my back again," said the surprised man. Pitying ourselves is cheating ourselves. Then flee from discontent and discouragement, for they are the hotbeds of deceit. Near them we think that which is not true, and say that which we do not mean.—Exchange.

Smallest Farms in the World.

On the islands of Re and Oleron, near La Rochelle, France, according to Popular Science Monthly, are found the smallest farms in the world. Some of them are only one or two square yards in area, yet these tiny domains are carefully planted with a variety of crops, even including vineyards. The soil is extremely fertile. The repeated subdivision of estates among heirs and the dense population of the islands explain the existence of these Lilliputian properties.

Food for Thought.

"Am I the first girl you have ever loved?"

He thought awhile and then made reply:

"No, you are the kind of girl a fellow has to be educated up to."

And that seemed to set her to thinking.

Port Huron—The Morton Salt company has adopted a unique plan for swelling the Red Cross fund. Every office employe deposits a cent in a bag every time a cuss word is used.

Lansing—Owing to the fact that the next Liberty bond drive will start April 6, the committee in charge of the registration of women of the state has decided to defer the registration until April 27.

Telephone Number 36

The date for the third Liberty loan drive has been set for April 6th and while the plans for this drive have not all been made it is the intention of the Treasury Department to have it only extend over a few days, but to make those few days fast and furious. The total amount to be called for will be determined by Congress and the rate of interest to be paid on these bonds is reported to be 4½ per cent.

As soon as the national government has announced its program, our Lenawee County organization will get together and plan for action. The work will be carried through by the Patriotic League of Lenawee County which has been organized to put across all patriotic calls of this nature.

If these bonds draw interest at the rate of 4½ per cent. it ought not be very hard work to convince people that they should make liberal subscriptions, for this rate would make the bonds very attractive from the standpoint of an investment.

Remember, your money, which is paid for these bonds, is used by Uncle Sam to make America a fighting power on the fields of France and Italy to help win this war for Democracy. We are not yet asked to give, but to invest. It may come to giving, and giving far heavier than we dream of before the war is over. The conditions in Europe today are not as bright for peace as they were some few months ago. Germany's success in patching up a peace with various factions and districts of Russia has opened up vast territories which will give her added strength and help build up her ebbing resources, supply her people with the needed food stuffs and various other necessities which she has found herself so much in need of.

Nothing but a miracle can bring a speedy peace to this troubled old world. It looks like weary months of fighting before peace will come. We Americans have not yet awakened to the fact we are at war, that we are spending money in amounts that none of us can conceive of, and that we will have to deny ourselves and save, that our boys who are going across by the thousands may have everything needed to enable them to win. For win we must! Remember, we are fighting the most powerful fighting machine that the world has ever known and also the most cruel and terrible one.

It is hard for the people of America to realize that they must deny themselves, to go without the unnecessary things which we have always enjoyed, but if the war continues we will know and then, and then only, will America arise to her full strength and power.

Be ready to buy as many of these bonds as you can. Figure out what you will be able to do and be ready with your subscription when the solicitors call. Better yet, on April 6th step into one of the banks and make your subscription as that will releave these patriotic men of the necessity of calling.

Men and Watches.

Special talent often makes fine spurts ahead and genius sometimes soars grandly, but it is the steady-going sort of worker who gets the most done in the end, and is the most reliable. It is with men as it is with their watches—the most reliable and serviceable are the ones steadily at work, a writer on the Canadian Herald observes. There is a Pennsylvania railroad engineer who has retired on a pension after 48 years of service. "I have carried one watch for more than 26 years," he says, "and it always kept the right time. A good engineer must have a good watch; it does the most important part of his work." It is said of this engineer that he has been an exceptionally sober, orderly, steady-going man, whose health has always been good and his record always clean. But doesn't this go without saying, when we know that his watch always kept the right time?

OLD TOMBS OF PATRIARCHS

Cave of Machpelah, Bought by Abraham for a Burying Place, Has Stood Ravages of Time.

The tombs of the patriarchs in Jerusalem, the cave of Machpelah, which Abraham bought for "a possession of a burying place," is still in existence. For forty centuries it withstood the ravages of time and men, relates a writer.

It is situated in the town of Hebron, 16 miles south-southwest of Jerusalem, and sheltered from profanation by a Mahometan mosque that rises above it. The tomb contains the whole patriarchal family, with the exception of Rachel. The cave is divided into an upper and a lower compartment. Only the upper compartment is accessible to the priest in charge of the mosque, but he only enters it in times of great calamity, and for the sole purpose of praying. As to the lower compartment, where repose the illustrious fathers of the Jewish nation, they remained completely closed until the year 1862, when, for the first time, King Edward VII, then the prince of Wales, together with Doctor Stanley, the dean of Westminster Abbey, and two other friends, were granted admission.

The six tombs are arranged symmetrically in rows of twos; a seventh, in the wall, is believed to belong to Joseph. Abraham's tomb, which has the form of a coffin with a shelving ridge, is about eight feet high, and is set in the cemented stone and marble. It is covered with three gold embroidered green carpets, which are the gifts of the emperor of Constantinople, Mahomet II, the conqueror of Egypt, Selim II, and the Sultan Abdul Medjid.

CHEESE DIET IS WHOLESOME

One Pound of the Food Supplies More Than Twice as Much Energy as Same Amount of Steak.

Too many people use cheese merely as an appetizer, says the Scientific American in commenting on a recent bulletin of the United States department of agriculture. According to this bulletin and to the universal practice in the great cheese-producing countries of Europe, cheese is one of the most valuable of foods and a most satisfactory substitute for meat.

A pound of cheese supplies more than twice as much energy as a pound of fowl or round steak and almost twice as much protein as the same amount of fowl or ham.

Contrary to the opinion of many, cheddar or "store" cheese is not usually indigestible and constipating. Extensive digestion experiments conducted by the department have demonstrated that more than 95 per cent of the protein in cheese is digested and that 90 per cent of its energy is available. Even when eaten in large quantities and for long periods, no case of indigestion, constipation or other disturbance was observed in those who ate it. One person who ate cheese as the chief source of protein and energy, eating an average of 9.27 ounces daily for more than two years, did a fair amount of muscular work and kept in good health.

Dust in the Sweeper.

"Only last week I found Mary's earring here," said the experienced housewife to a younger woman as yet quite inexperienced in housekeeping ways who had wondered why the speaker should look over the accumulated dust that she had just shaken out of a carpet sweeper; the Mary referred to being the maid employed in this home. "Mary came to me," the speaker continued, "and said she had lost one of her earrings and she had looked everywhere for it, but just simply couldn't find it; but I knew the likeliest place to look for it, and there I did find it, in the dust of the carpet sweeper, where many a jewel has been found before this, and where, no doubt, many a jewel has been lost. I always look over the dust out of a carpet sweeper before throwing it away." Upon hearing which the inexperienced young woman registered a mental resolve that when she went to housekeeping she would do the same.

Courtesy Was Wasted.

There is such a thing as wasted courtesy and one encounters it almost every day in the crowded subway or elevated trains, observes a New York correspondent. Recently a man was riding in a jammed train and when it stopped at the Forty-second street station there was an inrush of passengers. Among them was a richly dressed woman, who led a boy of about ten by the hand. She stood before a chivalrous-looking man who occupied a seat. With a touch of his hat he arose to give the woman his seat, when the boy broke loose from her and jumped into the vacant seat. The woman made no attempt to take the seat for herself and remained standing. What was worse, she made not the slightest acknowledgment of the man's courtesy.

ACCOUNTS FOR GHOST COLORS

Eye Is Especially Sensitive to Two Kinds of Perceptions, Light and Color Predominating.

In reply to an inquiry why are ghosts always seen clothed in white, a scientist states:

This is easily accounted for. As there have been no ghosts during historical times, we must assume that in all cases where ghosts have been actually seen we have to do with mere hallucinations caused by fever or some other disorders of the observer, where, therefore, the organ of sense, and particularly the eyes, registered impressions of objects that had no corresponding external existence. According to the minute descriptions of such apparitions given by patients to their physicians, the ghosts, with rare exceptions, were "clad in white." Now, our eye is sensitive to two kinds of perceptions, viz., light and color. In this case, where no definite color was perceived, the hallucination, in which only the organs of the eye sensitive to light are affected, is declared to be white.

Still, there are also colored apparitions of ghosts; nay, we can introduce into the body substances calculated to impair our sense of color. Thus, the immoderate use of hashish produces violent visions; of alcohol, blue ones; of atropin and skopolamin, red ones. Quinine and too much tobacco likewise produce red visions, while salicylic acid, digitalin and phenacetin cause light yellow sensations. The inhalation of carbonic oxide, and snake bite, too, are said to be followed by light yellow sensations of sight.

REMEMBER!

Say, all you good Rebekahs and Odd Fellows, don't forget the party at the hall tonight. Many of your friends will be there so show them a good time. The "white elephant" sale will be great fun and like as not you will have a chance to dance.

VISITING DAY IN THE W. F. M. S. OF THE M. E. CHURCH

Tuesday, March 26th, the W. F. M. S. of the Methodist church are to make a canvass for new members and every woman in the church will be invited to become a member of this society.

This is a national movement and is being introduced at this time to celebrate the 50th anniversary of this society which occurs next year. The local society is headed by two captains, Mrs. John McIntyre and Mrs. M. Smeltzer.

SENIOR PARTY

The Senior of Tecumseh High school were entertained at the home of Mr and Mrs A. S. VanWinkle, Thursday evening.

A cordial greeting was given the young ladies and gentlemen who represented this class. As one of them remarked "We met together and we talked and played games, then we had refreshments and had more games and talked, when a motion was made to adjourn. Good-nights were said, and it was midnight when we reached home."

Judging by the way this was told the reporter, it left no doubts but what the evening was all that could be desired.

DEDICATED TO THE SERVICE FLAG

At the patriotic party given in the Methodist church last week the following patriotic lines composed by Mr. F. J. Temple were used by "The Goddess of Liberty" in presentation of the service flag to the church. They are here printed at the special request of many who were privileged to hear them and have desired to preserve a copy:

This service flag you now behold—
It represents the purest gold,
The boys who, in the first advance
Are fighting 'neath the stars in France.
They represent a people free
And fight our battles o'er the sea
For right and truth and liberty.
Not all of us may score a hit,
Yet each can do, at least, his bit,
Though all can't go across the sea,
We all may fight for liberty.
We here at home should do our best
While being subject to the test—
In right and truth let all abound,
Don't let "Old Glory" touch the ground.

ON A SUBMARINE CHASER

About 18 years ago Mr and Mrs. Harry Kingsley were residents of Tecumseh; Mr Kingsley running the lumber yard where Brown & Co. are now located.

Powell, the subject of this sketch, was then a babe of two years. After the death of the mother, Mr. and Mrs. Orley Wood cared for him and a baby sister in Tecumseh.

Powell enlisted in the navy April 6th, leaving for Norfolk, Va., the 16th. He was appointed junior instructor in July. His work was mostly drilling recruits. In September or October he was one of four appointed battalion adjutant commanders, each having four companies of about 500 men to look after.

At an officers' ball in Norfolk he with eight other seamen was selected to drill at the ball. They were introduced to the commander of Submarine Chaser No. 281 and he got the whole nine to apply for transfer to his boat which was to leave for active service on the other side February 5th. They all passed the examination as first class seamen and were transferred.

In view of the fact that every garage in town opens right on the sidewalk, we would suggest that each auto be required to give a warning note as they start out. It might save a life some time.

HOW ONE SHOULD USE MONEY

Worth of Pennies, Nickels and Dimes First Value a Wise Man Can Place on Wealth.

"Any man, in order to achieve real success, must have the right ideas about money. If he hasn't the right ideas about money, he is not solid in character, observes a writer in the American Magazine. A man may easily be happy, successful and highly regarded on $1,800 dollars or less a year; but, if he is, it is because he knows how to handle those $1,800, and realizes the power that is in each of those $1,800, and keeps in sight the fact that it takes 100 cents or 20 nickels, or 10 dimes, to make each one of those $1,800.

"On the other hand, a man may have an annual income of $50,000 and be neither successful nor happy nor highly regarded. If this is true of him, it is because he has not the right ideas about money.

"Here is the thing that applies to my experience and to every man's: Money is the symbol of worth and power, if your money is handled correctly. If you regard money as a constructive thing, something to be used beneficially for yourself, your family and your community, something with which to build up and produce improvements, you are on solid ground; nothing can shake you, nothing, outside of earthquakes and fires, can ruin you financially. Let me put it this way: The use a man makes of his money after he has got his hands on it is the measure of his worth."

Strategic Economy.

"So you are tending your own furnace?"

"Yes," replied Mr. Meekton. "And I rather like it. When Henrietta starts an argument it is something of a convenience to go down cellar and rattle things around a bit."

BARN DESTROYED BY FIRE

Property Owned by Allen Montgomery, Horses and Rolling Stock Saved.

Wednesday about 1 o'clock the fire alarm was sounded, the call coming from Allen Montgomery's whose barn was in flames. The department made a quick run and were soon working to get the fire under control, but the fire which was burning in the hay and straw proved stubborn to fight and little of the building was saved. It is thought that sparks from a passing train caused the fire.

Mr. Montgomery discovered smoke coming from the barn and rushed out to find out the cause of it. He soon noticed flames and tried at first to put it out with pails of water. Finding this a hopeless task, he rushed to the house and had Mrs. Montgomery turn in the alarm.

By the time the department arrived the whole south end of the barn was in flames. A gang of men were working near the depot putting in a sewer and with the aid of these men and neighbors he was able to save his two horses, automobile, auto truck, drays, harnesses and supplies. Had there been wind such as we have been having of late other buildings standing near would have been distroyed.

Mr. Montgomery lost about a ton of hay besides straw and grain which were stored in the barn. He carried $600.00 insurance.

SCHOOL OF INSTRUCTION REGISTRATION OF WOMEN

At 2.30 p. m. Saturday an important meeting of the local unit of the Women's committee, Council of National Defense, will be held in he Methodist church. All those who volunteered to assist the registrar Mrs. J. D. Shull are urged to be present provided with pencil and paper. Any other patriotic women who can spare a little time for the good work are earnestly requested to attend, also a preliminary survey of the town will be made and callers assigned for the campaign of instruction which is to precede the registration. It is most important that the preliminary explanation be very thorough for this registration is a new idea and some are a little slow to accept ideas.

A large class will be needed for this work so a good attendance is urged.

HEARTS FOR ALL SATURDAY

A sale of Hearts by school children is sanctioned by Mayor Waldron and Supt. of Schools Reed for the benefit of the Michigan Hospital school. This organization is a consolidation of the Michigan Child Welfare League and the VanLenven Browne hospital school. A medical staff surpassed by none in the state gives its services gratis. Children of the poor throughout Michigan are given the same care as would be the case were their parens wealthy. Children who will be permanently disabled are given a tender training thus enabling them to become self sustaining citizens instead of dependants or beggars.

The properties of the old societies have been sold and a new home erected on a 33 acre plot on Grand River Ave., 17 miles, N. W. of Detroit, where every condition is ideal for the convalescence of the children.

All cases should be reported to school headquarters, 401 Congress Bldg, Detroit. The sale Saturday will be conducted by Miss Bertha LaPointe with headquarters in C. A. Wrght and Sons drug store and H. S. Temple of the Lilley State bank is to have charge of the funds. This work is supported by voluntary subscriptions and on a Tag day everyone has an opportunity to help by giving a dime, quarter or more for a heart.

So "Have a Heart" adn buy a heart next Saturday.

SEAT SALE FOR AL. H. WILSON

The seat sale for Al H. Wilson's engagement in "The Irish 15th" which will be the attraction at the Bradley next Tuesday, March 26th, opens at Hay's Monday morning. From the inquiries and reservations already made the advance sale promises to be one of the largest in some time, it is advisable to make your reservations as early as possible. Reservations made now will be filled in the order taken.

It is very seldom that a city the size of Tecumseh gets an attraction like "The Irish 15th" and a star like Mr. Wilson. It is claimed by press and public everywhere that "The Irish 15th" is the best play and production ever presented by Mr. Wilson, which is saying a great deal. Capacity houses have been greeting him everywhere.

Wartime conditionshave been taken into consideration and the prices arranged for are within the reach of everyone—best seats only $1.00, other good ones at 75 and 50 cents war tax extra. To those who saw and heard Mr. Wilson on his former visit to Tecumseh we need say nothing more to those less fortunate. The management of the Bradley wishes to state that "The Irish 15th" will be the best attraction coming to the Bradley this year.

Hear Wilson's new songs: "I want you then Machree," "Ireland is your Home Sweet Home," "My Mother's Wedding Ring," "A Lily from Heaven," and "The Irish will be There," the last one a big military number that has received thundering applause where ever rendered and one of the big hits this year.

Miss Bernice Blythe is assisting at the Sunbeam Stydo.

Mrs. Clara Eldridge of Adrian has been the guest of Miss Margaret Haire this week.

Miss Adah Swift of Toledo was in town several days of this week, called by the arrival of her niece Elizabeth Ann Hall, who came Monday morning.

UNITED STATES BOYS WORKING RESERVE

Boys Between the Ages of 16 and 20 Asked to Register

This Week Set Aside for That Purpose by Governor

By proclamation, Governor Sleeper has called the attention of the people of this state to the imperative need of a large agricultural crop this year. More food is the constant cry and thousands of men have left the farms to enter the army and the munition factories and there will be a serious shortage of farm labor this season.

The United States Boy's Working Reserve has been organised to help meet this need. Instituted by the Federal Government the Reserve is backed by war leaders and it ought to command the support of every citizen.

The plan is to enroll from patriotic motives, for service on the farm or other productive industry, every boy from 16 to 20 inclusive who is physically qualified and who is not otherwise engaged in productive service.

The purpose of the Reserve is to enable the United States to win the war by guaranteeing the necessary help to increase agricultural production. The only available source in this country to meet this great labor shortage must come from the ranks of our boys between the ages of 16 and 20; fine, loyal to the core, eager to do their share in patriotic service.

Germany's remarkable agricultural accomplishments are in a large measure due to the use of boys. For every boy in Germany, there are two clean-cut boys in the United States. There are by estimate 2,000,000 of them who can and gladly will qualify physically and in every other way for service when the appeal is properly presented to them.

Any boy who is not less than 16 nor more than 20 years of age may be enrolled a member of the Reserve upon these conditions:

1. That he obtain the consent in writing of his parents or guardian.
2. That he be free from communicable or other disease and possess no inherent weakness unfitting him for the rigors of his intended service as attested by a physician or physical director.
3. That he subscribe to the oath of service before an enrolling officer.

There are certain rewards offered for service and an official badge which is awarded to boys who have served their nation by actual work on the farm for a period of six weeks and demonstrated that he has proved his fitness. These rewards will be explained by the enrolling officer on request.

The boys are to receive fair wages and by arrangement with the school authorities their scholastic standings will be preserved. There will be hard work for them, but they will not be overworked and they will gain in health and strength and the experience will be valuable to them through life.

A natural hesitation arises in the minds of parents when "enrollment" and "federal service" are mentioned in connection with their boys. The fact is therefore emphasized that this enrollment is voluntary. Boys are not permitted to remain in the organization against their parents' wishes. The Department of Labor is confident that parents will encourage boys to enter the Reserve.

It is the earnest hope of the Federal Government that the farmers of Michigan will make full use of the state's share of this splendid army of young Americans.

Supt. W. L. Reed is in charge of the local enrollment and will be pleased to take the matter up with any boy who wishes to enroll.

Now, boys, this is your chance to serve your Government and to do your "bit." See to it that you are enrolled.

A FOOLISH LITTLE RED AND YELLOW GOOSE

It couldn't have happened except by accident. No sane person in his sober senses would ever have thought of sucha sillything whenhe was dealing with "condemned" men in that terrible hospital--men whose spines were wounded so that they could never walk again, and many of whom could live but a few weeks at most. For such men we think of comfort pillows, and soft slippers, and sometimes we wonder if a Bible might not be appreciated.

But a silly, ridiculous, utterly useless and irreverent toy, such as that which greeted the "condemned" of the big hospital could have got there only by accident--or by the inspired hand of a child, and that, too, would have been an accident.

But it happened, just when the devoted nurses of the American Fund for French Wounded were giving the poor fellows some gifts from Louisville, Ky.

When the word, "present from America" was passed along, faces brightened with anticipation, and the pleasure of receiving their gifts of slippers, blue, pink, mauve and green was nothing short of pathetic. At last a bag was opened and in addition to slippers, out came a foolish little red and yellow wooden goose. How it had got in there no one knew, but probably from some Louisville child's treasured toys, but it caused no end of merriment.

When six of the young officers begged the committee to have tea with them, the table was set in the small sterilized room with cups and saucers hastily gathered. The feast consisted of tea, honey instead of sugar and milk, and slices of war bread and butter with QuackyDoodle occupying the middle of the table, gravely bending his head to every motion about him. Without him, the meal might have had its sober moments; but with that ridiculous wooden goose before them, those "condemned" men behaved like children.

Little girl or little boy in Louisville did you slip in Quacky Doodle? You never thought, did you, he would be the guest of honor at a party in such a famous place?

PIN MONEY AND BONDS

Farmer's wives always have made a practice of raising chickens and selling eggs for pin money. Chickens and eggs have been bringing fabulous prices in these war times and will continue to bring high prices. The more chickens, the more pin money. Some of this money invested in Liberty bonds will provide the farmer's boy with a gun and ammunition and feed and clothe him while he is defeating the kaiser.

LENAWEE COUNTY BANKERS' ASSOCIATION ORGANIZED

Tecumseh Banker Made Temporary Secretary

At a meeting of the Lenawee county bankers held in Adrian Wednesday afternoon, an organization was formed which will be known as The Lenawee County Bankers' Association. Bankers from different parts of the county were in attendance, the towns represented outside of Adrian being Clayton, Morenci and Tecumseh.

The object of the association is to bind the county bankers together and to form a closer relationship among them for the general good of all.

Temporary officers were elected to hold office until permanent officers are elected. The officers chosen were:

President—H. B. Walby, Lenawee County Savings Bank, Adrian.
Secretary—H. S. Temple, Lilley State Bank, Tecumseh.

It is the plan of the association to hold monthly meetings.

THE THIRD LIBERTY LOAN.

The campaign for the Third Liberty Loan will be opened on the 6th of April, the anniversary of the declaration of a state of war between the United States and Germany.

The amount, terms, and conditions of the loan are dependent upon further legislation and will be announced as soon as Congress has granted the necessary powers.

Secretary McAdoo chose the 6th of April as the day to open the campaign as the most fitting date to call for a patriotic response to the summons to duty to every American, to ask from the people at home the same fervent patriotism that actuates our gallant sons on the battlefields of France and on the waters of the Atlantic.

WILHELM, THE TRESPASSER

If a farmer over here in America doesn't want anybody hunting on his land he puts up a sign which reads: "No Trespassing" and the man with the gun stays off, if he knows what's good for him. Over in Germany when the Kaiser comes along, he has the fence laid down, rides in, seats himself in an armchair and orders the farmer to chase the game around in front of him and the farmer has to do it or go to jail. A gun, backed by a Liberty bond will show Wilhelm what the farmer thinks of him and his methods.

BOOST YOUR TOWN

Don't be a pessimist so far as your home town is concerned. Can't you see that if you go about with a long face bewailing the miserable fate of your home town, it only pulls it down? Don't say that the town is dead, that its citizens are back numbers, that the population is steadily decreasing and a hundred other evils that probably exist only in your own mind. If you can't say anything good, then keep still. Don't let otherpeople knowthat youhaven't the energy to move away from such a miserable hole as you claim you are living in. If you are a property owner don't tell the whole world that your property is worth just half as much now as last year. It is possible that they may believe you and some day you may want to sell that property and you will be able to get just half what it is worth. So you see when you talk against your home town it only hurts yourself.

Monster German Cannon Located in the Forest of St. Gobain.

MANY PERSONS DEFY ENEMY

People Appear in Streets on Way to Church and Refuse to Become Alarmed—Capital Confident of Battle Ending Favorably.

Paris, March 25.—The German "monster cannon" which has been bombarding Paris has been located in the forest of St. Gobain, west of Laon and exactly 122 kilometers (approximately 76 miles) from the Paris city hall.

The day was ushered in by loud explosions from the ten-inch shells and immediately the alarm to take cover was sounded.

Many Defy Cannon.

This came at 6:55 o'clock and many persons sought shelter, but greater numbers of them appeared in the streets on their way to the churches, which were almost as well filled as usual. The women who sell palm leaves on Palm Sundays did their usual thriving business.

At first the shells began arriving at intervals of 20 minutes and the detonations, considering the Sunday calm, seemed louder than those of Saturday.

Their power to disturb the equanimity of the populace, however, seemed less, the people refusing to be distracted from their Sunday habits to any great extent.

French Front Intact.

For the benefit of that portion of the populace which had been led to believe the Germans had broken through the line and were bombarding Paris from nearby positions, a semi-official note was issued during the day.

This warned the people against believing pessimistic reports.

"The French front is intact," said the note. "Any assertion to the contrary is a lie."

Fired Every Twenty Minutes.

The bombardment of the capital ended around one o'clock, and as late as three o'clock no explosions had been heard for more than an hour. The "clear" signal was sounded at 3:30 o'clock.

Although during the earlier hours of the bombardment the shells arrived at [illegible] intervals, later in the [illegible] on the average, and some of them even fell 12 minutes apart.

Distinctive Warning.

The government has decided that in the future the bombardment of Paris by long-distance guns shall not interrupt the normal life of the capital, but that the population shall be warned of a bombardment by distinctive means, differing from the usual warnings sent out in cases of air raids. Drums will be beaten and the police will sound whistles.

Capital Is Confident of Victory.

The comment of the French press was about evenly divided between the big gun which is bombarding the city from back of the German lines, and the terrific battle raging on the British front.

The tone of the comment on the bombardment was of astonishment at the feasibility of the performance.

As to the battle, a favorable ending of it is confidently expected.

The newspapers do not conceal their admiration for the mechanical feat of the Germans in constructing their new weapon, but speak passionately of the useless barbarity of the bombardment.

Paper Asks for Reprisals.

The Matin says it is consoling to note that the number of victims is small, but it asks for reprisals on German cities.

The ordnance experts were not ready to commit themselves as to whether the shell was a sort of aerial torpedo driven by propellers, whether an inner projectile contained in the original shell is released by an explosive after the shell has traveled a certain distance from the gun or whether the original projectile itself reaches its destination, propelled perhaps by an explosive of a force hitherto unknown.

FIGHTING ON ITALIAN FRONT

Official Rome Statement Reports Artillery and Infantry Actions—Eight Planes Shot Down.

Rome, March 25.—"There have been slight artillery actions and activity by our reconnoitering parties along the whole front," says the war office report.

London, March 25.—An official statement dealing with aerial activity on the Italian front says:

"Our air craft superiority was maintained. Eight enemy machines were destroyed, one was driven down out of control and we suffered no loss ourselves."

Speed Was Justified.

Police magistrates have heard that stereotyped excuse of speeders—that something must be wrong with their speedometer—so often when they are haled to court for stepping too hard on the gas that they welcome any new stuff, relates a New York correspondent. "You are charged with speeding 28 miles an hour," said the magistrate of the traffic court to a road-burner. "That, sir, is a very dangerous speed. Death and disaster lurk where a motorist travels with such disregard of the law." "Now, judge," said the man at the bar, looking into the eyes of the magistrate like a spanked baby waiting for the next blow, "I had heard where I could buy some sugar, and I was in a hurry to get there." There wasn't much the magistrate could do in the face of that, so he fined the defendant $25.

U. S. TROOPS NOW ENGAGED IN BIG BATTLE

American and French Reserves Join British in Gigantic Struggle.

BERLIN CLAIMS NEW GAINS

Official Statement Says Allied Armies Which Were Brought Up for Counter-Attack Were Thrown Back on Chaulny—Ham and Peronne Captured.

London, March 25.—The number of prisoners captured by the Germans now amount to 30,000 and the number of guns 600, the German official statement says.

French, English and American regiments which were brought up from the southwest for a counter-attack were thrown back on Chaulny, the official statement adds.

Ham and Peronne have fallen, the German official statement, which was received here by wireless, says.

Claim Reserves Repulsed.

Berlin, March 25.—Victory in the battle which has been raging near Monchy, Cambrai, St. Quentin and La Fere is claimed for the German army in the headquarters statement. The British third and fourth armies and parts of Franco-American reserves which have ben brought up are declared to have been beaten and to have been repulsed with the heaviest losses on the line from Bapaume to Bouchevesnes and behind the Somme between Peronne and Ham, as well as at Chaulny.

Report Battle Won.

The text of the statement reads:

"Western war theater—The battle near Monchy, Cambrai, St. Quentin and La Fere has been won. The British third and fourth armies and portions of Franco-American reserves which had been brought up were beaten and on the line of Bapaume, Bouchevesnes and behind the Somme between Peronne and Ham, as well as at Chaulny, were repulsed with the heaviest losses.

Take Moncy Height by Storm.

"The army of General von Buelow (Otto) took by storm Moncy height and south thereof carried forward the attack in a westerly direction beyond Manancourt and Henin. It now is engaged in a fight northwest of Bapaume for the third enemy position. Strong British counter-attacks were repulsed.

"The army of General von Der[illegible]witz, following upon the heels of the vanquished enemy, pressed forward in close pursuit [illegible] the third [illegible] Bernes line.

Between Manancourt and Peronne the troops of Generals von Kathen and Gontard have forced a crossing over the Tortille sector and on the Somme battlefield are fighting around Bouchevesnes. Peronne has fallen. Other divisions pressed forward to the south thereof as far as the Somme.

"As early as Friday evening the army of General von Hutler, pressing closely forward, took by storm the third enemy position, broke through it and compelled the enemy to retire."

[The town toward which the German official statement mentions French, English and American regiments as being thrown back is probably Chaulney, on the Oise river, seven miles southwest of La Fere and about five miles back of the previously established line. Saturday's German official statement reported the forcing of a crossing of the Oise west of the La Fere, where the British and French lines are believed to have joined, and the recession of the British right wing her would necessarily have taken the French left wing along with it. American troops are known to have been on the Chemin des Dames line just to the east of this front.]

Huns Reach Somme.

In ceaseless pursuit the corps of Generals von Luettwitz and Von Oetinge have reached the Somme. Ham fell after a desperate fight, into the hands of our victorious troops. British reserves, which were thrown against them in a desperate attack, sustained sanguinary losses.

"The corps of General von Webern and Von Conte and the troops of General von Geyl, after a fierce battle, crossed the Crazat canal. French, English and American regiments which had been bought up from the southwest for a counter-attack were thrown back on Chauny in a southwesterly direction."

No Material Change, Says London.

London, March 25.—There was no material change in the situation on the battle front in northern France throughout the night, although further fighting occurred at a number of points, the war office announced.

British troops, the statement announces, are holding the line of the Somme river to Peronne. Small enemy parties which attempted to cross the river in the neighborhood of Pargny were driven back.

In Touch With French.

The text of the statement reads:

"There has been no material change in the situation on the battle front during the night, although further fighting has taken place at a number of points.

"Our troops are holding the line of the Somme river to Peronne. Small parties of the enemy which endeavored to cross in the neihbhborhood of Pargny were driven back.

"On our right we are in touch with the French and to the north of the River Somme at Peronne our troops held their positions after beating off a number of attacks on different portions of the front during the early part of the night.

"Heavy fighting is still to be expected."

Fire destroyed one of the large storehouses of the Bad Axe Grain company. The estimated loss is $30,000.

[illegible]ES' FLEETS [illegible]DY FOR FIGHT [illegible] IN NORTH SEA

[illegible] IN BIG BATTLE NEAR

[illegible] and French Army Circles at [illegible] Are Confident Entente Armies Will Deal Foe Crushing Blow.

Washington, March 25.—Washington is expecting momentarily to hear of a naval engagement between Anglo-[illegible] forces and the Germans. It is the general belief here that the present "grand offensive" will include a North sea dash by the German fleet as an auxiliary feature of the drive by land.

Crisis Due This Week.

Germany's greatest effort of the war is expected to reach a climax by the middle or latter part of this week.

This was the opinion in British and French army circles here. There was an utter absence of alarm in the minds of the Entente officers. While they feel the supreme moment of the war has come, they are positive that when the Teutonic drive reaches its crest the allied counter-attack will be their most formidable thrust.

The allied army men say a retirement of 15 or 25 miles to the old Hindenburg line is not a cause for worry. The British, they point, are giving way in orderly fashion under the sheer weight of numbers and tons of shell. In no place has the line been pierced.

Sees Kaiser's Downfall.

One of the chief reasons for the optimism is the official report that the Kaiser is in supreme command of the attacking force. This presages, they say, the downfall of the final Hohenzollern hope to "break through, capture Paris and exact a German peace." "And when they reach the crest of their attack," said a British officer, "we'll be ready for them with a counter-onslaught that will dispel all doubt as to the future of the war."

Reserve Ready to Counter.

One feature of the situation is the confidence in the allied reserve, the [illegible] of the supreme war council at Versailles.

Although there is no hint as to the position of the reserve, it is generally believed it is in readiness for the counter-thrust on which the decision will [illegible].

The reserve is made up, so far as is known, of French and British troops of the best type, and in an emergency [illegible] American troops.

[illegible] are to the effect that the Germans are being mowed down on a three to one basis, compared to the British. At this rate, it is believed, the enemy will not be able to keep up this terrific pace more than three or four days.

The massed formation of the Germans is giving British artillery its chance to get in its "best licks" of the war. The British losses, it is admitted, are great, but satisfactory under the conditions.

Army officers are unanimous in declaring the battle has failed to develop any new strategy. The Germans, they say, are attempting a drive which, if successful, would operate on the British like huge pincers.

GUN RECALLS AIR TORPEDO

Reported Long-Distance Shelling Paris Recalls Missile With Range of 500 Miles.

New York, March 25.—The reported long-range bombardment of Paris recalls the story printed on March 14 of an aerial torpedo which the inventor, a Philadelphian, claims has a range of 500 miles. The inventor is Leter P. Barlow, who has already invented an anti-submarine depth bomb used with marked effect against U-boats. Mr. Barlow says his aerial torpedo is even more effective than his anti-submarine bomb, and is, in fact, "the most terribly destructive engine of warfare that the world has ever seen."

Mr. Barlow is quoted in the article as saying that General Squier was shown the plans of the torpedo six weeks ago.

"It carries more than half a ton of the highest explosive that can be manufactured," the article quotes the inventor. "It has a range of 500 miles and is positive in going to its target."

BAKER VISITS BELGIAN LINE

Secretary of War Has Long Talk With King Albert—Arrives in London to See Page.

London, March 25.—Secretary of War Baker visited the Belgian front on Friday and had a long talk with King Albert. It was announced here The secretary has arrived in London and was met at the station by American Ambassador Page.

Wireless in Official's Home.

Paris, March 25.—The director of the municipal laboratory at Amiens was arrested. It is reported a wireless apparatus was found in his home.

Cedar Forest at Great Height.

In his book, "The Real Algeria," quoted in the Christian Science Monitor, M. D. Scott describes his journey through a cedar forest. "The program was to cross the mountains through a fine forest of cedars by the Col de Telmet, at an altitude of 5,000 feet," Mr. Scott says. "I came across a most curious piece of hillside. Bare rock as steep and smooth as a house roof ran straight from the hilltop to the bottom of the valley with a strike of some 60 degrees. It shone like burnished silver in the bright sun. Never have I seen anything of the kind so beautiful. In various crevices were perched cedar trees, sometimes with a rest so tiny that a miracle alone held them apparently from sliding down the chute."

REPORT BY PERSHING

War Department Silent in Regard to U. S. Troops.

Germans Are Losing Three Men for Every Britisher Lost—French Move Back Lines.

Washington, March 25.—No confirmation of the report American troops had been sent to the British front, as stated in the Berlin official statement, could be had in Washington.

A message from General Pershing reached the war department dispelling the uncertainty that had existed as to the effects of the gigantic drive so meagerly described in the official reports from Field Marshal Haig.

While the contents of Pershing's message has not been made public, it may be stated there is every reason to expect the German assault, when the final results are reckoned, will be accounted a failure.

The war department is informed that the Germans recklessly are paying two and three men for every Britisher lost; that their advancing troops, massed closely in the favorite German formation, are being mowed down in windrows by the bullet spray of hundreds of machine guns.

It is likely the world will be able to form its opinion within the next few days as to where the decision rests in the most bitterly contested battle of the war.

The French are now taking active part in the fighting and have moved back their lines resting on the Oise river to conform with the lines of their British ally.

Violent fighting between the British and Germans is continuing between Croiselles and Perznier, an official dispatch from Paris announced.

The Germans are using 97 divisions of troops and their losses are heavy. The British resistance is declared to be efficient.

The dispatch from Paris said:

"The German offensive is continuing between Croiselles and Tergnier with violent fighting, in which the Germans are said to have used 97 divisions.

"The English resistance is very efficient in everything and the German losses are very heavy. The fighting line is brought back to about six or seven kilometers (4.34 miles) behind the third line. Confidence remains complete."

President Wilson and all official and diplomats were eager for every word.

The apparent slackening of the German drive was taken as support for the calm confidence that the attackers cannot break through.

FRENCH BREAK UP ATTACK

Germans Attempt Surprise Assault South of Juvincourt—Violent Artillery Fighting Reported.

Paris, March 25.—German troops, after a violent bombardment, undertook a surprise attack to the south of Juvincourt, but quite without success. There has been fairly spirited artillery fighting in the region of Le Pretre wood, in the Vosges not far from La Fontenelle and at Hartmannsweilerkopf.

A later official communication says: "There was intermittent artillery activity north of the Chemin des Dames. Artillery engagements, sometimes violent, occurred in Champagne, in the region of the Monts, on the right bank of the Meuse, between Caurieres wood and Bezonvaux and at Hartmannsweilerkopf."

ATTACK HUNS WITH GAS

Canadians Launch Greatest Bombardment in History.

Dominion Forces Assault Enemy Between Lens and Hill 70—Haig Lauds British.

London, March 25.—The Canadian war correspondent's dispatch from the Franco-Belgian front says that while the English were battling with the Germans farther south the Canadians launched the greatest gas bombardment in the world's history between Lens and Hill 70.

The following telegram has been sent to the general officers commanding the Third and Fifth British armies:

"The field marshal commanding in chief sends his congratulations to the troops of your army on their splendid defense today. He relies upon their continued steadfastness and valor to crush this new attack and with it the enemy's last hope of success."

MAY VETO $2.50 WHEAT

Reported at Washington That President Will Insist That Old Price Stand.

Washington, March 25.—President Wilson will insist on elimination of the senate proposal to raise the price of wheat from $2.20 to $2.50, it was said. If the bill is reported out of conference with this provision retained, it was indicated the president will veto the measure on the ground that it would upset the work of nearly a year in stabilizing the price of bread. The president's opposition is understood to be based on the belief that to fix a disproportionate price for wheat will discourage corn raising and threaten starvation of hogs on the farms.

MRS. ROSE STOKES IS HELD

New York Socialist Lecturer in Custody of U. S. Deputy Marshal for Violating Espionage Act.

Kansas City, Mo., March 25.—Rose Pastor Stokes, New York Socialist lecturer, was en route to Kansas City from Willow Springs, Mo., in the custody of a deputy United States marshal, as the climax of a series of lectures and controversies in this section during the last week. She is charged with violation of the espionage act. Mrs. Stokes declared she was opposed to the war in an address before the Woman's Dining club a week ago.

LIGHTS OF SHINAGAWA BAY

Physical Phenomena in Japanese Waters Said to Have Been Caused by Countless Animalculi.

Strange lights hover over the waters of Japan at various places. The burning spring that appears at intervals of several years in one of the land locked bays is a natural phenomenon that has attracted the attention of the scientific world. A new and curious spectacle made its appearance in Shinagawa bay recently, when a myriad of pale green lights shone in the placid waters and attracted thousands of spectators to the shore, East and West News states.

The savants of Japan are giving much attention to this curious freak of nature. One college professor likened the exhibition to the innumerable lights off the coast of Chikusen and Chikugo in Kyushu. The latter lights, however, are of a yellow-red, orange color, whereas those in Shinagawa bay were pale green.

Doctor Kishigami of the college of agriculture in the Tokyo imperial university collected a quantity of water from the bay. He has declared that the light is caused by countless animalculi. He describes these insects as gymnogyniums, belonging to the class Flagellata. Each measures one twelve-hundredth of an inch and has an alimentary canal. These insects must have been always present in the waters of that bay, but an excess of vegetable matter in the water so fattened and stimulated the animalculi that they became unusually luminous. The learned professor cites the appearance of the same phenomena at Hamburg in 1830, since which time no record exists of its recurrence until lately. The insects live at the bottom of the sea and come to the surface on rare occasions for oxygen.

GOOD OF COMPANY MANNERS

Obviates Arguments, Harsh Language, Criticisms and Other Features in Ordinary Home Life.

There isn't any trouble in the home when there is company in the house. Everything runs smoothly, as a rule, avers the Columbus Dispatch. The children are better behaved, regardless of what mother says about it; father is more patient. There is no quarreling among the children—when there is company. Everything is cleaner, and more orderly, and voices are lowered, and correct language is used.

Which is to say, wouldn't it be a blessed good thing to have "company manners" in the home all the time? To have the breakfast pass off as quietly; to have as little harsh language; to do away with the usual family criticisms—wouldn't it be glorious if we used "company manners" whether there is company present or not?

It would be an awful strain for a while, to be sure. The whole family is under a strain when there's company in the house. But the general effect would justify the strain. There would come a time when it wouldn't be any strain at all; it would become a habit. Table manners would be improved, conversation would be more rational, criticism would be less bitter, dispositions would mature with the sweetness of ripened fruit that has grown in the sunlight.

Banish Idleness.

[illegible] money, is the root of all evil, and uncheerfulness is one of the shoots from the root, asserts the Los Angeles Times. There is no such thing as idleness in nature. The worlds that glitter in the arch of the heavens are ever moving. The moon never stays in one place. The restless sea moans in and out over the harbor bar. The rivers gurgle and plash as they journey to the sea. The trees change their costume twice a year and grow a little every hour of every day in the year. The birds never roost at noonday, and man is the only animal who oversleeps himself. "A contented mind is a continual feast," and the worker, whether he labors with brain or brawn, who finds delight in his work, who sings as he cheerfully lifts the hammer or laughs as he pens the thought that comes to him, is happy and content.

Early California History.

The first white men to visit San Francisco bay were of the expedition of Portola, a Spanish adventurer who became the first governor of California. Portola himself was not a member of the party which, 148 years ago, gazed upon the site of San Francisco and Oakland. The honor of discovery belongs to Father Juan Crespi and Sergeant Ortega. Gasper de Portola, "captain of dragoons and governor of the Californias," probably never saw the bay, but his name is perpetuated as the discoverer by the annual Portola festivals in San Francisco. Sir Francis Drake came near discovering the bay in 1578, when he landed at a point 30 miles to the northwest.

Perfumes Defy Laundries.

The Arabs around Aden love powerful perfumes and are highly skilled in their preparation. Their favorite is called "oodi." It is made from a wood called "ood" and is so powerful that when burned in incense-pots the smoke will impregnate the garments of those present to such an extent that the perfume will remain upon them for days, even after they have been laundered. They often mix "ood" with civet, ambergris and musk, and thus perfume their clothes. The Germans tried to sell their perfumes at Aden, but failed, as the best they could do was about 43 cents an ounce for perfume not nearly so good as that which the natives made for 8 cents.

What "Shinnamu" Is.

Dyestuffs from leaves of the "Shinnamu," a species of maple common in Korea and known in parts of Manchuria, have given results so promising as to be noticed in a British consular report, says the Nebraska State Journal. Large quantities could be had at about 12 cents a pound, and with the colors produced cotton can be dyed black, indigo, dark gray, gray or khaki. In dyeing silk and pongees, only black can be used, the chief value of the extract being as a material adding 30 per cent to the weight of the textiles.

His Hard Luck.

"So you're going home?" said the old man to the wanderer.

"Yes; tomorrow."

"I understand they are preparing the fatted calf for you?"

"Just my luck. The doctor has made me cut out all fat foods."

The long talked of drive on the western front was started by the Germans [illegible] days ago last [illegible] [illegible] attacking over a front extending 50 miles and [illegible] of the drive [illegible] at sectors [illegible] the Brit-[illegible]

While the odds so far seem to be in favor of the Germans who have penetrated the Allies' lines and have made a reported gain in the neighborhood of [illegible] miles, still these gains have been made at a fearful loss of human life.

Reinforcements are being brought up by the Allies to stiffen up the weak places and counter attacks are being reported with success at various places along the battle front.

News from the great battle is being eagerly followed by the people and late papers are being snatched up by anxious readers. The early news may be more or less discouraging but as the fight continues we predict a change. While this great battle is the greatest that history has yet recorded and the loss of life will be terrific, still it is in a large measure a relief, for it brings the issue more to a head and may be one of the big factors in bringing about an earlier peace.

General VonHindenburg has made his brags that he will eat his Easter dinner in Paris. Now let him fulfill his promise to the German people. He will never get through. The Allied lines may waver and bend, but they will hold and when the Hun has spent himself in his furious drives he will fall back weaker than ever and we hope it may be possible for the Allied armies to drive his lines many miles back towards the Rhine.

The Daylight Law recently passed by Congress goes into effect March 31st. It is a national law and every where throughout the United States clocks will be advanced one hour.

For instance, if you retire at 10 o'clock standard time Saturday night, set the hands of your watch ahead to 11 [illegible] have [illegible] do [illegible] people and things will adjust themselves easily.

There will be no change at all in railroad schedules. Factories will blow their whistles [illegible] hour, schools and churches will commence at the same old time and there need be no confusion [illegible] people will only remember to make the change in their timepieces Saturday night.

Of course if you do not do this you will arrive at work an hour late Monday morning [illegible] be getting to church an hour behind time. So remember to advance the hands of your timepiece one hour (standard time) when you retire Saturday night.

DESCRIBES CURE FOR GROUCH

Doctor Finds Uneasiness and Crankiness Are Both Diseases That Can Be Groped With.

Take comfort, all ye who "fly to pieces" at the slightest provocation or are judged fidgety or cranky or irritable. Your friends, and more especially your enemies, may say it is just "pure cussedness," or even worse. But Dr. Meyer Solomon brings word to such sufferers that they are victims of a disease which may be cured.

In the New York Medical Journal he has an article dealing with the subject in plain language and telling simple systems and simple remedies.

"In common forms," Doctor Solomon says, "there is nothing more than a condition of uneasiness or unrest. The person is fidgety, ill at ease, cannot concentrate on the task before him and is so generally disturbed he does not know what to do with himself. It is but natural that while in this condition the person is irritable and is apt to be cranky, grouchy, easily angered and not at all himself, as he will tell you. I venture to state in this simple form the state occurs now and then in all human beings, but for the most of us these periods are relatively infrequent.

"Many may find relief by going to a gymnasium, playing golf, tennis, or the like; going to a baseball game, joining a card game; yes, even going to a prize fight, a wrestling match and similar methods of amusement. Others may find their peace in intellectual pursuits—reading a novel, a scientific book or article, resorting to one of their hobbies."

Popular Superstitions.

To be born on the first day of a new moon means that the child will have a happy life and be rich. A child born on the second day will grow rapidly. A short life is predicted for a child born on the third or the sixth day. A child born on the fifth day will be deceitful and proud.

Birth on the seventh day means that a child born will live long, but have many troubles. The ninth day promises that a child born then shall have riches and honors. A child born on the tenth day will live long and be a great traveler.

A birth on the eleventh day means that the child will be healthy and handsome, and if a girl, remarkable for wisdom. A child born on the twelfth day of the moon will be dearly loved, but have a bad temper.

JUST WHAT INTERESTED BILL

Loss of Cars and Freight Didn't Seem to Amount to Much to Him at the Moment.

"I was riding on a freight train through Kansas," a Santa Fe official relates. "I was up in the cupola of the caboose. Downstairs the conductor and the rear brakeman watched [illegible] a pan of beans 'warming over' on the old coal stove. They awaited only the return of the head brakeman before 'putting away' their delicious, which they were taking from their full dinner pails. The pan of beans was a partnership dish. I could see the head brakeman coming down the train from the engine. Suddenly there was a jerk, a shock, and I saw freight cars begin to pitch from the track and pile up in heaps. I had a hasty vision of the head brakeman sailing through the air and landing in a cornfield, clear of the right of way.

"'Bill's killed,' I shouted as I clutched wildly to retain my seat. 'He's been thrown clear over into the field.'

"As the caboose finally came to a standstill, about the only car left on the track, the conductor and the rear brakeman rushed forward to gather up the remains of 'Bill.' But as they ran to him 'Bill' picked himself up in a dazed sort of way and was brushing the dirt from his eyes and his clothes when they reached him.

"There was at least $75,000 worth of cars and freight piled up there in that wreck, probably $100,000—a total loss. But the question 'Bill' asked as his rescuers reached him was:

"'Boys, how's them beans back there?'"

LIFE OF A DEPOT AGENT

His Duties Are Manifold and He Is Envied by Few, According to This.

The life of a railway agent is one of roses and cinders for the most part. Some folks think that about all he has to do is to sell tickets and keep the extra cent when he makes odd change, but there are other things in the life of a railway agent besides framing your face in a ticket office window and opening a money drawer with a doorbell on it, and smiling when the folks ask him what time the 5:03 train will be here if it's on time.

From early in the morning when he starts the day by looking into the coal bin at the end of the platform to see how much bituminous has been stolen during the night, until sundown, when he starts out to hang drug store signs on the switch posts, he is an extremely busy man, says the Walker (Minn.) Pilot. Between checking over freight receipts and running the hay press for the carbon copies of waybills, it's no wonder he hasn't time to build a fire in the waiting room or rub off last week's train schedule from the blackboard, because he is a busy man.

He listens to complaints with one ear and the telegraph keys with the other, and has been known to answer the phone, sell a steamship ticket and put a bucket of coal in the stove all at the same time, in order to get his work done within the eight-hour schedule.

About the only ones to envy an agent his job are the girls in the town, and that's because he has such a good chance to get acquainted with the brakemen on all the freights.

Long Ride Before Him.

A cyclist who stopped at a village inn boasted about his abilities as a rider to such an extent that the landlord ventured to make a wager with him.

"Look here, mister" said the innkeeper, "you can't ride up and down this road till the church clock strikes six."

"Done," said the cyclist. "It's just close on five now;" and the next minute he was speeding down the road.

After about an hour's riding the cyclist shouted to one of the bystanders, of whom many had assembled:

"I say, has the church clock struck six yet?"

"No, you idiot," was the blunt reply. "Our church clock never strikes at all."—London Tit-Bits.

American Girls Who Marry Young.

The census bureau finds that hundreds of American girls in every twelve months are married at fifteen. Thousands annually are married at sixteen. Out of every 100 women in this country eleven have married before passing nineteen. In New England (according to the census data) only one woman in fifteen gets an acceptable proposal before she is twenty. In the south, the desirable man offers himself to one out of five or one out of six girls of nineteen or under. It is shown by the census that a young woman's chance of offers is decidedly better in a rural community than anywhere else.

Hottest Heat.

The highest temperature ever reached by man is 9,400 degrees Fahrenheit. This was produced by two English experimenters, Sir Andrew Noble and Sir F. Abel, asserts a scientist. This was done by exploding cordite in a durable steel cylinder. This was due to the suddenness of the reaction, and, although of momentary duration, it was an interesting scientific achievement, nevertheless. With the aid of cordite Sir William Crookes was able to make small diamonds. Professor Moissan, who has produced diamonds, can heat his electric furnace to 6,300 degrees.

POTASH ALWAYS IN DEMAND

Hard to Obtain Sufficient Quantity of This Most Important of Fertilizers.

Potash is perhaps the most important of fertilizers. Although potassium, in its combinations, is one of the most widely distributed of the elements, it is found massed in bulk in only a few places. The Saxon deposits at Stassfurt, and the beds in Alsace, are the world's chief sources of supply.

Elsewhere, potash is to be had only by the treatment of great quantities of material, with a small resultant yield. The case is not as bad as that of radium, where a ton of ore may give only a fraction of a grain of the precious metal; but it is bad enough to make its extraction an extremely costly process. The farmer's wife has always known how to leach potash from wood ashes in sufficient quantity to make the soft soap for the family washing, but this method does not pay commercially.

MARGUERITE CLARK
in "MISS WASHINGTON"
FAMOUS PLAYERS PARAMOUNT

SCENE FROM "MISS GEORGE WASHINGTON." MARGUERITE CLARK'S VERY BEST PICTURE WHICH WILL BE PRESENTED AT THE BRADLEY FRIDAY NIGHT

This week Friday, March 29th, the management of the Bradley Opera House will offer the daintiest little star on the American screen in what "Motography" claims to be her very best picture, "Miss George Washington."

"Miss George Washington" is the story of a girl who couldn't tell the truth and to say that Marguerite Clark "fibs" delightfully is putting it very mildly. This winsome little miss needs no introduction to patrons of the Bradley. She has scored triumph in photoplay, appearing at that popular amusement house and patrons always look anxiously for the "Marguerite Clark picture." Read what "Motography" says of "Miss George Washington:"

"When a 5 reel comedy, not of the broad slap stick variety, keeps an audience in almost uninterrupted laughter it is a comedy surely that comes under the heading of rare. Rather than say it is 'one' of the best pictures dainty Marguerite Clark has appeared in, the writer is impelled by force of enthusiasm to say that IT IS THE VERY BEST.

The sets are extremely tasteful, always appropriate and some quite lavish. The photography excellent.

"Miss George Washington" will be appreciated by any audience, but it is first and last a picture for the finest class of houses. The picture is among the few best comedies of the year." —from "Motography."

Remember "Miss George Washington will be at the Bradley Opera House next Friday, one night only. Regular admissions. Bring the children, they will all enjoy this charming picture.

PIONEER LIFE IN MISSOURI

Was "Fine for Men and Dogs," but Undoubtedly Also Hard on the Women.

"In Pioneer Families of Missouri," is printed a letter written by a woman to her sister in Kentucky, the Kansas City Star says:

"The men and dogs have a fine time, but we poor women have to suffer. We pack water from one-half mile to one mile for cooking and washing. My advice is stay where you are. But if you see anyone coming to this country send a plank cradle for poor little Patrick. His poor little back is full of hard bumps, lying in a cradle George made out of a hollow log, with a piece of wood for a pillow. George and I attended a wedding last week. The preacher, a hard-shell Baptist, had a long buckskin overcoat. The groom was in his shirt sleeves, with white cotton pants that came just below his knees, and white cotton socks and buckskin slippers on his feet. The girl was dressed in a low-necked, short-waisted, short-sleeved white cotton dress that was monstrous short for a girl like her. She had on buckskin slippers and her hair was tied with a buckskin string, which is all the go here. And when the preacher was spelling and reading the ceremony from the book, the girl commenced sneezing and the buckskin string slipped off her hair, which fell all over her face, and everybody laughed."

An early marriage ceremony in Livingston county took place with the couple on one side of Medicine creek and Squire Jordan on the other side. The creek was booming. The young man swam the stream and brought the squire down from his house. Then the young man swam back and took his place beside the young woman. Squire Jordan couldn't swim. He wanted to postpone the ceremony a few days until the creek went down. The young folks wouldn't have it. They joined hands and told the squire to go ahead. The questions and answers were shouted across the creek and the knot was tied. Medicine creek got its name, according to tradition, because a country doctor in trying to swim it lost his "pill bags," as they were called.

The Brute.

"Where have you been tonight?" she asked bitterly, as he sauntered in about 11 o'clock. "Was it business again this evening?"

He made no reply, but sat down to the cold supper that was on the table.

"Aha, the difference in a short time!" she went on. "I have been trying to solace myself tonight by reading some of your love letters. Here is one," holding it up, "that you wrote one month before we were married; in this you say that you feel as if you could eat me. Oh, the affection, the passionate love expressed in those words! It is one month after marriage," she continued, beginning to weep pearly tears, and sob like the throb of a steamboat engine, "only one month after marriage, and now—"

"I wish to goodness I had!" mumbled the unfeeling brute, with his mouth full of ham.

Novel Bed for Paralytics.

Cornmeal in Honduras.

Because of the marked success of recent governmental and private efforts to promote the production of more cereals during the period of the war, writes Consul Walter F. Boyle, Puerto Cortes, an American company has imported and erected the first mill for the milling of cornmeal. This was purchased in the United States and has been erected at San Pedro, Sula, Honduras. It is a small equipment, but marks the beginning of a new industry.

FOLLOW CAMPAIGN OF JOSHUA

British Army Duplicates Victory of Head of Israelite Hosts, Marching Over the Same Ground.

And now the British Mesopotamian army has captured Hebron, 20 miles from the birthplace of Christ, observes the Wichita (Kan.) Beacon.

More than 33 centuries ago Joshua, at the head of the Israelite hosts, marched over the same ground capturing Hebron and putting its king to death. In one of the battles he found the time was too short and so he commanded the sun and moon to stand still while his men fought.

Forty years before, Moses was leading the children of Israel out of Egypt to this promised land of Canaan. He sent out spies, who were overawed by the giant sons of Anak whom they saw at Hebron. All but Joshua and Caleb gave unfavorable reports, and the Lord was displeased at the perverseness and the credulity of the Israelites, and decreed that they must wander 40 years in the wilderness.

"How are the mighty fallen," mournfully sang David as a requiem for his friend Jonathan, nearly 3,000 years ago, and then he asked the Lord for guidance. God commanded him to go to Hebron, and there he was anointed king of Judah and reigned seven years before going to Jerusalem.

And almost 40 centuries ago Abraham built an altar at Hebron and there bought his first land. There was buried his faithful wife Sarah, and also Isaac and Rebekah and Jacob and Leah and Joseph.

The bones of the shepherd patriarchs, of David, the sweet singer of Israel; of Joshua, the mighty warrior; have crumbled and mingled with the sands of the centuries, but the world fights on over its ancient battlegrounds, and mankind, like Sisyphus, rolling the great burden to the top of the hill, sees it roll back and create another task.

But mankind has learned. Upon reaching Hebron it refuses to be awed by the giants who bar the way to the promised land of world peace and freedom.

It is a strange and wonderful drama that is taking place on earth today.

LANGUAGE HARD TO MASTER

Fearful and Wonderful Sentences Were Those Written by Pupils of Malaysian School.

Some queer sentences turned out by the pupils of the Methodist Girls' school at Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. One can usually distinguish the subject and tell what the child tried to say at least.

Gibraltar is the keynote in the Mediterranean.

The finest wheat that ever cropped grows in Russia.

The masculine of spinster is bore.

He had nothing on except a sword and he was unarmed.

The place was taken by storm and thunder.

The cat was thin and pale.

Gibraltar is known as the keyhole of England.

St. Helena is a place where Napoleon had been diminished.

The Barbarian states are Morocco, Algiers, Tripoli and Turnips.

Queen Victoria reigned 60 years. She was the longest sovereign that ever ruled in England.

Unnecessary Intestines.

The human intestine seems to be partly a relic of prehistoric times, largely useless in this modern day and age. The uselessness of the vermiform appendix, which is simply the stump of what was once an important and functioning branch of the alimentary canal, is well known. Recent operations in a London hospital seem to indicate that a large part of the lower main canal, the colon, can be dispensed with without harm. In these operations sections of the colon have been removed. The work brings up again the famous scientist Metchnikoff's debated contention that these parts of the anatomy are not only useless but dangerous.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT GIVES FORM OF ADDRESS FOR OVERSEA MAIL

Persons who send mail to members of the Expeditionary Forces are particularly requested, in a satement issued by the Post Office Department, to use ink only in writing the addresses. Every piece of mail matter should also bear the name and address of the sender.

Heavy paper, canvas or cloth should be used for wrapping packages. When canvas or cloth is used the address should be written on a shipping tag, with the name and address of the sender on the reverse side.

Given names should be written in full, instead of initials. The title of the addresse and the full name of the unit or organization to which he is assigned should be added, it being sufficient in the way of further address to use the words "American Expeditionary Forces."

Watch His Laugh.

The leopard cannot change his spots, nor the laugher his laugh. It is as characteristic as his nose or the color of his eyes. No polish or educational veneer can alter the laugh much in quality and tone, although it may soften it. Yet, even then, in an unguarded moment the old laugh rings or cackles, or explodes, and the show is given away.

A man to be avoided, to be passed by on the other side, is the man who laughs without smiling. The man who laughs like a mask or a ventriloquist's puppet. His face wrinkles. He makes a noise. But he is smileless as a rooster when cackling. Take it from me, that man is hard, relentless, cruel, malignant.

VALUABLE ARTICLE OF FOOD

Banana Really Is Not Appreciated Anything Like as Much as It Ought to Be.

The banana is one of the most useful of all foods. When the population of the earth becomes overcrowded, we shall have to eat more bananas and less bread. An acre in wheat will yield 900 pounds of food. An acre in bananas will yield 120,000 pounds.

The banana resembles in composition the sweet potato. Both contain 1½ per cent of protein and 20 per cent carbohydrates. The banana contains more starch than fruits of the temperate clime. As it ripens, the starch gradually turns to sugar.

The late Edgar Wallace Conable said that the banana is the only food which may safely be eaten when it has been picked green. This, he explained, is because the green bananas draw nourishment out of the great central stem, which gradually shrinks and withers. A banana should never be eaten until the skin is beginning to turn black. Some claim that they should be entirely black. However, it is not necessary to go so far as that. As they turn black the starch turns to sugar. Scrape the white material from beneath the skin before you eat the fruit.

STATE CHAIRMAN EXPLAINS MEANING OF COMING REGISTRATION OF WOMEN

Just what does the coming registration of women in the state of Michigan mean? Why is it being undertaken and what, if any, are the obligations of women who register?

These are some of the questions which are still being asked concerning the coming registration of women which will be held in April.

In order to explain the registration onec again, Caroline Bartlett Crane chairman of the woman's committee of the Council of National Defense for Michigan, has written the following statement (for Journal readers.)

In the week of April 27 a registration of the woman-power of Michigan is to be taken by the Woman's Committee, Council of National Defense, under authority of the Federal government and by proclamation of the governor of Michigan. The half-million cards which it is estimated will be required are to be furnished by the State War Preparedness board.

This registration of women which has already been taken in New York Illinois, ad several other states, is nation-wide in its scope. The object here in Michigan, as in other states, is to give every loyal woman an opportunity to offer to her country such service as she is best fitted to render, and to get this offer down in such shape that it will be definitely available to the government, the state, or to some need in her home community. If she wishes training for some new kind of service, she registers for that, and we undertake to furnish information as to where such training may be procured—be it training as a nurse, friendly visitor, telegrapher, wireless operator, motor mechanician, or any of the 154 occupations listed on the registration cards.

There is great need for such registration that we may be prepared to meet the present and coming demand for women to take the places of men called to military service, as well as to fill multitudes of new places in industry, clerical work and public service created by the war.

But the registration contemplates much more than this. Every loyal woman above sixteen is wanted to register, even though she can offer little or no service outside of her own home. If this war is teaching us anything, it is, that national welfare and military efficiency have their roots back in the home, the school and in those beneficent social institutions that are the heart of democracy.

So, when a woman says, "There is nothing for me to register for; I have to give every moment of my time to the care of my home and children," we will answer, "Register for that," and we will try to send her away with a proud feeling that she is serving her country in most vital way.

Of course the vast majority of women cannot be asked to go to other places; they must render their service in their homes and home communities or not at all. The community survey, taken in advance of registration, is designed to enable registrars to suggest opportunities of philanthropic service to such women. Local philanthropies are crying out for such help, because so many people entirely forgot them in their desire to render service more visibly connected with the war. "It is just as patriotic to save the life of a baby at home as of a soldier in France," we say.

This registration of women is realyl in the line of universal military service talked of, but not yet realized, for men; placing each man where he can do the most for his country, whether in the trenches, on the railroad or on the farm.

However, the registration is voluntary; women will not be drafted into government service, and if a woman registers for service at this time and when called later, finds herself unable by changed conditions, to respond to the call, no punishment or criticism will fall upon her, nor will she be compelled to service.

One point which we would like to have all women remember is: This is a government census, and if you are a loyal woman, IT SHOULD INCLUDE YOU. Disloyal or unpatriotic women are not asked to register.

CAROLINE BARTLETT CRANE,
State Chairman.

THOUSANDS APPLY FOR CLERICAL JOBS IN WASHINGTON

Washington, D. C., March —, 1918 That American men and women are eager to accept every opportunity to help in the nation's greatest undertaking is evidenced by the responses received to the announcement of the United States Civil Service Commission of the need for general clerks. The Commission sent out a call for clerks to be employed in the departments in Washington, and January 5, February 9 and March 8 were set as examination dates. About 35,000 persons applied for admission to these examinations. A large percentage of the applications came from persons whose sole purpose is seeking Government employment was to help keep the war machine moving. This prompt and heavy response has made it unnecessary to hold further for stenographers and typewriters and for clerks trained in certain special or technical lines are still being held.

The most pressing need of the Government service in Washington right now is for a large number of well qualified stenographers. The Civil Service Commission urges persons who are equipped to pass the stenography part of the examination to apply at once. Examinations are held at least once a week in 450 of the principal cities. Definite information and application blanks may be obtained from representatives of the Civil Service Commission at post offices.

FARMERS DO THEIR BIT AT GABE MILLS AUCTION

Gabe Mills held a very successful auction at his farm near Macon Friday selling about 250 sheep, Col. Chas. Thompson of Willis doing the selling.

To show that Mr. and Mrs. Mills are loyal Americans and want to help the Sammies in their drive against the Hun, we are pleased to announce that a collection was taken for Red Cross work which netted some $23.00 or $24.00 and before the auction was over the amount was increased to a total of $76.00.

It all happened this way. Mrs. Mills learning that several collections had been taken up at auctions for Red Cross mentioned the fact to Gabe, that she would like to have a collection for the Red Cross taken at their auction. Gabe mentioned the idea to Col. Thompson, who at the critical moment called the crowd to the barn and closed the door and set the ball to rolling by giving a neat little talk and throwing a dollar in the hat invited all those present to do the same. When Gabe put up the 1st ram for sale he announced that the money received for it would be added to the fund. The ram brought a fair price. When it was sold Auctioneer Thompson reached into his pocket and pulling out a $5.00 bill announced that he would give it towards buying the ram back. The amount was soon covered by several and the animal was resold, thus bringing the total Red Cross fund up to $76, demonstrating the fact that the farmers were willing and ready to do their bit. Bully for Mr. and Mrs. Mills nad Col. Thompson. We wish we had more of them.

American women have worked for the allied soldiers, gladly doing their bit to help the French and English wounded. But the long expected spring drive is imminent. After that our American boys now engaged will pour into the hospitals by the thousands, many of them sorely wounded. The need of more workers is pressing. If you can give a day or an hour each week in the surgical dressings department your help will be greatly appreciated. 2300 dressings were sent to Adrian last Saturday. 5000 dressings of the quota have been sent to date. This week we aim to send 3000 dressings and Dr. Bredow urges a large attendance each afternoon and evening.

The Baptist Young People will meet at headquarters Thursday evening for work in surgical dressings.

If some one will kindly volunteer their services to assist Mrs. Frank Snedicor in cutting pajama suits, please 'phone Mrs. Snedicor, No. 361.

Mrs. J. R. Nyland has plenty of yarn at present for knitting sweaters and wristlets.

Mrs. W. B. Hartzog and committee sent three dozen pairs of socks to headquarters last week.

The Wednesday evening surgical class will meet as usual this week. A good attendance is desired.

The pajama committee finished and sent over to Adrian Thursday 22 suits. Mrs. John Schreder has completed her 40th suit. She has been one of the most faithful members of the committee, beginning work last June and has averaged a suit a week ever since.

FERTILIZER

What analysis do you need, how much per acre and what kind shall you buy?

You need NITROGEN to grow the plants, as straw, leaves, vines, etc., and to give color to the foliage.

You need PHOSPHORIC ACID to produce the grain and hasten maturity. It is the most needed of the three elements, and there is the least of it in manure.

You need POTASH to aid in making the sugar and starch which are in the grain; it also stiffens the straw, corncob, etc.

SANDY soils are usually deficient in all three elements.

BLACK soils require more available Phosphoric Acid and Potash.

Nitrogen is nearly always deficient in all soils.

Phosphoric Acid and Postash may be actually present in the soil, but not be available.

The soil will not produce its maximum yield unless it contains sufficient of all these three elements.

Wheat, corn and oats use 200 to 400 lbs. per acre.
Hay and meadows use 500 to 700 lbs. per acre.
Potatoes use 500 to 700 lbs. per acre
Fruit Trees use ½ to 5 lbs. per acre.

The average yield of corn is 81 bushels per acre—about half what it should be. It costs as much to fit a field whether it grows 80 or 100 bushels per acre. Labor is scarce and high; do not figure on planting more acres but on how to get the most from what you do plant.

Until April 1st we are going to make special prices on the following kinds of fertilizer—all new goods. These prices are for spot cash before April 1st.

These fertilizers are made by ARMOUR and DARLING, the two largest manufacturers of fertilizer in the world.

They consist of Dried Ground Blood, Tankage, and Bone, supplemented with Nitrate of Soda, which furnish the nitrogen in such a way that it is there in available form throughout the life of the plant.

Nitrogen	Phosphoric Acid	Potash	Price
	16		$26.00
	10	1	30 00
1	8	1	35.00
1	12		32.00

We have the fertilizer on hand NOW, not on paper; in addition we have a well assorted stock of Bone Meal in three different grades. It is a good plan to buy your fertilizer for wheat now and get it home. Later it will be very difficult to get and much higher in price.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thro the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.

Young Marburg Again in the Flying Service

Lieut. Theodore Marburg, who is in charge of Royal Flying corps, New York city, is the son of Theodore Marburg, former minister to Belgium. Lieutenant Marburg was at Oxford when the war broke out and secured a commission in the Royal Flying corps. He lost one leg a year later while flying, and since then has qualified a second time as pilot. His wife is Baroness Gisele de Viverio.

Horse's Jumping Powers.

If the reader will carefully measure out 39 feet an idea of a horse's capacity in this direction will be gathered. Such a distance a steeplechase horse called Old Chandler is reported to have covered at Warwick many years ago; and there is more than one apparently authentic record of a horse clearing over seven feet in height. The scene of such an exploit was at the Phoenix park, Dublin, and the horse was called Turnip. The animal belonged to Sir E. Crofton, and the duke of Richmond, then lord lieutenant of Ireland, wagered £500 that this height could not be cleared. A wall of the requisite dimensions was built, and when finished Turnip was ridden at it. He did what was asked of him in perfect style, but it happened that his grace, not knowing that the feat was ready for performance, was not looking when the jump was made, and Turnip was therefore ridden over it again, not only successfully, but easily.—London Tit-Bits.

Catching Monkeys.

The well-known habit of monkeys to imitate the actions of man is cleverly utilized by wild-animal catchers in taking the agile, climbing creatures captive, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. The hunters' method is to walk about for some time within sight of the wild monkeys, wearing short boots. Then the boots are taken off and gum is placed in their bottoms, after which the men withdraw from the scene. Before long the curiosity of the imitative watchers in the trees gets the better of their caution and they descend and start to try on the boots, whereupon they discover that the footwear cannot be removed and, being unable to climb, are easily captured.

Strong Negatives.

There is one great advantage about keeping both glass and film negatives in envelopes made of transparent paper—that the negative can be looked at and identified without taking it out of its envelope. More negatives are damaged by being turned over to find some particular one than by the lapse of time, and the transparent envelope protects them from injury from this source. A system of filing and cataloging, by which any negative required can be found with a minimum of disturbance of the others, also tends to prevent damage.

PRINCESS ON PRINCE STREET

Queenly Young Woman Honors a Mail Carrier by Handing Him a Dainty Envelope to Be Posted.

They came along to Broadway up one of the cloak-and-suit streets of mid New York, Collier's Weekly says. She was an elaborate young woman in rose-colored velvet and fair as Miriam with all her bangles on to the dazzled male alongside, who was made up for the world's champion neckwear seller in a Potash and Perlmutter play.

Betwixt dainty gloved thumb and fore-finger she held an envelope (it must have been scented), exactly as your maiden aunt used to hold her ice cream spoon in the dear dead days of 1891. A mere human being was bagging the contents of the mail box at the corner, and she saw him. "Oh, he can mail my letter! Heah you are, letter carrier!" All this in the clearly ringing, sweetly supercilious tones of an Elsie Ferguson heroine who has not yet fallen in love.

Mr. Burleson's coworker took the honor respectfully enough, and the rose-colored velvet floated blandly on. A bystander, however, observed the map of Donegal which served that particular letter carrier for a countenance to be distorted momentarily by a tremendous wink. But, really now, why shouldn't one expect to meet a princess on Prince street—if only in the cloak-and-suit trade? Of course we all believe in the nobility of commerce.

DOG LEARNED MORSE SIGNALS

Canine Recognized Office Call and Would Awaken Master When Latter Was Sleeping.

Tony was a small scraggly-haired Russian terrier that I had while working as night operator at a New Hampshire railroad station, writes F. H. S., in the Boston Globe. In those days I worked 12 hours and often longer when we were short of men, and Tony proved very useful to me, for I taught him to read Morse signals and he would wake me up when my office was called if I happened to doze off after working a long stretch without rest.

My office call was "Ux." Whenever that call was ticked off on the wire I would say "speak Tony!" and the little dog would bark. In about a month's time I had trained Tony to bark loudly every time Ux was called on the wire.

One hot night as we sat in the little office with the door open Tony growled and a big husky hobo, the tallest man I ever saw outside of a circus, lunged in the door and made a grab at me. I dodged and sprang for the desk, where my pistol was. Tony jumped for the man and fastened on to his legs and caused the man to trip and fall. By this time I reached the desk, picked up my gun and covered him.

The bo backed out of the door and I slammed the office door, locked it and turned out the light.

Poor Tony crossed the track in front of a train one day and was instantly killed.

MEN WITH NERVES OF IRON

Remarkable Feats That Are Said to Have Been Performed by English Steeplejacks.

The business of being a steeplejack has very strangely "run through" several families of England. At Nottingham there was a family named Wootton, members of which had for centuries the reputation of being daring steeple climbers, not for adventure but in the way of business.

One of these Woottons, in the time of George III, was famous for repairing steeples and spires without using scaffolding; he did his work by the help of ladders, hooks and ropes. When he repaired St. Peter's spire, Nottingham, in 1789, having finished his work, he beat a drum at its top, thousands of people looking on.

Another of the Woottons undertook the perilous task of ascending the spire of St. Mary's, Manchester, which was very lofty. By a tremendous wind the ball and cross had been bent down, and looked dangerous. This steeple climber raised ladders one after the other, assisted by blocks and ropes, and secured each in succession to the stonework with clamps. When he got near the top of the spire the work became more difficult, and the spectators anxiously watched him as he fixed the last ladder. Having accomplished this feat, Wootton stepped from the ladder on to the crown or pinnacle of the steeple, and stood quite upright, with his hands free. Then he raised a cheer, which was responded to by the crowds below. More extraordinary still, one of these steeple-climbers is said to have performed the feat of standing upon his head on a steeple top.

GOOD OLD WINTER

Cold Wave Makes Humanity Warm Up to Every One.

Zero Temperature Brings Out Diversified Discussion Around the Stoves in Favorite Meeting Places.

After all ther's somethin' fine an' humanizin' about a good stingin' cold snap. It seems t' bring us closer t'gether an' cause a friendlier feelin' all around. Most any o' us are willin' t' let bygones be bygones before we git a square from home on a zero mornin', fer ther's somethin' about a cold wave that makes us want t' warm up t' th' first feller we meet. We jest seem t' feel that we must release ever'thing on our minds that's pleasant an' frothy, says Abe Martin, in the Indianapolis News.

Around th' grocery stove, in th' close, ill-smellin' depot, in th' stuffy crowded car, or wherever folks are wont t' huddle, like marooned sailors, in zero weather, we find th' best o' fellowship. We hear o' ole winters in th' seventies; we hear a lively exchange o' views on th' probable extent o' th' cold weather; we learn th' inner workin's o' th' homes o' others; we're brought face t' face with resurrected overcoats an' muffs o' doubtful vintage.

We gather highly illuminative information, regardin' th' respective claims o' th' various heatin' systems; we learn valuable facts about th' heat units o' this coal or that; we find out who gits up first in th' homes of others; we hear pitiful stories o' destitution 'n how th' pumps an' water pipes have stood th' sudden drop in temperature; we learn th' thickness of our neighbors' underwear, an' almost allus there's somebuddy in th' crowd who has jest received a letter from a friend in Florida an' we gain much interestin' information about th' climatic conditions in th' Southland.

"We burned twenty-one tons o' coal so fer an' we have t' live in th' dinin' room," says th' blustery little man, with an icicle danglin' from his goatee.

"We heat our house fine an' we're on our seventh ton o' coal," says th' tall, faithful clerk with a purple nose.

"I let my wife run th' furnace," says the frail bookkeeper with watery eyes.

"Th' only trouble we have is shootin' hot air in a southwest bedroom," says a tall man o' commandin' appearance an' buckled overshoes.

"I stayed at Aunt Ella's house last night. She has' th' steamed heat an' her house is jest like toast," says th' narrow-gaged stenographer, with bare powdered throat, transparent shins an' ponderous goat muff.

"If you're goin' t' heat a house, you've got t' burn coal. I don't care whether it's steam or hot water or hot air, you've got t' loosen up an' pile on th' coal. I never knowed that till this winter. We used t' spend our winter evenin's in th' nickel the-aters," says a round, positive feller, wearin' an ole reversible ulster.

"Our friend is right. You've got t' have a fire. You can't put any o' that economical stuff over on a furnace. No economical wife ever made a good cup o' coffee. There's two things you've got t' use liberally if you want results, an' them's coal an' coffee," says a fierce lookin' man with thin red whiskers an' a prehistoric fur cap.

But zero weather clumps an' crowds are allus friendly, fer ther' seems t' be somethin' in th' cold, bitin' winds that warns us t' keep off o' politics an' confine our observations t' th' more homely topics.

Stock Food Substitutes.

In the search for substitutes for live stock food a German scientist made analytical tests of materials suggested for the purpose. He found dried rhubarb leaves better than hay as a fodder for hogs; kelp may be fed to cattle and pigs, but it has little nutritive value; ground straw, which is selling at from 28 to 50 marks the quintal, is not good for any animal, nor are ground pea pods. He advises against cornstalks and cobs. The seeds of beets are nutritive, those of parsley too exciting, those of raisins, if ground before the oil is extracted, are as good as hay. Oil cakes made from beech or other nuts are excellent for cattle.

Got Their "Lively Time."

A famous lion-tamer tells of a queer Christmas present he once received. It was a consignment from a friend abroad of three boa-constrictors and five alligators, "With Jim's best wishes for a lively time." The lion-tamer and his wife got the lively time desired. He says:

"I shall never forget how annoyed I was when, during the night, two of the alligators broke out of their boxes in our bedroom and began exploring. I could not find the matches, and I and my wife remained on top of the bed canopy till morning. Luckily, my wife never thought of the thing that worried me. I was afraid the alligators might call on the boa-constrictors to wish them a Merry Christmas, and so wake them up too!"

Nuts and Digestion.

The reason nuts are thought indigestible by some is because of the thin skin surrounding each kernel, notes a medical authority. This can easily be blanched off by pouring boiling water on the nut, and allowing it to stand for a few moments. Almonds should never be eaten with the red, tough skin on the nut meat. When boiling water is poured on the almond, this skin becomes as tough as leather. The best way to use nuts for children is to grind the nut meats or pound them, for which purpose the nut-butter knife in the meat grinder will be found the right tool. A good nut cracker with strong spring makes nut-cracking easy, and is preferable to buying the ready-picked meats on the market.

Folly of Ridicule.

The late Richard Mansfield is said to have nursed a grievance against Henry Irving for years. The reason was that Irving had momentarily indulged a little weakness he had for making sardonic remarks.

Ridicule of persons strikes at personal vanity. And vanity is a very common weakness. Few escape it altogether.

And this kind of ridicule, in fact all kinds, on examination, will be found to be associated with vanity. In ridiculing there is invariably the desire to show how clever one is oneself.

MR. SIMPKINS PAYS HIS INCOME TAX

By ROBERT McBLAIR.

Mr. Simpkins gazed at the portrait on the wall till his eyes filled with tears. It was a portrait of his father, Colonel Simpkins, who had four times been promoted for valor during the Civil War and had died bravely on the field of action. Mr. Simpkins' throat ached now for two reasons: First, he reverenced and adored the memory of his father; secondly, his age and his eyes and his game leg wouldn't let him go to war himself. And as he observed the martial bearing and uncompromising gaze of Colonel Simpkins he saw, in imagination, the khaki-clad lads of the new generation marching forth and crossing three thousand miles of sea to fight, maybe die, for liberty.

Mr. Simpkins peered around to make sure that neither Bess nor John (who were at the teasing ages of sixteen and seventeen) were where they could see him, then he straightened and threw his right arm up for a salute. But his gouty shoulder twinged, and he groaned. He couldn't even salute.

"Damn!" said Mr. Simpkins, and with his other hand fiercely twirled his white mustachios.

He turned and limped into the library and sat down creakily before the mahogany desk on which were lying the blanks for his income tax statement, blanks which he had rather grumpily got from the Internal Revenue officer only that day after luncheon on his way home from the club.

Mr. Simpkins' income for 1917 had amounted to just about $15,000, and he had been rather snappy on the subject of tax es ever since he had discovered that the more income a man has the greater the percentage of it he pays in taxes. He could think of several men who, like himself, were married and had two children, and yet, although their incomes were nearly half of his, they would pay only a small fraction of the amount he paid. He gloomily drew the blank nearer and began filling in the information that it asked for.

As Mr. Simpkins' income was $15,000 he had to figure out the amounts payable on each of the successive smaller classes of incomes in order to arrive at the total due from himself. He passed over the first class who must pay taxes, that is, single men making over 1,000. His calculation for married men then showed up as follows:

First, they pay 2 per cent. (under the 1916 law) on all income over $4,000, deducting $200 for each of their children under eighteen years. In Mr. Simpkins' case this was $212, which he put down in the "payable" column.

He saw next that, under the 1917 law, married men pay an additional 2 per cent. on all over $2,000—with the same allowance for children. This added $252 to his "payable" column.

He then observed that for every $2,500 jump in his income over $5,000 he had to pay a Surtax, the percentage growing larger with each jump. This was $250 more added to his burden. And on top of all this came an "Excess Profits" tax of 8 per cent. on all "occupation" income over $6,000, making $720 more.

The total, then, he must pay was fourteen hundred and thirty-four dollars.

"Whew!" exclaimed Mr. Simpkins angrily. "There's young Henry Wilkins, who married Jake Johnson's girl, he makes $2,000 and he doesn't pay a cent of taxes. I guess this is his war as well as mine!"

Thinking of young Henry Wilkins, he remembered that Mrs. Wilkins went every afternoon to make bandages for the Red Cross and that Henry, who was a lawyer, was aiding the Local Draft Board with its questionnaires.

"Well," he admitted to himself, "that makes a difference."

He thought next of Judge Willoughby, whose income was about $3,000.

"He only pays $20," commented Mr. Simpkins, not quite so angrily this time; and then a thought struck him and he sat up rigidly in his chair.

Judge Willoughby's son had been drowned on the Tuscania when it was submarined with the loss of two hundred soldiers.

"Judge Willoughby gave his son to America," muttered Mr. Simpkins.

He leaned forward suddenly and put his face in his hands.

For a long time Mr. Simpkins sat very still in that position. There was no sound in the library except the ticking of the tall clock and an occasional trill of laughter from the children skylarking upstairs. The square of light on the carpet gradually withdrew itself through the window, and first twilight and then darkness settled in about the quiet, white haired, sometimes irascible old man.

Mr. Simpkins was thinking things which he would never afterward speak of, he was thinking things that were too sacred ever to be put into words. But some inkling of his thoughts may be found in his rejoinder to Mrs. Simpkins when that placid lady came in and turned on the lights, and asked him whether he was ready for dinner.

"Judge Willoughby's only son was worth as much as fourteen hundred and thirty-four dollars, wasn't he?" Mr. Simpkins demanded of her.

As his wife, who was not unused to his superficial irritations, watched him in mild astonishment, Mr. Simpkins limped out to the hall and took his old felt hat and silver-headed cane from the hat rack. Letting himself out into the foggy evening, he tapped his way down to the corner, and mailed his income tax statement and check with his own hands.

"Now, God be thanked," said Mr. Simpkins as the lid clanked shut over his missive, "I can do this much for my country, anyhow."

Rainbow Never Shows Complete Circle

A rainbow never shows a complete circle, but at the most only a semicircle, unless the observer happens to be at a great elevation, as in a balloon, when more than half a circle can be seen, but never an entire one. Halos and rainbows also differ in the size of the circles or semicircles that they exhibit. The radius of a halo is about 22 degrees and that of a rainbow about 42 degrees. Other arches and circles are sometimes seen outside of both the rainbow and the halo, but the radii given are for the principal, or primary, phenomenon.

The Unspeakable Turk.

This expression came into general use during the Bulgarian agitation of 1876, on its appearance in a published letter of Carlyle's to George Howard, M. P., dated November 24: "The unspeakable Turk should be immediately struck out of the question, and the country left to honest European guidance." It was not the first time, however, that Carlyle had made use of it. In 1831, nearly fifty years before, in "The Westminster Review," No. 29, in an article on the "Nibelungen Lied," he makes mention of "that unspeakable Turk, King Machabol."

RED CROSS NEWS

The dressings beckon mutely,
And beckoning seem to say,
"O, maid and matron, tarry,
And save a life today.
But, hastening on to pleasure,
They linger not, nor pause-
For them there is no message
In the white, unfolded gauze.
O, heart and hands, unheeding,
With thoughts of naught but play,
A soldiers life lies in your care-
He lives or dies today.
A soldier moans in anguish
Through lips compressed with pain,
The dressing, cool and soothing,
The nurse has sought in vain.
And soon his life is ebbing,
And someone's lad must die,
Because the call of mercy
So lightly you deny.
O, heart and soul, unheeding,
That you might laugh and dance
Today a soldiers life is given
Upon the field of France.

Rooms at headquarters will be open afternoons as follows until further notice, with directors in each department in attendance.

Tuesday, p. m., surgical shirts, Surgical dressings.
Wednesday, p. m., Pajamas, Surgical dressings.
Thursday, p. m., Pajamas, Surgical dressings.
Friday, p. m., childrens garments, Surgical dressings.

Mrs. Frank Nyland would be pleased to meet the ladies who are working on surgical shirts, also new workers at the headquarters on Tuesday of each week. Everyone welcome.

Mrs. John Wells has volunteered her services to assist the pajama committee in cutting of garments.

There were 19 present on Wednesday in the surgical dressings room. 700 dressings were made and 200 yards of gauze cut.

Mrs. J. B. Kennedy and Mrs. E. Heilman very kindly donated silver knives for use in the surgical dressing rooms.

Rooms will be open and classes will meet according to Eastern standard schedule after April 1st.

Circle No 1 of the M. E. church will meet at headquarters on Thursday evening, April 4th, for work on surgical dressings.

No previous instruction is necessary for persons who desire to work in the surgical dressing department. Bring a cover all apron, cap or other head covering and a pair of shears. The work of our capable instructors has been unceasing since the local Red Cross rooms were opened and the need of more volunteers is urged for every day. If for only one afternoon, or even one hour each week your work will be appreciated by the captains and you will know you have helped in this great cause.

Through the efficient committee in charge, considerable work is being accomplished on the childrens clothing. A number of pretty blankets have been completed and several more cut. Ladies will be welcome on Friday afternoons of each week for work in this department.

New members and Renewals
J. O. Eaton, Arthur Eaton, Edyth Gray.

Hereafter headquarters will be open Tuesday afternoon for work on surgical shirts. Mrs. Nyland is anxious to add some new workers to the committee and turn out more work. There is great need of all kinds of hospital supplies. We should have workers enough to keep each machine busy every afternoon that the rooms are open. Those who do not feel that they can work away from home can take the work home to do. Don't think if you do not go some one else will. That means that there will be no workers there. The home workers turned in twenty shirts last week.

RAISE WAR GARDENS!

Thursday morning the High School was addressed by a representative of the United States Government, A. G. Kettunon directing the Michigan boys and girls club work under the supervision of the M. A. C. at Lansing.

His most interesting talk began with a discussion of the magnitude of the task which our country has before us. He stated that up to April 1st of last year a total of 26 billion dollars has been spent by the government since 1776, which includes the paying for the Mexican, Civil and Spanish American wars as well as the Panama canal. Since that date our Congress has appropriated 19 billion dollars in less than a year! A sum of money which if put into $50 gold pieces and placed in a line side by side would encompass the globe.

In speaking of the duration of the war Mr. Kettunen said that in Washington preparations are being made for at least three years of war and many in the military circles believe the war will not end within ten years according to present conditions.

Germany has made some wonderful gains in the last three weeks. She now controls three fifths of Russia, which has the richest wheat fields in the world, as well as miles of pasture lands. Practically all Europe has in the past been supplied with these two staples from Russia, so our plan of "starving Germany has received a nice knock on the head."

Germany's recent negotiations with Finland have secured for her practically all the coast of Russia and she has taken the utmost care to keep Sweden and Norway as neutrals in order to get food from these countries.

He stated that no more baby garments were being sent to Poland for the simple reason that there were no more babies left. A Red Cross worker who traveled through 240 miles of the country district in Poland saw the wayside covered with their bones. The bones of the parents of these children were not allowed to lie beside them but were shipped in bundles to Germany to be crushed into fertilizers! And yet some people say,, "Peace, Peace! Let us have peace!"

In like manner the Germans have forced the Armenians out onto the deserts to die, and have practiced their barbarous treatment in Lithunia and Belgium.

France has borne the greatest burden of the war so far. The women of France till the farms now and even the little children have learned not to cry because that won't help save France. On the other hand France in 1917 raised 30 per cent. more food than ever before, but even that increase does not supply her needs.

Germany is better supplied with food now than at any time since the beginning of the war. But how do the Allies stand? Two weeks ago a cablegram from Paris said that they only had a thirty day food supply while on the same day a second call from England called for 75,000,000 bushels in excess of their usual supply. Our own boys in France have only a thirty days supply in stead of three months as the War Department had planned.

How We at Home Can Help!

To increase the production of food throughout the country, a great movement is on foot for boys and girls to raise "War Gardens," and to raise live stock.

The State of Michigan is organizing hundreds of clubs to raise more corn, potatoes, beans, etc., and in live stock, the raising of pigs, calves poultry, rabbits (Tecumseh boys take notice) and sheep is especially encouraged. Last year 50,000 boys and girls joined the different clubs, this year we should have 250,000.

Especially to encourage the raising of more poultry the Michigan Agricultural college will furnish chicken raisers with a setting of eggs of the best stock for $1.50. These settings which by the way are not sold to dealers sell all the way from $10 to $15 in other places. The idea is to start more good poultry throughout the State for food and for eggs.

In the pig clubs the person is supposed to raise at least one pig. In the sheep clubs, one must raise three orphan sheep or one ewe. In many places the boys have borrowed money from the banks to buy thorough-bred cattle, certain of being successful.

It is up to the boys and girls of Tecumseh to show their real patriotism now that they all have a chance by raising gardens.

As soon as they realize that "Food will win the War" we can wager that not many vacant lots in Tecumseh will lie unused.

Those who raise gardens must not forget that while helping their country in the best possible way, they can also make a neat sum of money, (to buy war stamps and Liberty bonds with.)

Plans are now under way of organizing the boys and girls of Tecumseh in clubs and once the movement is well under way, we can anticipate some keen rivalry to see who wins the prizes offered for the best results.

U. S. GUNS SHELL GERMAN LINES

Pershing Artillery Effectively Bombards Trenches, Town and Enemy Billets.

NEW MUSTARD GAS BOMBS

American Patrol Brings in Valuable Papers From Bodies of Huns Killed by American Shell Fire—Heroic Surgeon Decorated.

With the American Army in France, March 26.—American artillery on the Toul sector continued to shell effectively the enemy's first-line and communicating trenches, the town of St. Baussant and billets and dumps north of Boqueteau. Many of the American shells have fallen in the German trenches and the first two lines in at least one place virtually have been abandoned.

One American patrol freely inspected this point in the enemy's line without molestation last night and this morning and remained there several hours. There have been no contests between the infantry during the last 24 hours.

New Gas Attack on U. S. Position.

For the third consecutive day German artillery bombarded heavily with gas shells a certain town within the American lines. Sunday's bombardment was made in two periods, each a half hour in length. Many gas shells and a few high-explosive shells fell on the American positions.

An airplane of the enemy early this morning cut off its engines at a great height over the American lines north west of Toul and planed down. When close to the ground it dropped a quantity of bombs. Some were of a new variety which explode in midair with a bluish red flash and give off a cloud of mustard gas. Being heavier than the air, the mustard gas quickly descended toward some of our battery positions and a road.

After the machine disappeared the German gas shell bombardment began Another enemy airplane hovered over the town while the bombardment with gas shells was in progress.

The weather was especially suitable for aerial work and the Germans took advantage of it. On one part of the sector 14 of the enemy's airplanes crossed between noon and six o'clock in the evening, while four friendly ones were over the American lines in the same period. One group of seven enemy machines, apparently on a bombing expedition, was discovered at midnight and driven off by the rapid fire of American antiaircraft guns.

An American patrol has brought in quantities of valuable papers from the bodies of five Germans killed in a shell hole by American artillery fire a few days ago. Among the papers taken from an elderly soldier was a letter from his daughter saying:

"We are being told now that peace will surely come in July or August Everybody was highly elated when the news of the Russian peace was received."

Heroic Surgeon Is Decorated.

The distinguished service cross, one of the four new American decorations for bravery, has been awarded to Lieut. H. R. Davies, the United States army medical reserve, who is serving with the British army. Lieutenant Davies on January 8 entered a dugout under continuous shell fire and remained there attending the occupants after it had been blown in. He performed an amputation operation and saved the life of a British soldier. He received the first medal conferred on any American serving with the British forces.

The distinguished service cross has been awarded nine American soldiers, but three thus decorated are dead, and the cross, with an appropriate letter, will be forwarded to the next of kin.

The decorations have been conferred on Lieut. A. W. Terrel, Medical Sergeant Thomas Peterson (dead), Privates Herman Genlpy and Lenni Fillengen (both dead), and Sergts. Varner Hall and James H. West and Corporals Edgard H. Freeman, Amos Teske and Homer Whited, all of the same infantry regiment.

WANT 500,000 FOR FARMS

Army of Half a Million Workers Are Being Recruited to Give Part Time to Agriculture.

Washington, March 26.—An army of 500,000 war emergency farm workers, comprising men willing to devote two or three days a week or their vacations to agricultural labor will be recruited by the United States employment service, it was announced. Professional men, college students, clerks and other classes will be enrolled. An army of 250,000 boys also is being mobilized. State directors enrolling mechanics for shipbuilding will extend their organization for the new enrollment.

Baker Sees Lloyd George.

London, March 26.—Newton D. Baker, the American secretary of war, held conferences with Premier Lloyd George and Lord Derby, the British secretary of war.

President Wilson issued a proclamation taking over 600,000 tons of Dutch shipping within the territorial waters of the United States. At the same time similar action was taken by the allied governments on 400,000 tons of Dutch ships in their respective ports. The ships will be immediately put into service in the most vital war work of the moment—getting men to France and food to the allies.

• • •

A German airplane flew over the American sector northwest of Toul, France, and dropped rubber balls eighteen inches in diameter, filled with liquified mustard gas. This is the first time, so far as is known, that an airplane has been thus employed. The effect of the gas was not serious.

BRITISH DRIVE GERMANS BACK OVER SOMME

Powerful Counter-Attacks Stop the Hun Horde South of Peronne.

ALSO STOPPED AT BAPAUME

English War Correspondent Estimates Teuton Losses at 150,000—People Advised to Take Seriously the Long-Range Gun Shelling Paris.

Berlin, March 26.—The capture of Bapaume was announced by the German war office. Divisions freshly brought up failed to bring a decision favorable to the enemy, it was declared. In the evening they were defeated and retired westward.

London, March 26.—Powerful counter-attacks, delivered by British forces south of Peronne, have thrown back the Germans from the western to the eastern bank of the Somme river, the British war office announced. At the same time the Germans renewed their storm assaults against the British defensive positions in the Bapaume sector, but were driven back with severe losses, the official statement added.

The Bapaume fighting was resumed after a lull of few hours during the night. It began Sunday afternoon with the Germans attacking north of the city, but later the assaults were concentrated against the British positions to the south of the city. At one point, on Sunday evening, the Germans got a foothold in a British trench line, but were quickly thrown out. The statement follows:

Official Statement.

"The battle continues with great violence on the whole front. Powerful attacks delivered by the enemy yesterday afternoon and evening north of Bapaume were heavily repulsed. Only at one point did the German infantry reach our trenches, whence they were immediately thrown out. Elsewhere the enemy's attacks were stopped by rifle, machine gun and artillery fire in front of our positions and his troops were driven back with great loss.

"During the night and this morning fresh hostile attacks have again developed in this neighborhood and also to the south of Bapaume.

"South of Peronne bodies of German troops who had crossed the river between Licourt and Brie were driven back to the east bank by our counter-attacks."

The Germans swarmed over No Man's Land in such great numbers in their first attacks that it was impossible for the British gunners to miss them, telegrams the correspondent at British headquarters in France of the Daily Express.

Two batteries at Epehy fired steadily with open sights at 400 yards for four hours. Telling of the thrilling exploit of Leicestershire troops, the correspondent says:

"Persieres was held for a time by two companies of Leicestershires, assisted by two tanks. The enemy kept pressing them back, however, and one company was completely cut off. Instead of surrendering, they held to the village until only a few men were left. Then the surviving officer led them in a charge through two lines of Germans and they fought their way back to our main body."

The British in their retreat defended every hill, ridge and fortification with the greatest stubbornness, messages from German war correspondents on the western front say, according to a Central News dispatch from Amsterdam. The British artillery it is added, splendidly sacrificed itself in covering the retreat, the batteries only breaking up when the German storming troops arrived within a few hundred yards of the positions. The British gunners then fired their last ammunition and retired.

Hun Losses 150,000, Estimate.

Commenting on the results of the German offensive, the Daily Chronicle says:

"Assuming that the German losses are at least 150,000, the enemy has sustained a reverse, for he has not obtained a strategical success directly conducing to a decision, while he has lost 8 to 10 per cent of his effectives without similarly lowering the efficiency of the allies.

"This matter is of the greatest importance, for Germany at present is at the critical moment when the manpower pendulum is swinging in favor of the allies. No weakness at the Anglo-French junction has yet been disclosed, and the task before the enemy in the next days of the battle is more formidable than that already accomplished."

Believe Amiens Objective.

"The ultimate object of this rapid and intent enemy advance is clearly the great strategic point of Amiens," says the Times, "and, though it is still remote, the situation is sufficiently serious to warrant a contemplation of this catastrophe. The fall of Amiens might have three-fold consequences. It would bring the enemy to a point from which to threaten our northern line, it would assist them to strike at the channel ports and it would endanger seriously the safety of Paris."

DUST! DUST! DUST!

Where is our sprinkling wagon? Last week and so far this week the dust and dirt have been something awful in our downtown district. At no time in summer has it been worse and still our sprinkling outfit seems to be still frozen up or might be so far as its usefulness is concerned.

We are informed that the tap which furnishes the supply for the sprinkling wagon is still frozen, but is this the only place where a supply of water may be secured? How about one of our numerous hydrants until this tap can be put in working order again? Most any place so long as the water is secured and used on these streets.

It may be necessary, once again, for the council to overhaul this sprinkling question. It seems to bob up each spring like the busy housewives' annual housecleaning, and is dscussed backward and forward until it is finally disposed of for the season. In some way the question should be disposed of. We know that if we want to start something, all we have to do is to mention "sprinkling" and the fireworks commences at once. There seems to be a hundred different ways it should be done, but there is really only one way and that way should be found out and adopted for this year and for several seasons to come. Certainly sprinkling is as much of a necessity as cleaning the streets. It has to be done and someone should be reponsible for its being done.

TWO AGENTS NAMED TO TAKE TRACTOR ORDERS

L. E. Temple & Co. of Tecumseh and J. A. Dillon of Hudson to Represent War Committee.

The county war preparedness committee will designate a number of agents through the county to receive orders for the tractors that are being supplied to farmers through the state war board. These agents will be suppied with the official order blanks and farmers desiring tractors can leave orders with them, the same as they would with the county agent or with the committee itself.

Two of these agencies already have been announced by Chairman Darnton—J. A. Dillon, Jr., for Hudson and vicinity and L. E. Temple & Co. for Tecumseh and vicinity. Farmers making application should not fail to state their acreage and also whether they agree to use the machine for work on other lands in accordance with the intent of the state war board. Two copies of the official form are provided, one of which goes to the applicant and the other is forwarded to the county committee. It is immediately submitted to County Agent Coffeen for his approval and is forwarded without delay to Lansing.—Adrian Telegram.

HELP! HELP!

We need more Red Cross workers, particularly upon Hospital Garments and Surgical Dressings. We need them so badly that we appeal urgently to every woman in Tecumseh for every hour of her time which she can possibly spare. We find that our knitting activity is all that we could ask for and we do not want to decrease it, but we do need more help upon other work.

It is now high time for every one to fully appreciate the gravity of the "situation which confronts us. We are in the midst of a most terrible war with thousands of our boys in the thick of the fight. Many will never return to us, many will return maimed and crippled for life; still many more now lie on beds of pain suffering untold agony. This is the price they are paying for our safety and comfort. Can we refuse them the little time it costs us to assist in their relief?

The excuse that we are busy with our regular duties can no longer be considered good. The list of things which we used to consider necessary daily tasks must be revised. We must do less of something else and more of Red Cross work. It is an imperative obligation to our nation and to our boys who are fighting to maintain it.

To those who are already giving us their support and assistance we extend our sincere thanks but we ask them, in addition to that which they are now doing, to use their influence in the direction of some other person who is not working for us. Let each worker be also a solicitor for more workers among those with whom she is best acquainted.

Needles and thread, sewing machines and yarn, bandages and other surgical dressings are the means by which women do their part in war. Are you doing your share? Can you even think of the thousands of wounded soldiers actually suffering for assistance, for YOUR assistance, this very day, and not experience a feeling of shame if you are not helping in this great worthy Red Cross cause.

Let us all get busy with at least some Red Cross work. There is something for everyone to do. Telephone Miss Phelps at Red Cross Headquarters any afternoon except Monday, Saturday and Sunday, or if you prefer, telephone Mrs. Frank Nyland, who is in charge of the work upon Surgical Shirts, or Mrs. R. N. Lowe, or Mrs. F. E. Snedicor, or Mrs. George Ziehr in regard to work upon pajamas, or telephone Dr. Pauline R. Bredow about work upon Surgical Dressings, but by all means, if you love your country and are not willing to let someone else do this fighting and this relief work for you, come and help.

FOR GOD'S SAKE, COME.
Tecumseh Branch A. R. C.
Charles Burridge,
Chirman.

Mrs. Brown and little daughter of Dundee were callers at T. W. Mingay's Wednesday.

BE SENSIBLE IN MONEY MATTERS

Many people look upon their automobile as a luxury and pay any price for auto accessories without flinching.

This is wasteful and unnecessary. We handle everything in the line of auto accessories which experience has proven good and we charge low prices.

If you are sensible in money matters you will think twice before going elsewhere for auto supplies.

"THE IRISH 15TH"

Draws a Crowded House at Bradley's Tuesday Evening

Al H. Wilson, the popular comedian and singer, appeared again before a Tecumseh audience Tuesday evening in a new military song play entitled "The Irish 15th." The attraction drew a crowded house, nearly every seat being taken.

Music was furnished by a Tecumseh orchestra led by Carlton Burton, the musical director for "The Irish 15th" company. Mr. Burton is an old Clinton boy and during his earlier life was well known here in Tecumseh where he has taken part in many a musical event. Many in the audience were pleased to renew their acquaintance with Mr. Burton and have a little chat with him after the play.

"The Irish 15th" was given in four acts. The first two represented a typical home on the Emerald Isle, the third transfers the company to a rooming house in Paris while in the last act they are back in old Ireland. The time of the play is the starting of the great world war and carries it through the first and into the second year.

A very interesting story runs through the play which gives opportunity for strong emotional acting. The leading character Richard Dale, a lieutenant in the 15th Irish Infantry, is taken by Al. H. Wilson and in impersonating the Irish character he showed rare ability. His Irish brogue and songs won his way at once into the hearts of his audience.

He was supported by a strong cast of ten people principally among whom were Miss Laura Lommers as Mona Fitspatrick, the sweetheart of Dick Dale; Miss Margaret Vollmer as Eily Adair, niece of Dick Dale and wife of Lieut. Neill; Frank Harvey as Capt. Hugh McNevin; Albert Patterson as Lieut. Darcey Neill and Miss Marie Reels as Mrs. O'Shaunessy, the housekeeper, who surely was a rare bit of "Old Ireland."

"The Irish 15th" was one of the best shows that Manager Mark has given to Tecumseh and deserved the support which was given it. Quite a large delegation came from Clinton, Britton, Tipton and other outside points.

RESEARCH CIRCLE

The ladies of the Research Circle met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. S. Waring for their election of officers for the coming year. The following were elected:

President—Mrs. E. Pangburn
Vice President—Mrs. J. McIntyre
Secretary—Mrs. A. Helzerman
Treasurer—Mrs. R. V. Wilson

The last meeting of this year will be held next Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Guy Belding. Potluck supper at 6. All members come and bring your husbands as this is "Gentlemen's Evening." After supper a program wil be given.

The new roof at the school house is completed the section over the auditorium having been replaced. Men have been here from Detroit this week, putting on the water proof preparation to keep it from leaking. The steam fitting is now done so the building may be heated and dry it out. It looks now as if the job would be hustled right along.

FERTILIZER

What analysis do you need, how much per acre and what kind shall you buy?

You need NITROGEN to grow the plants, as straw, leaves, vines, etc., and to give color to the foliage.

You need PHOSPHORIC ACID to produce the grain and hasten maturity. It is the most needed of the three elements, and there is the least of it in manure.

You need POTASH to aid in making the sugar and starch which are in the grain; it also stiffens the straw, corncob, etc.

SANDY soils are usually deficient in all three elements.

BLACK soils require more available Phosphoric Acid and Potash.

Nitrogen is nearly always deficient in all soils.

Phosphoric Acid and Postash may be actually present in the soil, but not be available.

The soil will not produce its maximum yield unless it contains sufficient of all these three elements.

Wheat, corn and oats use 200 to 400 lbs. per acre.

Hay and meadows use 500 to 700 lbs. per acre.

Potatoes use 500 to 700 lbs. per acre.

Fruit Trees use ½ to 5 lbs. per acre.

The average yield of corn is 81 bushels per acre—about half what it should be. It costs as much to fit a field whether it grows 80 or 100 bushels per acre. Labor is scarce and high; do not figure on planting more acres but on how to get the most from what you do plant.

Until April 1st we are going to make special prices on the following kinds of fertilizer—all new goods. These prices are for spot cash before April 1st.

These fertilizers are made by ARMOUR and DARLING, the two largest manufacturers of fertilizer in the world.

They consist of Dried Ground Blood, Tankage, and Bone, supplemented with Nitrate of Soda, which furnish the nitrogen in such a way that it is there in available form throughout the life of the plant.

Nitrogen	Phosphoric Acid	Potash	Price
	16		$26.00
	10	1	30 00
1	8	1	35.00
1	12		32.00

We have the fertilizer on hand NOW, not on paper; in addition we have a well assorted stock of Bone Meal in three different grades. It is a good plan to buy your fertilizer for wheat now and get it home. Later it will be very difficult to get and much higher in price.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thro the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.

NOT IN BIG BATTLE

Yankees' Part in Giant Drive Is Unconfirmed.

British Headquarters Dispatch Highly Praise U. S. Engineers for Transportation Efficiency.

British Army Headquarters in France, March 26.—American engineers have again been in the throes of fierce conflict, in which they have done excellent work in transportation. The presence of the American engineers on the battle front has long been known. They were praised highly for their gallantry in the battle of Cambrai last fall.

Washington, March 26.—German statements that American troops had taken part in the fighting on the British front in France had not been confirmed, and officials, including Major General March, chief of staff, declined to comment on the report.

Although a detachment of American engineers was caught in the German counter-attacks in the Cambrai salient several months ago, officers indicated that there was nothing here to show that any American troops other than engineers or special units had been attached to the British forces.

News from the front continued to be the absorbing topic, and official Washington, including President Wilson, anxiously scanned British and German statements.

Whether the war department has received confidential advices from General Pershing was not disclosed, but officers pointed out that information on British operations must necessarily be given out at London, and whatever General Pershing may have sent through probably would be regarded as confidential.

Failure of the militarists to hold the German people by political strategy has caused the rulers to resort to a desperate battle-test to maintain their supremacy, says the war department's weekly military review, in commenting on the great German assault on the western front.

The moving character of the fighting at its present stage, continues the statement, makes it premature to express an opinion on the tactical phases for while the Germans have made headway, no definite enveloping movement has been outlined.

JAPAN GOES SLOW ON SIBERIA

Premier Count Terauchi Says Intervention in Siberia Is Not Being Studied.

London, March 26.—Count Terauchi, the premier, informed the house of peers that the Japanese government was not studying the question of intervention in Siberia, according to a Tokyo dispatch to the Daily Mail dated Wednesday. The premier said that the government did not consider Siberia menaced by the presence of large numbers of prisoners of war, whose power was negligible.

O. K.'S ALIEN PROPERTY BILL

Senate Adopts Conference Report on the Urgent Deficiency Bill—To Purchase Piers.

Washington, March 26.—The senate adopted the conference report on the urgent deficiency bill which includes provision for the government purchase of the German-owned piers at Hoboken, N. J., and gives the president the authority to direct the sale of German-owned property in the United States.

Age of Fishes.

The most striking characteristic by which fishes of different ages can be distinguished is their size. But the size affords us only the means to estimate the age of younger fishes; as to the older, it cannot serve us as an indication of their age, since their growth may vary according to the different conditions of nutrition, so that often the younger fish will excel in size the much older fish. There is, however, at least as regards the fishes of the Northern seas, a sure indication that betrays their age. It is the otolites, or ear stones. These ear stones grow as long as the fish itself continues to grow, and form annual rings in the manner of trees. The more annual rings shown by a fish's ear stones the greater its age. In this way the age of a fish can be exactly determined.

A Change for the Invalid.

If you have a friend lying ill, try taking some daintily prepared edibles next time you make a visit.

Nourishing broths and soups, wine jellies, delicately browned custards and light puddings made of eggs and milk are good. Or a small jar of marmalade or half a dozen lightly browned biscuit for the invalid's tea. Or creamed chicken and creamed oysters delivered in a charming blue bowl and all ready to be heated up by the nurse.

Grapefruit is always appreciated and mandarin oranges and white grapes in a pretty basket are an appetising combination, and there are some invalids who would be delighted with a jar of preserved ginger for occasional nibbling.

THOUSANDS OF U. S. SOLDIERS TO THE FRONT

Americans Sing While Being Taken to Scene of Greatest Battle in History.

NEWS THRILLS WASHINGTON

Miles of Motor Trucks Loaded With Yankees Are Passing Through Towns in France—Pershing's Men Will Soon Be in Action.

Paris, April 1.—"The French government has decided to accede to the desire expressed by General Parshing in the name of the United States government," says an official note dealing with the operation of American troops with the French and British.

"The American troops will fight side by side with the British and French troops, and the Star-Spangled Banner will float beside the French and English flags on the plains of Picardy."

Americans on March.

With the American Army in France, April 1.—All the American troops have been turned over to the allies for such use as they see fit to make of them. American troops may soon be fighting side by side with their British and French allies in the battle which is raging in northern France.

It is enough to say that great activity of many sorts is in progress in the entire American zone. Miles of motor trucks loaded with Americans have passed through the towns, some going in one direction, some in another.

Yankee Troops Sing.

Through a driving rain the motor trucks plowed their way along muddy roads, the Americans singing. Many of the trucks had American flags fastened to their tailboards.

On other roads mile after mile of marching Americans splashed through the mud, which came over their ankles. The horses were steaming from the work they had to do.

All the men are working as hard as possible, with the realization that they are to be of service in the common cause and used in the present conflict.

News Thrills Washington.

Washington, April 1.—The foregoing announcement that American soldiers were actually on their way to the fighting lines to take places beside their hard-pressed British and French allies sent a thrill throughout the national capital.

It was the first positive statement that General Pershing's forces actually are on their way to the battle lines to help stem the tide of the German drive.

American soldiers previously referred to in the official dispatches as being in the fighting are believed to have been engineers or other auxiliary troops, which probably were caught at their work, as they were a few months ago at Cambrai, when the Germans suddenly enveloped parties of British forces [illegible] their lines in a swift [illegible] movement.

[illegible] Expected.

The sending of General Pershing's fighting troops to places in the British-French line has been expected by military experts to follow the creation of a unified command under the French chief of staff, General Foch, and General Pershing's formal offer of all the available American resources.

May Decide Battle.

It is also no violation of censorship to say that the American government fully realizes that the second battle of the Somme may continue for some time and that American forces may be the means of tipping the scale.

Easter crowds on parade on Pennsylvania avenue, about the White House grounds and everywhere heard the news and gathered about newspaper bulletin boards, where the Associated Press dispatches were posted, and read the news with greatest enthusiasm.

TO BUILD 150 MOTORSHIPS

Hurley Approves Plan of Private Concern on Pacific Coast—U. S. Surpassed Goal Set in Launchings.

Washington, April 1.—A new shipbuilding program for private interests was approved by the shipping board as a further offset to the drive against allied tonnage which is being made by German submarines.

Chairman Hurley announced that the request of the Atlantic and Pacific Steamship company for permission to place contracts with shipyards in Oregon for 150 motor-driven wooden ships of 3,000 tons each had been granted under certain restrictions.

The government building program for March surpassed the goal set in launchings by 12,000 tons, the shipping board announced, but fell short in deliveries because of shortage of steel plates. Thirty hulls of 232,786 tons were put into the water and twenty vessels of 162,200 tons were completed.

WOMAN HELD AS SPY DIES

Mme. Storch, Who Was Detained for Deportation to France, Succumbs at Ellis Island.

New York, April 1.—The international career of Mme. Despina Davidovitch Storch ended at Ellis Island, where she died while awaiting deportation to France with Baron de Beville, Mme. Elisabeth Nix and Count Robert de Clairmont, who are suspected of having been involved in German spy plots. It was rumored Mme. Storch had committed suicide, but Assistant Immigration Commissioner B. H. Uhl denied this.

"Mme. Storch contracted a bad cold shortly after her arrival at Ellis Island March 18," Mr. Uhl said. "She was immediately removed to the hospital, where pneumonia developed. Every effort was made to save her life, but without result."

Mme. Storch was born in Constantinople twenty-three years ago of Turkish parents.

SCHOOL NOTES

In Commercial geography class, among several timely editorials submitted recently, three are worthy of publication and are printed below. In view of the fact that these editorials are mostly original they are well worth reading as they show that our High school students are abreast of the times and are giving attention and thought to the vital questions which are confronting the world and our nation at the present time.

SHIPS WILL WIN

It is not so much the conservation of food the production and distribution of coal, the transportation of freight by rail or the floating of the next great loan, that the U. S. should consider. But the great issue perhaps the decisive factor in winning the war is the immediate production of ships.

It is quite evident that Germany will take the offensive on seas as well as on land, because she must blow up the bridge of ships that the U. S. is building across the Atlantic, if she is to win any final victory on European territory.

Up to this time Germany has been sinking more than two tons of ships for every ton of ships built by the Allies. For the past year the Germans have been building 38 submarines a month against 23 that the Allies have been able to destroy or capture. Since Germany is building more ships than she is losing and the Allies are losing more ships than they are building, it does not take a great mathematician to see that disaster and perhaps defeat awaits the Allies unless something is done quickly either to destroy more submarines to build more ships.

Both England and America will strain the ship yards to the maximum to turn out all the merchant ships possible. Still there will be very few new boats on the water before August because of the lack of skilled labor and materials on hand.

A suggestion has been offered that ought to solve the great problem of building more boats and building them quicker. First the President should insist that the officers of the Emergency Fleet corporation make good just as the Generals on the field make good or else give way to the men who are more able to do the work. Next, some of the greatest business statesmen of the country should be invited to cooperate in the effort to build ships.

Steps should be taken at once to get all the raw materals possible, to the yards regardless of cost of time or money. This is especially important [illegible] general [illegible] ship building be given publicity throughout the country from Washington so that all people may be aware of what is being done. And what is being done in the commuity should be published in each local community, so that each local ship yard will get the maximum of local support.

These things should be done and done quickly if the U. S. is to play any effectual part in this great struggle for human freedom.

OUR TWO GERMAN ENEMIES

Whether in business or in battle the German method is the same. What most Americans do not realize is that they are fighting two distinct German enemies: One is in the field of battle; the other works in secret in our midst, sometime in our own towns, in our very homes and it flourishes in the shape of rumor of disaster to American arms and men. It began long before the world war started and it will continue long after it has stopped. War ends but business will go on, because back of every German effort to create sentiment for its cause in the war is the ambition to set up goodwill for German trade after the war.

In Spain, Holland, Switzerland, Sweden, Italy and United States is a huge system run by the German, that takes the toll of every visitor to the lands. They are under the guise of consuls, and agents but are really spies spreading German poison to the citizens of these countries. Germany is not the little strip of land we encourageingly say, "Not as large as our State Texas," that strip of land is just the news-center of the system which speeds throughout the world.

One center is a certain hotel in Stockholm. The moment one enters the building the German is in evidence. The head porter is a German agent who speaks many languages. He constantly vaunts the fact that his bunch of skelton keys open any baggage that comes his way. Two English officers hearing of this went to the hotel, left a note in each of their bags to the effect that they understood that he could open any bag and that they were glad to afford him some practice. The porter having the characteristic German temper had crumpled up the notes in his anger and left them on the floor. This baggage rifling is one of the best aids to German propaganda. They have gotten valuable documents, passports and information.

Before the war we listened to German professors praise German Art and German culture, they had but one common cause, that was to entrench Germany in the mind and heart of the American people. The United States was really just a fertile field for Pan-Germanism.

In 1895 Germany began to catalogue her sons and daughters everywhere. Under a certain law of Germany a German citizen who takes advantage of it my acquire citizenship in any foreign country and yet continue to be a loyal subject to the fatherland. Thus there are German-Italians, German-Swiss, and German-Americans and German in all countries. The number of willing workers for Germany in U. S. is estimated by Government officers to be 250,000 men and women. Not only these thousands who are working for the German cause but there are millions of unconscious aiders to the enemy. These are the people who are so eager to spread every little story that they get hold of. Anything as long as it sounds a little different than any that they have yet heard. Such as America making and sending to France a thousand coffins for the first thousand American boys killed. Another one was that the Germans here were taking note of the most patriotic people, those with the Red Cross in the windows, taking their names and addresses, so that they would be the first to suffer when the German took possession of U. S. These were actually published in the Detroit Journal with a note saying of course it was only a rumor, but think of the thousands of people that would read that and speed it and really believe it. Some people seem to be in their happiest moments when they are speeding bad news. It is as pure treason to circulate misfortune in war time as it is to create it.

WAR GARDENS

These two short words, war gardens, mean, or at least should mean to every man, woman and child in the United States that it is necessary for each and everyone of us to do our "bit." Last year the government issued an order for every owner of land to plant potatoes on all of the ground possible. We know from what we have observed how well people responded to this call and we are gratified to know that we had a bumper potato crop in 1917.

But this year 1918, the government wants more than potatoes raised, they want all kinds of vegetables and fruits and are even going so far as to make artificial gardens called a "sandwich garden" which will raise crops in court yards and alleys of the cities. This may be an astonishing fact but nevertheless it is true.

The children are even included in this call to help the nation. At first, it was the men, they were drafted and enlisted to do the fighting, the hardest of all, then the women were called to knit, sew, conserve food and even to enlist in certain lines for which they were best equipped. But now comes the call for children, boys and girls who are too young to go to war or help in other ways. This is perhaps the most important of all for the world must have food to live and the [illegible] have food to be able [illegible] everywhere, in magazines and newspapers and on posters urging that everyone raise a garden this year and do it to the best of their ability. We also find diagrams and articles on how to raise a garden in the city or how to get the most from the land confronting us from the pages of the magazines and it makes us feel like "slackers" if we can't have a garden to help win the war.

It is an undisputed fact that everyone did well last year with their gardens but we want this year to be the best ever, for surely we all want the war to end just as soon as possible, "Food will win the war, don't waste it" are the cancel stamp for letters, and surely it will apply just as well to "War Gardens" as it has for "Food conservation," for even though there is an abundence of food from our "war gardens" it will be no time to waste one single bit, for when we think of what France and Belgium have been thru we feel as if we would save, scrimp and giveour last cent to help the Allies conquer the most despotic ruler who ever lived, Kaiser Wilhelm.

The government has called for an army of school children to raise produce amounting to $500,000,000 and it is hoped that at least five million school children will respond to this call, also ways are being provided that boys from the cities may go out upon farms to work during the summer months. Both calls are very necessary and both are going to help to win the war quicker. We want to right to triumph soon don't we? Are we willing to raise a garden or help on a farm? Are we willing to sacrifice one summer of fun or personal benefit to help win the worst war ever recorded in the pages of History? Are we ready to do our "bit?"

ALLIED ARMIES HURL FOE BACK; 3 TOWNS TAKEN

British and French Troops Capture Moreuil After Terrific Fighting.

ADVANCE ON 15-MILE FRONT

[illegible]

London, April 1.—General Foch, in command of all allied forces, has struck the Germans a terrific blow.

British and French troops, with forces of American engineers co-operating, are smashing forward.

Three towns, many guns and prisoners running to the thousands have been captured. All the ground gained by the Germans in their attacks of Saturday was rewon by the allies in the first hours of their terrific assault.

Wait Patiently Time to Strike.

The extension of the German salient westward toward Amiens gave the allies the opportunity for which they had patiently waited. On the northern edge of this salient, at Mezieres and Demuin the British blow fell.

At the same time there was an attack on the German line north of the Somme to prevent the Germans sending help from there towards Mezieres.

The French meanwhile launched a terrific attack between Montdidier and Lassigny and are pressing forward successfully. Seven hundred German prisoners have been taken.

Terrific Battle at Moreuil.

The fiercest fighting was at Moreuil, which changed hands three times. The French wrested it from the Germans, who countered and forced out the Poilus.

They reformed and charged with bayonets. Both British and French mingled in the same ranks, took part and gained the town. In the woods north of Moreuil the French were also victorious, capturing many prisoners.

U. S. Engineers in Fight.

It was here, according to the latest advices that the American engineers joined the battle. They fought side by side with the French.

The first French blow was struck, Paris dispatches state, at Rubescourt, almost due south of Montdidier. The Germans wavered before the French and fell back toward Montdidier, where they are astride the Amiens-Paris railway.

Germans Unable to Dig In.

The next shock was felt by the Germans who had tried to dig themselves in west of Lassigny. The Germans retired here also, leaving open to attack the center of the line between Lassigny and Montdidier. The main French assault was immediately launched there.

News of the opening victory for the allies brought a thrill to London. The streets were jammed with crowds cheering every bulletin that was displayed.

Allied Victory, Experts Say.

Military experts, scanning the first reports, commented thus:

"The great counter-offensive has begun. Beaten at Arras and in the drive toward Amiens, the Germans have failed in any plan they may have had to reach the coast.

"Beaten at Montdidier and Lassigny, the enemy must also abandon any hope of reaching Paris. The British and French armies have preserved their entity as a fighting unit. All three objectives of the enemy have been lost."

French Check Foe and Rewin Moreuil.

Paris, April 1.—The following statement issued by the war office is as follows: "The struggle continued with undiminished violence during the night and the result was to emphasize the check administered to the formidable German effort of Saturday to break through the line.

"Between Montdidier and Moreuil the fire of the French infantry mowed down German battalions, which renewed the assault without ceasing.

"Moreuil, captured by the Germans, was retaken by the French, again taken by the Germans and finally carried in a bayonet charge made with incomparable bravery by French and British troops, mingled in the same ranks.

"The woods north of Moreuil also were captured as the result of valiant fighting. In this region the French took many prisoners.

"Between Moreuil and Lassigny the checking of the Germans, it has been established, was complete. The French were able to make progress as far as [illegible]

"[illegible] of the front there was intermittent [illegible]. Three German raids on the right bank of the Meuse (Verdun front) were without result."

British Restore Line.

London, April 1.—The war office statement is as follows: "South of the Somme our line in the Luce valley was restored after a vigorously executed counter-attack.

"Two strong attacks made by the enemy in the course of the day against our front from Marcelcave to the Somme were repulsed in each case with heavy loss to his troops.

"In his attacks delivered immediately north of the Somme the enemy's infantry advanced to the assault in four waves and were repulsed at all points by our outpost line.

"The enemy's casualties on this portion of the battle front alone are estimated in the thousands.

"Early in the afternoon a successful local operation was carried out by us in the neighborhood of Serre. Our line in this locality was advanced a short distance and 230 prisoners and 40 machine guns were captured by us.

"Our line also was carried forward slightly on other parts of the battle front and prisoners were taken.

"Hostile artillery was active in the neighborhood of Bucquoy."

100,000 at Coney Island.

New York, April 1.—One hundred thousand persons took advantage of the mild weather yesterday to unofficially open Coney Island. Conductorettes received their first real tryout in handling jostling crowds. Most of them were equal to the task. The sunshine coaxed some of the throng to take a plunge in the sea.

Accept Muck Resignation.

Boston, April 1.—The management of the Boston Symphony orchestra announced that the resignation of Dr Karl Muck as conductor has been accepted.

When a Child "Fails."

When a child fails in school, must it always be the fault of the child? May it not be the faults of his parents? Or of the school which he attends? Investigations have shown that there is a host of children whose mental sluggishness is due to physical causes, Dr. M. P. E. Grossmann writes in Humanitarian. Even conservative estimates place the percentage of children suffering from some physical ailment at 75; this means about 18,000,000 children of school age in this country. Almost all of these ailments are removable, even preventable. They range from decayed and maladjusted teeth with their manifold sad effects upon the efficiency and the temper of the growing child to such serious defects as nervous disorders, tuberculosis blindness, etc.

Large Feet and Bad Cough.

Muggins was the possessor of very large feet and a very bad cough. He entered a boot shop and the young assistant turned the shop upside down to find something to fit his "out size." Muggins had just tried on the fortieth pair when he started coughing.

"It's a nasty cough you've got," said the assistant.

"Yes," gasped Muggins. "Doctor says I've one foot in the grave now."

"I shouldn't worry," said the assistant. "You'll never get the other in; it's too big."

DUTCH CALL U. S. ACT UNFRIENDLY

Seizure of Ships "Indefensible and Unjustifiable," Says Statement.

TERMED AN ACT OF VIOLENCE

Holland Declares That President Wilson Mistated Facts in Note—Denies Huns Intended to Sink Vessels.

The Hague, April 1.—The seizure of the Dutch [illegible] in American ports is characterized by the Dutch [illegible] which it will oppose with all the energy of its conviction and its wounded national feeling.

The government takes issue with the proclamation of president Wilson regarding the decision of the United States, saying it contains assertions which are contrary to the facts.

The statement says the Dutch nation "with painful surprise" has taken notice of President Wilson's proclamation and that the seizure of a neutral mercantile fleet is unjustifiable.

Dutch Are Pained.

"With painful surprise the government and whole Dutch nation has taken notice of the presidential proclamation and the statement of March 20 relative to the seizure of part of the Dutch merchant fleet," the statement begins.

"The seizure en bloc of a neutral merchant fleet, if only for the duration of the war, is an act indefensible from the viewpoint of international law and unjustifiable toward a friendly nation, apart from considerations of legality.

"But the manner, also, in which the presidential statement defends this act of violence does not contribute toward lessening the sting thereof, for this defense has plainly been drawn up under the influence of a completely incorrect representation of affairs.

Ships "Unlawfully" Held.

"The manner in which the Dutch merchant fleet has been treated in past months in the United States, the incessant difficulties placed in the way of our sailings from American ports, repeated refusals of bunkering facilities and forced unloading of cargoes already bought—all this may be within the rights of the United States (save one case, that of the Zeelandia, which with her own bunker coal entered an American port and has been unlawfully detained there since.)

"It surely was against the traditional friendship between the two countries, although on this point the presidential statement keeps silence."

"Distinctly Incorrect."

"According to President Wilson's proclamation," the statement continues, "the Netherlands, owing entirely to German pressure, failed to observe the preliminary arrangement which was proposed for the purpose of leaving no longer idle the Dutch tonnage in American ports and furnishing an opportunity for making voyages within a period of ninety days, pending a definite agreement on Dutch tonnage and rationing. This is distinctly incorrect.

"It is equally as incorrect as the allegation that Germany had threatened to sink two ships which were to sail from Holland with America's approval and that Germany had made increasing threats to prevent both the observance of such a preliminary arrangement and the conclusion of a permanent one."

TO TAKE MEAT PLANTS?

Hoover Warns President May Seize Packing Plants.

Drastic Action May Be Necessary to Supply Allies—Commission Appointed to Study Situation.

Washington, April 1.—Government operation of the big packing houses of the country became a strong probability today.

Food Administrator Hoover announced the president has approved the appointment of a commission to study the entire meat problem, and that an immediate revolution in the meat conservation and distribution policy must be made. He added:

"This change may take the form of more definite and systematic direction of the larger packers, or even may mean operation of the packing house [illegible]

[illegible] Secretary of Agriculture [illegible] representing the producer; William [illegible] Harris, chairman of the federal trade commission, representing trade conditions; Dr. F. W. Taussig, chairman of the federal tariff board, representing economic thought; F. B. Wilson, secretary of labor, representing the consumer, and Food Administrator Hoover.

Mr. Hoover, in a letter to President Wilson pointing out the seriousness of the beef situation and suggesting the commission, says:

"Dear Mr. President—I feel that we have reached a position with regard to the whole meat industry that requires a reconsideration of policy.

"The situation is one of the most complex with which the government has had to deal by virtue of the increasing influence that the government purchasing has upon prices, by the necessity of providing for increasing supplies for the allies and the consequent reduction of civilian consumption and, with all, the due protection of the producer and the civilian consumers.

"This change of policy must take the form of more definite and systematic direction of the larger packers as to the course that they are to pursue from month to month or may even take the form of operation of the packing house establishment by the government."

SURELY A WONDERFUL WORM

"I had a trained worm once," began Col. Harta Beetem, reflectively, according to the Detroit Free Press. "I don't wonder that you chaps look surprised—as far as I know it's the only case of a trained worm on record. Haw! Yawss!

"I was digging for bait on the far bank of the Ganges and I noticed that one of the worms had a particularly large head. Well, now, my favorite motto is, 'Large head, something in it.' I started to educate the little devil, and in two months he was the marvel of the entire countryside. Rully!

"Here's the way he would help me fish: He'd wind his little tail around the end of the hook and wave his body about till a snapping pottle, or perhaps a blue-nose skad, would make a dive for him. Quick as a wink Silvers—that's what I called him—would coil himself up into a ball and roll out of the fish's jaws just as they closed on the hook. Clevah, what! Oh—ah—and I forgot to mention, whenever he saw a fish coming he would send three little bubbles up to the surface and put me on my guard. Then, after I'd landed the fish Silvers would stick his head out of the water and wait for the hook again.

"He died, finally, of some sort of cerebral trouble—brain fever, perhaps. Gad! boys. I was sorry to lose that worm! If any of you ever get over that way just look up his little tombstone. It's right outside a little town called Goodab—any of the natives'll show you. Haw!"

POPULARITY OF BLUE GRASS

Kentucky Soldiers, on Return March From Battle of Tippecanoe, Gathered Seed in Indiana.

The tradition that the Kentucky soldiers who fought at Tippecanoe took back with them the seed that has made blue grass famous in central Kentucky, has never been questioned or seemed to require authentic proof, declares a writer. Mrs. Levering says, in her "Authentic Indiana:"

"It was on the return march from the battle of Tippecanoe that the soldiers from Kentucky gathered the seed of the blue-grass which they found growing in Indiana, and carried it home with them, thinking it was a superior variety because it satisfied the hunger of their horses so well that they would not eat corn. It flourished so well on the limestone soil of central Kentucky that it made that state famous." This statement was based on information obtained from early settlers of Indiana. Kentucky was not known as the blue grass state until many years after the battle of Tippecanoe.

As long as slavery existed, Kentucky, lying south of the Ohio river, was classed as a Southern state. It never was classed as a central Western or middle Western state along with Ohio and Indiana. In the census report of 1910, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin were classed as "East North Central states" and Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama and Mississippi as "East South Central states."

When Indiana was admitted to the Union, in 1816, it consisted of 13 counties, viz.: Wayne, Franklin, Dearborn, Switzerland, Jefferson, Clark, Washington, Harrison, Knox, Gibson, Posey, Warrick and Perry. In the subsequent creation of 79 counties out of these, making 92, the boundaries of the original 13 counties underwent material changes.

WIFE'S FEAR WAS AROUSED

Stranger's Inquiry About Hubby's Description Was Merely to Warn Against Unhealthy Coconuts.

He entered the ladies' sitting room at the railway station, walked up to a woman whose husband had left the room about ten minutes previously, and calmly inquired: "Madam, your husband went out to [illegible] he?"

"Yes—why?" she asked, turning pale in an instant.

"He was a tall man, wasn't he?"

"He was," she replied, rising up and turning still paler.

"Had red hair?"

"He had. Oh, what has happened?"

"Weighed about 180 pounds?"

"Yes—yes! Where is he—where is my husband?" she exclaimed.

"Couldn't swim, could he?"

"He's drowned—my husband is drowned!" she wailed.

"Had a silver watch chain?" continued the stranger.

"Where is my husband? Where is the body?" she gasped.

"Do not get excited, madam. Did your husband have on a gray suit?"

"Yes. Oh, Thomas—my Thomas!"

"And lace-up boots?"

"Let me see him—let me see him!" she cried.

"Come this way, ma'am, but do not get excited. There is your husband across the street at that fruit-stand?"

"Why, yes, that's him; that—that's my husband!" she exclaimed joyfully. "I thought you said he was drowned."

"No, madam, I did not. I saw him buying a coconut, and I believe it to be my duty to say to you that coconuts are not healthy at this season of the year."

The Emblem of France.

The fleur de lis is the emblem of France, and is believed to be the white-flowered Florentine Iris, the flower de luce. "What sayest thou, my fair flower de luce?" says the English king to the French princess in Shakespeare's play. The French have a pretty legend of their lily which tells that at the baptism of King Clovis, of the long and perfumed hair, a blue banner came fluttering down from heaven over which were sprinkled golden fleur de lis. From that time they appear on the arms of the country. They have a verb, "fleurdeliser," meaning to embroider scattered flowers over a fabric, or, as embroiderers say, to "pepper with flowers." Edward III borrowed the lilies of France after his war with that country and they were borne by England until the beginning of the nineteenth century.

Cock and Bull Story.

Cock fighting is still the national sport of the Dominicans, although it is declining in popularity. Under the national gambling laws cock fighting may be prohibited. It may, however, be licensed by the various municipalities, and it usually is, as it yields them a good revenue. While bull fighting is permitted in the Dominican republic, it has never been popular in this island. At long intervals a toreador comes here en route from Spain to Peru or Mexico, and a few bull fights are held in the various towns, but they do not attract a large attendance. There are no professional bull fighters among the Dominicans.—Commercial Reports.

BY THE DOOR CALLED JOHN

Quaker Courtship in Which Woman Frankly Expressed Herself as Favoring Brother of Wooer.

A few weeks ago the Youth's Companion reported two or three strange and amusing courtships of New England tradition. A reader was moved to add another to the list—this time a Quaker one. In a small town, of which about half the population were Friends, two brothers, John and Joseph, shared a farm that adjoined the property of Sarah, a spinster in early middle life. Both brothers in their youth had been obvious suitors for Sarah's hand; but they were slow and diffident, and neither ever reached the point of proposing. Then an enterprising and audacious young woman, who belonged to "the world's people," somehow extracted a proposal from Joseph—or dispensed with one—and married him. After several years of matrimony she died, leaving him with two little girls. As soon as propriety permitted he betook himself to his spinster neighbor's, and, according to local tradition, spoke thus:

"It is borne in upon me, Sarah, that thee would make an excellent wife."

"I have no leading to contradict thee, Joseph," replied the lady demurely.

"Also, Sarah, I believe thee competent to be an admirable mother."

"Thy judgment is to be respected, Joseph."

"Thy housekeeping is well esteemed, Sarah. The women say there is no better housekeeper in the place."

"I am assured thee would not listen to light gossip, Joseph."

"Then, Sarah, will thee marry me?"

"Nay, Joseph, I am not moved to consent. But—thee may repeat thy kind words about me to thy brother John if thee thinks best."

"So that thee will enter the family, Sarah, and care for the household, I care not by which door thee comes in. I have no further inclination toward the married state for foolish reasons!"

"Whether my reasons are foolish or no, Joseph, I will only come if I am bidden by the door called John."

It was by the door called John that she was soon welcomed, to rule, gently and to order wisely a double family.

REALLY MORE THAN NEEDED

Youngster Asked God to Send Nice Cool Rain and a Deluge Flooded Fields of the Southwest.

We were living in the Southwest. For weeks and months we had no rain, relates a writer in the Country Gentleman. Every day big, promising-looking clouds rolled up, broke apart and drifted away. Streams were dried up, vegetation was burning up and life was well-nigh unbearable to man and beast. From 12 to 18 inches of sand and dust covered the highways; gnats made life hideous; heat parched our skin and throats. Rain was the only relief, and rain we did not get. Every night at bedtime four-year-old Robert on bended knees by his little white bed asked God: "Please don't forget to send a nice, cool rain."

One day the big, black clouds rolled up as usual, but we noticed that they were all fringed with green. Pretty soon a big wind sprang up and leveled small houses and barns, broke down trees, scattered chickens, ducks, straw and haystacks all over the country. A big hail followed the wind, and then came rain—a perfect deluge! Streams rose clear out of their banks and the water came creeping over the fields and toward the houses and cattle pens; pretty soon it had flooded the yard and was nearly to the door.

Small Robert took a survey of the situation, and then in a small, frightened voice said: "Daddy, don't blame it all on me. God had ought to knowed a small kid like me didn't need such a awful big rain."

Some Old Children's Books.

John Newbury set the fashion of publishing juvenile story books about 1750, retaining Goldsmith and others to write them, and in the list of such publications it is somewhat startling to come across "Tom Jones" and "Joseph Andrews"—"abridged for the amusement of youth." It is true, but not at all in the direction one would expect, says the Boston Globe. There was, however, quite literally, powder in the jam, even with Newbury's publications. The worthy publisher was the proprietor of the famous Dr. James' Powder, and contrived to introduce ingenious references to this profitable sideline into his book. Thus in "Goody-Two-Shoes" the heroine's father dies miserably because "seized with a fever in a place where Dr. James' Powder was not to be had."

Use of Cement.

Cement was first put on the market in England. It was still being imported into this country in 1875. It was at this time that the use of Portland cement in the United States came into commercial prominence. When the product was first placed on the market in competition with that which was being imported from England and Germany, a good price was demanded. However, production in excess of demand soon resulted and it proved a big factor in the price cutting that followed.

Repartee.

"Harold asked me point blank if that beautiful color of yours was natural, and, of course, dear, I had to tell the truth and say no."

"Of course, you did. He taxed me with it, and I told him I had borrowed it of you."

BLOOD POISON STRIKES CUSTER

Four Soldiers Die in Two Days From New Malady.

Camp Custer, Battle Creek—On January 31 and February 1, four soldiers died, and an uncertain number are suffering in the base hospital, from general septicemia, usually known as blood poisoning.

The dead are Merrill S. Gibbs, 310th supply train, Grass Lake; Alfred Johnson, Co. M, 337th infantry, Edmore; Ralph M. Canfield, 16th engineers, Martin; Alfred Hughes, 160th depot brigade, Morris, Ill.

Reports issued at the base hospital are to the effect that a large number of serious cases of infection have been developing of late. Apparently trivial cuts or lesions develop this infection, and the condition of the men rapidly becomes critical. Sore throats and tonsilitis have, it is stated, developed in to septicemia.

NEW COUNCIL TAKES OVER THE REINS OF THE VILLAGE MONDAY NIGHT

The new council met Monday evening for the first time at the office of the president, Wm. F. Fisher, the council rooms being occupied by the election board. Only routine business was transacted, nothing of general importance coming before the council except the resignation of Floyd Bryan as teamster. Chas Snell was appointed temporary teamster.

President Fisher touched upon some of the things which it might be advisable for the council to consider this coming year and plans in general were discussed.

Sunlight Distressing.

In addition to the wind there is another peculiarity of the inland ice which adds to the difficulties to be encountered in the Arctic. That is the extreme intensity of the sunlight, which can be realized only by those who have experienced it. During the summer months the sun shines as brightly there in clear weather as anywhere further south, and this continuous brilliancy is intensified a hundredfold by the reflection from endless fields of glistening, sparkling snow, unrelieved by a single object. The strongest eyes can stand such a blinding glare only a few hours without protection. We always wore heavy smoked glasses, and when in camp found it impossible to sleep without still further protecting the eyes by tying a narrow band of fur about them to exclude the light. Only when a storm is brewing does this intense light become subdued. At such times, however, the sky and snow take on a peculiar gray, opaque light, which is even more trying than the sunlight.—Century Magazine.

CO-OPERATIVE COMPANY TAKES OPTION ON BRITTON ELEVATOR

The Tecumseh Co-Operative Association has just taken an option on the elevator property at Britton operated under the name of Walper & Dreher, and which is located in one of the best grain producing sections in the state. They already have a large membership in that locality and have been shipping livestock quite extensively from that point, and expect to handle grain, seeds, feed and other products according to the demands of its members.

The Tecumseh Co-Operative Assn. was organized in the early part of 1915, under the co-operative laws of Michigan, with a capital of $25,000, at which time it took over the property and business of C. A. Slayton & Son. This capital was [illegible] to take care of its rapidly increasing business. It now has a membership of [illegible] progressive farmers whose farms spread over a territory of about 25 miles in the vicinity of the villages of Tecumseh, Britton, Clinton, Tipton and Holloway.

It has just passed a very successful year, with a volume of business to its credit of over $488,000 00, showing net profits for the year of 14.9 per cent on its invested capital, after paying all expenses of operation and charging off depreciations for wear and tear to its property and equipment Out of these net earnings a capital dividend of 6 per cent. was declared payable in cash, and the balance was voted back into the working funds of the company so that the Association now has a surplus fund of over $3,500 00, all in addition to the many thousands of dollars its members and patrons have received direct in the marketing of their livestock, grain and other farm products.

The members and a large number of patrons whose farms are located in the trading vicinity of Britton have expressed a desire to have the Association take over the grain elevator at that place, or build a new one of its own to handle the grain, food, etc., of its members, and to finance such purchase or construction, are subscribing to shares in the Association sufficient to handle the same, and carry on the grain business, as well as for other general purposes of the Association.

This subscription closes May 1st, 1918, and is meeting with a great deal of success, the farmers in that section realizing that it is a movement in their interests and that if the deal goes through it will require the financial and business support of practically every farmer within trading distance of Britton. When this subscription is completed, the Association will have in the neighborhood of 150 representative farmers particularly interested in the Britton end of the business, insuring sufficient patronage to keep an elevator of that size running at full capacity.

It has not been determined whether the Association will avail themselves of this option or whether they will build a new elevator of their own along the line of the Wabash railroad. They have been in correspondence with officials of that road, and expect to meet their representatives on the ground now very shortly to go over the proposition and will undoubtedly later call a meeting of the members to discuss which of the two propositions they will accept.

DO YOUR BANKING WITH YOUR COUNTRY

A German Order says:

"THE COMMANDANT RESERVES THE RIGHT TO PUNISH LAZY WOMEN WITH TWENTY LASHES DAILY."

In a few days the government will ask you for the third time within the year to lend it your surplus income or your savings. Before you decide whether you can spare anything, or how much you wish to loan, suppose you just take a few minutes off and read over quietly a certain order which was issued recently by the German and Austrian military command in northern Italy.

The copy of the order comes from Margaret Snodgrass, the corresponding secretary of the American Federation of Teachers:

"I have before me as I write," she says, "the official text of the German and Austrian military command in the recently occupied districts of northern Italy. These proclamations require the inhabitants of the region to give up all food supplies of every kind. All persons over 15 years of age are summoned to work in the fields under German task masters, from 4 o'clock in the morning until 8 o'clock in the evening.

Note that the following is quoted word for word from the military order:

"Disobedience will be punished in the following manner: Lazy women will be accompanied in the work and watched by Germans. After the harvest they will be imprisoned six months and every third day will be given nothing but bread and water. Lazy women will be obliged to work and after the harvest will receive six months' imprisonment.

Lazy children will be punished by beating. The commandant reserves the right to punish lazy women with twenty lashes daily."

Just read those last two sentences over again and let them soak in.

Then ask yourself if your steps should lag after having worked in the field from 4 in the morning till 8 at night, you would care to let a German soldier act as the judge of whether you were LAZY or exhausted.

"And yet," adds Margaret Snodgrass, "some of our misguided friends are still maintaining that this is a capitalistic war."

Do you know that with the hundreds of thousands Italians who are added to the slave rule of Germany, there are over 42,000,000 of people now in German slavery? Millions of Belgians, French, Serbs, Rumanians, Poles, Russians and now the Italians are toiling for German masters.

Yet a half century ago the United States decided the question of human slavery with rivers of blood.

Never mind right now about making the world safe for democracy; never mind about anything but the fact that tomorrow if it were not for the accident of geography, a German soldier might call your little son or [illegible] of a daughter "lazy," if either of them faltered in the fields, and so beat them, or with the blacksnake of the slave driver might lay twenty lashes on your back, if you stopped before you reached the end of your 16-hour day.

Then decide whether you will do your banking with your country.

RED CROSS NEWS

Friday 1000 wipes were made and gauze cut for 1200 dressings.

Friday evening thirty-two members of the Westminster Guild met at headquarters for work on surgical dressings, which was very pleasing to the instructors. The Guild will alternate week for the same work.

Rev. W. A. Rex delivered to Adrian chapter on Monday 2700 wipes and 130 muslin bandages.

How many hours a day is your automobile actually in use? Isn't it standing idle in front of your house, or at your husbands place of business, part of each work day? That's the case with most pleasure cars. If it is so with yours you have an exceptional opportunity to help the Red Cross by lending the use of your car by the day or hour, an active Red Cross chapter always is in need of the services of one or more cars to carry material and completed work to and from workers, to transport packages to the point of shipment and for dozens of other purposes. A number of persons, by arranging a schedule of days and hours, can supply the Chapter with complete automobile service without any one of them being compelled to make any great sacrifice.

The pajama committee sent 24 suits to Adrian last Thursday, which was the largest quota completed in one week. The number of suits of the month of March were 70.

Two dozen pair of socks were sent to headquarters. Mrs. W. B. Hartzog has plenty of yarn on hand for those who are knitting socks.

Mrs. Charles Bennett has very kindly offered to assist the pajama committee in cutting of garments.

A large attendance is urged in all departments each afternoon and evening this week. The attendance must be kept up.

The Young People of the Baptist church will meet at Headquarters on Tuesday evening.

Spring housecleaning time has arrived SAVE your old news papers, magazines, rags and scraps of old iron for the boys, who will collect them at your door, the proceeds of which will go to the local Chapter Red Cross.

The Star Spangled Banner

The Prebyterian Church

The Presbyterian church the front was [illegible] of greenery, flowering plants, arranged by [illegible] Kyle and her Sunday-school class. A white cross decorated with smilax and bearing a sheaf of Easter lillies across the base made the central feature.

At 10 o'clock the Sunday-school gave their Easter exercises in charge of John T. Boyce, the superintendent. These consisted of songs and exercises by the primary and junior departments, all well rendered. Lester Waring gave a violin solo and Mrs. R. B. Stuckey presided at the organ.

At 11 o'clock was the regular morning worship. Mrs. R. S. Moore sang the offertory solo and a full choir led the hymns and gave a couple of anthems. Rev. Rex took for his subject "Easter 1918" and it was one of his characteristicly splendid sermons. He told how the soul of man became victor over death in the first Easter and this Easter man has risen above the thought of self in this fight for universal liberty. He told how a couple of years ago Christ was commonly thought to be a pacifist but that our ideas of the Holy Man had changed and now Christ was no more apologized for but his revolutionary work commended. "I should have gloried to have been at His heels that day in the temple when he drove out the money changers!"

At 7 o'clock the choir gave their beautiful cantata "Immortality." Those taking part were Mrs. Eugene Billings, Mrs. E. C. Heilman, Miss Winnifred Mitchel, Mrs. R. T. Meade, Miss Martha Caldwell, Mrs. D. J. Hodges, Mrs. E. M. Campbell, Roger and Lester Waring, Floyd Juckett, W. S. and F. C. Dickinson. Rev. Rex read several poems by Henry VanDyke which materially added to the interest of the occasion.

The Baptist Church

At 5:30 o'clock the Baptist church was filled with an admiring audience. The front of the church was handsome with banks of flowers and ferns the work of Lester Heesen.

The processional led by Richard Williamson bearing the cross was a splendid opening for the fine program which followed. It was given verbatim as printed in our last issue with the soloists, Mrs. R. S. Moore, Miss Geraldine Barker and Miss Dorothy Balmer. A girl's chorus gave several selections with Miss Lillis Howard at the piano. This chorus also sang with the full choir and to complete the harmony Lester Waring played the violin and Robert Moore traps. Miss Edna Taylor officiated at the organ, surprising her many friends with her exquisite work on the instrument.

Episcopal Church

The Easter services at St. Peters Episcopal church had a good attendance both at the morning and afternoon meetings. The chancel was decorated with Easter Lillies and other potted plants. Special music was given by the vested choir assisted by W. S. Dickinson and Mrs. Jones and a fine Easter sermon was delivered by the rector, Rev. B. J. Baxter, the services closing with the Communion service.

In the afternoon the Sunday-school held a short meeting of a missionary nature, the children marching to the chancel, depositing their mite boxes and marching out through the vestry. The meeting was very interesting and enjoyed by all.

Johnston, Soprano; James Hamilton, Tenor; Ada Grace Johnston, Soprano and Nora Crane Hunt, Contralto, all prominent American singers, will be heard in the several programs. Ann Arbor, Michigan.

YOU CAN HELP THE ORDNANCE DEPARTMENT MAKE MUNITIONS.

You are familiar with the statement that this is a war, not of armies, but of nations. The American people are all in it in spirit. But doubtless you have often asked yourself the question "How can I actually give my services." This is your answer.

This country has a growing army of fighters over-seas, but our Allies —men, women and children—have been and are now bearing the brunt of the struggle. They look confidently to our men for victory. So do we but we must play our part. There is an army to fight; there must be an army to work. [illegible] must have guns and amunitions; we must supply them.

The duty of the Ordnance Bureau of the War Department is to furnish these guns and ammunition. It has two sources of production to draw upon; its arsenals and the privately owned factories. Our immediate interest is in the former. In this respect, the Bureau is essentially a large manufacturing establishment. It has its office, which is in Washington, and its shops, nine in number, scattered throughout the country. Since the declaration of war the number of its employees has increased termendously, but always there must be a constant and growing stream of recruits. The Army that fights must grow. So must the army that works.

Now a word as to how our men and women can make themselves available. Just as a soldier unreservedly put himself in the hands of the Government that it might determine if he is to wear a uniform, so must those likewise who wish to work. Substantially all of the positions in the Bureau are in the United States Civil Service and persons must have the qualifications required by the Commission. Those who want to help must necessarily comply with the rules, i. e., file an application, take the examination called for, etc. This procedure, while it may seem unduly formal, enables the Civil Service Commission to assure the Ordnance Bureau in advance of hiring that the employee will probably be satisfactory. This is of great importance for speed of production is vital and there is not time for much training. If this Division asks you to file an application it is not the assurance of employment; it is the call of your people to submit your qualifications to serve.

It is the duty of the Civilian Section to bring this chance for service to those who really want to share in the war. In reality a person who files an application for employment is giving the Government the privilege of using him if it is deemed advisable, in exactly the same manner as a soldier who offers himself for active duty. The Government is unable to compete with the wages offered by private industries. On the other hand the soldier is not influenced by pecuniary inducements to serve.

This organization of ourselves, and that means you, for war, is a vast undertaking. Do not be impatient, therefore, if you fail to hear from this Section or the Civil Service Commission within the time which you consider reasonable. The amount of its work, like that of every department of the Government, has grown tremendously. Do noe be offended if your services cannot be used. You have done your part in offering yourself. Your Government must be allowed to do the rest.

THE GREAT WAR HAS MADE CIGARETTES A NECESSITY.

"Our boys must have their smokes. Send them cigarettes!" This is a familiar appeal now to all of us.

Among those most in demand is the now famous "toasted" cigarette—LUCKY STRIKE. Thousands of this favorite brand have been shipped to France. There is something homelike and friendly to the boys in the sight of the familiar green packages with the red circle.

This homelike, appetizing quality of the LUCKY STRIKE cigarette is largely due to the fact that the Burley tobacco used in making it has been toasted. "It's toasted" was the "slogan" that made a great success of LUCKY STRIKE in less than a year. Now the American Tobacco Co. is making 15 million LUCKY STRIKE Cigarettes a day.

A good part of this immense production is making its way across the water to cheer our boys. The Red Cross has distributed thousands of LUCKY STRIKE Cigarettes.

QUICK WORK OF FIRE DEPARTMENT SAVES PROPERTY

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

About twenty guests gathered at the home of Mr. Cole Friday evening honoring his son Herman and wife with a miscellaneous shower. This proved a regular downpour, not a mere sprinkle, and the young couple were surely well remembered. The evening was spent in social visiting and games. Refreshments were served by Miss Lillian during the evening. As the guests departed for their homes they left their best wishes for Mr. and Mrs. Cole on their venture on the matrimonial sea.

Ever See a Dingonek?

The dingonek is a huge, unclassified aquatic monster, says the Wide World Magazine. It resembles in many of its characteristics the extinct dinosaur, a huge reptile of the Mesozoic period, fossils of which have been discovered by paleontologists in the sandstone strata both of the African and American continents. It lives in Lake Victoria Nyanza and its numerous tributaries and there is no record of the monster having been seen in any other part of the world. Whether it is a descendant of one of the huge prehistoric saurians that has by a process of adaptation—living as it does in impenetrable regions far away from the encroachments of civilized man—continued with but slight modifications through prodigious ages to the present time, or whether it is an unclassified reptile or amphibian, it is equally impossible to say, as no specimen exists either of its bones or of its skin. That this monster does exist, however, there can be no particle of doubt, as the testimony of authoritative eyewitnesses cannot be reasonably discredited.

Useless.

Mrs. Crossley was enjoying a shopping tour and was critically examining various articles on the counter of the dry goods emporium.

"What is this thing used for?" she finally asked.

"I really don't know," answered the clerk. "I think it is intended for a Christmas gift."—Harper's Magazine.

ANIMALS ARE GOOD SWIMMERS

Nearly all animals are better swimmers than man and take to the water naturally. The rhinoceros and hippopotamus are wonderful swimmers and divers, while the Indian elephant crosses great rivers with heavy loads, London Tit-Bits states.

The elk and the reindeer are first-class swimmers. The elk keeps his head above water and crosses directly from bank to bank to avoid turning. The reindeer, on the other hand, turns as often as he likes, keeping his head only a little above the surface. But of all swimmers of all climes the best, though not the swiftest, is the polar bear, who passes half his time in the water swimming and diving. His swimming power is nothing short of miraculous if it be remembered that the water in the regions he frequents is invariably cold and that cold is normally prohibitive to good swimming. There are bears that can swim from twenty-five to thirty miles without great effort.

One of the swiftest swimming animals is the squirrel. A sportsman on one occasion, having at hand a squirrel born in captivity, which had never seen water, wanted to see if it could swim and took it with him in a rowboat to the center of the lake. The squirrel turned toward the bank, head and paws above the water, back and tail underneath it, and began to swim so rapidly that it was with the greatest difficulty that the man recovered it when it reached the shallow water near the land.

ONLY SECURITY FOR A WIFE

In Babylon, under the code of Hammurabi, 2270 B. C., the birth of children furnished the only financial security for a wife. A man might separate from a wife at will and marry another but if she had borne him children he must "give back to that woman her dowry, the usufruct of the field, garden and property, during the minority of her children and thereafter she was entitled to a share equal to that of a son of all that has been given to her children. She may marry the man of her choice."

Under the primitive laws of the Kafirs of South Africa a similar provision is made, according to a writer. A considerable payment is made by the husband to the male relatives of the woman at the time of marriage. In legal theory this amount is the property of the woman and her children, the relatives receiving it as trustees for her benefit. Here, too, a man may divorce his wife at will and may demand back his dowry if there have been no children born of the marriage, but his claim upon it passes upon the birth of children. Obviously, where the status of the wife is entirely subject to the will of the husband and where the woman has an enforcible claim against this property while it remains in the hands of her relatives, the birth of children furnishes the only assurance of security and independence for the wife.

SOME OF THE INNS OF COURT

Gray's Produced Fewer Great Lawyers but Can Outdo Rivals in Association With Influential Men.

Gray's inn, where the prime minister and the heads of the air service take a snack together in the evening, comes down to us through the Grays of Wilton, whose home or inn it anciently was, from the bishop and canons of St. Paul's cathedral. The inn itself, bearing the family name, formed part of the Hundred of Ossulstone, and the whole was included in a yet larger property, states a writer in the London Chronicle. How St. Paul's itself became possessed of the estate is not clear, but it is believed that it was at one time the personal property of one of the canons, who, it was enacted, might give and sell their lands without leave.

Gray's inn has produced fewer great lawyers than some of the other inns of court, but it can outdo its rivals in association with men who have vitally influenced the life of the nation—Thomas Cromwell, for instance, who suppressed the monasteries; Lord Burghley, chief counselor of Queen Elizabeth, and George Monck, duke of Albemarle, who practically restored the monarchy. But the inn's chief glory, of course, is with the Bacons, Nicholas and his far greater son, Francis, whose mark remains till this day on the inn gardens.

Eucalyptus and Malaria.

"What is the connection between the eucalyptus and the disappearance of the malarial trouble? This has been only very recently explained. There is probably no tree having a greater avidity for water than the eucalyptus. Experiments with seedlings grown in water have shown that a baby blue-gum [illegible] at an extremely rapid rate. As the blue-gums grow at a marvelous rate (often as much as ten or twelve feet is added to their height in a single season), the consumption of moisture from the soil goes on at a rapidly increasing rate. Now, it is well-known that the malarial poison is introduced into the blood of man through the agency of a certain variety of mosquito (Anopheles), and the dwelling place of these insects, when in the larval stage, is to be found in pools of water. With the planting of the eucalyptus trees the pools disappear and the marshy land becomes comparatively dry. Thus the breeding places of the mosquitoes are destroyed and the insects are no longer able to carry on their pernicious activities."—S. Leonard Bastin, in St. Nicholas.

Early Use of Metals.

As compared with Mexico, the tools employed by the ancient Easter islanders, though like in shape, are yet more wonderful when the purpose for which they were used is considered. It is believed that the use of iron was unknown to the more ancient people of the earth; certainly few traces are found. But among the Mexicans there is evidence of red copper having been fashioned into tools; and although that is wonderful enough when the usage is seen to which the comparatively soft metal was put, yet still more marvelous are the tools of volcanic glass which wrought, carved, cut and chiseled the huge images and blocks of stone to be found on Easter Island. Remains of these tools are yet to be found lying about the island quarries.

Weapons of the Peruvians.

The early Peruvians used clubs and war-hatchets in battle; also slings, for throwing stones. Skull-fractures must often have resulted. But apparently they trephined also for brain troubles, and possibly for other diseases, notes a medical authority. The surgeon of ancient Peru held the head of his patient between his knees, and with a sharp flint sawed out the button of bone—an agonizing process, surely. Sometimes he filled the hole with a button of silver, or of mollusk-shell, but more often he was content to cover it simply with the flap of scalp.

Temperament of Camels.

Bearing an innate grudge against all restraint and all who restrain him, the camel will use the great strength of his long legs to kick his keepers or the dogs which guard him in the waste places, but in the presence of enemies, among wolves or other beasts of prey, he is a coward, forgets the very use of his legs and proves his erratic temper by screaming and spitting in terror. No camel wants to be loved, and no one familiar with camels ever entertains the least affection for them. They make savages of whatever people breeds them. The man who owns and uses camels cannot live in a city, he cannot travel the highways through cultivated country, he cannot have a permanent abiding place. He is doomed to live in deserts and arid grasslands, to follow the paths that are lined with evergreen thorns, tamarisks and bitter weeds, to drink the saline water that his evil tempered beasts prefer and to avoid the haunts of men and horses as the horseman circles the deserts, says Rodney Gilbert in Asia.

MEANING OF SHIP TONNAGE

Several Different Uses of Term, Applied as Occasion Demands, Are Cited by National Authority.

The different uses of tonnage terms when speaking of ships are causes of confusion to the lay mind. Why ships cannot be really compared according to tonnage is explained by Capt. C. A. McAllister, engineer in chief, United States coast guard, in an article in Popular Science Monthly. For example, he states, steamship companies, in order to impress relative safety of their craft, will advertise the sailing of a certain steamer of 20,000 tons, meaning, of course, gross tons. The company's agent, in entering it at the custom house, will take precaution to certify that she is only 7,340 tons, when paying tonnage taxes. He then is referring to her net tonnage, and in fact that standard is used only when paying dues or taxes.

Displacement tonnage is almost exclusively applied to warships, as they do not carry cargoes. Strange to say, the tonnage of a battleship varies almost hourly, as coal or other weighty objects are used or taken on board. The tonnage of warships is, however, fixed; they are referred to in terms of the fixed tonnage.

A statement that a 10,000-ton battleship sank a 10,000-ton merchant ship does not mean that the ships were of equal size. The merchant ship would be much larger, owing to the different meanings of the term "ton," as applied to the two types of vessels. It is absolutely impossible to give rules for the relation of these terms, as the conditions vary too greatly. Generally speaking, the gross tonnage of a ship is from 50 to 100 per cent greater than the net tonnage.

HIS BOSS LAUGHED AT HIM

Novice Draftsman Relates How He Got His First Toehold After His Work Had Been Ridiculed.

I never shall forget the first piece of independent design with which I was intrusted—a railing and gate to divide the private from the public office in some business concern, observes a writer in the Century Magazine. I suppose I worked on it for about two solid days, assisted and encouraged as far as I was capable of receiving assistance by the men at the neighboring tables. When finally the head draftsman came around to look at my effort I was a very proud person, but when, after looking at the drawings for a minute or two, he started to make some criticism and, unable to control himself, began to laugh so hard that everybody else came around to see what he was laughing at, I was about as disappointed as anybody ever was in the world. The head draftsman was not only a great artist, but a big man. He did not take the job away from me, as he should have done; he told me where it was wrong and why it was wrong, apologized for laughing at it, and gave me in these few minutes my first toehold in comprehension of architectural design. It was then that I began to learn.

An Isolated Island.

The last and most isolated of the Polynesians is Easter Island. It lies 2,000 miles westward of the coast of Chile, its nearest neighbor being Pitcairn island, 1,400 miles further west. It is small, only 45 square miles in area, and volcanic, the surface being formed of lava of comparatively recent eruption. Hence the strange lack of vegetation so curiously at variance with a tropical climate. Grass grows on it, however, and it is for that reason largely given up to the raising of sheep and cattle.

Easter island was discovered nearly two hundred years ago by the Dutch Admiral Roggeveen, who cast anchor there on an Easter Sunday, whence it derived its name. He found it more largely populated than it is now. But he and his crew must have seen and marveled at its bold rock-sculpture, its terraces and walls, its picture writings. Many of these, indeed, rival the world-famous relics of Mexico and Peru, while they are strangely akin to them in conception and design.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thro the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

BIG FIGHT AT MOREUIL

French Oust Huns in Fierce Hand-to-Hand Struggle.

Heavy Masses of Germans Hurled Against Foch's Men Only to Be Repulsed.

With the French Army in France, April 1.—A great flood of German infantry flowed against the French lines between Moreuil and Lassigny.

It was purely a battle of foot soldiers.

Heavy masses of Germans were hurled against the French time after time, only to be cast back again by counter-attacks.

This was especially the case around Lassigny, the town which formed the limit of the German line before their retreat in March of last year.

The battle line fluctuated several times in the course of the day, both sides displaying the greatest obstinacy.

The French and Germans met often in hand-to-hand fighting in the villages of Orvillers, Plemont and Plessier de Roye, where bayonets and hand grenades did deadly work.

The French artillery sometimes found an opportunity for getting into action. It overpowered the much weaker German guns.

Moreuil was the scene of some of the hardest fighting of the day. The combatants stuggled in the streets until one or the other succumbed.

At one point German attacking columns came under almost point blank fire of French 75s, which did terrible execution in their ranks and caused a panic-stricken retreat of the survivors.

The ground before the French lines is covered thickly with German dead. The attackers are compelled to advance under a constant hail of bullets from cleverly-placed detachments, equipped with numerous machine guns, whose presence was hidden from the view of the Germans until they came within a short distance.

French aviators had virtually cleared the skies of their German adversaries, so that the attacking infantry was without the valuable assistance generally afforded from the air.

PRACTICAL USE OF POETRY

Without Verse People Would Go About Isolated From Each Other by Chaos of Misunderstanding.

If poetry could be in an instant swept not merely out of print, but out of language and tradition, there would be Babel indeed. We should go about isolated each one from each by a chaos of misunderstanding, with no more communication than we could improvise out of intellectual terms, says a writer in Century Magazine. We could suggest nothing, connote nothing, say nothing but what we could define. The practical reality of that loss one may measure by our proverbial ignorance of certain savages and oriental races whose poetry is alien to our own. Nor is that all; for poetry is not alone our common repository of past experience, but to a degree far greater than we realize our source of present action. There is no need more than to remind any observer of human nature that mankind acts rather upon passion than upon conviction. Brutus demonstrated his point in prose; it was a poetic appeal that made the stones of Rome to rise and mutiny. We define and determine and decide, and still do nothing; but when we begin to feel, something is done.

Evolution of the Lamp.

Dr. Walter Clark of Philadelphia has recently made some interesting investigations to find out how the old-time lighting conditions in his city compare with those of today, says the Popular Science Monthly. He has discovered that until as late as 1835, only flickering sperm oil and candles were in use. Not until the following decade did the "highly improved" kerosene lamp appear. Gas did not come out until the period between 1865 and 1875. And then only the wealthy could use it. It sold at $2.50 per thousand cubic feet! The efficient Welsbach mantle came out ten years later, revolutionizing artificial illumination. The present era began in 1895, when gas and electricity came into general use—gas selling at $1 per thousand cubic feet and electricity at 10 cents per kilowatt hour. Since that time the gas mantle and the electric filament have seen vast improvements, so that today the average family is obtaining about eighteen times as much light as the people of half a century ago.

GEORGIANS FIGHT TURKS

Form Big Army With Armenians to Defend Country.

Battle to Prevent Seizure of Batoum, Kars and Ardaham—Seize Russian Warships.

Petrograd, April 3.—Fierce fighting has broken out in the districts of Batoum, Kars and Ardaham, in the Caucasus. The Armenians and Georgians have formed a large army for the defense of the territory against the Turks, who have begun military occupation of the three districts by virtue of the Brest-Litovsk peace treaty.

The Georgians have seized most of the Rusian warships in the harbor of Batoum and have taken them into the Black sea. The entire population of Georgia has been mobilized to oppose the invaders.

London, April 3.—Former Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovitch, brother of the former emperor, has been arrested and imprisoned at Perm by order of the Perm council of worgmen's and soldiers' delegates, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Petrograd.

Rear Admiral Sablin has been elected commander in chief of the Black sea fleet.

General Payoff, who has been appointed commander of the Moscow military district, says a Reuter dispatch, has announced that he expects to form an army of 1,000,000 men within two months.

LINER CELTIC IS TORPEDOED

White Star Steamship Attacked by U-Boat While on Way to the U. S.

New York, April 3.—The steamship Celtic, one of the big White Star liners, was torpedoed by a German submarine, according to reliable information received in marine circles here, during a voyage from England to America.

Efforts are being made to save the vessel, which, it is believed, carried no passengers.

The Celtic has a gross tonnage of 20,904, and has for many years been one of the largest steamships in transatlantic service. She was built at Belfast in 1901 and flies the British flag.

COL. MACARTHUR BACK ON JOB

Chief of Staff of Rainbow Division Returns to Front—Was Gassed.

Washington, April 3.—Col. Douglas MacArthur, chief of staff of the Rainbow division, possessor of the American cross of honor and the French war cross for gallantry in action, recently reported as wounded in France, is back on the job. An official dispatch to the war department says that the colonel was "gassed" while leading his men in an attack but that he "has entirely recovered and resumed his duties."

WORLD'S MOST CURIOUS CITY

London Magazine Seems to Have Discovered Queer Settlement on Saginaw Bay, Lake Huron.

The most curious of cities consists of wooden huts on wheels, to the number of about one hundred and thirty, which, when the season arrives, are rolled onto the ice on Saginaw Bay, Lake Huron. The population of this city without a name is about five hundred. Each hut is fitted with cooking utensils, hammocks, and a stove, and is occupied by three men, whose business on the ice is to follow a peculiar method of fishing.

In the center of each hut a hole, about a yard square, is dug to the water. One of the fishermen then takes a live fish of the herring tribe, and after fastening it to a piece of packthread drops it into the water. The fish dashes away as swift as an arrow until it is pulled up by the thread, when it returns towards the hole followed by a host of pike and other fish desirous to feast on the dainty morsel. Beside the hole stand the fishermen, harpoon in hand, waiting the arrival of the pursuers, who are received with thrusts of the four or five-pronged instrument, which rarely fails to bring up some writhing victims.

Some huts can show two hundred or more of fine fish at the end of the day's work. The most weird appearance of this city is at night, when the fishermen prosecute the work by the light of torches, which, as is well known, attract fish without the aid of the herring bait. The glancing torches and the shadows of the men leaning over the holes make a strange spectacle. If fish are not abundant in the spot first chosen the hut is wheeled to another site.—London Tit-Bits.

FAIR PLAY ABOVE VICTORY

Canadian Soldier Generous in Seeing That Opponent Should Have His Right Chance to Shoot.

In an obscure Los Angeles suburb lives a blind man. The following is one of the many stories he tells of his experiences:

It was in the early nineties that a picked team of American riflemen had gone into Canada for a friendly contest with the Queen's Own.

The competition had been fierce and the score close when the last American rifleman laid down at 800 yards. He had to make 23 to tie and 24 to win out of a possible 25.

A great crowd had gathered to watch the contest, and had gradually closed in behind the firing station until there was very little space left for the rifleman.

The first four shots scored the bull's eye, counting 20. With his last shot he had to make a 3 to tie and a 4 to win. The excitement was intense, and the air was charged with the magnetic stillness of repressed excitement, as the commanding officer of the Queen's Own stepped forward and called out "Get back there and give the man a fair show. How can he shoot with you standing on top of him?"

The crowd fell back, the American fired, and the indicator recorded another bull's eye, making his score 25.

AN OLD TECUMSEH BOY IN THE LIME LIGHT

"Gentle Bluecoat" Gets Bad Beating From Irate Prisoner

Charles Crossman, policeman of the old school and now court attache in Police Judge Sellers' court, came to work Wednesday with his face and hands cut and bruised.

He had a new pair of trousers, also and iodine covered most of his faceand hands whichweren't marred. Furthermore, he had new spectacles.

Crossman, 53, has been more than 25 years on the force but never had he been seen disfigured. He was pressed with questions and finally told how it happened.

He had gone with a warrant charging non-support to arrest Paul Kurkowski, 35, 1500 Campbell avenue.

Paul is Belligerent.

He entered Kurkowski's home and gently broke the sad news to Paul. But Paul didn't take it gently. He refused to be arrested.

Crossman took Paul by the arm, still gently, however, thinking to lead his prisoner to jail. But Paul grabbed a bed post and held on.

Crossman pleaded and argued, but Paul was obdurate. Finally Crossman drew forth his handcuffs, thinking that worse had come to worst. But Paul dexterously locked the cuffs before Crossman could slip them over his wrists. Crossman waxed impatient and gave Kurkowski a jerk. That started it.

Crossman floored Paul wih a blow on the jaw, but Paul sank his teeth into Crossman's thigh, tearing a great rent in the blue trousers. Then the prostrate prisoner kicked upward and dazed Crossman with a boot on the nose.

Was Some Kicker

Crossman had regained his patience by that time and he let Paul rise to his feet. Paul made for a pair of scissors lying on the dresser, but Crossman floored him again. This time Paul sank his teeth into the back of Crossman's hand, tearing the flesk. Paul kicked upward again and broke Crossman's glasses, bruising his cheek and forehead. Crossman spoke harshly to Paul then, and stepped back to allow his prospective prisoner to get to his feet and be a gentleman. But Paul reached for a small chair.

By this time an audience of other tenants had gathered so when Crossman floored Paul the third time there were two boys to help hold him down while Crossman unlocked the handcuffs.

Didn't Want to Hit Him.

"In all my years of service I never got a bruise before," Crossman declared sorrowfully. "Only twice have I had to strike a man. Once I struck a man who was beating his wife on the street. Another time I found a chap lying in the gutter, drunk. The snow was thick and he would have frozen. I picked him up and got him home. I knew him as a police court character. His name was Sandy. I told him, when I got him inside his door, that if I found him drunk again I'd have to lock him up. He was extremely indignant to be called drunk, and attacked me. I had to hit him on the arm with my club to get him back in the house."

"Why didn't you hit Kurkowski over the head with your club?" asked a listening policeman.

"I didn't want to abuse him. I don't like to be rough with fellows unless it's necessary," Crossman replied.

Justice Sellers sentenced Kurkowski to 65 days in the house of correction without the option of a fine.

One of the big ocean liners was several days out from New York on a trip across the Atlantic. It was dinner time, and those at the table fell to telling stories about their experiences at sea. Finally it was the turn of a person who had previously been boasting of his lineage. He told this "yarn" says the Youth's Companion.

"It happened a number of years ago," said he, "on my fifteenth trip across the ocean, when we ran short of some provisions, particularly eggs, milk, fruit and fresh meat. We were very fortunate to have on board a resourceful fellow named Brand, who pulled us out of the difficulty in good shape. First he went to the hatchway for eggs, but, as they were a little too old to eat, they were used for cooking, and he requested the captain to have the ship lay to. This operation was repeated until we had eggs enough to go round.

"Then, at Brand's suggestion, the captain fired a ship's rocket into the Milky Way, and all we had to do was to hold buckets and catch the milk as it poured out of the hole made by the rocket. For a fruit supply we let down buckets over the side of the ship and picked up enough ocean currants to last for a week. The next day we had foul weather, which provided us with plenty of ducks and chickens. Some of these we ate and others we kept to replenish our egg supply."

"I was on that very trip," spoke up a wag at the end of the table. "It was the steamer Baltic, in October, 1908, New York to Liverpool. We also had on board a fair-sized goose, which was overlooked in some way. I'm sure they never ate the bird, but I've wondered, all these years until today whatever became of it."

Muskegon.—The recent change in coal zones set by the government fuel administrator's orders has so improved fuel conditions likely to exist in Muskegon during the coming months that local dealers are enthusiastic.

ALLIED TROOPS DRIVE WEDGE IN THE HUN'S LINES

Petain and Haig Gain in Region Between Somme and Demuin.

COUNTER-ATTACKS REPULSED

Heavy Artillery Fighting Occurs at Some Points—English Troops Take Prisoners and Machine Guns in Avre-Luce Sectors.

British Army in France, April 3.—The British stormed strongly held positions in a wood along the Luce rived. When the enemy withdrew after sharp fighting he left the ground strewn with his dead.

Paris, April 3.—French and British troops advanced between the Somme and Demuin, it is announced officially. Over most of the front between the Somme and the Oise the night was relatively calm. Heavy artillery fighting occurred at some points. The statement follows:

"The night was relatively calm on the front between the Oise and the Somme. The artillery fighting became rather heavy along some parts of the battlefield.

"Franco-British troops made some progress during the night between the Somme and Demuin.

"In the region of the Colonne trench and at Ban de Sapt, the French made two successful raids and took prisoners. At Chambrettes a German attack on small French posts was repulsed."

British Take Prisoners.

London, April 3.—In the sector between the Avre and Luce rivers the British took 50 prisoners, the war office announces. Thirteen machine guns were captured.

Near Hebuterne the British made a successful attack, capturing machine guns and prisoners. A German counter-attack was repulsed. The statement follows:

"In the course of the fighting in the area between the Avre and the Luce rivers, we captured 50 prisoners and 13 machine guns. A large number of German dead were found on the ground in this locality by us, and two counter-attacks attempted by the enemy later in the day were broken up with heavy loss by our artillery. A German battery in action in this area was successfully engaged at short range and silenced by our machine guns.

Counter Blow Repulsed.

"A successful local enterprise carried out by us in the neighborhood of Hebuterne resulted in the capture of 73 prisoners and three machine guns. Many Germans were killed in this operation also, and a hostile counter-attack during the afternoon was completely repulsed.

"On the remainder of the front successful raids, in which we secured several prisoners and killed a number of the enemy were carried out in the neighborhood of Acheville and Hollebecke."

General Foch, the new allied commander in chief, has stated that Amiens is covered and that he is prepared to guarantee it. This has come as a strong tonic, because the British public appreciates fully the serious consequences which would follow its loss.

Infantry Battle Dies Down.

Infantry operations on a large scale on the Picardy battlefield have died down, while both sides prepare for the next move in the great conflict. Vicious local fighting has occurred between Albert and Montdidier, but the Germans have been checked in all attempts to advance toward Amiens, while the Franco-British troops have made small gains between the Somme and Demuin.

In the days of desperate and sanguinary fighting since they launched their attacks on the line before Cambrai, St. Quentin and La Fere, the German command apparently has learned that massed infantry attacks without great artillery preparation are fruitless and most costly. The German artillery fire is reported to be weak, indicating that the enemy has not yet been able to move his big guns across the barren region between St. Quentin and Albert.

Seventy-seven German divisions are on the battle line waiting for the guns before attempting another gigantic effort to reach Amiens. North of the Somme there are 40 divisions, while 37 are on the line between the Somme and Chauny. And it is known that the German guns have not all been moved forward.

Americans May Participate.

Meanwhile the allies' armies under General Foch are making ready not only to counter another German blow, which the enemy must make or concede defeat, but probably also to open a counter-offensive. It is not unlikely that American troops will participate in the aproaching renewal of heavy fighting along most of the line, as more than 100,000 are moving toward the battle lines. Some unseasoned American units will be placed side by side with hardened British and French veterans, according to a decision announced in London.

The Germans are reported to be massing troops before Albert, where their attacks were beaten back by the British Monday. The British command looks for heavy German efforts north of the Somme, where it is believed the enemy has most of his fighting force, but, where there has been no marked activity since the repulse on Arras Thursday.

Allies Regain Some Ground.

Except for the activity at Albert the fighting has been confined to the line between the Somme and Montdidier. The allied troops have reclaimed some ground between the Somme and Demuin, while between Hangard and Moreuil heavy German attacks were beaten off with loss. German attempts against Grivesnes, northwest of Montdidier, were repulsed sanguinarily by the French.

Artillery exchanges continue on the rest of the front in France, including the American sector near Toul and on the Italian front. The Austro-German artillery fire against the Italian lines is moderate and there are yet no indications that the enemy is ready to launch his attack with the many thousands of troops reported to have been brought from the eastern war theater.

FLOUR MILLS AT STANDSTILL

Textile Factories Cut From 1,700 to 70; Shoe Shops, 1,400 to 300.

Amsterdam, April 3.—A leading German manufacturer, writing in the Norddeutsche Allegemeine Zeitung, says:

"Out of 1,700 spinning and weaving mills only 70 are still running at high pressure, while in the boot and shoe industry 1,400 factories have been amalgamated into 300. In the oil industry 15 factories working at high pressure have been formed out of 720 works previously existing. In the silk industry the number of spindles has been reduced from 45,000 to 2,500."

Commenting on this letter, the Tageblatt remarks:

"This shows for the first time in statistics the great extent to which the closing down of factories has taken place in Germany."

YANKEES TRICK THE GERMANS

Americans Tap System of Telephone Communication in Advance Support Positions.

With the American Army in France, April 3.—The American forces obtained accurate information that the work of their intelligence department has been so effective that the German system of telephonic communication in advance support positions is practically useless.

The Boche positions are "tapped" by ground sets, by means of which the Americans listen in, and phone communication is useless for a depth of almost two miles. The Germans are obliged to rely exclusively on runners or dogs. Great numbers of the war dogs are observable in the vicinity of German listening and observation posts.

AUSTRIANS HOLD ARMY INTACT

General Straussenburg Says Older Classes Cannot Be Released—Fears Italy and America.

Zurich, April 3.—The Austrian generalissimo, Straussenburg, in an interview with the Neu Wiener Tageblatt, declared the older classes of soldiers cannot be released, saying: "We must not forget the Americans, French and English are as much our enemies as Germany's, and we have yet a formidable struggle with the Italians, who have completely recuperated."

CLEMENCEAU AUTO HIT BY FOE

French Premier's Car Partly Wrecked by Shells While He Visits Battle Front.

Paris, April 3.—Premier Clemenceau, while making his daily visit to the front yesterday, ventured so near the first line that his automobile was shelled vigorously by the German artillery. All the windows were broken, but M Clemenceau was not hurt.

The premier returned to Paris enthusiastic and full of confidence in the favorable issue of the present great battle.

1,373 GERMANS IN CAMP

Arrival of War Prisoners at Fort McPherson Internment Camp Enlarges Number of Aliens.

Atlanta, Ga., April 3.—Five hundred and seven German prisoners arrived in Atlanta Monday night from Fort Douglas, Ariz., and were sent to the internment camp at Fort McPherson, to be kept for the remainder of the war. They have been in custody for more than a year. Their arrival increased the number of war prisoners at the local camp to 1,373.

LINER CELTIC IS DOCKED

Torpedoed White Star Steamer Is Saved—Steamship Carlisle Castle Reported Sunk.

New York, April 3.—The Celtic, reported torpedoed in a cable to the White Star line, has docked at a British port, according to word received by the line.

Boston, April 3.—The steamship Carlisle Castle which sailed from an American port for England with a cargo for the British government, has been sunk by a German submarine, according to advices received here.

Sunlight Distressing.

In addition to the wind there is another peculiarity of the inland ice which adds to the difficulties to be encountered in the Arctic. That is the extreme intensity of the sunlight, which can be realized only by those who have experienced it. During the summer months the sun shines as brightly there in clear weather as anywhere further south, and this continuous brilliancy is intensified a hundredfold by the reflection from endless fields of glistening, sparkling snow, unrelieved by a single object. The strongest eyes can stand such a blinding glare only a few hours without protection. We always wore heavy smoked glasses, and when in camp found it impossible to sleep without still further protecting the eyes by tying a narrow band of fur about them to exclude the light. Only when a storm is brewing does this intense light become subdued. At such times, however, the sky and snow take on a peculiar gray, opaque light, which is even more trying than the sunlight.—Century Magazine.

Manton.—Arthur Grant, of Benzonia, is perhaps the most persistent volunteer in the state. About three months ago, he left the University of Michigan to enlist in Detroit, where he was rejected, because of physical defects, which could be corrected by an operation. He therefore underwent the operation, but at the second enlistment examination another physical flaw was discovered. He again went under the knife, but again the attempt was unsuccessful. So he tried a third one, inflammatory rheumatism has set in, due to his weakened condition.

U. S. MEN CHEER WHEN ORDER TO MOVE IS GIVEN

Americans Anxious to Fight With British and French in Big Battle.

MARCH IN DOUBLE COLUMN

Roads in France Are Again Jammed With Yankees—Those First to Go Held in Luck by Comrades Who Remain Behind.

Rome, April 3.—Neutral report places Germany's losses in the present battle at 525,000.

With the American Army in France, April 3.—Definite official announcement that American troops will actually fight side by side with the French and British in northern France reached the American troops last night in Paris newspapers. It was greeted with cheering.

The men who will go are envied by the rest of the American forces.

As they passed by on the roads they were speeded on their way with cries such as: "Eat 'em up!" and "Gee, you fellows are in luck!"

Orders to proceed toward the plains of Picardy were received from the French high command three days ago, but until it was officially announced no mention could be made of it.

Troops Jame Muddy Roads.

The muddy roads were again today jammed with Americans on the move. In some cases they were marching in double lines, taking up the road from side to side.

For obvious reasons it is inadvisable to disclose where the troops are going, where they are coming from, or even the directions in which the movements are being made. It may not be many days, however, before the United States will know. It is probable that the first news will come with the report of the American forces in action, but when that may be is another subject which cannot be discussed.

Anxious to Face Huns.

Whenever it is, it is certain that the troops will give a good account of themselves, for they are husky, hardy, trained and completely equipped and on their toes for a clash with the enemy. If this clash should be in the open the troops will like it all the better, for they say: "That's our game."

All are determined to get into the fight if possible. The correspondent saw men marching, limping along, but refusing to drop out for fear that they might be left behind. If there was a single straggler in the long marching lines he has effectively hidden himself.

EXPRESS COMPANIES AS UNIT

Merger of the Carriers Being Worked Out—Announcement Expected Within Week.

Washington, April 3.—Merging of the express companies under a new corporation, to operate them as a unit and work out a basis for distribution of profits, is under consideration between the railroad administration and representatives of the companies. Some announcement is expected within a week.

NO BULGARS IN BIG BATTLE

U. S. Consul Murphy at Sofia Says No Bulgarian Troops Moved to West.

Washington, April 3.—A report to the state department from American Consul General Murphy at Sofia states that no Bulgarian troops were moved to the western front for the big German offensive. It had been reported that Bulgarians were fighting in the west alongside Germans and Austrians.

HEAVY FINE FOR PRO-GERMAN

Penalty Approved by Senators for All Who Back Kaiser by Word or Act.

Washington, April 3.—In favorably reporting a bill to impose drastic penalties on disloyal acts, the senate judiciary committee adopted an amendment by Senator Poindexter of Washington prescribing imprisonment for 20 years and $10,000 fine for "whoever shall by word or act support or favor the cause of the German empire or its allies in the present war, or by word or act oppose the cause of the United States therein."

Britain Gets Another Loan.

Washington, April 3.—Great Britain received another loan of $200,000,000, the treasury department announced. British credits by the United States now amount to $2,720,000,000.

U. S. to Get Jap Ships.

Tokyo, April 3.—The amount of tonnage to be turned over to the United States by Japan under the arrangement made by the Japanese shipping commission is estimated by the press at about 250,000.

Alpena.—Cecil Corbin, former U. of M. track star, injured in the aviation service in Texas, is home on a three month's furlough. He is regaining his sight, temporarily lost when his gasoline tank exploded during a flight.

Lansing.—Older men from all parts of the country are flocking into the service of the Y. M. C. A., Michigan contributing seven men to the most recent quota sent overseas for service with the American army in France.

Lansing.—The supreme court denied the right of the city of Kalamazoo to fix rates for gas used by consumers. Kalamazoo has a "legislative" charter and the ruling does not affect cities operating under "home rule" charters.

JUST WHAT INTERESTED BILL

"I was riding on a freight train through Kansas," a Santa Fe official relates. "I was up in the cupola of the caboose. Downstairs the conductor and the rear brakeman watched carefully a pan of beans 'warming over' on the old coal stove. They waited only the return of the head brakeman before 'putting away' their luncheons, which they were taking from their full dinner pails. The pan of beans was a partnership dish. I could see the head brakeman coming down the train from the engine. Suddenly there was a jerk, a shock, and I saw freight cars begin to pitch from the track and pile up in heaps. I had a hasty vision of the head brakeman sailing through the air and landing in a cornfield, clear of the right of way.

"'Bill's killed!' I shouted as I clutched wildly to retain my seat. 'He's been thrown clear over into the field.'

"As the caboose finally came to a standstill, about the only car left on the track, the conductor and the rear brakeman rushed forward to gather up the remains of 'Bill.' But as they ran to him 'Bill' picked himself up in a dazed sort of way and was brushing the dirt from his eyes and his clothes when they reached him.

"There was at least $75,000 worth of cars and freight piled up there in that wreck, probably $100,000—a total loss. But the question 'Bill' asked as his rescuers reached him was:

"'Boys, how's them beans back there?'"

LIFE OF A DEPOT AGENT

His Duties Are Manifold and He Is Envied by Few, According to This.

The life of a railway agent is one of roses and cinders for the most part. Some folks think that about all he has to do is to sell tickets and keep the extra cent when he makes odd change, but there are other things in the life of a railway agent besides framing your face in a ticket office window and opening a money drawer with a doorbell on it, and smiling when the folks ask him what time the 5:03 train will be here if it's on time.

From early in the morning when he starts the day by looking into the coal bin at the end of the platform to see how much bituminous has been stolen during the night, until sundown, when he starts out to [illegible] on the switch posts, he is an extremely busy man, says the Walker (Minn.) Pilot. Between checking over freight receipts and running the hay press for the carbon copies of waybills, it's no wonder he hasn't time to build a fire in the waiting room or rub off last week's train schedule from the blackboard, because he is a busy man.

He listens to telephones with one ear and taps telegraph keys with the other, and has been known to answer the phone, sell a steamship ticket and put a bucket of coal in the stove all at the same time, in order to get his work done within the eight-hour schedule.

About the only ones to envy an agent his job are the girls in the town, and that's because he has such a good chance to get acquainted with the brakemen on all the freights.

Long Ride Before Him.

A cyclist, who stopped at a village inn, boasted of his abilities as a rider to such an extent that the landlord ventured to make a wager with him.

"Look here, mister," said the innkeeper, "you can't ride up and down this road till the church clock strikes six."

"Done," said the cyclist. "It's just close on five now;" and the next minute he was speeding down the road.

After about an hour's riding the cyclist shouted to one of the bystanders, of whom many had assembled:

"I say, has the church clock struck six yet?"

"No, you idiot," was the blunt reply. "That clock of ours never strikes at all."—London Tit-Bits.

American Girls Who Marry Young.

The census bureau finds that hundreds of American girls in every twelve months are married at fifteen. Thousands annually are married at sixteen. Out of every 100 women in this country eleven have married before passing nineteen. In New England (according to the census data) only one woman in fifteen gets an acceptable proposal before she is twenty. In the south, the desirable man offers himself to one out of five or one out of six girls of nineteen or under. It is shown by the census that a young woman's chance of offers is decidedly better in a rural community than anywhere else.

Hottest Heat.

The highest temperature ever reached by man is 9,400 degrees Fahrenheit. This was produced by two English experimenters, Sir Andrew Noble and Sir F. Abel, asserts a scientist. This was done by exploding cordite in a durable steel cylinder. This was due to the suddenness of the reaction, and, although of momentary duration, it was an interesting scientific achievement, nevertheless. With the aid of cordite Sir William Crookes was able to make small diamonds. Professor Moissan, who has produced diamonds, can heat his electric furnace to 6,300 degrees.

LENAWEE COUNTY PATRIOTIC LEAGUE

Hold Annual Meeting and Elect Officers at Adrian Wednesday

Governor Albert S. Sleeper and John C. Ketcham Principal Speakers

The Lenawee County Patriotic League held their annual meeting at Adrian Wednesday afternoon and elected officers for the coming year. Delegates from all over the county were present. The meeting was held at Croswell Opera House and was called for 1:30 o'clock, but it was nearer 2:30 before the meeting was called to order.

Robert Darnton called the meeting to order and gave the delegates something of a jolt when he announced that under no circumstances would he be a candidate for re-election for the office of president of the League.

Judge H. R. Larwill made a brief talk to the convention telling of the able manner in which Bob Darnton had conducted the affairs of the League for the past year, how he had loyally given of his ability and time to the best interests of the League and ended in stating that the members of the Patriotic League would not consent to the withdrawal of Mr. Darnton from the presidency.

Judge Larwill presented Mr. Darnton's name in nomination and he was made president for this coming year.

Mr. Darnton, in accepting, stated that he didn't care for the job, but as it was forced upon him, he expected every man to stand back of him and work harder and dig harder than they had yet done.

The other officers elected, are as follows:

Vice President—W. H. Burnham, Adrian

Ten advisory vice presidents—

H. S. Temple, Tecumseh
Vining B. Colgrove, Medina
Wm. Derbyshire, Hudson
James E. Gilson, Deerfield
Charles Evans, Tipton
H. W. Porter, Fairfield
J. B. Daniels, Onsted
E. B. Root, Morenci
Harry Temple, Ridgeway
W. H. Burns, Blissfield

Secretary—R. C. Rothfuss, Adrian
Treasurer—P. J. Dunn, Adrian

The treasurer, P. J. Dunn, was called upon to give his annual report which showed that a total of nearly $50,000 had been received during the year and a total of a little over $48,000 had been disbursed for various patriotic purposes. The balance on hand at this time with the treasurer is $1,281.

President Darnton announced that Lenawee's quota for the third Liberty Loan is placed at $1,276,000 and that the drive to sell these bonds would start this coming Saturday.

A rousing patriotic meeting followed the business session, speeches being made by Governor A. S. Sleeper, John C. Ketcham, F. R. Fenton, sales director of Liberty Bonds for the Seventh Federal Reserve District and Edward Frensdorf. Music was furnished by a chorus of high school girls and boys and the 330th Regiment band from Camp Custer.

The delegates from Tecumseh who attended the meeting were H. S. Temple, J. R. Nyland, Rev. W. A. Rex, G. E. Nemire, James Elliott, Jr., and F. S. Turner. A number of others from Tecumseh attended the big meeting.

JOHN C. KETCHAM, MASTER OF THE STATE GRANGE

At Grange Hall Wednesday Evening Big Crowd in Attendance

John C. Ketcham Master of the State Grange had a busy day of it Wednesday. In the afternoon he was one of the principal speakers at the big patriotic meeting at Adrian and in the evening he was in Tecumseh for a talk to the Tecumseh Grangers. He was delayed in getting over from Adrian and it was nearly 9 o'clock before he began his speech here. The hall was filled with members of he Grange and their friends, who had arrived at 7:30 the hour announced for the meeting and although they had to wait over an hour for the speaker they were good natured about it all, put in the time visiting and listening to music furnished by the Ukulele Quartette.

John T. Boyce introduced the speaker who took for his subject "The Farmer and the World Crisis." Mr. Ketcham is a forceful, rapid fire speaker, who carries conviction to his hearers and holds their attention from start to finish. After a few preliminary remarks he launched into his subject. He handled his topic under threee heads: 1st The duty the farmer owes to himself; 2nd His duty to the community in which he lives and 3rd, His relation to his country.

Under the first head he told of the enormous importance the industry of farmers is to this country, how last years crop was estimated to be worth something like $18,000,000,000. Increased production is being urged upon the farmer as never before and the farmer is making good, but he is being hampered by the steady trend of the farm worker from the farm to the city. The speaker thought it took a little more intelligence to cultivate the soil and produce good crops than it did to stand for hours in a city factory and put in bolts in the hubs of automobile wheels. Farmers must become better business men, they must go out into the markets of the world and compete with labor. They should unite and see to it that they sell and that prices should be based upon cost of production plus a fair profit. Our halls of Congress at Washington were not today graced b a fair representation of farmers. They can be counted upon the fingers of your hand. The larger percentage are lawyers who have formerly spent most of their lives trying to tear down the laws which have been made and now are devoting their energies to making new ones. Laws should be passed which are more favorable to the farmer.

Under the head of the farmer's duty to his community he impressed upon the farmer his duty to the community in which he lives, the spirit of co-operation is abroad and they must co-operate and broaden out socially religiously and in every way. The time was when a farmer because of his isolated location in a community thought by himself and lived by himself, but this time has passed.

Lastly the relation of the farmer to his country.

The farmer will do his duty but he stated that buying and holding bonds was something new to the farmer as this rather profitable job has been here-to-fore the occupation of the wealthy class who reside in the financial communities, but he predicted that even in the matter of buying Liberty Bonds, when the farmer really understood better he would measure up as many already have.

He suggested tht people had better stop telling what the other fellow should do and pay particular attention to what he should do himself. He pointed with pride to what his own county had done in the second Liberty Loan campaign. Barry county had gone "over the top" and over subscribed its quota 22 per cent. and he predicted that when the returns from the 3rd campaign were sent in Barry county would have an interesting story to send over the wire.

The meeting closed with singing by Mr. Camp and daughter, Miss Edna Taylor accompanying.

ANOTHER BOY WRITES FROM FRANCE

February 23. 1918

The following is a letter received by Mrs. Wm. Bly from her brother Robert L. Gilliam:

"Somewhere in France."

My Dear Sister and Bud:

Your letter of January 20th received today and was sure glad to hear from you and to know all are well. I never felt better in my life than I am feeling these days and most all the boys over here are in fine shape. I have moved a couple of times since I wrote you last and at present am in a camp where we realize our country is at war.

It is much colder and damper here than where we were last camped, but even at that it isn't cold enough to freeze. There are lots of things I would like to tell you and would like to send you views of this country but at present it can't be done.

I saw in the papers where mills, factories and etc were being shut down account of coal shortage but I didn't think at the time about your plant being among the number.

We have a fine Y. M. C. A. and Red Cross here and don't know what the camp would do without them. We can play basket ball and other out door games at the "Y" and they have nice reading and writing tables and most everything we could wish for. The Red Cross serves hot coffee and sandwiches to the boys at very low costs and it seems so much like America in their buildings. I haven't any kick at all with the army, in fact I like the rough life and have had a great experience and seen many interesting sights since I joined and I expect to see something in the next few weeks that I have not yet seen!

I didn't get the package you sent me, but guess it will be coming in one of these days. There's one thing Sis. that I need, if it doesn't cost too much and that's a laundry bag.

I will close, let me here from all of you. With much love to all.

Your Brother,
Robert L. Gilliam.

MONDAY CLUB

The meeting of the Monday club this week was of a patriotic nature and everyone present were intensely interested. Mrs. F. C. Dickinson as president, called the meeting to order and during the business session $10.00 was voted for the Red Cross. Later Mrs. J. D. Shull took charge as leader and announced a most excellent program: G. Roscoe Swift of Adrian sang his opening number, "Your Flag and My Flag" with "Keep the Home Fires Burning" as an encore, Mrs. F. B. Wood accompanied him. Next Mrs. R. S. Moore recited "Do Your Bit" with her encore "When ever I look in My Mirror."

After Mr. Swift had sung "When the Flag Goes By", the ladies gave him a rising vote of thanks for taking the trouble to come over here to sing for them.

Then Mrs. Shull introduced Rev. W. A. Rex and he proceeded to give one of his enthusiastically patriotic speeches. He said we were now in our battle of Gettysburg and we would be called upon to do more, much more, than we have yet done—that there is not a shadow of doubt but that we would win the war only we want peace as soon as possible and we must work hard to conquer the enemy quickly.

He has a lot of faith in women for he said the gentler sex would win the war.

First, along the line of cost. That the larger part of money controlled by women is lying idle and to the women will come the stronger appeal to buy Liberty Bonds.

Then through their conservation of food. The granaries have more to do with winning the war than the finest ammunition and guns. That we've got to feed our boys and woman helps the most in that item.

Also the industries—Woman, all over the world is going into the ammunition factories and rich and poor alike, are helping their government.

The optimism of woman is bound to be a great factor, for her hopefulness will cheer the most down-hearted man. He admonished the women to refrain from some of the talk going around, that it was disloyal—hence proGerman. He closed with Van Dyke's little poem "John Dark Returns."

Miss Dorothy Balmer sang "Three Green Bonnets" accompanied by Miss Thompson. She was encored and responded graciously. The club meeting closed with "America."

MONROE PRESBYTERY MEETING

At First Presbyterian Church, Tecumseh, Monday, April 8, 1918

A meeting of the Monroe Presbytery will be held in this town Monday evening April 8 at 7:30. The meeting will be held at the First Presbyterian church. An interesting program will be given consisting of music and a talk by Rev. John Comin of Three Rivers, Mich. Rev. Comin is the new Superintendent of Home Missions in Michigan.

MONDAY CLUB

Next Monday will be the last regular meeting of the Monday Club for the year 1917-18. A pleasing and interesting program has been provided which will be worth the while of all members. Mrs. Chas. Burridge will have a paper on "Moths," a topic which she is well fitted to discuss. There will be music and readings in addition. Let this last afternoon be a feast of reason, good fellowship and cheer. Bring knitting or other Red Cross work and prepare for a sociable time.

Tuesday evening will be Gentlemen's Evening with a special program and refreshments. This will be held in the Baptist church. Detailed announcement will be made at Monday's meeting.

TECUMSEH UNIT, COUNCIL OF NATIONAL DEFNESE

The regular school of instruction will not be held this Saturday afternoon, since all women of the unit are expected to be engaged in the work of pushing the third Liberty Loan.

Once this duty is discharged however, the plan of registration will again take first place. Every woman should be pondering on how she shall register. Some are already planning extra garden work as their share. Others will buy day-old chicks and raise them or go into rabbit raising.

There are very few who cannot add a mite more to an already busy day since Uncle Sam asks it. It may prove to their own profit as well as Uncle Sam's.

The Detroit Postoffice has appointed its first woman clerk, others will follow suit. The government's best fingerprint expert is a woman. Women have made a success of "conductoring" on the New York City street railways. In the west they are acting as train auditors. England has 4,000,000 women at work. What will you do? Better be thinking about it.

RESEARCH CIRCLE

Between 40 and 50 members of the Research Circle met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Belding. Tuesday night at 6:30 a bountiful potluck supper was served, after which a short program was given.

Singing, "America" by the Circle.

Paper, "Waste Lumber in Mich."—Mrs. J McIntyre.

Music by Piano player Guy Belding.

Vocal solo—Miss Edna Taylor

Dr. Hartzog then favored the company with a fine talk on the War, bringing out many interesting points. The meeting then closed, the guests all agreeing that the evening had been a very profitable one.

PRACTICAL USE OF POETRY

Without Verse People Would Go About Isolated From Each Other by Chaos of Misunderstanding.

If poetry could be in an instant swept not merely out of print, but out of language and tradition, there would be Babel indeed. We should go about isolated each one from each by a chaos of misunderstanding, with no more communication than we could improvise out of intellectual terms, says a writer in Century Magazine. We could suggest nothing, connote nothing, say nothing but what we could define. The practical reality of that loss one may measure by our proverbial ignorance of certain savages and oriental races whose poetry is alien to our own. Nor is that all; for poetry is not alone our common repository of past experience, but to a degree far greater than we realize our source of present action. There is no need more than to remind any observer of human nature that mankind acts rather upon passion than upon conviction. Brutus demonstrated his point in prose; it was a poetic appeal that made the stones of Rome to rise and mutiny. We define and determine and decide, and still do nothing; but when we begin to feel, something is done.

Evolution of the Lamp.

Dr. Walter Clark of Philadelphia has recently made some interesting investigations to find out how the old-time lighting conditions in his city compare with those of today, says the Popular Science Monthly. He has discovered that until as late as 1885, only flickering sperm oil and candles were in use. Not until the following decade did the "highly improved" kerosene lamp appear. Gas did not come out until the period between 1865 and 1875. And then only the wealthy could use it. It sold at $2.50 per thousand cubic feet! The efficient Welsbach mantle came out ten years later, revolutionizing artificial illumination. The present era began in 1895, when gas and electricity came into general use—gas selling at $1 per thousand cubic feet and electricity at 10 cents per kilowatt hour. Since that time the gas mantle and the electric filament have seen vast improvements, so that today the average family is obtaining about eighteen times as much light as the people of half a century ago.

SET AN EXAMPLE OF HONESTY

Street Car Passenger Left Fare With Woman Who Took Advantage of Opportunity to Be Dishonest.

The man in the corner seat looked worried. At last he spoke.

"Madam," he said, "will you kindly take this nickel and give it to the conductor when he comes around? I have been trying to catch his eye, but he apparently does not see me. Will you see that he gets it?"

The woman sat bewildered in the presence of such extraordinary honesty, but she good-naturedly accepted the trust. After the man left the car, she, too, attempted to establish a line of communication with the conductor, but failed. She was nearing her own destination, but conscience forbade her leaving the car until her neighbor's fare had been paid. Before that feat was accomplished she had been carried four blocks past her street. When she finally got home her temper was slightly damaged.

"But you shouldn't have been so accommodating," said her husband. "You should have got off at your corner."

"But how could I?" the woman argued. "With that man's honesty before me as an example of right living I simply had to turn his nickel over to the conductor."

"Maybe you are right," said the man admiringly. "Women certainly do have fine notions about these things. But it is too bad. You had to walk back."

"Oh, no, I didn't walk," she said. "I rode."

"And that cost you another nickel."

"No, it didn't," she said. "The conductor never even looked my way when he came through, and I got off without having to pay."

HALF-WAY WORK DEGRADING

Should Confess Our Poverty or Parsimony, But Not Belie Our Human Intellect, Says Writer.

We are, none of us, wrote Ruskin, so good architects as to be able to work habitually beneath our strength; and yet there is not a building that I know of, lately raised, wherein it is not sufficiently evident that neither architect nor builder has done his best. It is the especial characteristic of modern work. All old work nearly has been hard work. It may be the hard work of children, of barbarians, of rustics; but it is always their utmost. Let us have done with this kind of work at once; cast off every temptation to it; do not let us degrade ourselves voluntarily, and then mutter and mourn over our shortcomings; let us confess our poverty or our parsimony, but not belie our human intellect. It is not a question of doing more, but of doing better. Do not let us boss our roofs with wretched, half-worked, blunt-edged rosettes; do not let us flank our gates with rigid imitations of medieval statuary. Such things are mere insults to common sense, and only unfit us for feeling the nobility of their prototypes.

Sufficient Unto the Day, Etc.

When a father decided that his son needed application of the gad, he informed the boy that punishment was not far off and went into the yard to cut a switch, says Indianapolis News. When he returned the boy was gone. He searched and did not find. Then he called his wife and both of them searched. They searched low but not high, for if they had cast their eyes aloft they would have seen that the boy had climbed a telephone pole and was safely out of harm's way for the time being. A neighbor spied him and gave away his whereabouts. The boy sought a compromise, saying he would come down at a declaration of peace and no sooner. The compromise was finally effected on the promise that the next time he needs a whipping he will get one twice as hard as is needed, to make up for the one he missed.

Lansing.—By a decision of the supreme court the conviction of Fay Spaulding, a Battle Creek druggist, charged with violation of the Pray liquor law, was affirmed. Spaulding ordered a large consignment of liquor in Chicago, and under a fictitious name had it shipped to Parma, in Jackson county. It was then carried from Jackson county, which is wet, to Calhoun county, where local option prevails, by dray line.

New York's First Day Subscription to Loan $102,000,000

Chicago's Purchases Estimated at $18,000,000—Two Hundred Small Towns Fill Their Quotas.

New York, April 8.—New York's first day subscription to third Liberty loan estimated at $102,000,000.

Chicago, April 8.—Chicago's first day subscription approximates $18,000,000—one-seventh of its minimum apportionment.

Two hundred towns—mostly small towns—filled their quotas. Seven Illinois counties report quotas passed.

Chicago set a pace on Saturday in the third Liberty loan drive which, if maintained daily, would lead the city over the top in a week.

With the people stirred by a patriotic demonstration which in its spontaneity probably never has been equaled in Chicago, the first day's subscriptions leaped to nearly $18,000,000, or about one-seventh of the quota for the city. Subscriptions began to come in early in the day and kept up until midnight.

MRS. GOODWIN ASKS DIVORCE

Fifth Wife of Well-Known Actor Begins Action in New York Court.

New York, April 8.—Mrs. Nat C. Goodwin, the fifth, who was Miss Margaret Moreland, has begun action for absolute divorce. After the filing record had been seen by a reporter—the papers themselves couldn't be, because of the law—Mr. Goodwin repeated a denial that he had been served with papers in a divorce action.

"Nothing to it," Mr. Goodwin said. "When I last saw Mrs. Goodwin two nights ago we dined together. She was very amicable then. I will admit she isn't living with me now."

Evidently Mr. Goodwin hopes to reach an amicable agreement.

HENDERSHOT—SMITH

A very pretty Easter wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hendershot in Macon, Saturday, March 30. At this time their only daughter, Florence Margaret became the wife of Ira Ray Smith, Rev. Somers, their pastor, officiated using the impressive ring service. Mrs. Hazel Paschal played the wedding march as the bride and groom unattended assumed the solemn vows in the living room in front of a bank of ferns and carnations. The bride was tastefully dressed in soft white silk with lace trimmings. She carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations and ferns.

A three course wedding dinner was served after the ceremony, covers being laid for forty guests. At the close of the dinner Miss Edna E. McClue, an aunt of the bride, entertained the company with a bright original poem conveying expressions of good will and timely suggestions to the wedded pair.

The gifts were varied and useful among them being a twenty dollar gold piece from the bride's parents. Mrs. Baron Pennington was present with her camera and took several snapshot views.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith motored to Jackson for a brief visit with relatives. They will make their home with Mrs. Smith's parents on Spring farm. Both are well known and have many friends who wish them God speed.

MRS. CATHERINE HENDERSHOT

Mrs. Catherine C. Hendershot was born Nov. 1, 1845 in Macon and departed this life March 27, 1918 at the age of 72 years at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Gustine Sisson Tecumseh, Mich. She was united in marriage to M. V. Hendershot, Jan. 13, 1876. To this union two daughters were born, Mrs. Gustine Sisson of Tecumseh and Mrs. Addie Randall of Marion, Mich. Besides these and her husband she leaves to mourn her loss two step daughters, Mrs. Chas. Nobles, Tecumseh, Mich. and Mrs. Louis Gilles, Kansas City, Ka., and four brothers and one sister, Dr. E. Hendershot and John Hendershot, Tecumseh; Geo. Hendershot, Macon; Micheal Hendershot, Billingham, Washington and Mrs. Samuel Wood, Dunkirk, Ohio.

The funeral was held Saturday at the Sisson home with burial at Macon.

We wish to express our thanks to neighbors and friends who so kindly showed their sympathy during the death and burial of our wife and mother to those who furnished flowers and autos to the singers and to Mr. Rex for his comforting words.

M. V. Hendershot and family.

LIBRARY NOTES

The response to the call for books for the soldiers has been most gratifying. Two boxes have been shipped this week and more are still coming in for the next shipment. For the most part the books brought have reflected the true spirit of giving; that is, they have been the sort one would like to keep, not the kind one wants to get rid of. One of our out-of-town friends especially has put most of us to shame by the generosity, both as to quality and quantity of her gift.

We are more than glad to do our bit toward the helping of camp life, but we also recognize the importance of keeping the home fires burning, so we have added to our local library a few new books for the soldiers of the future; the boys who are still with us. These books are:

Light Keepers a story of U. S. Lighthouse service.

Redney McGaw, a story of the big show and the cheerful spirit.

Boy Scouts in a Lumber Camp this title speaks for itself.

Squirrels and other fur bearers. This book is by John Burroughs who is a delightful writer of nature lore.

Insect Adventures, Henri Fabre, a celebrated French writer and naturalist has written this especially for the young folks.

American boys book of bugs, butterflies, and beetles.

The Lost Prince. This fascinating story was published in the St. Nicholas but is worth a book all to itself.

The Belgian twins. If we can't adopt any we can at least read about them.

Little Folks on Thrones.
Little Folks who did great things.
Little Heroes.

The three books make one realize how big some little people can be.

There were other good books ordered especially for boys, but they failed to arrive this time so the boys may expect them later.

The girls have two more of the popular "Patty" books to read "Little Heroines", and "Camp Fire girls and Mt. Greylock."

On the adult list are the following.

The White Morning, Atherton. This book gives us some idea of the German feminist movement.

France Bears the Burden, Fortescue. Really worth while.

Benefits Forgot, Wilsie. A story of Lincoln and Mother Love.

A Hilltop on the Marne, Aldrich.

The World's Greatest Military spies, Barton.

Vanished Cathedrals of France, Edwards. [illegible]

Frenzied Fiction. Leacock.

For the story book shelf;

Carolyn of the Corners, Endicott.
Once to Every man, Evans.
Triumph, Harben.
We can't Have Everything, Hughes.
Hope Chest, Luther.
Sheaf of Bluebells, Orczy.
Oh, Money! Money! E. Porter.
The Silent Bullett, Reeve.
Order No. 11, Stanley.

YANKEE TAKEN BY U-BOAT

First Officer of Steamship Atlantic Sun Held Prisoner by Germans to Win Bouns.

An Atlantic Port, April 8.—When the American oil steamship Atlantic Sun, of 2,333 tons gross, was torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine in the war zone a few weeks ago the first officer was taken prisoner by the crew of the U-boat, according to members of the oil vessel's crew who arrived here. The German said that he was obliged to produce an officer in order to obtain a bonus which, he said, the German government had offered for sinkings.

"WIN THE WAR" MEETING

In Adrian Sunday Evening

In Adrian Sunday evening the two Methodist churches held a "Win the War" meeting at the M. E. church to launch the sale of Liberty Loan Bonds in Adrian. The church was packed to the last seat in the gallery, the G. A. R., Relief Corps and Sons of Veterans coming in a body.

Rev. Olmsted, the pastor, presided at the first of the meeting and later turned the program over to E. M. Smith. The Imperial Band played several selections.

The first speaker was Mrs. Frank Dodge whose subject was "Woman's War Service," showing how the registration of women April 27th to May 4th will help the Government and the women to take the place of the men who have to go to war and they can assist. It will teach the women the three essentials of a soldier: Obedience, self-effacement and team work. Her address proved how thoroughly patriotic the women of Lenawee are and how they are laying everything else aside to help in this great struggle.

Robert Darnton's subject was "The Liberty Loan Drive" and he means business. Every home will be visited and the moneyed corporations are not expected to buy the bonds alone. Every man and woman is expected to buy all they are able and pay out of their earnings, not their savings, thus depleting the funds in the banks who already have bought all they can. He also touched on the W. S. S. and Thrift Stamps both of which he heartily commends. He assured his audience that if they didn't buy, the Government would resort to taxation and then we would not get anything back.

Rev. W. A. Rex, the only out-of-Adrian man on the platform, was next introduced and he started in by telling them he had just been to their Y. M. C. A. building, having to see someone there and, on a Sunday afternoon, found it closed. Then over the door was a card which stated Christ was a pacifist. This he certainly did take exception to and emphatically advised them to remove that card.

He said many people are complaining that there is graft in our government and won't buy Liberty Bonds because of it. "Of course there's graft. We know there is but right now is a poor time to find it. We are too late. We've got to win our war first, then straighten out those things later." He took Hamlet's "To Be or Not To Be" as the question only he changed it to "To Buy" for if we don't "buy" we surely will not "be" as a nation.

His subject on the program was "The Red Cross," which he terms the most beautiful, kindly and lovely thing in the awfulness of the war. He went after the people who have [illegible] Red Cross work in no uncertain terms. "There is a Jericho road everywhere in France and the Red Cross is the Good Samaritan." Although Germany has six men in the field to the Allies one, "We've got the big bully about worn out."

Judge Harry Larwill followed with a speech couched in beautiful language, his flow of eloquence holding his hearers for over fifty minutes. He told how VonHindenburg promised the papers of Berlin he would be in Paris for Easter, but yet his ten divisions are held fifty miles away by the thin line of the Allies, but Germany 25 years ago had maps of the country she was going to take in her great war and she has been successful in all but Switzerland and Holland. Three years ago Germany had a territory of 200,000 sq. miles. Now she has 1,250,000 sq. miles with 283,000,000 people under her control. No wonder we must make the tremendous effort. "He who talks peace is a traitor." "Only a few million dollars are asked of you now, or do you want Germany to come over here and collect from you her war indemity?"

In spite of German spies and their work President Wilson and Congress will never give up this fight as long as we have a boy or a dollar. "The man or woman who does not buy bonds and can afford to is disloyal."

He closed by telling of the honor flag each township who goes "over the top" is promised by McAdoo and prophesied one for Adrian.

Previous to the speeches Dr. Latham of the college gave the invocation Little John, Jordan sang "Keep the Home Fires Burning" and a quartette effectively sang "We're Tenting Tonight." The meeting closed with "The Star Spangled Banner."

REFUSE WRITS FOR LYNCHERS

Four Madison County Justices Balk—Don't Want to "Mix Up in the Matter."

Collinsville, Ill., April 8.—The coroner of Madison county applied for warrants for the arrest of five men who he had been informed were in the mob that lynched Robert P. Prager. Four justices of the peace refused to issue warrants. The four justices gave as a reason for refusing to issue the warrants that "they didn't care to get mixed up in the matter." One of the justices was surrounded by men in a saloon and asked to sign a pledge of loyalty. He complied.

PRESIDENT FOR WAR TO FINISH WITH GERMANY

Wilson in Baltimore Speech Says Kaiser Has Revealed in Russia His Real Aims.

TAKES UP FOE'S CHALLENGE

Pledges America's Full Strength in Battle to Meet Force With All the Vast Force of the United States.

Baltimore, Md., April 8.—President Wilson accepted in full the challenge of autocracy on Saturday night. He pledged to the world America's full strength in battle—to meet force with all the vast force of these United States and to fight until the world dominion plans of Germany are wiped from the earth.

Citing the answers of the central powers to his offers of a way to a just peace—answers spelled in the invasion of Russia and the crushing of the Slavs—he said:

"I am ready, ready still, ready even now, to discuss a fair and just and honest peace at any time that it is sincerely proposed, a peace in which the strong and the weak shall fare alike. But the answer, when I proposed such a peace, came from the German commanders in Russia, and I cannot mistake the meaning of the answer.

"There is but one response possible from us. Force, force to the utmost, force without stint or limit, the righteous and triumphant force which shall make right the law of the world and cast every selfish dominion down in the dust."

America Shows Her Heart.

President Wilson's speech was the most notable feature of a day of remarkable demonstrations from one end of the nation to the other.

Every city, town and hamlet in the United States celebrated Liberty day and the opening of the Third Liberty loan drive—celebrated it with an enthusiasm, patriotism, wholeheartedness and sincerity that left no doubt as to where America stands.

The president said America was awake. Surely all reports that came in here as he spoke showed that he knew and spoke the truth.

Cheer Acceptance of Challenge.

The president's declaration that nothing is proposed for Germany but justice, was warmly applauded, as was his statement that Germany's course in Russia is a cheap triumph.

When the president declared that he accepted Germany's challenge and that force must decide the issue, the audience [illegible] to its feet and cheered for several minutes.

In the afternoon he reviewed 12,000 Camp Meade troops. They comprised drafted men from Pensylvania, Maryland and the District of Columbia.

In the stand with the president were Mrs. Wilson, Cardinal Gibbons, Maj. Gen. Joseph E. Kuhn, commanding the Seventy-ninth division at Camp Meade, and others.

President's Address.

President Wilson's address was in part as follows:

"Fellow Citizens: This is the anniversary of our acceptance of Germany's challenge to fight for our right to live and be free, and for the sacred rights of free men everywhere.

"The nation is awake. There is no need to call to it. We know what the war must cost, our utmost sacrifice, the lives of our finest men, and, if need be, all that we possess. The loan we are met to discuss is one of the least parts of what we are called upon to give and to do, though in itself imperative.

"The people of the whole country are alive to the necessity of it and are ready to offer to the utmost, even where it involves a sharp skimping and daily sacrifice to lend out of meager earnings.

"The reasons for this great war, the reason why it had to come, the need to fight it through, and the issues that hang upon the outcome are more clearly disclosed now than ever before.

"The man who knows least can now see plainly how the cause of justice stands and what the imperishable thing is he is asked to invest in.

"We must judge as we would be judged. I have sought to learn the objects Germany has in this war from the mouths of her own spokesmen, and to deal as frankly with them as I wished them to deal with me.

Ready for Just Peace.

"We have ourselves proposed no injustice, no aggression. We are ready, whenever the final reckoning is made, to be just to the German people, deal fairly with the German power, as with all others.

"I have sought to learn from those who spoke for Germany whether it was justice or dominion and the execution of their own will upon the other nations of the world that the German leaders were seeking. They have answered, answered in unmistakable terms. They have avowed that it was not justice but dominion and the unhindered execution of their own will.

"The avowal has not come from Germany's statesmen. It has come from her military leaders, who are her real rulers.

"At Brest-Litovsk her civilian delegates spoke in similar terms; professed their desire to conclude a fair peace and accord to the peoples with whose fortunes they were dealing the right to choose their own allegiancies.

"But action accompanied and followed the profession. Their military masters, the men who act for Germany and exhibit her purpose in execution, proclaimed a very different conclusion.

"We cannot mistake what they have done—in Russia, in Finland, in the Ukraine, in Roumania.

"The real test of their justice and fairplay has come. From this we may judge the rest. They are enjoying in Russia a cheap triumph in which no brave or gallant nation can long take pride.

"Their purpose is undoubtedly to make all the free and ambitious nations of the Baltic peninsula, all the lands that Turkey has dominated and misruled, subject to their will and ambition and build upon that dominion an empire of force.

"In such a program our ideals, the ideals of justice and humanity and liberty, the principle of the free self-determination of nations upon which all the modern world insists, can play no part.

Imperils America.

"That program once carried out, America and all who care or dare to stand with her must arm and prepare themselves to contest the mastery of the world. Everything that America has lived for, and loved, and grown great to vindicate and bring to a glorious realization will have fallen in utter ruin, and the gates of mercy will once more pitilessly shut upon mankind!

"The thing is preposterous and impossible, and yet is not that what the whole course and action of the German armies has meant wherever they have moved?

Accepts German Challenge.

"For myself, I am ready, ready still, ready even now, to discuss a fair and just and honest peace at any time that it is sincerely purposed, a peace in which the strong and the weak shall fare alike. But the answer, when I proposed such a peace, came from the German commanders in Russia, and I cannot mistake the meaning of the answer.

"I accept the challenge. I know that you accept it.

"Germany has once more said that force, and force alone, shall decide whether justice and peace shall reign in the affairs of men; whether right, as America conceives it, or dominion, as she conceives it, shall determine the destinies of mankind.

"There is, therefore, but one response possible from us—force; force to the utmost, force without stint or limit, the righteous and triumphant force which shall make right the law of the world and cast every selfish dominion down in the dust."

M'ADOO MAKES 4 ADDRESSES

Secretary of the Treasury Tells Philadelphians America Will Do Her Duty in War.

Philadelphia, April 8.—"The soul of America is uplifted; she knows her duty and will not be afraid to perform it!" Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo exclaimed at the conclusion of one of the four addresses he made here on Saturday in opening the Liberty bond campaign in the Philadelphia federal reserve district. The secretary was the central figure in a celebration in which the patriotic spirit ran high.

The Finer Points of Shoemaking

When a dealer shows you two pairs of shoes and says, "This pair is $10.00, that pair $6.00," can you see the difference in value?

It's there, in the case of reputable shoes and a reputable dealer! It lies in what may be called the finer points of shoemaking as well as the fundamental value of the materials themselves.

It would be a pleasure to point out some of the things in the $10 Ralstons which make them more to be desired than the $6.00 Ralstons (as good as may be the latter).

Many times the $10.00 Ralstons prove the less expensive in the end as well as being meanwhile in all ways more satisfactory.

Wednesday, April 10th, is the date set in Lenawee County to start the Third Liberty Loan drive and the goal is $1,276,000. Of this amount Tecumseh Township is expected to subscribe for $54,000. Plans are all set for the big drive and Old Lenawee is going over the top and Tecumseh Township is going to be a big part of the county. We are going to make good in good old Tecumseh.

A meeting of the workers was called Monday night at the Masonic Temple and plans were made for the start Wednesday. The meeting was well attended and much enthusiasm was shown. The general feeling of those present was that Tecumseh would over subscribe the amount assigned as her quota. The county is now pretty well listed and the workers have at their disposal the names of all people who are considered able to buy bonds and they will ask you to step up and do your duty.

It's up to the people to make good and every man, woman and child who can buy a bond is expected to do his or her duty and if this is done the above amount would be oversubscribed in no time. Don't wait for the committee to call upon you but step into your bank tomorrow and place your subscription with your banker.

The writer asked a hard working man Monday if he had subscribed for a Liberty Bond yet and the man answered that he had not.

"Tell me how I can get the money to buy a bond and I will be glad to buy one," he said.

He was told that he would not have to pay the full amount down but only 5 per cent when his application was handed in, the balance in payments to be spread over three or four months.

"Well," he said, "My Government wants me to give until it hurts and I guess it will hurt all right, so if you will find out just how long I will have to pay it in, I guess I will stake myself for a $5.00 bond."

This friends, is the spirit we all must show and if we do as this man said he would do there will be no question about Tecumseh going over the top. Buy until it hurts is what your Government is asking you all to do, if not now, later.

Bonds are issued in denominations of $50.00 and up as high as $10,000.00 and may be paid for in full at the time the subscription is made or if the subscriber so wishes he may pay 5 per cent. down and arrange with his bank to pay on the bank savings plan of 4 per cent. or more weekly. Ask your banker and he will explain the plan.

It is not necessary to go into the details for yuo all are familiar with Liberty Bonds and have been reading and thinking for yourselves. Your Goverment is asking the Nation to loan it the sum of $3,000,000,000.00 and is saking that you show your patrotism by over-subscribing this amount. The people have over subscribed the former issues and they are going to do it again. This money must be raised to carry on the war and these bonds are secured by all the wealth and sovereign taxing power of this country. They will bear 4¼ per cent. interest and are protected by a good sinking fund with tax exemptions to make the loan better.

The nation has the right to take every dollar of property in the United States for this life and death war against Tyranny, Autocracy, Slavery, Foreign Aggression and Vassalage. Your Government does not intend to exercise that final and desperate right, but says "The Nation is fighting for its life, lend us your money, we will give you Liberty Bonds for it which bear 4¼ per cent. interest." Now friends this Government has made it a law that every man between the age of 21 and 30 years is subject to draft into the army or navy and every man between these ages has been registered and unless he is exempted he is now serving or will go into the service, he cannot escape, he must serve. As your boy and mine has been called so you and I are as surely called to do our duty at home and we are getting off mighty easy when we invest (for you are getting 4¼ per cent. interest on your money) a few dollars in Liberty Bonds. So buy bonds, buy all of them that you can.

Your Government has been fair with you, no Government on earth has been fairer and has given you the opportunity to purchase bonds at a mighty good rate of interest, but when the time comes when the people will no longer buy bonds, then your Government will raise the full amount necessary by taxation and then, dear people, it will pull mighty hard upon the purse strings of every man, woman and child. This will not happen for surely the people are too patriotic and are ready to stake their last cent to aid this Nation win this war.

Be ready to meet these men when they call upon you this week and plan to take just as many bonds as it is possible for you to take. Remember your boys are doing the fighting and if you stay at home safe from the hell of battle which is raging across the water, you MUST fight hard with your dollars, there is no half way place for you to stand, you MUST go over the top. This war has got to be won, the Hun must be crushed and Uncle Sammy has got to win it. Your Commander-in-Chief has given the order, it is your DUTY to obey at once. So everybody together, let's help boost Tecumseh and Lenawee over the top. Its up to the "Biggest Little Town on Earth" to make good.

Watch the thermometer on the flag pole in the center of town, for the mercury is surely going to boil. It will be changed each day or if the returns come in rapidly, oftener. We want to have the mercury raise to the very top with a pressure that will burst it. Lets make it hot for the Kaiser.

The anniversary of the declaration of war with Germany which occurred Saturday, April 6th, was the day chosen to begin the big Liberty Loan drive. The results coming in from all over the country are wonderful and every indication points to an over-subscription of the Third Liberty Loan. Four counties in Michigan went over the top on the first day, last Saturday. They are Jackson, our neighbors, who took their full quota, raised by 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon and Ingham who went over the top in the afternoon by voluntary subscription with $200,000 to spare. Such spirit will surely raise hell with the Kaiser and his bunch.

ANIMALS ARE GOOD SWIMMERS

Nearly all animals are better swimmers than man and take to the water naturally. The rhinoceros and hippopotamus are wonderful swimmers and divers, while the Indian elephant crosses great rivers with heavy loads, London Tit-Bits states.

The elk and the reindeer are first-class swimmers. The elk keeps his head above water and crosses directly from bank to bank to avoid turning. The reindeer, on the other hand, turns as often as he likes, keeping his head only a little above the surface. But of all swimmers of all climes the best, though not the swiftest, is the polar bear, who passes half his time in the water swimming and diving. His swimming power is nothing short of miraculous if it be remembered that the water in the regions he frequents is invariably cold and that cold is normally prohibitive to good swimming. There are bears that can swim from twenty-five to thirty miles without great effort.

One of the swiftest swimming animals is the squirrel. A sportsman on one occasion, having at hand a squirrel born in captivity, which had never seen water, wanted to see if it could swim and took it with him in a rowboat to the center of the lake. The squirrel turned toward the bank, head and paws above the water, back and tail underneath it, and began to swim so rapidly that it was with the greatest difficulty that the man recovered it when it reached the shallow water near the land.

Sunlight Distressing.

In addition to the wind there is another peculiarity of the inland ice which adds to the difficulties to be encountered in the Arctic. That is the extreme intensity of the sunlight, which can be realized only by those who have experienced it. During the summer months the sun shines as brightly there in clear weather as anywhere further south, and this continuous brilliancy is intensified a hundredfold by the reflection from endless fields of glistening, sparkling snow, unrelieved by a single object. The strongest eyes can stand such a blinding glare only a few hours without protection. We always wore heavy smoked glasses, and when in camp found it impossible to sleep without still further protecting the eyes by tying a narrow band of fur about them to exclude the light. Only when a storm is brewing does this intense light become subdued. At such times however, the sky and snow take on a peculiar gray, opaque light, which is even more trying than the sunlight.—Century Magazine.

The Brute.

"Where have you been tonight?" she asked bitterly, as he sauntered in about 11 o'clock. "Was it business again this evening?"

He made no reply, but sat down to the cold supper that was on the table.

"Aha, the difference in a short time!" she went on. "I have been trying to solace myself tonight by reading some of your love letters. Here is one," holding it up, "that you wrote one month before we were married; in this you say that you feel as if you could eat me. Oh, the affection, the passionate love expressed in those words! It is one month after marriage," she continued, beginning to weep pearly tears, and sob like the throb of a steamboat engine, "only one month after marriage, and now—"

"I wish to goodness I had!" mumbled the unfeeling brute, with his mouth full of ham.

Novel Bed for Paralytics.

Cornmeal in Honduras.

Because of the marked success of recent governmental and private efforts to promote the production of more cereals during the period of the war, writes Consul Walter F. Boyle, Puerto Cortes, an American company has imported and erected the first mill for the milling of cornmeal. This was purchased in the United States and has been erected at San Pedro, Sula, Honduras. It is a small equipment, but marks the beginning of a new industry.

HOG FEED PROBLEM

Most Satisfactory Ration Necessarily Is Wholesome.

MIXTURE TO PREVENT WORMS

Where Pastures Are Luxuriant It Is Possible to Carry Breeding Sows on Pasture Alone—Best Age for Breeding.

The same good judgment required in the selection of stock is very necessary in the feeding and management. Good selection will be rendered ineffective if the feeding and management are not such that the animals will thrive and yield a good increase. The real problem in swine feeding is to supply sufficient nutritive material for building and repairing the body and furnishing sufficient energy to lay on fat. The most satisfactory ration must necessarily be made up of feeds which are wholesome, relished by the hog, and at the same time reasonable in cost.

CHEAP AND CONVENIENT WEANING TROUGH FOR PIGS.

It has been asserted by various experienced feeders of hogs that a mixture of charcoal, ashes, lime, salt sulphur and copperas kept where the hogs can eat it will tend to prevent worm infestation. There is no positive experimental evidence, however, in support of the idea that such a mixture will prevent worm infestation, and it is of value therefore as a source of mineral matter in the diet, and perhaps as an appetizer and tonic, rather than as a worm preventive. A balanced ration may furnish all the necessary feed nutrients, yet the system of the hog craves mineral matter. The mineral matter is not under control, and in order to make sure that the hogs have an abundant supply, free access should be given to a mineral mixture. The following is a formula for such a mixture:

Charcoal Mixture.

Charcoal	1 bushel
Hardwood ashes	1 bushel
Salt	8 pounds
Air-slacked lime	4 pounds
Sulphur	4 pounds
Pulverized copperas	2 pounds

Mix the lime, salt and sulphur thoroughly and then mix with the charcoal and ashes. Dissolve the copperas in one quart of hot water and sprinkle the solution over the whole mass, mixing it thoroughly. Keep some of this mixture in a box before the hogs at all times, or place in a self-feeder.

Dry sows can be placed in a pasture by themselves and given very little grain. Those which show an exceptionally run-down condition from suckling their pigs should be separated from the rest of the herd and fed grain until they regain breeding condition. Where pastures are very luxuriant it is possible to carry breeding sows on pasture alone, but in such case their condition must be studied closely by the breeder, in order to be sure that they are receiving enough nourishment from the pasture. Hogs require attention regardless of condition, age or sex, but the management of the brood sows is the surest test of the breeder's skill.

Age of Breeding.

The age at which a young sow is first bred will depend upon her development, but it is seldom advisable to breed her before she is eight months old. A very young sow seldom produces a large litter. Another objection to early breeding is that a young sow has not the strength to stand the strain of nursing a litter of pigs, and her growth may be checked to such a degree that she never fully develops.

A sow farrows 112 to 115 days from the date of conception. By keeping a careful service record, the breeder is therefore able to determine accurately when to expect the pigs and to make his arrangements accordingly. For convenient reference the gestation table given herewith was arranged by Coburn to show the expected farrowing dates for service on any day of the year from January 1 to December 31. Calculations are based on a 112-day gestation period. The first line of dates in each column indicates the dates of breeding and directly opposite in the same column is the date on which the sow is due to farrow.

It is common practice among farmers to require their sows to produce two litters a year. Although the sows have had good care, they will naturally be run down somewhat in condition, because the greater portion of the food consumed has been utilized for the production of milk.

The sow needs a rest before she is bred again, and the time for this is between the weaning and breeding periods. Intelligent feeding will bring the sow from a thin condition into a good, strong, vigorous condition in a short time. When this is done she will be in proper condition to assume her duty when breeding time arrives. If the sow is bred in a thin, run-down condition, she must resume work immediately, and she will naturally be weak and subject to the inroads of disease. A little cold contracted in this condition may cause death, while a strong healthy sow will resist such attacks. It is the general belief that sows in good vigorous breeding condition conceive more readily, thus shortening the farrowing period for the herd.

Two Litters a Year.

There is no good reason why a sow should not produce two litters a year when properly handled. To accomplish this the sow should be bred to farrow, say, for example, in march, and bred again to farrow the early part of September. A sow bred about November 15 will farrow about March 6 to 9. The pigs should nurse eight weeks. The sow should be rebred by May 20 so as to farrow on or after September 8. The pigs could then nurse until November 3. The chances for profitably rearing two crops of pigs from a sow annually are undoubtedly far better in regions of mild climate and short winters than where the winters are long and severe.

Management During Pregnancy.

During pregnancy two facts must be borne in mind. The first is that the sow is doing double duty. Not only is she keeping up her own bodily functions, but the development of the litter is an increasing drain on her system. Feeding at this time should be liberal, although it need not be so heavy as after the pigs are farrowed. A very fat sow is apt to be clumsy with her pigs, and sometimes these are lacking in vitality. On the other hand, a very thin sow will either not do justice to her pigs or will become a mere wreck herself during the time she is nursing her litter, and the chances are that both these things will happen. The necessity of exercise must not be overlooked under any circumstances. This may be provided by a large lot or even by driving the hogs slowly for a short distance each day.

Corn should not be fed in large amounts to breeding stock, because it does not furnish enough bone and muscle-forming constituents to properly develop the unborn pigs.

100,000 at Coney Island.

New York, April 1.—One hundred thousand persons took advantage of the mild weather yesterday to unofficially open Coney Island. Conductorettes received their first real try out in handling jostling crowds. Most of them were equal to the task. The sunshine coaxed some of the throng to take a plunge in the sea.

Accept Muck Resignation.

Boston, April 1.—The management of the Boston Symphony orchestra announced that the resignation of Dr Karl Muck as conductor has been accepted.

Large Feet and Bad Cough.

Muggins was the possessor of very large feet and a very bad cough. He entered a boot shop and the young assistant turned the shop upside down to find something to fit his "out size." Muggins had just tried on the fortieth pair when he started coughing.

"It's a nasty cough you've got," said the assistant.

"I shouldn't worry," said the assistant. "You'll never get the other in! It's too big."

Manton.—Arthur Grant, of Benzonia, is perhaps the most persistent volunteer in the state. About three months ago, he left the University of Michigan to enlist in Detroit, where he was rejected, because of physical defects, which could be corrected by an operation. He therefore underwent the operation, but at the second enlistment examination another physical flaw was discovered. He again went under the knife, but again the attempt was unsuccessful. So he tried a third one, inflammatory rheumatism has set in, due to his weakened condition.

Muskegon.—The recent change in coal zones set by the government fuel administrator's orders has so improved fuel conditions likely to exist in Muskegon during the coming months that local dealers are enthusiastic.

Turn Out Limbs in 48 Hours.

Two Clyde shipbuilding firms have been turning their attention to the manufacture of artificial limbs, says a Glasgow correspondent, and have produced in 48 hours a limb at a moderate cost which is said to be far superior to any other produced in the country. One thousand maimed soldiers have already been fitted, and 9,000 are on the waiting list.

MEANING OF SHIP TONNAGE

The different uses of tonnage terms when speaking of ships are causes of confusion to the lay mind. Why ships cannot be really compared according to tonnage is explained by Capt. C. A. McAllister, engineer in chief, United States coast guard, in an article in Popular Science Monthly. For example, he states, steamship companies, in order to impress relative safety of their craft, will advertise the sailing of a certain steamer of 20,000 tons, meaning, of course, gross tons. The company's agent, in entering it at the custom house, will take precaution to certify that she is only 7,340 tons, when paying tonnage taxes. He then is referring to her net tonnage, and in fact that standard is used only when paying dues on taxes.

Displacement tonnage is almost exclusively applied to warships, as they do not carry cargoes. Strange to say, the tonnage of a battleship varies almost hourly, as coal or other weighty objects are used or taken on board. The tonnage of warships is, however, fixed; they are referred to in terms of the fixed tonnage.

A statement that a 10,000-ton battleship sank a 10,000-ton merchant ship does not mean that the ships were of equal size. The merchant ship would be much larger, owing to the different meanings of the term "ton," as applied to the two types of vessels. It is absolutely impossible to give rules for the relation of these terms, as the conditions vary too greatly. Generally speaking, the gross tonnage of a ship is from 50 to 100 per cent greater than the net tonnage.

HIS BOSS LAUGHED AT HIM

Novice Draftsman Relates How He Got His First Teehold After His Work Had Been Ridiculed.

I never shall forget the first piece of independent design with which I was intrusted—a railing and gate to divide the private from the public office in some business concern, observes a writer in the Century Magazine. I suppose I worked on it for about two solid days, assisted and encouraged as far as I was capable of receiving assistance by the men at the neighboring tables. When finally the head draftsman came around to look at my effort I was a very proud person, but when, after looking at the drawings for a minute or two, he started to make some criticism and, unable to control himself, began to laugh so hard that everybody else came around to see what he was laughing at, I was about as disappointed as anybody ever was in the world. The head draftsman was not only a great artist, but a big man. He did not take the job away from me, as he should have done; he told me where it was wrong and why it was wrong, apologized for laughing at it, and gave me in these few minutes my first toehold in comprehension of architectural design. It was then that I began to learn.

An Isolated Island.

The last and most isolated of the Polynesians is Easter island. It lies 2,000 miles westward of the coast of Chile, its nearest neighbor being Pitcairn island, 1,400 miles further west. It is small, only 45 square miles in area, and volcanic, the surface being formed of lava of comparatively recent eruption. Hence the strange lack of vegetation so curiously at variance with a tropical climate. Grass grows on it, however, and it is for that reason largely given up to the raising of sheep and cattle.

Easter island was discovered nearly two hundred years ago by the Dutch Admiral Roggeveen, who cast anchor there on an Easter Sunday, whence it derived its name. He found it more largely populated than it is now. But he and his crew must have seen and marveled at its bold rock-sculpture, its terraces and walls, its picture writings. Many of these, indeed, rival the world-famous relics of Mexico and Peru, while they are strangely akin to them in conception and design.

THEY HAVE A DARK SECRET

Husband and Brother-in-Law Feast and Smash Piece of China, Which Is Mysteriously Replaced.

Since the coming of the X-ray and the perfecting of the Bertillon system dark secrets have lost vogue. Yet occasionally one of them does escape the keenest vigilance and flourishes with all the old-time mystery, according to the Kansas City Star.

Mrs. Miller has a set of chinaware, the real creamy ware that the light shines through. It is very old. Mrs. Miller inherited it. She also inherited the proud right to boast that not one piece had ever been broken.

Mrs. Miller went away. Mr. Miller entertained his brother-in-law while she was gone. There were other relatives that he might have entertained, but in an unguarded moment he chose his brother-in-law.

One night they made a feast. They baked a great number of things all in one pan. So when it came out of the oven it seemed to demand that it should all be served on one plate. Mr. Miller looked over the supply of dishes that had been left out for his use and there was really nothing that would contain it. A wild spirit of revelry seized Mr. Miller.

He went boldly into the china closet and brought out the very largest platter.

When the meal was ended, Mr. Miller's brother-in-law suggested dish washing. Mr. Miller did not favor the plan, but finally yielded to it against his better judgment. What happened was quite natural.

The platter slipped and fell and broke.

After all the years, after all the family pride and care!

From that night on those two men took up and carried about with them a dark secret, for this is what they did—each carrying a piece of that platter, they went from one china store to another until they found its duplicate. They carried it home and brought in a woman to wash it and replace it on the shelf of the china closet.

Now when Mrs. Miller entertains her friends and one of them says: "How I envy you these beautiful dishes, and it is so remarkable that not one has ever been broken," Mr. Miller and his brother-in-law sit with a far away look in their eyes and a dark secret in their souls.

LIVING IN CITIES

Residents Are Not as Neighborly as in Country.

Life in Metropolitan Municipalities Is a Battle for Existence, With No Time for Sociability.

"Who, then, is my neighbor?" the man "in the city pent" asks himself, as he regards a row of similar house fronts and reflects on the fact that he has only a nodding acquaintance at best with the majority of the inmates.

Interdependence is fostered by the conditions of living in the country. Ordinarily we do not need the help of the next house, near or far. But let fire come, or a destructive storm, or a predatory visitor, or a serious illness, and the neighbor may be as welcome as angels, says a writer in Philadelphia Ledger.

City life is often a battle of the strong, because there are crowds and there are many mouths to feed and many shuffling feet to be shod. If we let ourselves think of it, the vast multitude of identities striving to establish themselves is almost terrifying. Where did so many people come from? Where are they all going? How are they to find a lodging for the night? Each of the moving swarm is the center of a circle of friends. The humblest, unless deeply unfortunate, has ties that bind him to earth and make life—in a degree—dear to him.

Out of the pagan wilderness to the urban lights and roarings comes bucolic youth. What will the city do to that unsophistication? Or in what way will its rugged, innocent power in time come to prevail upon the city?

Your shrewdest, hardest captain of business closes his eyes at his desk and is taken back to murmurous water brooks and bees, to the aroma of hay, of kine, of burning leaves, to the sound of the whetted scythe or the sight of baked apples in the window of the woodshed.

Why can't they brown flapjacks or bake beans or concoct apple sauce or cook oatmeal as they did down on the farm?

The table was always big enough for the unexpected guest. An egg or a quart of milk was no such great event as it is in a city. There used to be time, too, to settle the affairs of the borough and the nation, to discuss Horace Greeley and to wind the clock, between supper and early bedtime.

We have filtration, and the vacuum cleaner, and the servant question, and all the other city advantages. But it was something to know the neighbors, and somehow or other "the men that were boys when I was a boy" mean something in a lifetime that the brisk, ambitious, clean-shaven, up-pushing generation does not convey. It would do these take-it-or-leave-it fellows good to study the large, leisurely, tranquilizing ways of their forebears in the days when "civilization" was not on a tear from the cheap lunch to the bargain counter, and home was not a way-station betwixt the joyride and the moving pictures.

Dispersing a Crowd.

"I have just come back from forty-eight hours' duty in Paris," writes an officer in a Highland regiment. "My servant and I, both in the kilt, were buying some stuff outside a shop, as one does in Paris, when a crowd of about twenty people gathered round, and simply stared—some amused, some open-mouthed, and some doubtless in admiration. I was amused at first, but it got a bit too much of a good thing, and my servant, who is a wag, said: 'Shall I hand round the hat, sir?'

So, not thinking he would, I said: 'Yes, do,' and—if he didn't whip off his Balmoral and take it round perfectly seriously, with a childlike expression on his face. They cleared off all right, some grinning, and others looking very sheepish. But we got nothing."

Prepare to Care for Themselves.

Nowhere have the French shown their remarkable national vitality more striking than in the way they have kept up the pursuits of peace while bearing the brunt of the most exacting war in history. So far from having their industries broken by conflict they have developed scores of new ones, writes a correspondent. An exhibit now being held in Paris is given over entirely to products manufactured in France, which were formerly imported. The first division consists of articles formerly brought from foreign nations, largely from Germany, while the second is made up of articles formerly made in the northern French districts now occupied by the invader, which are now being manufactured in southern France.

Interesting Experiment.

Experiments just completed by two French scientists have reopened the controversy whether rudimentary manifestations of life can be produced in inorganic matter. These men took a glass tube containing a solution of colloidal silica, sealed it by melting the glass and subjected tube and contents to a high temperature, long enough to sterilize them thoroughly, according to all current ideas of sterilization. The tube was then kept moderately warm for two months, and when opened the contents were full of living bacteria. Objectors contend that the colloidal silica probably operates to protect bacteria originally in the solution from the effects of the heat sterilization.

Unnecessary Intestines.

The human intestine seems to be partly a relic of prehistoric times, largely useless in this modern day and age. The uselessness of the vermiform appendix, which is simply the stump of what was once an important and functioning branch of the alimentary canal, is well known. Recent operations in a London hospital seem to indicate that a large part of the lower main canal, the colon, can be dispensed with without harm. In these operations sections of the colon have been removed. The work brings up again the famous scientist Metchnikoff's debated contention that these parts of the anatomy are not only useless but dangerous.

An Old Habit.

The recruit at bayonet practice had just given the dummy a vicious jab, when the drill sergeant noticed that he was grimacing in a rather unusual manner.

"Number Four!" cried the sergeant; "what's the idea of all that mugging?"

"Why," said the recruit, a former movie actor, "you want me to register hate or fury or something don't you?"

POPULARITY OF BLUE GRASS

Kentucky Soldiers, on Return March From Battle of Tippecanoe, Gathered Seed in Indiana.

The tradition that the Kentucky soldiers who fought at Tippecanoe took back with them the seed that has made blue grass famous in central Kentucky, has never been questioned or seemed to require authentic proof, declares a writer. Mrs. Levering says, in her "Authentic Indiana:"

"It was on the return march from the battle of Tippecanoe that the soldiers from Kentucky gathered the seed of the blue grass which they found growing in Indiana, and carried it home with them, thinking it was a superior variety because it satisfied the hunger of their horses so well that they would not eat corn. It flourished so well on the limestone soil of central Kentucky that it made that state famous." This statement was based on information obtained from early settlers of Indiana. Kentucky was not known as the blue grass state until many years after the battle of Tippecanoe.

As long as slavery existed, Kentucky, lying south of the Ohio river, was classed as a Southern state. It never was classed as a central Western or middle Western state along with Ohio and Indiana. In the census report of 1910, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin were classed as "East North Central states" and Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama and Mississippi as "East South Central states."

When Indiana was admitted to the Union, in 1816, it consisted of 13 counties, viz.: Wayne, Franklin, Dearborn, Switzerland, Jefferson, Clark, Washington, Harrison, Knox, Gibson, Posey, Warrick and Perry. In the subsequent creation of 79 counties out of these, making 92, the boundaries of the original 13 counties underwent material changes.

WIFE'S FEAR WAS AROUSED

Stranger's Inquiry About Hubby's Description Was Merely to Warn Against Unhealthy Coconuts.

He entered the ladies' sitting room at the railway station, walked up to a woman whose husband had left the room about ten minutes previously, and calmly inquired: "Madam, your husband went out to see the river, didn't he?"

"Yes—why?" she asked, turning pale in an instant.

"He was a tall man, wasn't he?"

"He was," she replied, rising up and turning still paler.

"Had red hair?"

"He had. Oh, what has happened?"

"Weighed about 180 pounds?"

"Yes—yes! Where is he—where is my husband?" she exclaimed.

"Couldn't swim, could he?"

"He's drowned—my husband is drowned!" she wailed.

"Had a silver watch chain?" continued the stranger.

"Where is my husband? Where is the body?" she gasped.

"Do not get excited, madam. Did your husband have on a gray suit?"

"Yes. Oh, Thomas—my Thomas!"

"And lace-up boots?"

"Let me see him—let me see him!" she cried.

"Come this way, madam, but do not get excited. There is your husband across the street at that fruit-stand."

"Why, yes, that's him; that—that's my husband!" she exclaimed joyfully. "I thought you said he was drowned."

"No, madam, I did not. I saw him buying a coconut, and I believe it to be my duty to say to you that coconuts are not healthy at this season of the year."

The Emblem of France.

The fleur de lis is the emblem of France, and is believed to be the white-flowered Florentine iris, the flower de luce. "What sayest thou, my fair flower de luce?" says the English king to the French princess in Shakespeare's play. The French have a pretty legend of their lily which tells that at the baptism of King Clovis of the long and perfumed hair, a blue banner came fluttering down from heaven over which were sprinkled golden fleur de lis. From that time they appear on the arms of the country. They have a verb, "fleurdeliser," meaning to embroider scattered flowers over a fabric, or, as embroiderers say, to "pepper with flowers." Edward III borrowed the lilies of France after his war with that country and they were borne by England until the beginning of the nineteenth century.

Cock and Bull Story.

Cock fighting is still the national sport of the Dominicans, although it is declining in popularity. Under the national gambling laws cock fighting may be prohibited. It may, however, be licensed by the various municipalities, and it usually is, as it yields them a good revenue. While bull fighting is permitted in the Dominican republic it has never been popular in this island. At long intervals a toreador comes here en route from Spain to Peru or Mexico, and a few bull fights are held in the various towns, but they do not attract a large attendance. There are no professional bull fighters among the Dominicans.—Commercial Reports.

When a Child "Fails."

When a child fails in school, must it always be the fault of the child? May it not be the faults of his parents? Or of the school which he attends? Investigations have shown that there is a host of children whose mental sluggishness is due to physical causes, Dr M. P. E. Groszmann writes in Humanitarian. Even conservative estimates place the percentage of children suffering from some physical ailment at 75; this means about 18,000,000 children of school age in this country. Almost all of these ailments are removable, even preventable. They range from decayed and maladjusted teeth with their manifold sad effects upon the efficiency and the temper of the growing child to such serious defects as nervous disorders, tuberculosis blindness, etc.

Vain Thought.

"You are looking thin, Gadspur."

"That's true."

"Appetite poor?"

"Very. I was just thinking that if my appetite for food were one-tenth as voracious as my furnace's appetite for coal, I would soon be tipping the scales at 900 pounds."

DESERTER PICKED UP AT TIPTON

Officer Mominee Arrests Jesse Lee at the Linford Slater Farm near Tipton.

Taken to Ft. Wayne, Detroit Saturday.

Jesse Lee a deserter from the U. S. Army was arrested Saturday morning at the Linford Slater farm by officer Bert Mominee of Tecumseh. Lee is well known in this locality as several years ago he resided here with his parents

Over a year ago while yet serving in the U. S. Army he escaped from a hospital on the Pacific coast. Officers all over the country were advised of his escaped and notified to look out for him.

He arrived here about a week ago and went out to the Slater farm for a visit. While here he met an old Tecumseh friend and stated that he would come to Tecumseh soon and see the boys and asked that he pass around his regards to hem. This his friend did and Officer Mominee happened to be one of the friends, thus getting the tip as to his whereabouts Mominee lost no time in going to Tipton and soon had his man in custody. Saturday afternoon he took him to Detroit and while in Detroit had a lively time with his prisoner before he was landed safely at Ft. Wayne.

While boarding a street car, Lee got away and running around the car succeeded in giving the officer quite a chase but was finally caught hiding in an auto which was standing at the curb. He was soon ironed and taken to Ft. Wayne where he was turned over to Army officers.

Officer Mominee is entitled to the reward of $50.00 which is offered for his capture.

HOME TALENT VAUDEVILLE ENTERTAINMENT

Under the Auspices of the Eagles' Patriotic Band

Bradley's Opera House, Thursday, April 11th

Thursday evening, a Home Talent Vaudeville Entertainment will be given at Bradley's Opera House by local talent under the auspices of the Eagles' Patriotic Band. It will be an evening of fun, put on by local fun makers. Out of the long list of performers on the program only three names appear from out of town, Geo. Sanford and Murt Ward of Clinton, and Will Kramer of Manchester.

Tecumseh has always made good with her home talent shows and we feel well assured that the public will get their money's wrth Thursday evening, besides the money you spend for a ticket will be used to boost the new band which we are all interested in and want to help.

The program is divided into several parts and is composed of specialty acts, musical numbers, dancing, fancy drills, etc.

The first act will introduce the "Tecumseh Follies" in which seven young ladies and eleven young men take part.

In the second act Kramer and Jones will be seen in "War Blurs" and they tell us it will be some blur.

In the third act Rastus Coller will do some slack wire work in which he equals if not excells the work done by professionals.

"The Long Boy," Robert Moore Jr. and chorus will take up the full time allotted for the fourth act.

In the fifth act Major Hedake & Co., the eccentric musicians, Messrs. Murt Ward, Charles Skinner, G. L. Tansley an George Sanford, will give the audience a real case of "hedake."

The sixth act, Will Yums and J. Olson, Maude Lynn Antix, in which the winsome pair of artists, G. Arthur Rathbun and B. J. Pulver, will appear. Great care and preparation has been taken to make this act particularly attractive.

In the last act the Grand Patriotic Ensemble and Finale will be seen. The Drill Girls and representatives of the Allied Nations will be under the direction of H. H. Hanna, Jr. This act will be very attractive and is said to be worth the price of admission alone.

During the performance a total of fifteen musical numbers will be introduced.

Reserved seats are now on sale at Hays' Bakery and every indication points to a full house. This admission price has been placed at the popular prices 25c, 35c, and 50c.

THE FRIENDS SUCCESSFUL

The Friends Successful class of the Friends church have been having a contest for the past three months, which closed March 31st. Amos Wilson was captain of the winning side and Naomi VanWinkle captain of the losing side. Although her side did lose they kept their courage up and got busy with a will to prepare a supper for the winners.

The supper was given Friday evening in the basement of the church. The rooms were prettily decorated with the National colors. Covers were laid for 20 and the needs of the company were ably cared for by Misses Mabel Lockwood and Naomi VanWinkle. Their teacher honored them by giving a recitation.

The supper was followed by a business session and games. Each one when leaving at a late hour, reported a good time.

Sufficient Unto the Day, Etc.

When a father decided that his son needed application of the gad, he informed the boy that punishment was not far off and went into the yard to cut a switch, says Indianapolis News. When he returned the boy was gone. He searched and did not find. Then he called his wife and both of them searched. They searched low but not high, for if they had cast their eyes aloft they would have seen that the boy had climbed a telephone pole and was safely out of harm's way for the time being. A neighbor spied him and gave away his whereabouts. The boy sought a compromise, saying he would come down at a declaration of peace and no sooner. The compromise was finally effected on the promise that the next time he needs a whipping he will get one twice as hard as is needed, to make up for the one he missed.

RUSSIA ORDERS WAR ON JAPAN

Soukhanoff Declares Killing of Nipponese Was Political Trick.

BRITISH FORCE ON GUARD

Council of National Commissaries Says Landing of Troops at Vladivostok Was Prearranged Plan—Appeals to U. S.

Moscow, April 8.—Admiral Kato, Japanese minister of marine, has issued a proclamation at Vladivostok dealing with the landing there Friday of entente allied forces.

The Japanese minister says he feels great sympathy with Russia in the present situation, wishes a cessation of fratricide and the fullest realization of the revolution, but was compelled to take steps to protect life and property of Japanese and allied subjects in view of the murder of a Japanese soldier and because there were no local organizations at the Siberian port able to maintain law and order.

The admiral adds that he has asked his government for further instructions.

Called Political Murder.

President Soukhanoff of the Vladivostok council of workmen's and soldiers' deputies, reporting to the council of national commissaries, states that in his opinion the killing of the Japanese was a political murder, as no robbery was committed. Efforts to apprehend the criminals, he adds, have been unsuccessful.

The council of workmen's and soldiers' deputies protested to the consular corps. The Japanese consul would deal with them only as private persons.

President Soukhanoff reports that the Japanese section of the city is being patrolled by Japanese detachments composed of three to ten men each. Tents are being erected at the end of the Chinese street, and also in the yard of the Japanese church.

Accused of Enmity.

The council of national commissaries issued a statement saying:

"Japan has started a campaign against the soviet republic."

Orders have been given to all Siberian councils of workmen's and soldiers' delegates to resist an armed invasion of Russia.

It points out that the landing of troops at Vladivostok was effected immediately after the murder of the Japanese, without waiting for an investigation to be made, and says the crime was part of a prearrarranged plan. Continuing, the statement says:

"What is the program of action of the other governments of the entente—America, England, France and Italy? Up to the present moment their policy regarding the repacious scheme of Japan evidently has been one of hesitation.

Appeals to America.

"The American government apparently was against the Japanese invasion, but now the situation cannot remain indefinite any longer. England has followed Japan's example. This must be put to the British government with all emphasis. A similar course must be pursued toward the diplomatic representatives of the United States and other entente powers."

British Land Forces.

Moscow, April 8.—The British, as well as the Japanese, landed forces at Vladivostok. The local authorities had no warning of this action.

U. S. FLEET IS BUSY

Daniels Says Over 150 Ships Are in the War Zone.

35,000 Men Actively Engaged in Fighting Submarines—Have Inflicted Heavy Losser.

Cleveland, O., April 8.—A great fleet of American warships, numbering more than 150 vessels, and including, in addition to the far-famed destroyers, battleships, cruisers, submarines, gunboats, coast guard cutters, converted yachts, tugs and other auxiliaries, is operating in the war zone.

Manning this fleet and the many small submarine chasers, which are not reckoned in the total, and doing duty on air patrol and at the supply stations ashore, are 35,000 officers and men, half the navy's personnel when the nation entered the war just a year ago.

These hitherto carefully guarded facts were disclosed here by Secretary Daniels in an address at a celebration making the opening of the Third Liberty loan campaign.

Mr. Daniels said that, while he was not at liberty to tell the toll the fleet has taken of German submarines, the nation could "rest assured that our forces have inflicted heavy losses upon the enemy.

"As an instance of naval activity," said the secretary, "I may cite the work of one detachment of destroyers for a six-month period: Total miles steamed in war areas, 1,000,000: submarines attacked, 81; single vessels escorted, 717; convoys escorted, 86; total number of days at sea, 3,600.

"The navy has furnished every aid possible that the countries aligned with us in the war have requested or suggested, and has worked in the closest co-operation with them. Our forces have played an important part in the war against the submarines and have aided materially in the marked reductions in sinkings of merchantmen, as compared with the number sunk in the corresponding period a year ago, and in the no less notable increase in the number of submarines destroyed."

"The navy has made a record of which we may well be proud," declared Mr. Daniels, "but much more must be done. Ours has been a modest accomplishment in comparison with the achievements of our allies, but our contribution has been considerable and is rapidly increasing."

Figures on the shipping output and tonnage losses of Great Britain will be published regularly hereafter, it was announced in the house of commons in London by Sir Eric Geddes. The amount of tonnage sunk in the last 12 months was 6,000,000, said Sir Eric, instead of 9,500,000, as the Germans claim.

YANKEES HALT RAID

Germans Driven Back Northwest of Toul.

American Artillery Inflicts Heavy Losses on Foes—Two Prisoners Are Taken.

With the American Army in France, April 8.—The Germans attempted a raid on the American positions northwest of Toul, after a violent artillery preparation. They were driven off by the American artillery and machine gun fire and suffered comparatively heavy casualties, leaving two prisoners in the hands of the Americans.

From the German point of view the raid was a complete failure, as not a single American was captured.

As soon as the German barrage fire lifted the American outposts saw the enemy infantry advancing and called for a counter-barrage, which fell within two minutes in front of the enemy. The Germans scattered as the American infantrymen came from their underground shelters and began pouring machine and automatic gunfire into their ranks.

An American corporal in a listening post saw a big German sergeant wearing the iron cross passing close by. He leaped out and hit him with his rifle butt and then throttled him and hauled him into one of the American trenches. Another German was captured in No Man's Land by a corporal, whose squad covered the German while the corporal advanced and demanded his surrender. The German threw up his hands and yelled "Kamerad."

The American general commanding the troops in this sector has personally congratulated the American captors and promised to reward them for their cool-headed courage in the face of the enemy's fire.

The prisoners talked freely and divulged considerable valuable information.

In another part of the sector an enemy patrol earlier attacked an American party carrying food to a listening post. The American sergeant commanding the food carriers shot a German sergeant through the head. The loss of their commander demoralized the German patrol, which retreated, the American machine gunners helping on their way.

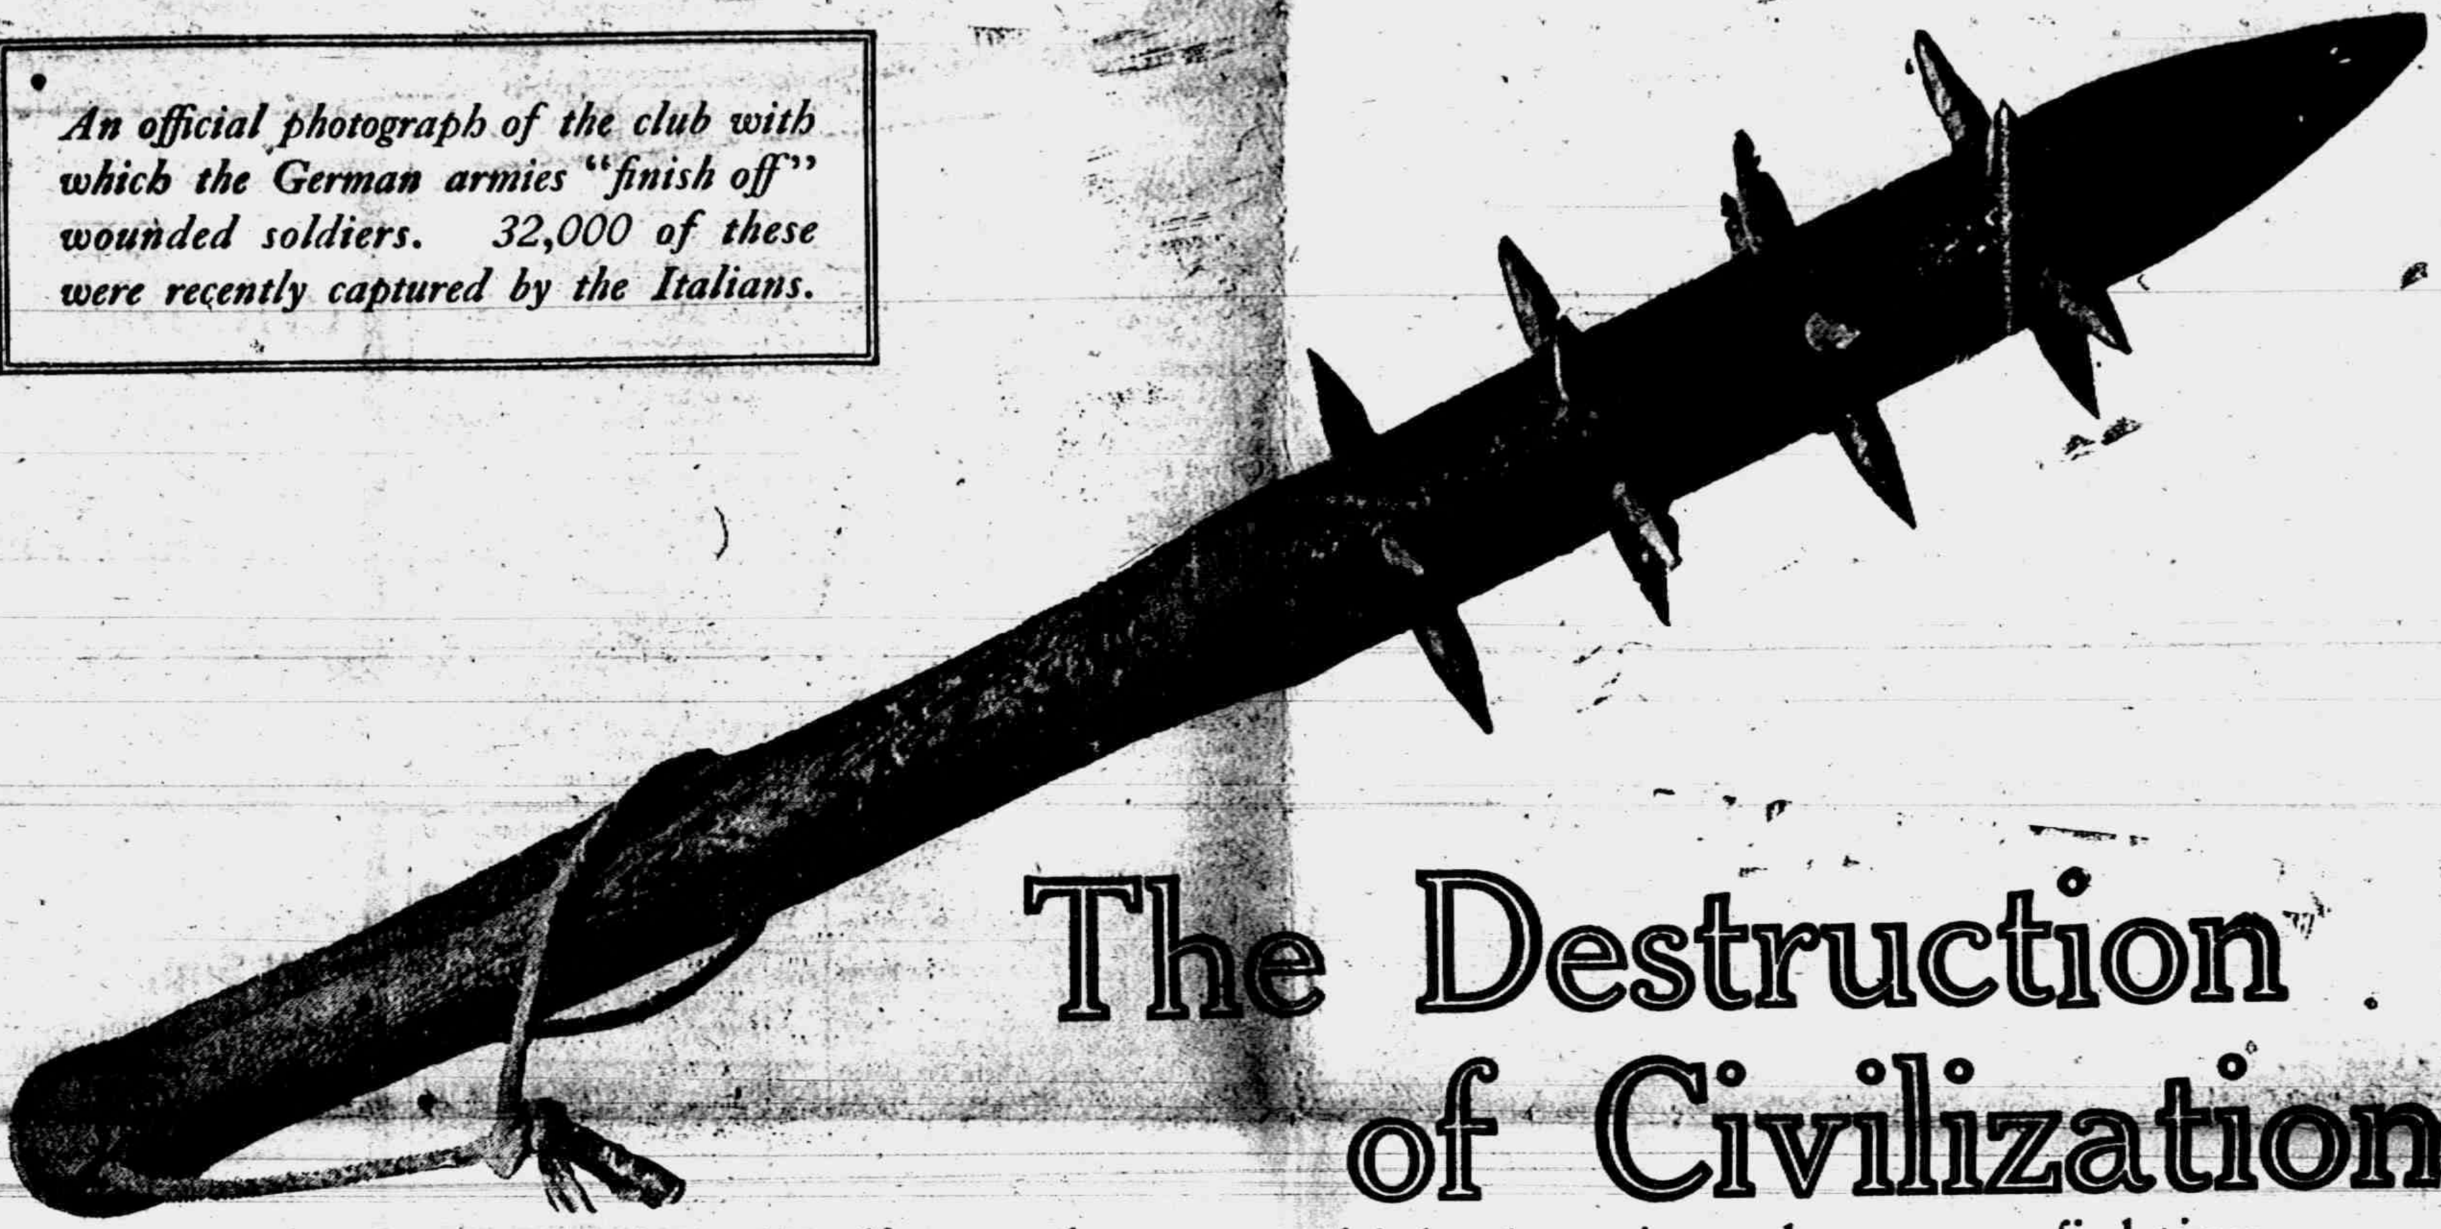
You Can Have Your Share in America's Answer to German Savagery



An official photograph of the club with which the German armies "finish off" wounded soldiers. 32,000 of these were recently captured by the Italians.

The Destruction of Civilization

This is in grim reality what we are fighting this war to prevent. The club pictured above—from an actual official photograph—might be the weapon of a savage cave man of five thousand years ago. It is in fact the weapon with which German soldiers finish off the enemy wounded who have fallen on the battlefield—on the battlefield on The Third Liberty Loan is your opportunity. It is the most direct blow that can be struck at German military supremacy. It is the most powerful aid that can be given our soldiers in France. It means rifles and helmets and gas masks—the best which American boys are fighting.

There is only one answer to make to such methods the defeat of the German Armies. America has taken up the sword to give that answer. Our Army is in France to help win this war on the battlefield—that civilization may be safe, that America may be safe. protection for our men from German brutality. It means big guns and shells and airplanes—and VICTORY.

"OVER THE TOP"

TECUMSEH TOWNSHIP FIRST TO RAISE QUOTA IN THE COUNTY

Subscriptions Pass the $54,000 Mark This Morning

Tecumseh township has the distinction of being the first in Lenawee county to go "over the top" in the Third Liberty Loan campaign. Chairman Temple sent in the report to the county chairman this morning that Tecumseh township had passed her quota of $54,000 and it was welcome news to the small army of workers who have been pushing the campaign since Wednesday morning.

It is scarcely two days since the canvass started here in Tecumseh and the coveted mark was reached before noon on the third day, a record that will equal the best, and it goes to show that Tecumseh is with her Government to win the war and intends to make it mighty hot for the Kaiser and his bunsh.

Tecumseh has a war record to which she is pointing with a great deal of merited pride. She has not only gone "over the top" in her Liberty Loan drives but she was also the first township to oversubscribe her quota for the Lenawee County Patriotic League which furnishes county funds for the Red Cross work and other war activities. Her message to the county is to go out and do likewise.

We are making good our record as the "Biggest Little Town on Earth."

MONROE PRESBYTERY CLOSES A YEAR OF SUCCESSFUL WORK

At the opening session of Monroe Presbytery held in the local Presbyterian church Monday evening, Rev. M. J. Weaver of Reading was elected Moderator. At this meeting the Rev. John Comin, newly elected superintendent of Home Missions in Michigan gave the opening address of the meeting of Presbytery, as well as his first address in his new office as superintendent. The address together with former experiences of similar kind in the west would indicate that he is eminently fitted for the place to which he has been called.

The most of the time of Presbytery was takenup with the making of reports and other routine business.

These reports indicate that all the churches of the Presbytery are in a growing condition, the net increase in membership being much larger than average. Also reports indicate that there have been notable increases in offerings to various benevolent causes and a number of the ministers have received increase in salaries.

The Ladies Aid served a very fine dinner Tuesday noon to the visiting delegates. Nearly all the Presbyterian churches in Monroe, Lenawee, Hillsdale and Branch counties were represented.

Muskegon—With 30,000 people ill here, the mysterious epidemic has paralyzed business.

Bay City—The county war board is investigating charges made by state labor federation leaders that local manufacturers working on government orders are violating the law regarding overtime pay.

Muskegon—Caught in a drill press so that the drill cut cleanly through his wrist, Benjamin Wier, an employe of the Continental Motors corporation, is now at Mercy hospital, his injury being most serious.

Charlevoix.—Raymond Solomon is the first Charlevoix man to give his life for his country. He died in France from an attack of bronchitis. He was a son of O. A. Solomon, manager of the local telephone exchange. He was married shortly before sailing for France.

Big Rapids.—Mrs. Mary Oleson recently received $21 from the government as a soldier's dependent, but returned it with the patriotic request it be used for the Red Cross. Her son is a corporal in France. Mrs. Oleson had secured employment and found the $21 unneeded.

"THIS WAR IS NOT AN ACCIDENT"

Interesting Address given by E. C. Lindemann at Father and Son Banquet, Clinton, Friday Evening.

At the "Father and Son" banquet given Friday night at the Methodist church, Clinton, E. C. Lindemann state leader of the boys and girls extension department gave a most interesting address.

The banquet given by the Red Cross ladies of Clinton was the set on of the Lenawee county Y. M. C. A. conference and it was very fortunate indeed that Mr. Lindemann could be secured as principal speaker of the evening. His words concerning the war, Friday night carried a deep message to the heart of every boy present.

Begun in 1815

He stated that this war had not been looked forward to by the rulers of Germany only thirty years or so, but could be traced back to the congress of Vienna, which was composed of the military leaders of Europe, assembled in 1815 after the Napoleonic wars to decide the new boundaries the European countries. Gradually most of the countries represented in his congress dropped out and in the end it was a failure in that (1) it made no worth-while decisions and (2) it overlooked three vital factors.

The first was that a nation could not be made by marking boundaries, as they thought at that time. They overlooked the most important factor, the human element.

Secondly, the "Big Guns" of the age did not realize that there had been a spark of democracy ignited in these petty wars between dukes and lords. The common people began to feel the oppression that they were under and that a true democracy was on the gain.

Thirdly, they overlooked the industrial revolution that was bound to come sooner or later.

Wilhelm I Started the Ball Rolling

Austria, the chief Germanic state, had the most power, but Prussia was becoming stronger. Wilhelm I, the father of "Kaiser Bill," in 1860 organized a mighty military power and asked huge appropriations from the Reichstag. The Reichstag refused to grant the money and was promptly dismissed and a new one organized. But likewise this body, as well as a third and a fourth refused to grant these huge war appropriations and also were dismissed. This fact alone shows that the German people did not want war.

Bismark Called In

So Wilhelm I called in a promising young statesman by the name of Bismark. He asked Bismark "Can you organize a powerful army without the consent of the people?" "I can" replied the ambitious young statesman. "How?" "By staging a few successful wars!" Accordingly as chancellor several wars were begun to test out the new army. Denmark was soon subdued and a quarrel was picked with Austria, which ended in a successful war for Bismark, who at this time began to use his wonderful strategy.

Then the little differences between France and Prussia were made to seem great and a war begun here. France of course, still suffering from the effects of the Napoleonic wars was entirely unprepared and was forced to surrender Alsace-Lorraine, with its coal and even money!

Thus in eleven years (1860-1871) Germany had overcome three powers of Europe. Her policy was to humiliate and then exact huge war indemnities.

"Kaiser Bill" crowned.

In 1885 when the present Kaiser (little Willie Hohenzollern) came to the throne, a great programme of world peace was outlined. But in 1890 at a launching of a battleship. 'Will' II gave the secret away when he mentioned that these ships would be needed soon, that somebody might attack them soon!

Then an alliance was formed with Austria and Italy, which composed the strongest aggregation in the world, and was a challenge to the rest of the world.

Triple Entente Formed

Accordingly England made an alliance with France and France's secret alliance with Russia was made public. Hence the formation of the "Triple Entente." An entente means a union for protection) only while an alliance like Germany, Austria and Italy formed was a union for (attack)

Germany Gaining in Power.

Germany all this time was fast coming to the front in industry, agriculture, science and finance. In addition to this, her philosophy of government became a cardinal principal. She said that the "State could do no harm," that its power was handed down from God, that soldiers were not responsible for any treasonable acts.

The sailors who sank the Lusitania received medals for their deed.

Also Germany said that war in itself was not an evil, but that it stiffened the courage and virility of a race!

"Over Here" in 1776

In 1776 a Government made here in America did not believe in this "Divine Right" theory, but believed that the state and people are one.

This idea was mocked by all Europe and it took us eleven years to get a constitution. Then too we decided that we wouldn't wage war for territory but for principle. And in all our eight wars we have fought for principle and not territory.

Our Eight Wars

Our first war in 1776 was for freedom and liberty.

Our second war in 1812 was for freedom on high seas.

Our third war, although perhaps not much to boast of nevertheless shows our spirit of right. After we had taken Mexico, what did we do but turn around and pay her $15,000,000 for it. Compare this to Germany's deals.

Our fourth war in 1661-1665 was to free the slaves.

Our fifth war in 1868 was with Japan, although seldom spoken of. Our share of the indemnity was $800,000. But Uncle Sam couldn't digest other peoples money so in 1883 he paid the whole sum back to Japan with 5 per cent interest for fifteen years!

Our sixth war was when we helped settle the Boxer Rebellion in China. We believed that China should be opened. Our share of the indemnity was $2,000,000 but we gave it back to China and told her to use it for educating her men and women in America, which she is doing at the present time.

Germany and U. S. Bound to Clash

So because of the two entirely different governments and the principles for which both of them stood, Germany and the United States were destined to become enemies. If not in 1917 then some other time. Very fortunate for us we were drawn into the war through our allies who have given thousands of men in our cause. It was a blessing that the United States had time to prepare. During this time England has put 2,500,000 men under the sod, Russia the same, while France is bled white and all this sacrifice was for us and has saved us.

Greatest War in History.

There are 240 million people, involved in this war, and to date it has cost 70,000,000,000 dollars. It has been the greatest war from all standpoints. Especially has it shown the courage of the Russians.

In one great battle 400,000 Russians without ammunitions advanced on the Germans and came out with 10,000 men living, but most of whom were wounded. The reason why Russia lost out was because of lack of food. The daughters and mothers of the soldiers were starving at home by the thousands. The Germans of course seized this opportunity of decreasing the fighting moral of the Russian, and also Italian soldiers among whom they circulated false literature about the terrible conditions at home and why ddin't they stop fighting etc, etc.

By this low down sneaky method Germany gained from Italy in two weeks and a half all that Italy had won in two years. The crisis was bad enough there.

Great Plan to Let France Quit

There are plans now to let France cease fighting and to build a great city like our Pittsburg for making steel and iron while we furnish the soldiers. "This war can not be won in 2, 3, 4, or even 20 years from now until every man, woman and child realizes that there is a duty for us all.

"Don't Blame the Government"

"Don't blame the Government." "Aren't you the Government" right now you're getting a lot more than you deserve! "In this last election, the socialist were the only ones who showed any citizenship!"

Germany is Gaining!

From a population of 68, million people before the war Germany now has 176 million people from which she can draw an army of 30,000,000 men. She has gained 300,000 square miles and made peace with Ukraine which is as large as Germany plus Illinois. This one spot furnishes Russia with one half of her grain and two thirds of her animals. Through Finland she got her fats and oils, through Roumania she gets wheat and now has so much wheat that she is trading it with Denmark for iron.

Today France is living on a ten days wheat supply. Germany could fight twenty years from a standpoint of food.

"The Crisis is Awful."

The crisis confronting us today is simply awful, and it needs our entire strength. If we read under the head lines we will see that Germany is pouring her vast hordes steadily on two and three miles every day, and when she stops she can dig in and raise some awful defences.

"Buying Liberty Bonds is Selfish"

Today buying bonds is the least of our duties. We should even borrow money from the Banks to buy bonds. If we should lose the war our money wouldn't be worth anything anyway.

Is a German

"I am of German extraction. I was raised in a German school and a German church. My father and mother both came from Germany, but that was the old Germany and they both died when I was twelve years old. I have never yet met anyone who possessed such high ideals as my father and mother, (tears came to Mr. Lindemann's eyes.)

I have been fooled by the new German propaganda, but now my eyes are open Thank God! I know that 95 per cent of the Germans in this country are loyal to the red, white and blue and all of the second generation are loyal.

"I love the old Germany and the happiest days of my life were spent in German environments. But that Germany is not alive nor has it been for the last fifty years. Now it is an entirely different nation, but it has become infused with the love of glory and gain. I have never worked, studied or prayed harder in all my life than for the past three and a half years since the war began, But I don't want to live another day if we lose this war!

For Democracy

"We can't make this world safe for democracy until we have driven out every bit of selfishness even if it takes war upon war."

It's you boys in Lenawee who will decide whether democracy will be safe or not! Any one who isn't doing anything to win this war is a Weed in the Garden of Democracy.

We must make it impossible for a selfish man to live. As soon as we get the group idea, the community and worldwide view instead of the petty individual idea, we will have made a great step forward and when the reconstruction period comes we hope that every community will have that wider outlook upon life. That which was taught by the most democratic man the world has ever known, the carpenter from Galilee.

HOME TALENT VAUDEVILLE ENTERTAINMENT A BIG SUCCESS

Crowded House Greets Local Stars.

Eagles Will Net About $175.00 for Their Band.

The Home Talent Vaudeville Entertainment given under the auspices of the Eagle Lodge Thursday evening was a big success. Bradley's opera house was crowded to the doors with people standing and sitting in the aisles in the gallery, with gross receipts running up to $263.00

The Eagle band made their first appearance at noon Thursday when they were loaded on Hayden's truck and carted around town, giving concerts in different sections of town and they again appeared in the evening when they gave a concert in front of the opera house.

The entertainment was divided into seven parts and was brim full of music, specialty acts and fun.

The first act, entitled "Tecumseh's Follies," in which a chorus of seven young ladies and eleven young men took part was most pleasing. The opening number rendered by the chorus was entitled "Liberty Bell." This was followed by a song, "The Wild, Wild Woman are Making a Wild Man out of Me," by W. F. McCann, W. Service and J. K. Lowry, and sandwiched in with the song was a bunch of jokes pulled off by this group of comedians. Next a duet, "I'm Going to Follow the Boys," by Miss Lillian Kennedy and Mr. Fred Dickinson which was well received and they were forced to respond to an encore.

"The Bluebird" was sung by Mr. Fred Dickinson and during the singing Miss Ruth Meredith and Mr. K. A. Braman were seen in a fancy dance. Their efforts brought down the house and they responded most graciously to the encore.

A quartette number by the Ukulele Club, composed of the Misses Dorothy Balmer, Lillian Kennedy, Gladys Bowen and Marjorie Rosecrans, was given in a very pleasing manner and the young ladies responded to an encore.

"Just a Prayer at Twilight" was beautifully sung by Miss Charlotte Putnam, one of our high school girls. Miss Putnam has a remarkably clear sweet voice and her first appearance before a Tecumseh audience was enthusistically encored.

At this part of the act John Philip Sousa (Chas. Skinner) was introduced in a little farce cornet work which brought down the house.

"I Don't Know Where I'm Going but I'm on My Way" by the chorus was the final number in Part I.

In the second act "War Blurs" by Kramer and Jones, a musical number by Mrs. Chas. Jones and Will Kramer accompanied by Mrs. Hodges sang for their first number "Love On" and for their encore "Oh, That We Two Were Maying."

The third act, one of the very best of the evening, consisted of remarkably fine work on the slack wire by J. Lester Coller. The work done by "Rastus" was most clever and he deserved every bit of the enthusiastic encore given him.

The fourth act produced the long boy, Robert Moore Jr., who came ambling out of the audience to do his stunt. Robert sang "Long Boy" with the chorus coming in on the refrain and also passed about a fine assortment of jokes.

Major Hedake & Co. took up the time allotted for the fifth act and this company of four eccentric musicians was made up of Murt Ward, Chas. Skinner, G. L. Tansley and George Sanford. Tansley gave a number on the saxaphone, Ward and Skinner were heard on the trombones, also Skinner on the cornet and Sanford pleased the audience with his mouth organ work. In this act Skinner and Ward pulled off some very clever comedy work.

The sixth act was taken up by Will Yums and J. Olson (B. J. Pulver and G. A. Rathbun, black faced artists). Mr. Pulver sang "You Can Find a Little Bit of Dixie, No Matter Where You Go" and Mr. Rathbun sang "Dat's Camouflage." Both brought down the house, not only with their singing but also by some very pat jokes which they neatly handed out. George is a little modest and won't tell all about his part in his act, but as we believe the people would like to know all about it, we must tell that he wrote the words for his song and it took so well that he had to give the audience little more for an encore.

The last act consisted of a Grand Patriotic Ensemble and Finale introducing twelve drill girls in khaki, directed by Drill Master H. H. Hanna, Jr., and representatives of the Allied Nations. This act alone was worth the entire price of the admission. The drill was worked up to perfection and the girls went through each evolution almost perfectly. Their work finished in a burst of applause. The drill was followed by the presentation of the Allied Naland; Hazel Stahler, France; Vera Hodges Italy; Lydia Babcock, Belgium; Myrtle Foster, Japan, and Grace Moore, America. The Red Cross nurse was represented by Lelia Rathbun while our army by H. H. Hanna, Jr., and Arthur Brown, and our navy by D. J. Hodges. Patriotic solos were sung by Harold Lowry and Mrs. Grace Moore and were features of this part of the program. In the last part of this act the lights were turned down and when they were flashed on again "Old Glory," ablaze with red, white and blue lights, was displayed across the rear of the stage. The act closed with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner," the audience rising and joining in.

During an intermission in the program, Rev. W. A. Rex gave a few enthusiastic remarks in behalf of the Third Liberty Loan.

Sault Ste. Marie.—Deeds held by 15 Detroit and Lansing people, mostly women, to land bought for summer resort property near here, have been found to be worthless, following an investigation by T. J. Green, prosecuting attorney. The land lies in the middle of a swamp on lower Sugar island. No more deeds will be recorded for this land.

Camp Custer.—It has developed that the intensive training given at the training camps has developed what medical officers call an "irritable" heart. This is especially true of men who in civilian life were not injured to violent exercise. Medical officers have been warned to watch for these cases and when located the victims will be placed in a company which takes its work more gradually.

Camp Custer.—Close companions in life, Private Chas. J. Hoeflin and George Heller, Detroiters, died at the base hospital within a few hours of each other. Both men came to the army at the same time and were assigned to the headquarters company, 330th field artillery. They had adjoining bunks and both worked and played together. Heller died from pneumonia and Hoeflin from empyema.

SIXTY-SEVENTH YEAR NO. 56 TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, TUESDAY, APRIL 16, 1918 WHOLE NUMBER 4618

Will You HELP Bring Back The Boys of This Community?

Our boys, the boys from this town and this county and this state, are fighting the Huns. They are in the trenches in France, they are sailing the U-boat-infested seas, they are going "over the top" in the face of German cannon and machine gun fire.

Many, many more of our boys are now training and will soon be in France, and more are yet to be called.

And, remember, these are our boys; those who are near and dear to us. They are doing their ALL. They are giving their ALL. They are prepared to make the extreme sacrifice that our homes, our town, our nation, may escape the ravages of the Hun.

We want them—one and all—to come back to us—

Will You Help to Bring Them Back?

Will you help to provide them with the things they need, with clothes and food and munitions, that they may complete as quickly as possible the terrible task assigned to them?

Will you support our boys while they are fighting for us, fighting the German autocracy that seeks to destroy our ideals of liberty and justice?

Compared to their heroic sacrifice our part is but small—that of providing the funds to keep them equipped; to build and man the ships that will transport their food, their clothes, their guns and their ammunition, and to pay for these things.

Yes, we, the people of this community, will support our boys.

We will do it by buying bonds of the Third Liberty Loan; by buying all these bonds we can; by making such sacrifices as are necessary to do this. That will be our support for Our Boys.

Last night's report on the sale of Liberty Bonds sold in Tecumseh township sent in to the county headquarters by local chairman H. S Temple showed that the total sold to date amount to $68,500 or about $15,000 above our quota.

It is a matter of great pride to chairman Temple and his band of salemen that our quota was raised in less than three days and that "good old Tecumseh" was the first to go "over the top." We congratulate the people of this township for their patriotism and for the loyal spirit which has been shown in this campaign. It shows that the people of this community are ready and willing to back up Uncle Sam in his fight for Democracy, but there is yet several days before the campaign closes in Lenawee county as it lasts until Saturday night and bonds may be secured as late as May 4th so lets shove the amount clear to the top of the thermometer and make it a clean sweep. All of our territory is not yet covered and bonds are still being sold. Lets put the mark at $100,000 and make the over subscription good and strong for the cause of "Old Glory."

Every man, woman or child who can buy a bond should consider it their duty to do so. Your Government has called on you to do your bit and if you are a good soldier you will obey.

Buying these bonds will be no hardship for they are a good investment and will net you 4¼ per cent. Buy them out of your income is the slogan and their is no safer place for your savings than in Government Liberty Bonds.

The total amount of bonds reported sold at Adrian headquarters yesterday was $447,350.00. Tecumseh has raised less than one seventh of this total, which is a very flattering record. While our record is fine and we feel proud of what we have done, still let us remember that every bond sold helps our Govern[illegible] America's money, men and [illegible] were never needed so much as now. Our Allies are fighting a life and death struggle and they are looking to America to furnish the balance of power to win the war. Every ounce of American strength must be used to hold the quivering lines on the western battle front and to drive the Hun back. It looks like a long struggle but Uncle Sam will not fail his record is clean and in the end the Hun will be beaten, if it takes ten years to do it.

We see by recent press dispatches that our friend Edward Fressdorf is a possible candidate for the office of United States Senator on he Democratic ticket in case ex-Gov. Woodbridge Ferris refuses to allow his name to be used.

Mr. Frensdorf has made a clean record and is one of the most useful men in the State of Michigan today He is a loyal American and if he were nominated and elected he would not only do credit to the State which sent him but would serve his government to the best of his ability.

If he decides to enter the race his home county, both Democrat and Republican would give him, we believe, their full support.

SMALL BLAZE

Calls out the Department.

About 6 o'clock Saturday morning a fire alarm was sent in and the fire department was soon on its way, but owing to a misunderstanding, they started for the home of Reuben Warner in Brownville instead of Willard Warner's south of town where the fire occurred. Two holes were burned in the roof, catching from sparks from a burning chimney. Local help soon had the blaze extinguished with but little damage done.

About 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon another alarm was sounded, this time coming from the home of A. B. McLachlin, where the grass had been fired and was endangering the house Prompt action by the department soon had the fire under subjection and all was well there.

A Sunday fire was next, but this time east of town at the Horace Eaton farm. A stack of cornstalks was discovered afire and was thought to be caused by spontaneous combustion. Neighbors soon arrived on the grounds and a bucket brigade was formed quickly overcoming the flames The stalks were then spread on the ground for safety. Fortunately none of the buildings were set afire.

"When the war's costing Uncle Sam $1,000,000,000 a month, what's the good of my old $50 bond? Fizz, barg;---it's gone. What's the use? I might as well buy myself a cheese sandwich and give the change to the waiter."

But you are wrong, Mr. Conscientious Objector to being Separated from your Coin, when you say that. Listen,

HIS HEART IS IN THE RIGHT PLACE

The following letter has been received by Mr. James H. Elliott, who has been active in the local Liberty Bond campaign, from Edward Frensdorf and refers to a very liberal subscription for bonds, which friend Ed has made through our local organization. While Ed is a loyal supporter of his home town, Hudson, still Tecumseh claims him as a sort of an adopted citizen and this is only one of the many instances when Ed has made good in Tecumseh.

April 12, 1918

Mr. James H. Elliott,
Tecumseh, Michigan.

My dear friend Jim:

I have your telegram saying Tecumseh wanted part of my Liberty Loan Subscription and I immediately called up our Mr. Josey [illegible]th and authorized him to subscribe either for me personally or for the bank, all of which I am pleased to confirm. For as I look at it, the purchase of a government bond is equivalent to betting your government is going to win.

Money is the smallest loss I can suffer. If we lose, my liberty is lost and before I will give that up, [illegible] will be obliged to take my life, so as I look at it, the furnishing of the last dollar I can raise to sustain my government is not so much an act of patriotism as an expression of confidence.

No man can refuse to buy a mortgage on his country and convince me that it is for any other reason than his doubt in the ability or honesty of his country paying its debt.

Any man who claims the right of citizenship, who has the money and refuses to support his government at this time ought to be deprived of his citizenship.

Personally, I am willing to put up my last dollar and mortgage my future in betting that my country wins.

I feel it is the best and surest investment I ever had a chance to make, but when the fourth, the fifth, the sixth, the seventh, the eighth, the ninth and the tenth Liberty Loans are offered, it is my hope and expectation to be able to wire you to put me down for at least $5,000.00, in Tecumseh's quota.

I may have to put my life insurance up for collateral, along with some mortgages on my real estate, but what good is any of our property should we lose this war.

No community contains a people more thoroughly American in spirit than in Tecumseh and Lenawee County and I am sure when they are thoroughly aroused, they will fight with their last dollar and their last drop of blood.

I wish the committee every success in their undertaking and am glad to have an opportunity to participate with them in this splendid struggle for democracy.

Patriotically yours,
Edward Trensdorf

I will buy a building 10x20 feet, to be moved.

During the last act of the Eagles entertainment last Thursday evening, Miss Isabelle Johnson dressed in Scotish costume gave a Scotch dance. This dance was one of the features of the act and was one of the best numbers on the whole program.

THAT NEW MEMBER

I. O. O. F. Take in the One Eyed Dog

We understand that the I. O. O. F. acquired a new member at their meeting Tuesday night, when the poor one eyed dog that patrols our streets daily made his entrance. Becoming weary of the walk over the burning sands, he tarried all night in the lodge rooms.

Growing uneasy and no one responding to his cries for release he vented his spite on the curtains, which were found in a demoralized condition, Wednesday morning when the poor fellow was heard and released.

FUEL ORDERS EFFECTIVE APRIL 1, 1918

Order No. 15.

Effective April 1, 1918 and continuing to September 1, 1918, dealers shall reduce the price of Anthracite coal 30 cents per net ton. This includes all coal on hand in dealers yards April 1st and all coal enroute on that date.

On September 1st, dealers may add 30 cent per net ton for all Anthracite coal on hand in their yards and all coal enroute on that date.

Inasmuch as it is generally understood that dealers will have more coal rolling and on hand September 1st than they have on hand April 1st this order will work no hardship.

This reduction of 30 cents per net ton must be taken from the cost of coal on track before adding the Gross Margin allowed in Order No. 12.

FEDERAL FUEL ADMINISTRATION,
H. I. Piatt, Director of Counties.
Lansing, Mich., April 8, 1918.

Order No. 16

Distribution of Anthracite Coal at the mines will be supervised by J. B. Dickson, S. D. Warriner, W. J. Richards,

This committee has already comprehensive figures which have been compiled, showing the tonnage by sizes sent into the different states during the coal year April 1, 1916 to April 1, 1917 and during the coal year April 1, 1917 to April 1, 1918.

The coal year April 1, 1916 to April 1st, 1917 being considered the last normal year will be used as a basis of distribution for the coming year beginning April 1, 1918.

Retail dealers will place their orders in the regular way with the shippers who supplied them during the coal year April 1, 1916 to April 1, 1917.

This does not men that each dealer will necessarily get the full amount allotted to him during the coal year April 1916-17, as there has been a greatly increased demand for Anthracite Coal due to the war.

FEDERAL FUEL ADMINISTRATION.

MIRTH AND JOY

Mirth and Joy are friends of mine,
They banish grief and woe,
I take them with me to my toil
And everywhere I go.
They keep me in good humor,
They never let me frown,
I highly prize their friendship,
"While rambling through the town".
They're with me in the busy street
They're with me when I roam
They're with me when I visit,
They're with me when I'm home
They're with me when I go to bed.
They're with me when I rise
I'd rather be with Mirth and Joy
Than on the "Bridge of Sighs"
Make Mirth and Joy companions
No matter where you are,
They'll lighten all your burdens,
Spread cheer both near and far
They'll make your life worth living,
Make glad each step you take
Until you're in your long last sleep
From which you'll never wake

FRIENDS UNIT IN FRANCE HEARD FROM

The following letter received by A. A. Comfort will be of deep interest to all, and especially to the Friends who have part in the work of this unit in France.

Dear Friend:

We have delayed writing you concerning the effect of the present German offensive upon our work in France, expecting daily to have a cable from our Paris Office. We are very glad to inform you that the following cable has been received today: "WHOLE UNIT SAFE. REDISTRIBUTION TO FRESH FIELD OF WORK GOING ON. UNUSUAL DEVOTION SHOWN BY BOTH MEN AND WOMEN WORKERS OF UNIT."

This is the first word we have had, and, although we have had no great fear as to the safety of our workers who were in the Somme region, we are very glad for your sake and for ours to have this cable of reassurance.

You will be glad to know that our work in France has been very little affected by this offensive. Our work in the district now re-invaded was the newest and smallest part of our work in France. Only 50 of the 350 English and American Friends were in this region. Recent letters from Charles Evans, written before the German Drive, have stated that the important development for Friends would be in the upper Marne. In a part of this region, where almost no reconstruction or relief work has yet been undertaken. Friends have been urgently asked by the French authorities to assume entire charge of the work. This region lies considerably to the east of the recent offensive, and because of its lack of strategic value has been the scene of almost no important military operations since the failure of the big swing toward Paris in the fall of 1914.

You will find a fuller account of the situation in the Friends' papers of the week beginning April 7. I would suggest that you might perhaps give a statement to your local newspapers. We are eagerly awaiting news of the assistance which our workers have been able to render to the French people in this fresh disaster. Full report will be made in the Friends papers.

Very truly yours,
Vincent D. Nicholson.

RED CROSS NEWS

Mrs. J. R. Nyland director of knitted garments wishes to state that all sweaters MUST have four inches of purling and twenty-one inches of plain knitting before the neck is finished. Please measure your garment very accurately.

Twenty-eight pair of knitted socks were sent to Headquarters by Mrs. W. B. Hartzog and committee.

The Research Circle will meet at Headquarters on Monday afternoons with Dr. Bredow as instructor for work in surgical dressings.

Mrs. J. R. Nyland has plenty of yarn for knitting sweaters and wristlets.

During twelve months army hospitals increased from seven to sixty-three in number and from 5,000 to 58,400 beds; 30,00 more beds are being added.

Please tie your news papers in bundles and save them for the Red Cross as they will be collected in the near future.

As soon as the surgical shirts which are now cut have been finished canton flannel will be used in the place of muslin of which they have here-to-fore been made.

Mrs. W. B. Hartzog has plenty of yarn on hand for knitting socks.

Of the required March quota, Tecumseh Chapter completed 10,750 4x4 wipes.

Dr. Bredow will be at Headquarters on Monday afternoons instead of Wednesdays from now until the Clinton class have completed their course.

Mrs. Jenny C. Law Hardy promises some very interesting Red Cross notes on her return from Cuba.

Ralston
Shoes for Men

Judge Ralstons from All Angles

There's more to be considered when buying a pair of shoes than just simply the price.

Frankly, there are, of course many shoes which can be purchased for less than Ralstons—and good value for the money too—yet as to their eventual ECONOMY as compared with Ralstons here's room for doubt.

But what you are looking for is supreme value—value as found in individuality of style, easy fitting qualities and ability to stand up under service and give all they are expected to.

Ralstons offer the utmost in style in fit, in wear—all three TOGETHER. Let us show them to you.

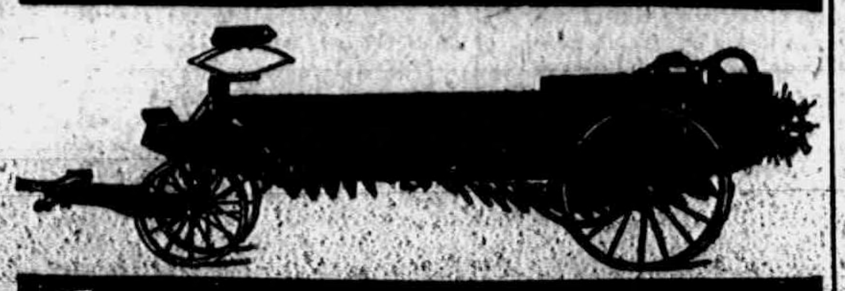
Are You Going To Buy A Spreader this Year?

Look At The

LITCHFIELD



Why Has It Got Other Spreaders Beat a Mile? We'll Tell You.

Because it has the BULL-DOG BEATER WHEEL which has two lengths of teeth so arranged on the wheel that they intermingle over the entire surface. The long teeth work 1½ inches deeper in the load than the short teeth which follow. These long teeth are the "advance guard" and the short teeth follow and take care of WHAT IS LEFT, so the whole wheel works freely and easily. This is the same principle as the ordinary cross-cut saw with short and long teeth.

WHAT CLOGS A BEATER WHEEL is the material that stays in the load; not what the wheel throws out. It is the material that clogs against the bars and stays in that MAKES THE HEAVY DRAFT. The power required to move the beater wheel if it can move freely is not very great. It is the friction of the beater wheel against the material that DOES NOT GO OUT that makes your spreader a "horse-killer."

With the BULL DOG BEATER WHEEL with its two rows of teeth the rear ones carry off what the forward ones miss and there is no congestion. That is why it is so light of draft.

The No-Choke Body

A Beater Wheel runs at a high speed in order to do its work. If it can run against LOOSE AND FREELY HELD MATERIAL its work will be easy. If it has to work against a densely packed wall of manure, its work will be doubled.

Just back of the Beater Wheel, the box of Litchfield Spreader widens suddenly. This gives the manure a chance to SPREAD AND EXPAND itself as it is brought forward to the conveyor. The Beater Wheel can work easily and the draft and the wear and tear on the spreader are greatly lessened.

Simple To Operate

ONLY TWO GEARS on the entire Spreader, and ONLY ONE LEVER. One motion of this lever completely operates Spreader.

These are only a few of the reasons why we are proud to offer you the Litchfield Spreader. Come in and see one and let us show you its good points." Seeing is believing."

And remember this Spreader is offered with a

Our Tea Trade

Gets bigger and bigger.
Why does it grow?
Because the Teas that we handle are quite a bit better for the money than most stores handle.
Why are they better?
Because we devote more than ordinary care to choosing them.
Because we insist upon each lot we buy being the very best obtainable.
Because we are able to sell at 60c a Tea that equals the 80c grades of many stores.
Because all the way up and down our Tea line we offer superior qualities.

FIRST THOUGHT IS ISOLATION

Aviator Longs for Sound of Human Voices When He Is Soaring Far Above the Earth.

I became conscious of a feeling of loneliness, writes James N. Hall, in the Atlantic. I remembered what J. B. had said that morning. There was something unpleasant in that isolation, something to make one look longingly down to earth; to make one wonder whether we shall ever feel really at home in the air. I, too, longed for the sound of human voices, and all that I heard was the roar of the motor and the swish of the wind through wires and struts—sounds which have no human quality in them, and are no more companionable than the lapping of the waves would be to a man adrift on a raft in midocean. Underlying this feeling, and, no doubt, in part responsible for it, was the knowledge of the fallibility of that seemingly perfect mechanism which rode so steadily through the air; of the quick response which that ingenious arrangement of inanimate matter would make to an eternal and inexorable law, if a few frail wires should part; of the equally quick, but less phlegmatic response of another fallible mechanism, capable of registering horror, capable, it is said, of passing its past life in review in the space of a few seconds, and then—capable of becoming equally inanimate matter.

Determining Age of Planets.

A novel idea in estimating the physical condition of planets was put forth by M. Veronnet before the Academie des Sciences at a recent meeting in Paris. He based it upon a calculation of the quantity of water that rocks such as granite and porphyry absorb before becoming perfectly dry.

He said that on the moon all water has been completely absorbed by slow diffusion as the rocks gradually cooled. Venus is still surrounded by a thick layer of vapor, while no water has yet been condensed on the surface of Mercury, this planet being still in a condition in which its geological life has not begun, and consequently no clouds have yet formed on its surface.

M. Veronnet calculates that the rocks of our earth now contain absorbed water which would cover the earth to an average depth of about 400 metres.

GROCERS HELP IN 50-50 PLAN

SIGN PLEDGE TO CARRY OUT FOOD ADMINISTRATION PROGRAM.

POST CARDS IN STORES.

Explain New Wheat Ruling to Thousands of Customers—Insures Greater Food Saving.

Grocers of the nation have accepted enthusiastically the 50-50 basis for the purchase of wheat flour and are doing their utmost to explain the new regulation to the housewife. This ruling by the U. S. Food Administration requires each purchaser of wheat flour to buy one pound of cereal substitute, one kind or assorted, for every pound of wheat flour. It was necessary to restrict the use of wheat flour in order that the allies and our fighting forces abroad might be assured of an adequate supply of wheat to meet their vital needs. This supply must come from our savings because we [illegible] ready sent our normal surplus.

Wheat saving pledge cards were forwarded by the Food Administration to all retail food merchants, and these are being signed and posted in stores throughout the country. This card states, "We pledge ourselves loyally to carry out the Food Administration program. In accordance with this order we will not sell any wheat flour except where the purchaser buys an equal weight of one or more of the following, a greater use of which in the home will save wheat:

"Cornmeal, corn flour, edible corn starch, hominy, corn grits, barley flour, potato flour, sweet potato flour, soy bean flour, feterita flour and meals, rice, rice flour, oatmeal, rolled oats and buckwheat flour."

Some confusion has resulted on the part of the consumer in construing this "50-50" ruling to mean that an equal amount in value of substitutes must be purchased with wheat flour. This is a mistaken idea. The ruling states that the consumer in purchasing flour shall "buy at the same time an equal weight of other cereals."

One exception to this ruling is concerning graham flour and whole wheat flour, which may be sold at the ratio of three pounds to five pounds of wheat flour. This provision is made because approximately 25 per cent. more of the wheat berry is used in the manufacture of these flours than standard wheat flour.

Another exception is that concerning mixed flours containing less than 50 per cent. of wheat flour, which may be sold without substitutes. Retailers, however, are forbidden to sell mixed flours containing more than 50 per cent. of wheat flour to any person unless the amount of wheat flour substitutes sold is sufficient to make the total amount of substitutes, including those mixed in flours, equal to the total amount in wheat flour in the mixed flour. For instance, if any mixed flour is purchased containing 60 per cent. wheat flour and 40 per cent. substitutes it is necessary that an additional 20 per cent. of substitutes be purchased. This brings it to the basis of one pound of substitutes for each pound of wheat flour.

A special exemption may be granted upon application in the case of specially prepared infants' and invalids' food containing flour where the necessity is shown.

Some misunderstanding seems to exist on the part of consumers in assuming that with the purchase of wheat flour one must confine the additional 50 per cent. purchase to one of the substitutes. This is not the case. One may select from the entire range of substitutes a sufficient amount of each to bring the total weight of all substitutes equal to the weight of the wheat flour purchased. For instance, if a purchase of 24 pounds of wheat flour is made a range of substitutes may be selected as follows:

Cornmeal, 8 pounds; corn grits, 4 pounds; rice, 4 pounds; buckwheat, 2 pounds; corn starch, 1 pound; hominy, 2 pounds; rolled oats, 3 pounds.

These substitutes may be used in the following manner:

Cornmeal, 8 Pounds.—Corn bread, no flour; corn muffins or spoon bread, one-fourth flour or one-third rice or one-third hominy; 20 per cent. substitutes in whole bread.

Corn Starch, 1 Pound.—Thickening gravy, making custard, one-third substitute in cake.

Corn Grits, 4 Pounds.—Fried like mush, used with meal in making corn bread.

Rolled Oats, 3 Pounds.—One-fourth to one-third substitutes in bread, one-half substitute in muffins; breakfast porridge, use freely; oatmeal cookies, oatmeal soup.

Buckwheat Flour, 2 Pounds.—One-fourth substitute in bread, buckwheat cakes.

Hominy, 2 Pounds.—Boiled for dinner, baked for dinner, with cheese sauce.

Rice, 4 Pounds.—One-fourth substitute in wheat bread, one-third substitute in corn bread, boiled for dinner (a bread cut), as a breakfast food, to thicken soups, rice pudding instead of cake or pie, rice batter cakes.

Several grocers have stated that their customers who strictly observe the 11 wheatless meals each week find it necessary to buy substitutes in addition to those ordered under the 50-50 plan.

Siberia Has Vast Resources.

The common notion of Siberia is based on latitude and climate. Because part of it is in the arctic circle the whole vast region has been assumed to be almost beyond the pale of civilized occupancy. Notwithstanding that much has been written describing Siberia as it is, the common notion is still that it is fit only for penal settlements and that the nihilists and other political exiles were sent to these settlements as a living death. This is not far from the truth. But the inhospitable regions in which the penal settlements were placed are far from being all Siberia, and even some of these districts are capable of sustaining the vigorous inhabitants of northern climates.

Siberia, in the economic sense, has all the resources which go to make a vast stretch of territory self-sustaining as an independent nation. It has forests, mines and great agricultural regions where every product of the temperate climate is capable of cultivation. The timber is in the north and west. The mines are in widely scattered districts.

SLEPT WHILE GUNS ROARED

Charles Francis Adams Told of Taking a Nap on a Hillside During Pickett's Charge.

In the campaigns of both Antietam and Gettysburg I was an officer in a regiment of cavalry, a mere subordinate, responsible only for obedience to orders.

At Gettysburg July 3 the division to which we belonged occupied the high, partly wooded ground on the right of the line, covering the enemy's flank and rear. It was a bright July day, hot, and with white clouds slowly rolling across the sky. Neither our lines nor those of the enemy were visible to us; and the sounds of battle were hushed. Waiting for orders and for action, we dismounted, out of regard for our horses as well as for ourselves, and sat or lay on the turf.

Inured to danger by contact long and close and thoroughly tired in body and overwrought in mind we listened for the battle to begin; and shortly after noon the artillery opened. We did not know it, for we could see nothing in that direction, but it covered the famous advance of Pickett's Virginia division upon Meade's center—that wonderful feat of arms—and just then, lulled by the incessant roar of the cannon, while the fate of the army and the nation trembled in the balance, at the very crisis of the great conflict, I dropped quietly asleep. It was not heroic, but it was essentially war.—From the Autobiography of Charles Francis Adams.

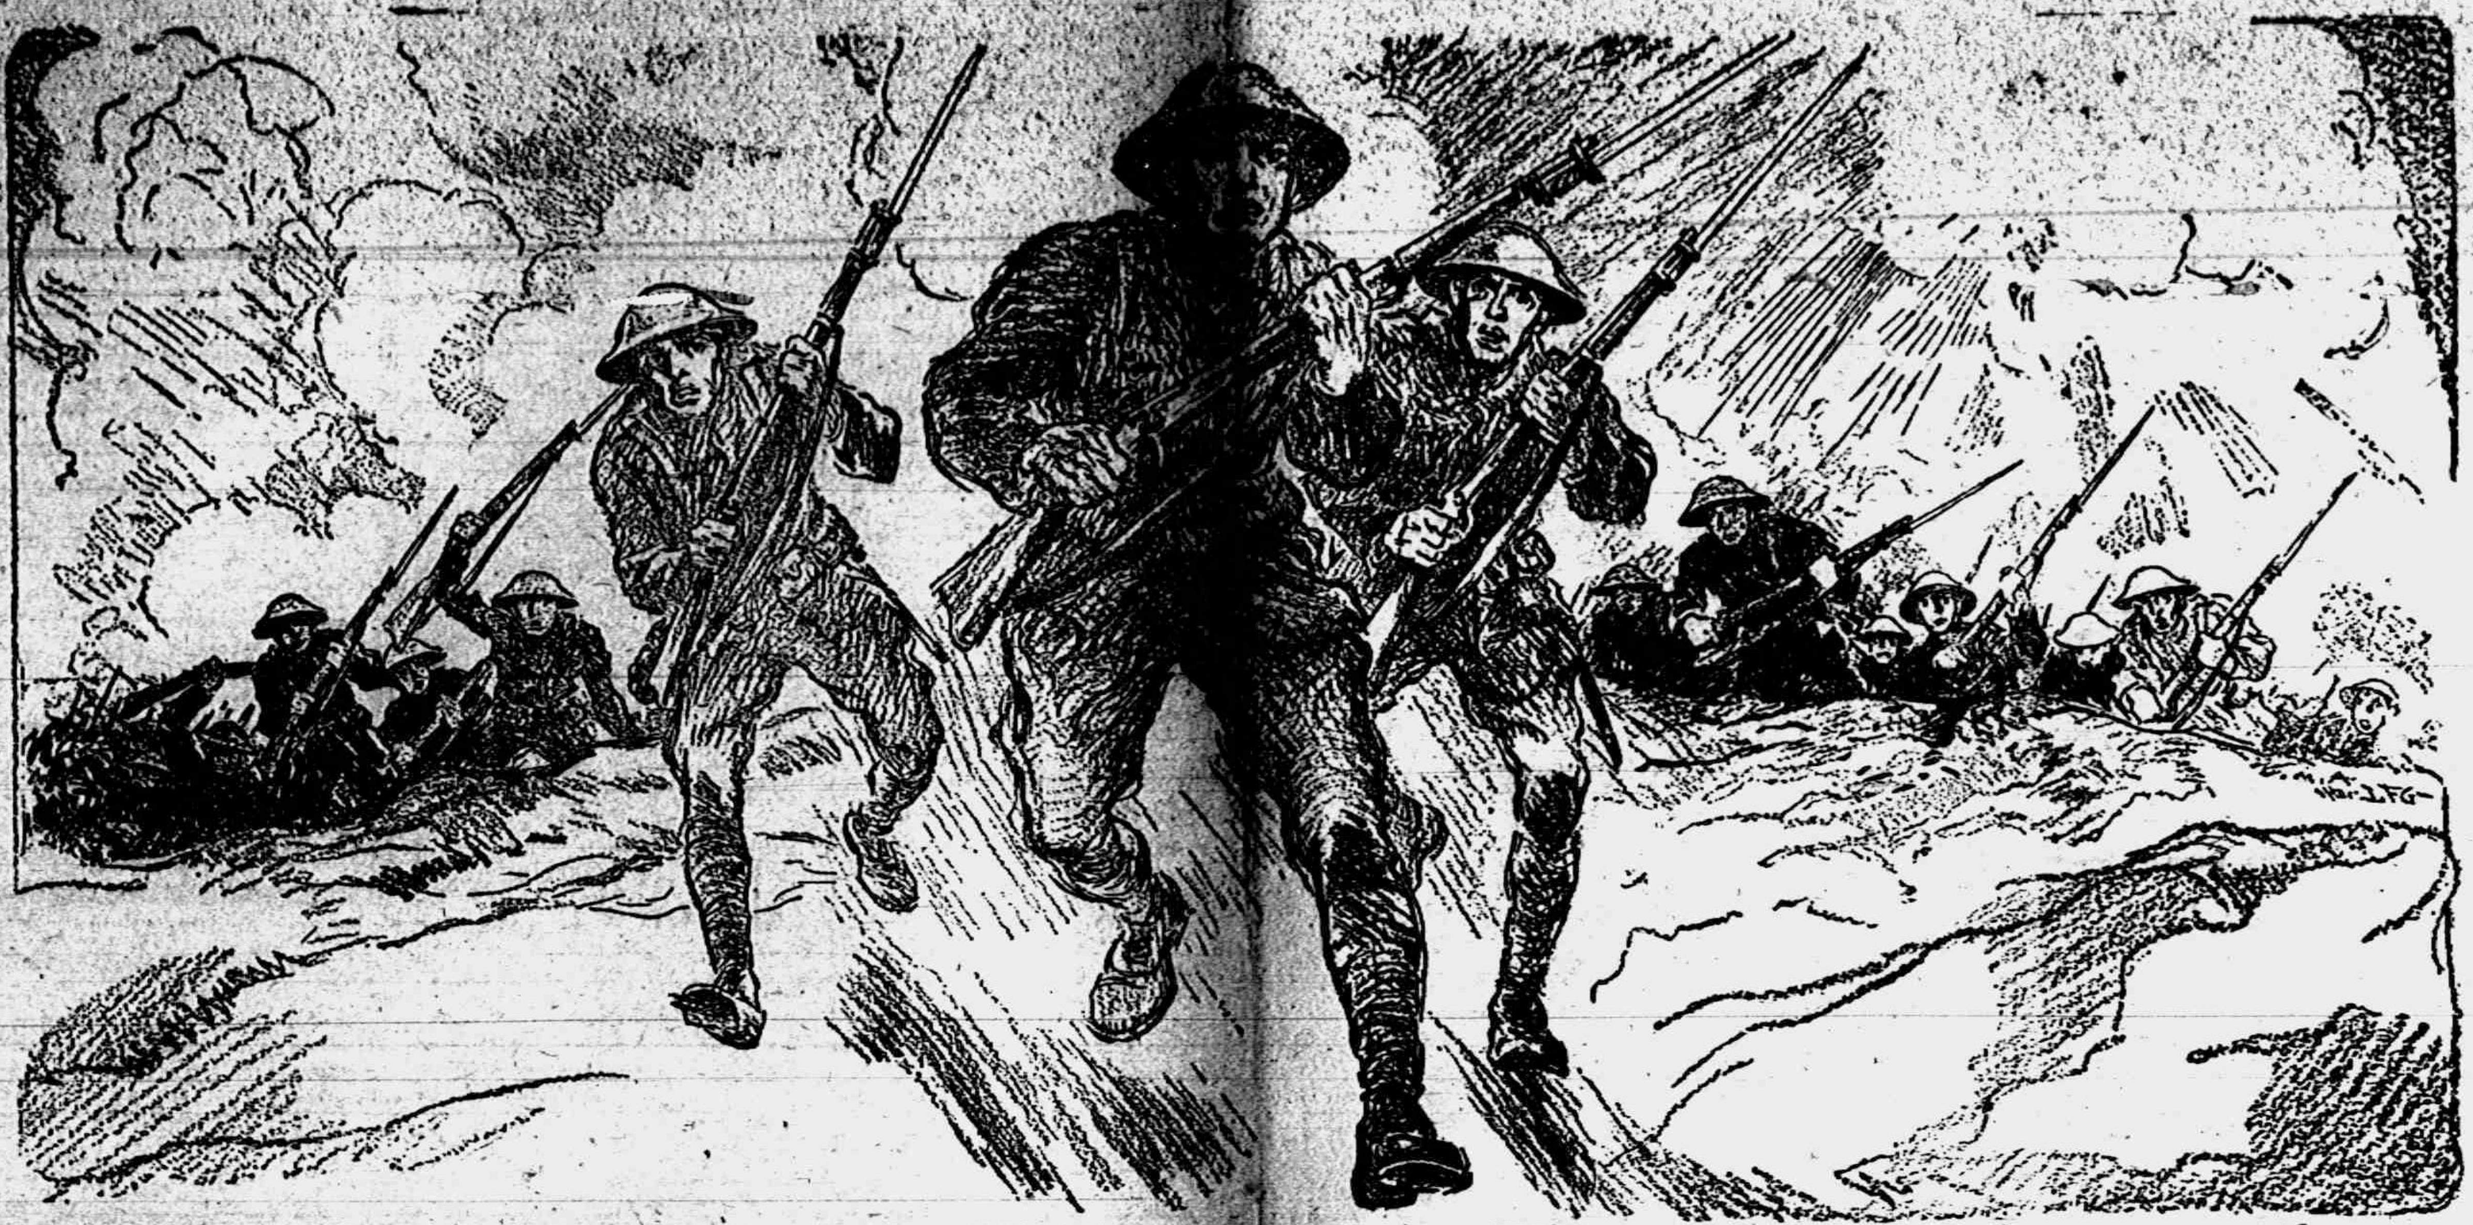
SIXTY-SEVENTH YEAR NO. 56 TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, APRIL 19, 1918 WHOLE NUMBER 4616



This War Must Be Fought On European Soil

If the peoples of the earth are not to become toiling millions for the Prussian Junkers and the Prussian Krupps, if they are not to be terror-ridden slaves at the mercy of a German Kaiser's will, Prussianism must be driven back within its own borders and kept there.

Not only English freedom, French freedom is at stake. Our own cherished institutions, our free government, all that our fathers fought for, all that free peoples prize, is threatened by an enemy that would impose his own hateful Kultur on every free institution in every liberty-loving land.

That is why the war must be fought on European soil. We are fighting in Europe now that we may not have to fight in America, on the very thresholds of our own homes, later.

We are fighting for the safety and liberty of our children, our homes, our country. No price is too great to pay for Victory.

Americans, you are called upon to back our armies in France, to furnish them the guns and shells and ships and airplanes, the enormous quantities of every sort of supplies that they must have to defeat the Prussian armies and drive them back across the Rhine.

But It Must Be Won Right Here at Home

TECUMSEH TOWNSHIP GETS HONOR FLAG

Will be Raised on Flag Pole To-Morrow Night

Township chairman, H. S. Temple, has just received a letter from Robert Darnton, County chairman, stating that Governor Sleeper has sent an Honor Flag in recognition of the fact that Tecumseh township has over-subscribed its quota of Liberty Bonds. We print below Mr. Darnton's letter:

Adrian, Michigan,
April 18, 1918.

Mr. H. S. Temple, Cashier,
Lilly State Bank,
My dear Mr. Temple:

I was indeed pleased to receive the following letter from his Excellency Governor Albert E. Sleeper in today's mail, and I know you will appreciate getting the information at once, so as to give it publicity through your local paper. His letter follows:

"In compliance with instructions received from F. R. Fenton, Federal Reserve Director for Michigan, I am forwarding under seperate cover an Honor Flag in recognition of the fact that Tecumseh Township has over-subscribed its quota of Liberty Bonds.

"In behalf of the State of Mishigan I congratulate Tecumseh Township upon its success, and suggest that you celebrate the occasion of your flag raising with fitting demonstration and ceremony.

"Extending to your community my personal and most cordial appreciation of its splendid effort, I am,

Very truly yours,
Albert E. Sleeper,
Governor."

It may be that the flag is going direct to you, but if not just as soon as it reaches me, will call you up and perhaps you may have some one in Adrian on that date who could get the flag and take it over to you. Allow me in connection with the Governor to also congratulate you upon your success in putting Tecumseh Township "over the top."

Very truly yours.
Robert Darnton,
Chairman Lenawee County
Liberty Loan Com.

H. S. Temple and G. E. Nemire went to Adrian this afternoon and will bring the flag back with them. At 7 o'clock tomorrow evening Tecumseh's honor flag will be raised on the flag pole. Fitting ceremonies celebrating "Good Old Tecumseh's" success in being the first township in Lenawee to go "Over the Top" will be given. Let everybody get out and help make the event a "Red Letter" date for Tecumseh Township.

TECUMSEH MAY GET BACK MORNING TRAIN

A rumor comes to us from good authority that the Jackson branch are soon to put on an extra train and if it goes through Tecumseh will get a morning train from the north (Jackson) at about 8:10. This would greatly relieve the difficulties which we have been experiencing since our 7 o'clock morning train was taken off and would enable our people to get their morning mail and express in good season for the days business, not taken into consideration the great convenience to the traveling public.

Trains south would arrive at Tecumseh at 8:10 a. m., 2:05 p. m. and 4:30 p. m.

Trains north at 8:50 a. m., 1:01 p. m. and 5:35 p. m.

RED CROSS BENEFIT

Sunday Evening, Baptist Church

The performance which the Monday club staged last Tuesday evening at the Baptist church will be repeated Sunday night at 7:30 for the benefit of the Red Cross. This step was taken at the request of many people who enjoyed the tableaux and music so much that they wished to see them again. The pictures were of Jewish heroines and patriotic scenes and should prove of popular interest.

It is hoped that when the offering is taken that everyone will bear in mind our boys across the sea and the noble Red Cross and will respond with no less than a silver coin. Our all is little enough beside a human life.

Ski in Land of Summer.

Californians are not denied the winter sports of tobogganing, ski-running, sleighing and skating, but in order to enjoy them they are obliged to ascend into the Sierra Nevadas, a mile above the coast and the central valleys. There, amidst the fragrant pine forests of the highlands, they enter into keen out-of-doors recreation with all the rest of people who see snow usually from a distance. The winter sports season at Truckee, near the summit of the Sierra, has become well established as an annual event.

GENTLEMEN'S EVENING IN THE MONDAY CLUB

A Delightful Program Given at the Baptist Church Tuesday Evening

Program Consisted of Tableaux and Music

It has been the custom of the Monday club in the past to devote one evening during each season to the gentlemen with something special in the way of entertainment. This past year the ladies have been studying the Jew so the program given Tuesday evening seemed a most fitting final of the years work and was most heartily enjoyed by all who were priveledged to be present.

The ladies had given much time and thought to the program and had worked hard to make it a big success and it surely was all that they had hoped for.

Across the front of the church a stage had been constructed in front of which were hung curtains. A good deal of care had been taken to secure staging effects which would harmonize with the various tableaux to be given. Clusters of palms and potted plants were arranged at either side of the stage and in front of the choir railing, and candles placed in candleabras furnished a softning light during the intervals when the lights were turned down.

The guests were shown to their seats by six lady ushers, Mrs. Stella Billings, Mrs. Charles Willmason, Mrs. Robert Stuckey, Mrs. Charles Deery, Mrs. Charles Burridge and Mrs. F. S. Turner. The program was devided into two parts the first showing tableaux taken from early Jewish life, while the last was of a patriotic nature.

Mrs. Fred Dickinson the president of the club announced the program and read a discription of each tableau before it was shown.

The following is the program given

THEDA BARA IN "CLEOPATRA"

"Cleopatra," the triumphant film achievement of William Fox, is a gorgeous spectacle of Shakespeare, history and fiction, and will be presented at the Bradley Opera House, next week, Thursday and Friday, April 25th. and 26th.

Rising even above the massive and typically artistic backgrounds stand Theda Bara, in the title role, and as Egypt's alluring Siren, queen and politician, easily scores the best and most convincing portrayal of her long and sensationally successful screen career. William Fox has turned out a wonderful picture of old Egypt, and the conquest of the Romans—heavy with the legends of antiquity and rich with the glory and splendors of unbridled revelty. The point that catches the eye of the enthralled spectator is the stupendous settings and lavishness of the production in its entirety. The city of Alexandria, capital of Egypt, the Roman Forum, the pyramids and the Sphinx, the ancient boats robed in royalty. Historically it shows Julius Caesar, the ambitious, Brutus the tyrant, the tragic death of Ceasar, Marc Antony's address to the citizens, the spectacular battle of Actium, the curse of Men-Kaura upon Cleopatra, resulting in her death.

Equally balancing all the features of the production are the sensational costumes worn by Theda Bara, who moves through her scenes, sylph-like, with the artistry of an emotional actress of the most compelling power. Cleopatra was history's greatest vampire, and Theda Bara, as the screen's most famous siren, offers a characterization that, it is said, stands beyond comparison. Directed by J. Gordon Edwards, the numerous spectacular scenes show magnificent stage effects. The desert scenes, the chariot race over the sands, the land and sea battles, are said to be so skillfully staged as to hold audiences thrilled and spellbound. Supporting Miss Bara are: Thurston Hall as Marc Antony; Fritz Leibler as Caesar; Albert Roscoe as Pharon; Herschal Mayall as Ventidus, and many other talented principals, besides hosts numbering thirty thousand used in the big scenes. "Cleopatra" is said to be a gripping, impressive spectacle, with Theda Bara at her best.

WYMAN WELLS ORDERED TO SELL HIS WHEAT

The Law Must be obeyed. Thousands of Bushels of Wheat the Accumulation of Years to be sold no later than April 22.

Wyman Wells living near Tipton who has been hoarding his wheat for several years has been notified by the State Director that he must sell his large quantity of wheat at a date not later than Monday April 22, if he does not obey the order, the State Administration will order the whole amount confiscated. It is reported that much of the wheat is damaged by the long storage and will be a loss to him whatever he may do.

It is also reported that millers in this sections have repeatedly offered to buy this wheat at a good price, but Mr. Wells has refused to sell. It looks as if this wheat would be placed on the market soon and it may not be healthy for Mr. Wells to refuse to sell.

BURST WATER PIPES CAUSED A GOOD DEAL OF INCONVENIENCE TO BUSINESS SECTION

Tuesday it was discovered that the water main at the four corners of town had burst and water was coming to the top in a flood. As soon as possible the water was shut off and workmen were set to digging up the pipes.

It was found that the frost had got in its work, at depth of about 5 feet and had frozen the water in the pipe causing the pipe to burst with the thaw. Thursday a new section was put in and by night the water was turned on again.

"You never miss the water till the well runs dry" was the idea forced home to people up and down the street Thursday and never before had there been so many thirsty people in town.

THE SOCKS WERE APPRECIATED

In response to a card slipped into a pair of socks knit by Miss Mary Whitelock the following letter was received by Miss Whitelock this week.

U. S. Signal Corps, Aviation Section
830th Squadron Selfridge Field,
Mt. Clemens, Michigan.
April 10, 1918

Dear Miss? Whitelock:

No doubt you will be surprised when you receive this note, but the socks that you made fit me so nicely, and have been so nice and warm these cold days that I just had to write and thank you for them.

Your card that was in them was dated the eighteenth of February and I just received them a few days ago. As we are starting to fly here this week and as it is very cold here I know that I will more than appreciate the socks.

It was very good of you to become interested in this kind of work and I assure you, although your efforts may seemingly not be appreciated they are more so than you may realize at least by me, nevertheless there are quite a few people who do not realize how much they could help and how much their work would be appreciated.

I must close now as it is time to go back to school and thanking you again for the comfort you have afforded me and wishing you the best of luck and success, I am

Yours Respectfully,
Richard Loring Gintling.

A final school of instruction will be held Saturday at 2:30 p. m. in the Methodist church. The attendance at the Thursday evening meeting was large and the interest keen. HIGH SCHOOL LYCEUM COURSE

Thursday afternoon negotiations were made by the Junior class (class 1919) for the Redpath Lyceum course for next winter. This action was heartily approved by both banks and the faculty.

It is an excellent course and will be presented in the new school auditorium.

Although this Lyceum course is a superior one to any others that have visited Tecumseh, the price will be the same; One Dollar for the Season. All we can say now is to "Watch and Wait."

LATEST WORD FROM DR H. H. HAMMELL

Letter has been received from Mrs. H. H. Hammell and says the Doctor is in a General hospital near the sea. The Trench fever is better but many other complications set in, as soon as there is a vacancy he is to be transferred to the Officers Convalescent hospital on the west coast for a two months rest. Then if he is not better he will more than likely return to the U. S. Army and have duty in the States.

He said he was in two of the biggest battles of the spring drive and he only wishes he could tell us more about them.

GLADYS MURPHY

In our last issue we mentioned the serious illness of Miss Gladys Murphy and today we have to announce her death Her illness developed into tubercular trouble which made rapid progress and ended her young life Wednesday morning She was of a cheerful happy nature and endeared herself to all she met Her many friends are grieved to hear of her death

IT IS ALMOST GARDEN TIME

A few days ago there was a touch of Spring in the air—how about the garden? This year, more than ever, it must be a war garden. The crops from the big farms must go to feed the boys "over there"—the home garden, must do its bit in a big way. It must be planted efficiently, economically, and expertly. It must be planted with a certainty as to results.

Pakro Seedtape will help you to have a better, a more efficient garden. It is the scientific way of planting. The seeds are evenly and accurately spaced in a thin paper tape. And a whole row is planted at a time, resulting in straight rows of evenly spaced plants. Thinning out is practically eliminated.

Pakro loose seeds are the same Quality Seeds that are in the tape. These seeds are thoroughly tested and selected from the very best stock. A Pakro Garden, either Pakro Seedtape or Pakro Loose Seeds, is a successful garden. Your dealer has over 118 varieties of Pakro Seedtape and Seeds. Order your seeds to-day.

This Home Garden Book is written by Mr. E. L. D. Seymour, associate editor of the "Garden Magazine" and "Country Life in America." It is bound in board, 48 pages, and profusely illustrated in color. It is a text-book of the garden. It tells in simple terms how to plan your garden and how and when to plant.—Write to-day to the American Seedtape Company, 368 Ogden Street, Newark, New Jersey for a copy of this book. Are You Going To Buy A Spreader this Year?

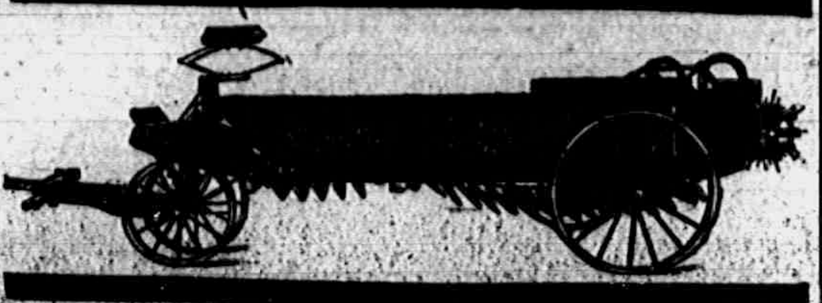
Look At The
LITCHFIELD



Why Has it Got Other Spreaders Beat a Mile? We'll Tell You.

Because it has the BULL-DOG BEATER WHEEL which has two lengths of teeth so arranged on the wheel that they intermingle over the entire surface. The long teeth work 1½ inches deeper in the load than the short teeth which follow. These long teeth are the "advance guard" and the short teeth follow and take care of WHAT IS LEFT, so the whole wheel works freely and easily. This is the same principle as the ordinary cross-cut saw with short and long teeth.

WHAT CLOGS A BEATER WHEEL is the material that stays in the load; not what the wheel throws out. It is the material that clogs against the bars and stays in that MAKES THE HEAVY DRAFT. The power required to move the beater wheel if it can move freely is not very great. It is the friction of the beater wheel against the material that DOES NOT GO OUT that makes your spreader a "horse-killer."

With the BULL DOG BEATER WHEEL with its two rows of teeth the rear ones carry off what the forward ones miss and there is no congestion. That is why it is so light of draft.

The No-Choke Body

A Beater Wheel runs at a high speed in order to do its work. If it can run against LOOSE AND FREELY HELD MATERIAL its work will be easy. If it has to work against a densely packed wall of manure, its work will be doubled.

Just back of the Beater Wheel, the box of Litchfield Spreader widens suddenly. This gives the manure a chance to SPREAD AND EXPAND itself as it is brought forward to the conveyor. The Beater Wheel can work easily and the draft and the wear and tear on the spreader are greatly lessened.

Simple To Operate

ONLY TWO GEARS on the entire Spreader, and ONLY ONE LEVER. One motion of this lever completely operates Spreader.

These are only a few of the reasons why we are proud to offer you the Litchfield Spreader. Come in and see one and let us show you its good points. "Seeing is believing."

And remember this Spreader is offered with a

Our Tea Trade

Gets bigger and bigger.
Why does it grow?
Because the Teas that we handle are quite a bit better for the money than most stores handle.
Why are they better?
Because we devote more than ordinary care to choosing them.
Because we insist upon each lot we buy being the very best obtainable.
Because we are able to sell at 60c a Tea that equals the 80c grades of many stores.
Because all the way up and down our Tea line we offer superior qualities.
If these reasons look good to PROFIT BY THEM.

LIFE PRIMITIVE AND RUGGED

Scenes on Bosom of Russia's Mighty River Cannot Be Duplicated Anywhere on Earth.

The days on the Volga are as alike as the white towns strung on the Volga chain, and all laden with a sense of life, sluggish and primal and potential. The scent of pines, of new-mown hay, of drying nets, and the fragrance of lilies; brawny red-shirted sailors shouting and splashing each other with water as they scrub the decks; the whistling of grain steamers; the sound of hammers from barges building along the shore; anchor chains rattling as we drop into the wharf where fishermen are unloading their shining catch. It is a robust river life, not familiar, but transposed into strange keys and staged largely.

The rafts seemed the most essentially Russian part of the Volga. We had seen them before. Gargantuan yellow logs, as delicious looking as taffy, dragged from a forest in Tver and bound together with saplings, each raft bearing a tiny hut for the families who make the journey with the rafts to the sea. Now we met them on the river, peopled with rollicking figures, who balanced themselves with long poles and laughed and shouted unintelligible cries to us as the surge of the steamer threatened their foothold.

The trackers, borllaki, we never say; debased men of herculean strength, muscles knotting in their hairy throats, thews straining like horses against the dead weight of the barges as Riepin had painted them. They have passed with the sails. But the other figures—on the rafts, in the fishing boats—are their brothers. And never have I felt life emerging so freshly from the black mold.—Olive Gilbreath in the Yale Review.

HAD THOUGHT FOR OTHERS

Second Traveler Decidedly More Considerate of His Fellows Than Was the First.

At the information booth in a large railroad terminal a traveler asked for a time-table, which he looked through until he came to the particular table he wanted. This table he cut out with his pocketknife, and then he put the booklet with this table now gone out of it back on the counter.

It seemed a thoughtless thing to do because, lying there as it did with its outer cover smooth, somebody might have picked it up and carried it off thinking, naturally enough, that it was complete, to discover its real condition only when it was too late.

But this misfortune really befell no one, for a moment later another traveler standing near, who had seen all this done and who was perhaps more thoughtful than the first, picked up the torn time-table and carried it off to drop it in the nearest waste paper receptacle.

Don't Have a Double Chin.

An investigator declares that the double chin can be controlled and very largely mitigated. It depends largely upon the carriage and pose of the head. The person who has a repeated chin, or is threatened with one, should recall and practice Dr. Edward Everett Hale's famous advice: "Look up, not down." The person who sits, or stands, or walks, with an erect body and keeps the chin up-tilted, can defy the crease and the fatty ridges.
